SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON. Without a doubt the attraction at the opera house Friday evening will prove the social event of the season among ameture performances. The entire program has been arranged carefully and in every case originality has been made the predominating feature. The entire entertainment will be clean and attractive throughout. Those who are to participate in the program of the evening are all well known favorites in the city and need no superfluous words of praise. Nothing that has appeared at the opera house this season will compare with the originality that will be displayed in this performance, a feature that is most local performances is badly overlooked. The singing by the famous quartette alone will be well worth the price of admission that will be charged. "Jimmle" Ross will be at his best as will also the famous "Billy" Dugan who will appear in his latest specialities.
