DEATH OF WINDOM.

He Dies Suddenly at a Banquet, Hav. ing Just Finished a Speech

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.-Secretary Windom died last night (Thursday) at a banquet in New York, after having responded to the first toast of the evening. Having finished his address, be resumed his seat, and swooned, and died almost immediately. He finished his speech, (which was read from manuscript), a few minutes before 10 o'clock, but toward the close had manifested signs of distress. On resuming his chair the secretary gave a sharp, short moan of angu sh, and fell back. short mean of anguish, and ten ones. the governor with one commissioner stiffened, his eyelids opened and at large.
