WILL TEST THE MCKINLEY BILL. BOSTON, Jan. 31.—The Commercial Bulletin says a syndicate of importers has been formed under the leadership of Jordan, Marsh & Co. to test the equality of the McKinley bill. They will act in concert with Chicago importers and upon the same line.

WASHINGTON.

IN MEMORIAM. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—By direction of the postmaster general all postmasters will close their offices where practicable on Monday next, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., during the funeral services of the late Secy. Windom.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The following notice was sent to the treasury officials to-day: "Notice is hereby given that the funeral of Hon. Wm. Windom, late secretary of the treasury, will take place on the afternoon of Monday, Feb. 2, 1891, in the city of Washington. All build- ings and offices under your control will be closed throughout that day, so far as is consistent with the transac- tion of necessary public business. On all public buildings throughout the United States and on all vessels and steamers under the control of this department, the national flag will be displayed at half mast.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Among the bills reported from the committee and placed on the calendar, was one for the exploration and survey of the interior of Alaska. Sherman introduced a bill appropriating $25,000 for a monument to Chief Justice Chase, in Washington City. Keffered. A joint resolution for the appointment of Wm. Preston Johnson, of Louisiana, on the board of regents of the Smithsonian Institute, in place of Noah Porter of Connecticut, resigned, was taken from the calendar and passed. Senator Dalg reported favorably from the naval committee an amendment proposed to the naval appropriation bill, providing $50,000 to enable the president to cause soundings to be made between San Francisco and Honolulu, to determine the practicability of laying a cable between those points. He also reported favorably from the same committee his proposed amend- ment of an appropriation of $500,000 for the establishment of a coaling and repair station on Pearl River, Hawaiian Islands, for the use of naval vessels.

FOREIGN.

PORTUGUESE REVOLT. Oporto, Jan. 31.—Three regiments of infantry, comprising a portion of the garrison, openly revolted to-day; the remainder of the garrison, including the municipal guard, remains loyal. The alleged object of the mutineers is to establish a republic. The rebels and loyalists at last accounts were fighting in the street, and it is said many are killed on both sides. Citizens are barricading their houses and troops are being sent from various points to this city.

CRIMINAL.

HEAVY DIAMOND ROBBERY. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—The statement is published that the Diamond Palace of Col. A. A. Andrews was entered some nights ago and over sixty-five diamond neckties and about fifty diamond scarf pins, of the total value of $7,500 taken by burglars from the show case, without disturbing the watchman who was sleeping in the store. Detectives have kept the matter quiet but have not succeeded in obtaining a clue to the thieves.

MISCELLANY.

A FAIR REMOR. CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—A special from Fort Worth, Texas, says:—All day yesterday this city was in a fever of excitement over rumors from a little town lying near the reservation of the Kiowas, that one thousand bucks had gone on the war path and sacked and burned the town of Wellington, killing and scalping 30 people. Word has since been received that the whole affair was a conspiracy on the part of the town and more the county seat to the center of the county. Governor Hogg has ordered an investigation.

GATHERING TO THE SPILLS. UTICHA, Iowa, Jan. 31.—Jeff Davis, a natural son of the late mil- lionaire, A. J. Davis, of Battle City, and 25 witnesses, left for Montana to look after his interests in the railroad fares of the party were $1,500.

STATE NOTES.

Reporter: Several Yamhill farm- ers are talking of adopting the silage system in connection with their dairies. It is reported that Roof & Martin, east of town, W. C. Hen- bree and John Shelton will build silos the coming season. All that is necessary to make the system popu- lar is a few enterprising pioneers to start it.

Ben'ed Leaver: A Farmers' Alliance was organized in Linn county at Rock Hill last week. The follow- ing officers were elected: President, J. H. Wilson; vice-president, H. Powell; secretary, C. D. Steen, treas- urer, A. T. Blackburn; doorkeeper, M. T. Burroughs.

Times Mountaineer: And now come trappers and say that beaver are making no preparations for severe weather, and therefore we shall have no winter.

Baker City Blade: The appropri- ations made by the county court at its January term just closed, aggre- gate between $11,000 and $12,000, a large proportion of which sum went to the account of roads and bridges and to circuit court expenses.

Blade: During the week the offi- cers of the Sumpter Valley railroad held a directors' meeting in Baker City, and provided for track laying operations to begin as soon as the weather will permit.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

Seattle Telegraph: The legisla- ture has done well to adopt a memo- rial in favor of the election of sen- ators by the people. Under such a system we would get better repre- sentatives in the upper house of congress, and millionaires and rail- road agents would not be so nume- rous there.

Simon Brantner, a German farm- er, living near Rockford, Wash., was accidentally killed on Thursday while hauling logs. One rolled from the wagon, crushing him to death.

Jas. R. Boyce & Co., of Butte, the oldest and largest dry-goods house in the West, has assigned. Assets, $125,000; liabilities, $100,000. The assignment was forced by an attachment for $80,000 by the First National bank.

McMinnville Reporter: Addie Draley, who left this salubrious clime in the fall, thinking to find something as lovely in the beautiful valleys of California, returned hither on Saturday last. We understand that he is fully reconverted and ex- pects to spend the balance of his life's days in old Yamhill.

Silverton Appeal: A straw stack fell on two of Coolidge & McClain's cows, Sunday, killing them both. It might be well for all farmers hav- ing straw stacks to look a ter them at this time of the year, as stock work under the stacks, taking away the foundation and causing them to fall, often with serious results.

Albany Herald: "The Baker City Reveille says for the past five years there have been on an average 100 final proofs made on pre-emption in that county. This means about $20,000 going out of the county each year to pay for government land, says the Ochoce Review. Nothing to cry over. Use the land rightly and it will bring back from the county many times that amount."

MONMOUTH NOTES.

The recently elected city officers entered upon the duties of their re- spective offices last week.

Hon. Robt. Clow, a member of the railroad commission, visited the Normal last Wednesday.

Mr. Cameron, of Corvallis, and Mr. A. S. Powell, of Albany, were visiting the Normal last Thursday. The members of the senior class are busy preparing for the final ex- amination. There are thirty-two members in the class.

The school was favored by a visit of a joint committee from the senate and the house of representatives. The members of the committee were well pleased with the school.

Supt. Reynolds visited the Normal recently. Supt. Reynolds is doing very good work in advanc- ing the public school system throughout the county. The pub- lic schools of Polk county are all well supplied with apparatus.

The Monmouth and Independence motor line company has increased its capital stock to $100,000, and will build the road west to Falls City. It is the intention of the company to extend the road to Salem in the near future.

The First Step. Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning, you are taking the first step into Nervous Prostration. The Indian War Veterans of the North Pacific Coast.

Mr. Hathaway, grand adjutant of I. W. V. of N. P. C., has furnished the following from the records of the largely attended annual meeting of the Indian fighters of a past genera- tion:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 10, '90. On Tuesday, June 17, 1890, in the Grand Encampment, comrade A. E. Wait of the Grand Encampment, presented and read the report of the committee on collecting and preserv- ing the records of the Indian war veterans as follows, to wit:

Grand commander and grand en- campment of the Indian war veter- ans of the North Pacific coast: The committee to which was refer- red the matter of collecting and preserv- ing the names and organiza- tion of the Indian war veterans of Oregon and Washington respect- fully report as follows:

The noble men and women who staked their all and blazed and opened the way to Oregon and Wash- ington, and made possible the plant- ing, budding and blossoming of this young and justly proud state, should be held in kind and perpetual remembrance. And the veterans of the Indian war in what is now Oregon and Washington, who, themselves pioneers, voluntarily placed themselves behind their rifles to preserve the lives, safety, happi- ness, homes and property of friends and loved ones at home, against murdering, burning and plundering savages; and who opened wide the door for the certain and safe settle- ment and habitation of this great and unequalled northwest also de- serve the esteem and kind remem- brance of our good people, past, present and future.

Therefore, your committee recom- mend that the honorable legislators of Oregon and Washington be respectfully requested to devise and execute some plan by which the names of the regiments, companies, officers, privates and others, engaged in the Indian wars of the northwest coast may be recorded and preserved as interesting and important inci- dents of our early and eventful his- tory.

Respectfully submitted, G. W. L. ROWLAND, T. B. WAIT, A. E. WAITE, Com.

Which report was unanimously adopted, and comrades Col. John Kelsay, Elwood Evans and Hon. T. C. Shaw were appointed a committee to present the subject to the legisla- ture at the next session.

A bill has been prepared and pre- sented by Mr. Minto, of Marion and is entitled "an Act to Provide for the Registration by the Secretary of State, in a record to be kept by him in his office, of all the names of the Indian War Veterans of the North Pacific Coast and Attaches thereof."

THE TEXT OF THE BILL.

SEC. 1. That the secretary of state of the state of Oregon shall record in a book or books, to be kept by him in his said office, the names of all the Indian war veterans of the North Pacific Coast and attaches thereof, from A. D. 1847 to A. D. 1857, and also the company and regiment the veter- ans served in and the date of the service.

SEC. 2. The certificate of the grand commander of the Indian war veterans of the North Pacific coast certifying to the service of the veter- ans and attaches aforesaid, shall be sufficient evidence of the said services when presented to the secretary of state, and he shall thereupon record the names as pro- vided in section 1 of this Act; said certificate shall state the company and regiment said soldier and attaché belonged to, and the year in which such service was rendered.

SEC. 3. Whenever any person who shall have registered with the secretary of state under this act, shall desire a certificate of such fact of registration, or whenever it may be necessary or proper under any law of this state or United States, or other- wise, to prove such fact of regis- tration, or the fact of being such soldier or attaché, upon payment to such secretary of state the sum of 50 cents, he shall issue to such person, under the seal of his office, a certifi- cate of such registration, stating the rank, company and regiment or de- partment to which such attaché belonged, and the year in which such service was rendered, which certificate shall be sufficient evidence of the fact therein recited for all purposes required by law.

SEC. 4. That the Grand com- mander of the Indian war veter- ans of the North Pacific coast, shall be allowed out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appro- priated, the sum of three dollars per day for all time necessarily employed in performing the duties devolv- ing upon him, as set forth in section 2 of this act, and all other necessary expenses incurred in collecting infor- mation from which to draft certifi- cates of the service of soldiers and attaches of any of the Indian wars of the north Pacific coast, from the year A. D. 1847 to the year A. D. 1857 inclusive, together with necessary stationery, envelopes, stamps, etc.

Such purgative remedies as fast giving way to the gastric action and sick effects of Carter's Little Liver Pills. If you try them, they will certainly give relief. If you had taken one of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring you would not have had that awful sensation of head pain and sick headache. Keep a trial with you for occasional use. All disorders caused by a biliousness of the system can be cured by using Carter's Little Liver Pills. No pain, no griping or discomfort attending their use. Try them.

Love's Young Dream.

London cable dispatch: It is said Queen Victoria has set the seal of her displeasure on Hon. Aubrey Fitzclarence, her majesty's third cousin, who received £80 a year as one of the gentlemen ushers of the court. The young man is a great grand- son of King William IV. and on account of his relationship he has been allowed a good many privi- leges. It is said he has gone so far as to make love to Princess Maud, of Wales, not altogether to the dis- satisfaction of the young lady but much to the annoyance of the queen and prince, who are said to have another arrangement in view. Maud has been relegated to her les- sons, and Aubrey, it is said, has been told that if he wants his £80 to continue he must remember the distinction between the legitimate and illegitimate royal pedigree. The stipend is quite important to young Fitzclarence who would otherwise have to do something useful for a living.

There is Catarrh in all sections of the country, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pro- nounced it a local disease, and pre- scribed local remedies, but constantly failed to cure with local treat- ment. This has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and there- fore requires constitutional treat- ment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manu- factured by F. J. Cheney & Co., To- ledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken inter- nally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
