WOODBURN LODGE, O. O. F. The Woodburn Lodge, No. 102, I. O. O. F. was installed Thursday night by Geo. H. Burnett, Grand Master, assisted by W. C. Tweedale, P. G. M., T. O. Bork, P. G. R., and visiting brothers from the following lodges: Shumockta, No. 1, Salem; Olive, No. 18, Salem; Oregon, No. 3, Oregon City; Albany, No. 4, Albany; Silver, No. 21, Silverton; Occidental, No. 30, McMinnville; Fidelity, No. 36, Turner; Union, No. 39, Union; Hubbard, No. 75, Hubbard; and Newport, No. 89, Newport.

The following officers were installed: Chas. Mosher, No. 30, McMinnville; Secretary, A. J. Cooley, treasurer. Eight charter members were taken in, nine were initiated and one dismembered certificate, making 18 members in the lodge to start with.

There was one of the largest collections of Odd Fellows ever assembled to this state at the installation, of a lodge in Woodburn on this occasion. The ten lodges included a large strip of Oregon. Nearly a score of members went down from this city and there were many present from Silverton; Hubbard was strongly represented. The Woodburn people showed a great spirit of hospitality to the visiting brothers. A fine luncheon was set at six o'clock in the evening and then at two o'clock at night a dinner was served and then at 5 o'clock in the morning another luncheon equal to the first was discussed. Some of the visitors say there was enough eatables set before them to last all winter. The entire night was consumed in the establishment of the lodge. The ceremony were impressive and well conducted, and Woodburn Lodge was given a full fellowship into the ancient fraternity.

IN A GOOD CAUSE. The telling effect of a good work is immediately seen in the result of the prizes given to the pupils of the public school by Hon. T. McF. Patton, of this city. The prizes were awarded to Ethel Fletcher, of the North school, for the best set of papers in the grammar department, and to Ethel Van Eaton, of the High school, for the best set of papers in the primary department.

The examining committee consisted of the Miss Capwell, superintendent of the blind school, and Miss Craig, art teacher in the Willamette university. Miss Capwell, who was for years a member of an examining board, said she never found papers with a neater appearance and better arranged than were some of those of the pupils of the Salem schools.

The two receiving the prizes had an average of over 90 per cent. The committee selected the best complete set of papers in each class of every grade, as worthy of honorable mention, and the result was follows: 8th grade, A class, Alfred Shryock; 8th grade, B class, Emile Henry; 8th grade, C class, 7th grade, H class, Helen Matthews; East school, 8th grade, A class, Ida Harris; East school, 9th grade, B class, Guy Miller; East school, 9th grade, C class, Wm. Evans; East school, 8th grade, 4th grade, A class, Oscar Blair; East school, 9th grade, 3d grade, Paul Buetner; East school, 9th grade, B class, Hattie Shriver; South school, 9th grade, A class, Ross Fishburn; South school, 9th grade, A class, Margaret Landie; East school, 9th grade, A class, Elva Barr; South school, 9th grade, C class, the superintendent of the schools, invited Mr. Patton up to the East school to present the prizes which he had so kindly given for the cause of education in creating a friendly rivalry among the pupils.

He put in half the day Tuesday in visiting the schools and feels well paid for his time. He was highly pleased with the mode of conducting large schools and that the children have acquired themselves well in the examinations.

GRAND BANQUET. The Willamette hotel was the scene of a happy gathering last night. The Salem Lawn Tennis club has been entertained once a week all winter by the body members, so the sentiment feeling it was their turn to entertain the club, gave a grand banquet at the Willamette last evening in which nearly forty of Salem's young people enjoyed themselves until a late hour. The early part of the evening was spent in dancing, and at ten o'clock dinner was announced. The next two hours were spent around the tables which were growing under the weight of their load of good things. Proprietor Wagner had left nothing undone to put before the young people some of the finest set tables ever seen in this city. The large dining room of the hotel was tastefully decorated as were the tables. At the close of the dinner toasts were given and a royal good time enjoyed by all. Misses Edith Lowndale and Aggie Earhart, of Portland, and Miss Edith Tongue, of Hillsboro, were guests of the party.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE. Monday evening, Feb. 21, a surprise was given Lena Hutton, it being her ninth birthday, at the residence of her parents, at the corner of High and Trade streets, to which over thirty little ones responded, to enjoy themselves in games and other amusements, the principal part being lunch, to which all did justice. Miss Lena received several very nice presents which were tokens of the esteem in which she was held by her friends. All retired wishing her many happy returns of the season. Those present were: Mand Hepburn, Daisy and Alma Wagner, Cora Hodgins, Frankie Chase, Ella Rineaman, Bertha Holman, Ethel Sellwood, Minnie Townsend, Cora Talkington, Ethel Berkholder, Lena Walt, George Whittier, Belle Cottle, Lena Hutton, Master Willie Sayre, Ralph and Jerry King, Jake Bernhardt, James Aitken, Marjorie Stutesman, Hugh Hepburn, Ira and Laurie Hamilton, Fred and Roy McIntire, Lewis Craven, Fred Stump, Fred Cottle, Clifton Sheldon, Robert McCari and Everette Andersen.

THE OPENING OF THE FAIR. On Monday evening at 7 o'clock the G. A. R. fair in the armory will be formally opened. A fine program will be rendered and some able addresses offered. While the armory is the largest hall in the city, the managers are sorry that is not larger in order to give better accommodations to the immense crowds that will be there every evening. The following program will be rendered on Monday evening:

PART FIRST. Music by Second Regiment band. Remarks by W. N. Ladue, Sen. Vice Com. G. A. R. Address by Gov. Penoyer, officially opening the fair.

PART SECOND. Music by band. Egyptian caravan. Tableau. Egyptian concert. Music. Tableau. Music by band.

RECEPTION. A pleasant reception was given by Miss R. F. Hall at her room at 318 Cottage street, on last Saturday night. The friends entertained were: Speaker Gove, of the house of representatives, his two daughters, Misses May and Theo, and niece, Miss Esther Jones, the representative Henry Rogers and wife, Deputy Warden of the Penitentiary, Berry and wife, Prof. M. V. Rork and wife, Mr. Nathan Moody, Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald, Mr. Henry Pierce, Mr. J. H. Skidmore and Mr. Homer Kruse. The refreshments smacked strongly of the country life of New England in "ye olden time," pop corn, cornballs and molasses candy.

SOCIETY INSTALLATION. The Philodossian society of the University installed the following officers at their meeting Friday afternoon, to serve for the ensuing term: Pres. Miss Matiel James; vice pres. Miss Eva Bruce; Sec. Miss Eva Foster; Treas. Miss Edith Frizell; censor, Miss Myrtle Marsh; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Olive Rounds; librarian, Miss Belle Aitken; custodian, Miss Rosa Moore. The Philodossians at their meeting last evening installed the following officers: Pres. G. A. Reihman; vice pres. C. B. Spaulding; Sec. F. E. Brown; assistant secretary, J. H. Spindler; Treas. O. N. Nelson; censor, J. E. Aitken; librarian, Frank Mathews; sergeant-at-arms, D. Johnston. The societies have been doing some good work this winter and are now making an effort to increase their library.

BLIND SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT. The pupils of the blind school gave an entertainment in the Christian church last Wednesday night. The entertainment was good considering it was given by those so unfortunate as to be deprived of the noble gift of sight. Those who heard the program were really surprised at some of the performances by the members of the "dark institution." The whole program reflected credit on the able management of that school. Miss Pearl Scott kindly assisted in making this first attempt from these pupils a success.

AT THE M. E. CHURCH. A reception was given at the M. E. church last evening to afford an opportunity for the members to get acquainted, and for the pastor to make the acquaintance of the members. Lunch was served and a general handshaking was indulged in and everyone felt at home whether members of that church or some other. No less or admission were exacted and all were free to talk laugh and have a general social time.

A COMMUNICANT. The 12th communicants who were so well received in the two concerts at the University chapel recently will appear at the chapel again tonight in a jubilee concert assisted by able talent. Any one who loves fun and music might be amply satisfied by attending the concert tonight.

The Problem Solved. ED. JOURNAL: As a means of compromising certain defenses that exist in regard to an extension of the city limits it is suggested that all parties living outside of the city limits, but doing business in the city an "occupation tax." This ordinance can be so worded as to affect only those who derive practically their entire revenue from their business in the city, so that they may be placed upon an equal footing with those who live in the city and pay taxes therein. This would not in any way affect the farming community but only those who seek to secure all the benefits of the city without paying any city taxes. It is likely that an ordinance of this kind will be introduced at the next meeting of the council. This plan is said to have worked well wherever it has been applied.

CITY TAXPAYER. The World Enriched. The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time, or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.
