AT THE FAIR.

A Favorable Beginning—The Armory Crowded to its utmost Capacity.

The congregation at the Armory last night to see the opening of the G. A. R. fair was very large. A good program was rendered last night, and another will be given to-night. After music by the Second Regiment band, Col. Wm. N. Ladue gave a very neat address and briefly stated the object of the fair, and the noble cause to which the proceeds coming would be devoted. Mayor D'Arcy next gave an address, declaring the fair formally opened, and in behalf of the city wished the fair the success that the efforts and the cause deserved.

The literary and musical part of the program were as well received as that of the addresses. In reviewing the numerous attractions of the fair yesterday the war scenes and remnants of the Johnstown flood were accidentally omitted. These scenes vividly recall to the minds of the comrades the sights of the battle field.

DEAF MUTE SCHOOL.—The committee of the house appointed to visit and report on the condition and requirements of the deaf mute school at Salem, declare the present site much too small in area for the economical and sanitary conduct of the school, and recommend the removal of the same to a suburban location. They recommend the purchase of a suitable site, not to exceed fifty acres and ask an appropriation by the present legislature of $5000 to pay for the land. The buildings they found in good order, cleanly and neatly kept, the health of the inmates has been excellent for the past two years. The buildings are frame and commodious enough for present needs, but additions will shortly be required, and the committee thinks it will be better and cheaper to start a new building. There are thirty-two pupils in the school, ranging from childhood to puberty, and with regard to their care, the report says: "We have not been able to find any just criticism as to the management of the school in any of its departments." The careful auditing and settlement of bills is especially commended. The sale of the present site and the transfer of the management to a state board, the committee urge as in the public interest. Bills are before both houses to provide for such an appropriation.

THE FAIR.—It is in the air, and it is no more than fair that you be there. Where? Why at Jas. Denham & Co's. special sale of shoes. Their prices are "from way down east," and get below anything on record.

FOR GENTLEMEN ONLY.—Don't fail to get your wives, daughters and best girls a supply of those superior kid gloves now being sold so low at Holverson's special sale. Only this week.

ALL WOOL.—And 2¼ yards wide—those beautiful downy blankets at the woolen mill store made from the best wool in the world, raised right here in Oregon.

REFRESHMENTS—will be served at the Russian booth in the G. A. R. fair every evening, including Russian tea, pompernickel, Russian carvis and other national delicacies.

FOR SCHOOL CLERK.—I hereby announce myself as a candidate for School Clerk for District No. 24.

NEXT DOOR TO THE G. A. R FAIR.—W. A. Benson, the State street fruiterer and confectioner, is supplied with the finest and most delicious stock in his line ever in Salem. If you want something choice don't pass him by. 2-9-3t

THE RUSH.—For those $3 and $5 groups of the legislators at Cutler Hn's is unabated. People beside the members are buying them as a mere work of art.

THE LEGISLATURE.

facturing all she now shipped in from other states, then it would reduce their earnings greatly. This was a bill to develop Oregon resources. Competition was granted other states but withheld from us. Fair rates were not obtainable for Oregon, because her great railroads were controlled in the interests of foreign cities. Their business interests were not with us. They were not interested in Oregon. Trains would run by for weeks and weeks and yet not stop to take a car from our factories. Men were discharged and factories were rendered idle, while these men ran their trains at will. He would be last to strike at the true interests of railroads; he would be first to strike for Oregon.

Rep Starr opposed reference. The committee had considered all the bills.

Rep Barnes said the committee had heard the railroad magnates and they opposed the state having anything to say about railroads. They wanted merely an advisory committee. So long as they felt this way he was in favor of such laws.

The question being shall the bill pass, ayes 49; noes 4. The bill passed.

No 44, to regulate the practice of medicine. Passed. Adjourned.

HOUSE—EVENING SESSION.

SALEM, Feb. 9th., 1891.

BILLS FOR PASSAGE.

No 103—By Coleman, to regulate the letting of contracts for the construction of county bridges. Bill passed.

No 97—By Miller, to increase the power and define the duties of the railroad commissioners.

Speaker Geer called Moore, of Benton, to the chair. After the bill had been read, Geer, of Marion, spoke in behalf of the bill. He called attention to the present condition of the commission as it is now governed as a helpless body with power to recommend but with no power to enforce. He alluded to the unequal schedule of rates now existing on many of the roads in the state.

McCraken, of Multnomah, spoke against the bill. The argument set forth by Mr McCraken was, if the commission should make unreasonably low rates the railroads would have no redress until some court could decide that such rates were pronounced unjust.

Mr. Armstrong, of Marion, favored the bill and spoke to that effect.

Miller, of Josephine, made a warm speech in favor of the bill. He said that in his opinion this was the most important measure before the present session of the legislature. He said the older states had found it practicable to have such laws on their statute books, and that they had found it an efficient method of protecting commerce.

Minto, of Marion, also spoke briefly in favor of the bill. Mr. Jennings, of Lane, favored doing away with the commission and his belief was that the people in general were of the same opinion, though he voted for the bill.

Mr. McCraken was the only member who voted against the bill.

No 218 of the fifteenth biennial session which was vetoed by the governor. This bill is for the protection of the fishing industry in Oregon, and to collect moneys from those engaged in the fishing industry to protect and to promote the same.

Reed, of Douglas, a man engaged in the fishing industry, spoke in favor of the bill, and said he believed the cannery men in general were in favor of it becoming a law. Minto, of Marion, spoke at length in behalf of the bill. Holmes, of Marion, thought the bill was unconstitutional and it would be so decided by the courts, and it was not becoming the Oregon legislature to pass such measures. He also said he thought the bill lacked in merit. Hall, of Multnomah, spoke on the constitutional point. A number of others spoke on the question. The bill passed yeas, 36; nays, 17.

No 22—By Welch, to regulate the sale of spirituous, malt and vinous liquors, which failed to pass last Friday, was reconsidered and passed.

No 94—By Armstrong, for the relief of Mrs A L Stinson. Motion to reconsider was lost.

Hon J Q Wilson was tendered the courtesies of the house and given a seat within the bar.

SENATE—AFTERNOON.

SALEM, Feb. 9.

NEW BILLS.

No 215—By Hirsch, to amend charter of Salem. Read 1st and 2d time. Ordered engrossed.

No 216—By Norval, to incorporate Clatskanie. Read 1st and 2d time. Ordered engrossed.

No 217—By Weatherford, relating to duties of county clerk and recorder. Read 1st and 2d time by title. Referred to Com on elections.

No 218—By Cross, providing for trustees to manage state penitentiary. Read 1st and 2d time by title. Com on elections.

No 219—By Fullerton, for right of way for canal in Douglas county. Read 1st and 2d time by title. Considered engrossed.

No 220—By Raley, relating to Sunday law. Read 1st and 2d time by title. Ordered engrossed.

THIRD READING.

No 164—By Norval, protecting Mongolian pheasants and other birds east of the Cascade mountains. Passed.

No 96—By Miller, relating to foreign surety companies. Passed.

No 102—By Tongue, punishing persons for refusing to aid officers in the discharge of their duties. Passed.

No 119—By Norval, appropriating money for wagon road in Baker county, $2500. The bill failed to pass.

No 174—By Fulton, referring to boundary line of Clatsop county. Passed.

No 176—By Carson, providing for the payment of money due to Samuel R Thurson and disbursement of same. Passed.

No 162—By Raley, authorizing state officers to construct a portage railway between Celilo and The Dalles. Passed.

No 151—By Mackay, granting consent of state to federal government to purchase land within the state.

No 123—By Fulton, providing for the sale of tide and swamp lands. Passed.

Adjourned.

HOUSE—FORENOON.

SALEM, Feb. 10.

After roll call, on motion of Rep Story, senate bill, No 90, to regulate salaries of county judges, was placed to 3rd reading. To Com on counties.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

By Moore from roads and highways on No 41, relating to election of road supervisors, with amendments, and that it do pass.

It was moved No 118, Portland charter, be recalled from state printer. A debate of half an hour followed on this proposition.

Rep Barnes protested against this unseemly waste of time on a quarrel between members of the Multnomah delegation.

The bill was ordered printed and made special order for Thursday at 2 p. m.

On No 278, state board of charities, speaker appointed Reps McCraken, Minto and Barnes, as special Com.

Rep Welch moved withdrawal of Nos 23, 65, 66 and 201. Carried.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

No 69—By Snider, providing for an additional circuit judge for the first judicial district. Yeas 43; nays 9. Passed.

No 14—By Barnes, to tax stock temporarily pastured or grazed Passed.

No 120—By Blundell, relating to the state board of education. Passed.

No 78—By Jennings, to amend sec 4141 of Hill's code relating to bridges on public roads. Withdrawn as similar bill has passed.

No 15—By Moore, of Benton, to provide for display of Oregon's resources at Chicago. For $50,000 and a commissioner from each county.

Rep Moore made an able speech on this bill. It was a conservative measure and was endorsed even by the mossback element.

Rep Dustin said bill had been amended since printing, and asked information.

Rep Moore explained changes.

Rep Baker said appropriation asked for was not enough and he would oppose. It would not make a creditable display.

Rep Armstrong moved recommitting bill to Com on ways and means with instructions to report $100,000.

Rep Minto was willing to pay double his share of this tax, but farmers were opposed to more than a $50,000 appropriation. Men younger than he would see railroads driven all over this valley by electricity drawn from our boundless waterpowers. This state could not do too much to hasten progress.

Reps Jennings and Barrett opposed reference.

Rep Merritt also opposed. He recited the large appropriations and cited the tendency to bankrupt the treasury. He favored development of the internal resources of Oregon. He favored good highways, good public buildings and open rivers to the sea. That would do more to bring contentment to settlers and immigrants and prosperity to Oregon.

Rep Moore made an effective speech in closing the debate and a vote was taken.

Ayes, 38; noes, 16. So the bill passed. Quite a number voted no, explaining their vote that the amount was not enough.

No 142—By Holmes, to amend law to promote drainage. Passed. Allows drainage district right of subterranean passage across other land, upon payment.

No 110—By Moore, of Benton, to increase the efficiency of special schools for defective children. Authorizes county court to pay transportation and buy clothes for an indigent blind or deaf mute and order same to state institution. Passed.

SENATE—FORENOON.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 10.

Roll call; reading journal dispensed with.

NEW BILLS.

No 221—By Eakin, amending charter of Junction City. Read 1st and 2nd time, ordered engrossed for 3rd reading.

Petition from Portland asking for enactment of laws taxing church property and the repeal of Sunday law read. Motion to refer same to Multnomah delegation, lost. Petition laid on the table

Senate concurred in memorial in relation to the re-garrisoning of Fort Klamath.

THIRD READING.

No 201, by Hilton, referring to boundaries of Gilliam county. Passed.

No 172, by Cogswell, providing for right of way for railways through state lands by paying $1 per acre therefor. Cogswell made a short explanation of the objects of the bill. It passed with but one dissenting vote.

No 119, by Norval, relating to a public highway was reconsidered and passed.

No 43—By Miller, for the protection of birds in Oregon. Passed.

No 88—By Cogswell, relating to right of way for flumes, shutes and logging roads. Passed.

The president signed house bills 13, 37 and 71.

Senate accepted invitation to visit California on wheels.

No 134—By Hilton, uniting Eastern, Western and Southern Oregon district agricultural societies. Passed.

No 87—By Willis, regarding the incorporation of churches and other societies. Before the president could announce the result a number of senators changed their vote from aye to no and the bill was lost.

No 144—By Matlock, relating to sheriffs' fees. Passed.

No 155—By Veatch, relating to attorneys. Passed.

Adjourned.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

Oregon Will Have two Congressmen—The Valley Separated From Portland.

At the next general election in this state the people will be entitled to two congressmen. There is a bill now before the legislature for the establishment of two congressional districts. There is no doubt that the bill will pass as submitted by the joint committee.

The first district comprises the following sixteen counties: Benton, Clackamas, Coos, Curry, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Linn, Marion, Polk, Tillamook, Washington and Yamhill. The population of this district according to the recent census is, 154,636 There were 35,378 votes cast in 1890, of which 19,575 were republicans and 15,805 were democrats. This gives the first congressional district a republican majority of 3,768.

The second district is composed of the following fifteen counties: Baker, Clatsop, Columbia, Crook, Gilliam, Grant, Harney, Malheur, Morrow, Multnomah, Sherman, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa and Wasco. The population of this district taking the last federal census is 157,394. At the last June election there were 35,061 votes cast, of which 20,603 were republican and 14,458 were democrats. This gives the second district a republican majority of 6,145.

THE COMING OPERA.—The reserved seat sale for the Boston Opera Co., which plays here on the 18th and 19th will be opened on Friday morning and those on the list please take notice. The guarantee list closes to-morrow night. Remember those on the list get first choice of seats. List to be seen at Patton's. This company is now filling a two weeks' engagement in Portland, where they are playing to crowded houses every night. It is a star troupe and will give one of the best plays ever witnessed in Salem Nearly 200 seats have already been sold. Such companies should be liberally patronized so as to encourage first class companies to come to Salem.

CALIFORNIA ON WHEELS.—The California exhibit car which has been on the road for 14 months in the Eastern states, arrived in Salem last evening. The exhibit comprises three pullman cars, two containing products and one for the home of the attendants of the display. It is a fine exhibit, in fact one Oregonian was so taken by the fine cereals and fruits that he was led to exclaim, "Well, they must have come to Oregon for some of their exhibit." The car leaves with the local train to-night.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

J. T. Gregg, of Portland, was in the city last night taking in the doings of the legislature.

The Egyptian booth at the G. A. R. fair will serve refreshments wisely after the ancient style. The bread is made after a recipe direct from Egypt.

RAILROAD LEGISLATION.

The Senate Preparing to Defeat the House Measures.

The indications are that unless friends of the people in the senate come to the rescue of the two house railroad bills they will never be reached in that body. Other signs go to show that if the bills do come up, the railroad companies will load them with amendments fatal to the bills. The special fight is to be made on the bill to give the railroad commission power to enforce its decisions and make freight rates. Without this bill Mr. Miller's bill will not be as effective. If any railroad legislation of any value to the people passes at this session it will pass as embodied in these bills and friends of the people should take notice.

The effort to amend the railroad commissioner bill that has passed the house, by exempting the railroad companies from complying with the decision of the commissioners in regard to rates, etc., until the cases are settled in the courts, would destroy the most valuable feature of the bill. By throwing the expense and responsibility of every case upon the state, instead of the railroad companies, the state could be kept in endless litigation and the railroads would always have the best of the contest.

The senator should not permit any such changes in the bill.

The people demand a law that will be valuable. Such a one has passed the house and should not be destroyed in the senate.

Senators must be alive to the situation and not allow shrewd attorneys to place the people in the hands of railroad commissioners without power to assist and protect the interests of the state.

It is time Oregon had some legislation in the interests of the people. The house has fearlessly done its duty. Let the senate respond.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Vibrating Shuttle No. 2
MACHINE.
—LATEST AND BEST OF ITS CLASS—

Our new design of Vibrating Shuttle Machine is the latest development of that popular principle, containing special patented improvements, what makes it:

1st—The lightest running machine in the market.
2d—The simplest machine in the world. It requires absolutely no "teaching."
3d—The only Vibrator that makes a perfect stitch—a result heretofore obtained in family machines only by our Oscillator.
4th—The only Vibrator which can sew from lightest to heaviest cotton without change of tension, covering the whole range of family work.

POINTS OF SUPERIORITY.

1. It has a far shorter needle than any other machine of its class.
2. It has the simplest shuttle made; you can't help threading it right.
3. It has the latest and best form of automatic bobbin winder.
4. It has the latest and best stitch regulator. By simply turning a screw the stitch can be lengthened or shortened while the machine is running at full speed. No fastening necessary; it stays wherever you leave it. The Ultimate Perfection of a simple family sewing machine. BURT CASE, Agent, 181 Commercial street.
