HE WAS ASHAMED To Ask Again, but His Frank Letter Got It for Him.

A few mouths ago one of the unfortunate Inmates in the San Francisco Almshouss was inspired by the sepsational statements in the newspapers with the belief that Joy's Vegetable Barsaparilla would help him. But without money, how to get it was the question. Finally he wrote to the Edwin W. Joy Co., appealing to their generosity, and it was not unheeded, the coveted preparation being sent by the next parcel delivery. Its effect is best told in a subsequent letter, from which we quote the following: -

Coleman, of Lane, moved that Lane county be excluded from the list, and spoke to that effect. His resolution was lost. The bill was read 1st and 2d time by title, and then placed on its final passage. The bill was warmly discussed, Barrett, Armstrong, Jennings and Gambee speaking against the measure, while Miller and Paquet spoke in its favor. Mr. Miller made the most eloquent speech of the session, in favor of the passage of the bill. The bill passed with 40 votes in favor and 17 against.

This bill is the same in intent as the wagon road bills, which were vetoed by the governor yesterday, and was passed with a vote sufficient to carry it over his vetoe.
