M. Forsyth, of Newberg, in the forehead and knocking her insensible. The wound exposed the skull, but it is not dangerous.

WASHINGTON.

POLAR EXPEDITION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A new Polar expedition will be undertaken by Civil Engineer Robert E. Perry, of the United States navy, who yesterday secured leave of absence for eighteen months with this object in view. Perry proposes to start on his expedition from St. John N. F., about the 1st of next May. His idea is to go as far as a whaling steamer will carry him, and then strike for the North Pole on foot, across Greenland. He intends to have as small an accompanying party as is consistent with absolute necessity. Possibly it may be composed of not more than four or five natives, and baggage and other impediments will be reduced to the lowest scale. The expedition which has been planned and arranged by Lieutenant Perry is purely a private venture, in which the United States government or navy department has no part. It is understood that whatever backing Lieutenant Perry will need in order to carry out his scheme will be guaranteed him by some of the geographical societies of this city. Personally, Lieutenant Perry is a robust, hearty man of 36 years or thereabouts, and he is physically well equipped for the task before him. He hails from Maine, and is at present on duty at the Philadelphia navy-yard.

CONTRIBUTORS VOTES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Mississippi delegation are highly incensed at the nomination of James Hill as postmaster at Vicksburg. Representative Canning characterized it yesterday as an "infernal outrage." Hill is a negro. He does not reside in Vicksburg, but hails from Black Belt, in the state. His nomination, therefore, is all the more offensive to the residents of the largest city in the state. Hill is said to control a large negro vote in his state.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The National American Woman Suffrage association last night elected Elizabeth Cady Stanton, president; Susan E. Anthony, vice president; and Rev. A. H. Shaw national lecturer.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The president has made the following nominations: Thos. N. Hart, postmaster at Boston; W. F. Fogarty, United States marshal for Massachusetts. In the senate the privilege of the floor was given Claggett, claiming to be the senator elect from Idaho, pending the decision of his claim. The house bill, giving a pension of $2,500 a year, to the widow of Admiral Porter, was passed. The senate agreed to house amendments to direct tax bill. It now goes to the president.

The house committee on foreign affairs has reported back the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill with recommendation that all senate bills be agreed to with the exception of the amendment providing for a cable between San Francisco and Hawaiian Islands. Recommendation was concurred in yesterday, says, none. Roll being called in order to emphasize the opposition of house to Hawaiian cable proposition.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The house and senate have both agreed to conference report to establish the United States court and define and regulate jurisdiction court of the United States. The house committee on reform in civil service today agreed to report bill to provide for single civil service commissioner with two deputies in place of present triple headed commission.

STATE.

TYPE FOUNDERS.
PORTLAND, Feb. 28.—The large type foundry of the country, after long negotiations, have about affected a consolidation of their interests. The capital involved is reported to be $6,000,000. The establishment of uniform prices and protection to printers, are said to be the chief reasons for the consolidation of the thirty odd foundries. Among them are the firm of Palmer & Rey of San Francisco and of this city.

MIS NAME IS HENSLY.
PORTLAND, Feb. 28.—A gentleman who came in from Troutdale yesterday states that the old man who disappeared at Bonneville so mysteriously about ten days ago is Hensley. He owned a farm near Troutdale, and had committed an outrage on the 18 year old daughter of a man who was working for him. He was about to be arrested and fled, although diligent search has been made, no trace of him has been found.

IN THE SOCIAL WAY.

The exercises were excellent and show good work on the part of the students and were a credit to the school. The program was as follows: Address of welcome, by the president, who first explained the object of these public literary doings. Not that they were in themselves worthy of the attention of the public, but they were given to show the people the progress and work as being carried on in the school. Miss Manda Combs sang a solo in a very attractive style. C. H. Spalding was the orator for the evening, and took for his subject, John Brown, and gave a very pleasant address. The quarrel between Cassius and Brutus, from Shakespeare, by O. N. Nelson and J. F. Albright was acted out to a remarkable degree of perfection. "Miltum in Parvo," by S. C. Dodson, W. Herlt, Frank Matthews and Fred Barker, was the most amusing part of the program. Miss Mary Steiner gave a good demonstration of her ability to preside over the piano in an instrumental solo. The next was a short debate in which G. G. Spalding and O. A. White affirmed, and Chas. Elroy and F. L. Moore denied the Fifteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States was a mistake. Prof. Thos. Van Scoy, Judge L. D. Henry and N. M. Newport were chosen for judges of the debate and gave their decision which the negative. After a few impromptu speeches on a given subject the society adjourned, and the next two hours was spent in a social way which was conducted and enjoyed in due form.

ROAD TO THE MINES.

EUGENE, Or., Feb. 28.—Mr. W. H. Reed, manager of the Tacoma Mining and Milling Company, appeared before a number of our leading business men last night with a proposition to open a county road to the Blue River mines. A special meeting of the Board of Trade will be held next Monday night to see what can be done.

The Tacoma company proposes to operate a 10-stamp mill at its mine, and if Lane county will furnish a passable road from the mouth of Blue River, a distance of seven miles, they will proceed to open from this end.

CRIMINAL.

A DRUNKARD'S CRIME.

DECATUR, Ind., Feb. 28.—Judge of the circuit court, J. B. Boles, of Decatur, while under the influence of liquor this evening, shot his son Roland, aged 23, inflicting a wound that may prove fatal. Judge Boles, being intoxicated, became abusive and ordered his son from the house. The latter not obeying immediately, the father drew a revolver and fired.

KILLED BY HIS DAUGHTER.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—At Pine Bluff, Ark., last evening, Frank Rufus, a negro, came home drunk and made several ineffectual attempts to fire a pistol at his wife and daughter. The latter picked up an ax and dealt him a terrible blow in the breast. Rufus' dead body was found in the woods a short distance from the house.

KILLED HIS WIFE.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 28.—John Copeland, a wealthy storekeeper, fatally shot his wife this morning and then tried to kill his two children. The latter picked up an ax and dealt him a terrible blow in the breast. Rufus' dead body was found in the woods a short distance from the house.

ARRESTED FOR INTIMIDATION.

LYNN, Mass., Feb. 28.—Master Workman McCarthy of the national trade assembly, K. of L., which embraces all organizations of leather workers in this city, was arrested by police this morning for alleged attempt with other persons to intimidate non union workmen.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST GIBSON.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—The grand jury this afternoon returned two indictments against Geo. Gibson, secretary of the whiskey trust and two against him jointly with other persons whose names are suppressed. In all the cases are charges of attempting to commit criminal arson and feloniously procuring gun powder and dynamite for unlawful purposes.

more, went through the "many difficulties" with ease. The other young men maintained their parts well, and these young people can congratulate themselves on the success of their efforts, and Salem should feel proud to be able to say that home talent can give in a first class style such difficult pieces of art as the one that was executed on the stage last night.

A GRAND SOCIAL.

Monday eve next the G.A.R. hall in the insurance building will be the scene of one of the most attractive events of the season, when the Sons of Veterans assisted by the Woman's Relief Corps give their grand social. The Fathers of the Sons have decided not to hold their regular meeting, but attend the social in a body. The program embraces all that any one could desire. The ladies will bring every thing known in the culinary art, which is pleasing to the palate and attractive to the eye. Games of various kinds will be enjoyed in the main hall and the best of music will be in attendance. Aside from these the banquet hall will be given to those who desire to exercise themselves with the fantastic step to sweet music. This will be the first social of the kind ever given in this city by the Sons of Veterans. The boys intend to make a reputation for themselves by their very first effort. So in the future an auto-entertainment will be all that will be required to bring out a crowd to any exercises that they may give.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

The two societies of the University according to their established custom gave an entertainment in the chapel Monday evening. A fair audience were out and well paid for their time listening to the following program: An address of welcome by Gus A. Reichman, gave a few very appropriate remarks. This was followed by an instrumental duet by Miss Mary Steiner and Mr. D. S. Rosebrook, Mr. L. F. Moore then led in prayer. The oration for the occasion was delivered by Mr. B. L. Steeves, of the senior class. He paid a nice tribute to the heroes of his country, the first among them being Washington. Miss Eva Foster read an original poem, entitled "Washington's Monument," which was a splendid effort. Prof. Parvin sang "Pilgrim Father," and was warmly cheered. Mr. H. N. Rounds read a well composed and thoughtful essay on "Liberty." The program was concluded with a piano and violin duet by Miss Steiner and Mr. Rosebrook. The exercises were about an hour long, and were duly appreciated.

BAPTIST.

About 75 young people of the Baptist society, were entertained with a literary, musical and lunch program at Mrs. Litchfield's on Piety hill last Tuesday evening.

The Word Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time, or in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.
