Some time ago some of the real estate men stopped their subscription on account of a man not being kept in Portland to turn immigration this way. The keeping a man there was a part of the stipulation by which they agreed to pay to the board a certain sum monthly...

The Lord & Thomas affair was the most important subject before the board. And one that startled the members and it appeared for a while as if the board was destined to be visited by a storm. The board was under the impression that they owed that firm a little less than $100, until a few days ago, when the agent with whom they made the contract arrived in Salem and claimed that the bill amounted to $800...
