About the middle of the afternoon Burns drove his team and buggy and hitched it in front of the Eureka house on Commercial street. Hanging on the side of the buggy was a tag inscribed, "For sale." While Burns was tying his team three young men stood on the sidewalk near by watching him. Two of them were Johnson and Stokey. The third man approached Burns and said: "We want to buy that outfit, come inside the saloon and have a drink." Burns accompanied the men into the saloon, and the four had a drink. His clothes were torn and his milk can smashed.

After abusing the boy as much as their brutal natures would permit, the ruffians left him in a half unconscious condition on the ground, where he was finally found and taken to his home on Fourteenth street, between Weller and Main, where it is reported he is lying in a critical condition. The boy's flesh is black and blue, and his throat is considerably swollen, the effects of being severely strangled. Stand Your Ground.

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks may claim that "ours is as good as Hood's" and all that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled. Therefore have nothing to do with substitutes and insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and building-up medicine.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years ought to know salt from sugar, read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messers F. J. Cheney & Co—Gentleman;—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours truly,
L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.

Hearing of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, I grasped it as a last resort, after using six bottles found almost entire relief. I am now able to work on my farm with ease, which I have not done in years, and I advise all persons suffering with rheumatism and other blood troubles to try this medicine. H. PERRY, Thurman, Mich.

General Debility

"For four years my wife suffered with large tumor bunches on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to understand her case; at all events she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and this is the result: She has gained in weight
