THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

HOFFER BROTHERS, - - - Editors. PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE Capital Journal Publishing Company. (Incorporated.) Office, Commercial Street, in P. O. Building entered at the postoffice at Salem, Or., as second-class matter.

HOW SHOULD A PRESIDENT TRAVEL.

It is given out that President and Mrs. Harrison are coming to the Pacific coast, starting from Washington, going to New Orleans, San Francisco, Salt Lake, Portland. It may be presumed that he will go through the capital of Oregon, if not stop here. He would be met with regulation Oregon hospitality wherever he chose to stop. It is announced that President and Mrs. Harrison will travel at their own expense, and will not be the guests of Senator Stanford in California, as has been reported. Secretary Halford will select the cities to be visited, etc. A list of persons is given who will attend the presidential party, including one or two members of the cabinet, a few other personal and political friends, including Colonel Dudley, treasurer Huston, ex Senator Farwell and Senator Stewart, and of course Private Secretary Halford will go along. It is probable the party will go by special train and have right of way on all roads.

If the JOURNAL could whisper a word into the president's ear it would suggest a slight modification of the plans as at present outlined. It would be unjust to criticize the method adopted in going before the people, or the company selected in which he is to travel. The JOURNAL would avoid all differences of opinion that may arise over matters extraneous to the subject of the personal relations of the president to the people, by removing all intermediaries and letting the president and Mrs. Harrison come in direct contact with the people. If plain Mr. and Mrs. Harrison would buy a first class ticket to the coast as anyone else would do, take their grip and make the trip as plain American citizens, they would show greater wisdom than by going in palace cars, by special trains attended by a small army of lackeys.

The people will be glad to see the president and his lady. They care little or nothing for Col. Dudley, either members of the cabinet, senators, or what-nots. It might not be as exclusive or as convenient perhaps, to travel as other people do, but it would be more creditable to the executive of a people's government. The people care very little for the court at Washington. They would try to detect beneath the guise of his office the real man Harrison.

THE NEW EDUCATION. Ten years ago the "New Education," as it is now known, was not dreamed of but by a few enthusiasts so few as to be counted on the fingers of one's hands; today it numbers its apostles by the hundreds; public opinion is gaining rapidly in its favor, and he who maintains an attitude of indifference towards its claims and influence, only exposes the stamp of his ignorance. The man who has a well trained eye and hand is beginning to be considered quite as important in the community as the man with the well filled head; he can no longer be relegated to the ranks of the ignorant and uncultured, for the great discovery has been made that the world owes its progress to those men, who having brains to think, eyes to see, and hands to do, lifted society out of the superstition and ignorance of a semi-civilization and started it toward the realization of a high and noble destiny.

The New Education is demonstrating its usefulness to the public by scores of splendid enterprises throughout the country. In the kindergarten which is indeed, "a school of heaven" to the hundreds of little, restless bodies and active minds. In the manual training school which interests and quiets boys and girls who have arrived at that age when the demon of unrest possesses them, turns their minds from channels of vicious mischief and finds an outlet for their activities in healthful, natural employment. To these enterprises the public schools can look and a few are looking for that inspiration in answering the question, "What shall the public schools teach?"

WANTED, A POLITICAL PROPHECY FOR 1892. The alliance organizers are at work in Oregon. County after county is being sown broadcast with the seeds of the farmer's movement. How strong will Oregon go alliance in 1892? As the first state to vote, the question is a vital one. Will a Farmer Labor ticket carry the day next year in June? Will it elect a legislature? Oregon is a strongly impregnated agricultural state. Can Cleveland and Harrison carry the state against the rush

OREGON NEWS NOTES.

There has been no snow west of the coast range summit, according to all accounts. We are informed by Mr. J. W. Brassfield, chief mover in the enterprise, that the subsidy for the Alsea and Newport motor line is being subscribed to very liberally by those having property along the proposed line. Mr. Brassfield is enthusiastic relative to the success of the movement.

DEMAND FOR THE NEW LAWS. There is a general demand to know what the new laws are. A great many of them are in force by emergency clauses and approval of the governor. The common citizen and taxpayer is as completely in the dark as to all this legislation, which he is expected to comply with and may be hauled into court for innocently violating, as tho' it were promulgated by the Khedive of Egypt to the unlettered inhabitants of the Nile.

The citizen has the first right to know the new laws and changes or repeals of old ones which affect his rights and liberties. There is no pretense of any economy secured by present antiquated and inadequate methods of publication in book form at the expense of the people and for the benefit of officials and special classes. The immediate publication of all new laws and when they go into effect is a reform urgently demanded by the people.

SUGGESTED COMMENT. It's a poor town in Oregon that hasn't at least one "academy" or "college."

Twenty-four new members were taken into the Evangelical church at Jefferson the past week, thro' the labors of the Revs. Fischer.

Oregon's motto "she flies with her own wings" does not apply to the action of the legislature in killing her world's fair appropriation.

The Dalles Mountaineer: The heavens have wept congealed tears, and a friend this morning told us that God Almighty had passed a bill appropriating $5,000,000 for Eastern Oregon in beautiful harvest next season, and even Gov. Penneyer can't veto this.

Brownsville Times: The Western Union Telegraph Co. and the Associated Press either refuse to publish the truth or persist in telling lies about all reform movements, but still the Alliance and other reform parties go on. There is no attempt on the part of the partisan press to deny that the farmers and laboring men are oppressed. Neither do they offer or advocate any relief. They simply ridicule and abuse.

The funeral of Miss Carrie Pfeiffer, of Albany, was held Sunday at 3 o'clock. An Albany paper speaks of her as born in Clinton, Iowa, and came to Albany with her parents in 1877. She was a bright accomplished young lady, possessing many lovable traits of character, and had many friends, who will unite with the bereaved parents in mourning her death. She was a niece of U. S. Senator Pfeiffer of Kansas.

Prof. T. L. Gilbert, of Albany, died March 6, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. M. Hammer, aged 72 years. The Democrat says: "Prof. Gilbert came to Oregon in the '50's, locating in Coos county, where, on account of poor health, he chopped wood for awhile, then making school teaching his profession. He resided at Oakland for several years, moving to Linn county, where he resided at Albany and Brownsville, and finally at Lebanon, where he had charge of the academy which he built up into a popular school, being a resident of that city for about thirteen years. He was county school superintendent one term. Prof. Gilbert was a member of the M. E. church, and possessed many noble traits of character. He possessed genuine friends who appreciated the real worth of his character. Prof. Gilbert leaves three daughters and two sons.

The New Discovery. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it, and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every bottle, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at Fry's Dispensary.

Bibber's Rheumatic and Liver Pills. These pills are scientifically compounded and uniform in action. No gripping pain or retching following the use of pills. They are adapted to both adults and children with perfect safety. We guarantee they have no equal in the cure of rheumatism, constipation, dyspepsia and biliousness and, as an appetizer, they excite any other preparation. 17 1/2 cents a bottle, six, one dollar.

You hardly realize that it is medicine, when taking Carter's Little Liver Pills, they are very small, so that children, invalids from torpid livers are relieved by their use. To be free from sick headache, biliousness, constipation, etc. use Carter's Little Liver Pills. They gently stimulate the liver and free the stomach from bile. Not one in twenty are free from some little ailment caused by indigestion of the liver. Use Carter's Little Liver Pills. The result will be a pleasant surprise. They give positive relief.

MISCELLANY.

ABDUCTED.

CHICAGO, Mar. 9.—Mrs. Tillie Mowrey was forcibly kidnapped by two unknown men, thrust into a carriage and driven hastily to the Wisconsin Central depot in time to catch a train for the North. The deed was committed at the corner of Franklin and Van Buren streets in broad daylight. Mrs. Mowrey is scarcely nineteen years of age, but has twice married.

DIED SUDDENLY. HELENA, Mont., Mar. 8.—J. H. Rogers, proprietor of the Helena cafe, fell dead yesterday evening while making change for a customer. Rogers was a most popular caterer.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA. RALEIGH, N. C., Mar. 7.—The legislature has adjourned. It has redistricted the state, making eight democratic districts and one republican. It has appropriated $25,000 for an exhibit at the world's fair.

FROM KANSAS. KANSAS CITY, Mar. 9.—Dispatches from many points throughout Kansas speak of the heaviest snow of the winter, averaging six inches on a level.

PAPER SUSPENDED. OLYMPIA, Mar. 9.—The Olympian Capital has suspended the publication of its daily edition. It attributes its suspension to the stringency in the money market.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Mar. 8. The postoffice was entered yesterday morning presumably about the hour of 2 or 3 o'clock, and over $1500 stolen. A hole was drilled in the top, the charge placed in and the doors blown completely off. In coin $1000 was taken and fifty registered letters, the value of which cannot even be guessed at. It may run up into the hundreds or even thousands. Besides these, 400 postal notes and all the documents, private papers and Alaska mail in sight were carried off.

A SINGULAR SUIT. FINDLAY, O., March 9.—When Charles McClinton eloped with Miss Minnie Monnette, the only daughter of a wealthy Crawford county farmer, and took her to Kentucky, where they were married, the public was quick to say that McClinton only sought the girl because of the wealth of her father. Three days after the marriage, she returned home with her husband to seek forgiveness, which was refused, and a few hours later she committed suicide. The apparent indifference of the young husband to his wife's death caused unfavorable comment. This was intensified when young McClinton began suit against Oliver Monnette, father of his bride, to recover damages in the sum of $50,000, alleging as a cause for action that the father exercised undue influence over his daughter, resulting in her suicide, and that by her death McClinton's affections had been damaged and financial prospects been ruined.

SOUTHERN CROPS BACKWARD. ATLANTA, Ga., Mar. 9.—The Constitution of yesterday has a review of the farming situation throughout the South, based upon the declaration of the commissioner of agriculture that the prospect has not been so bad in forty years. The opinion is that the reduction of the acreage and delay in farm work will cut off the cotton yield by at least half a million bales. Other crops are likewise backward.

EARTHQUAKE IN WASHINGTON. TACOMA, Mar. 8.—Two faint but distinct shocks of earthquake were felt here at 7:50 this evening. The wave was south-west to north-east; the first shock lasting 2 1/2 seconds and the second shock being 1 1/2 seconds in duration. No damage was done, although articles in china and glassware stores rattled a trifle and occupants of sixth floors rushed from the rooms, fearing the structures were about to topple.

SEATTLE. SEATTLE, Wash., Mar. 8.—At 7:40 last evening an earthquake shook the buildings in this city slightly. The wave passed from south to north and possibly with a slight trend toward the east. The effect was felt most severely by those in the upper floors and the six and seven story buildings down town. There the chandeliers swung sharply, and men standing up found it difficult to keep their feet. The movement was felt in all parts of the city.

ABOUT FAIRHAVEN. NEW WHATCOM, Wash., Mar. 8.—A sharp earthquake shock was felt here at 8:45 last evening. It was also felt at Fairhaven, and as far south as Marysville, Wash.

CALIFORNIA ALSO AFFECTED. SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Mar. 8.—A light earthquake shock was felt here at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.
