

unremitting in their labors among Italians during the past week. They succeeded in locating the whereabouts of two leaders of the Mafia of New Orleans who arrived in this city on Friday. They are being watched. Already agents of the Mafia are at work among members of the fraternity in this city. Several secret meetings were held yesterday, but by means of an agent in disguise present at each gathering, and today is in possession of the knowledge of the complete proceedings at each meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 24.—Prof. David S. Jordan, president of the Indiana State university, has accepted the presidency of the Leland Stanford university, California.

The salary is $10,000 per year with residence. The term of office will begin next September.

BRIG WRECKED.
SANDY HOOK, N. Y., Mar. 24.—The Brig Joseph Danian, from Jamaica for Harve, France, with logwood, went ashore this morning. Crew of ten rescued with the exception of one man.

CHICKERING DEAD.
NEW YORK, Mar. 24.—Charles F. Chickering, whose name is famous where ever pianos are played, is dead.

PORT BIDEWELL.
SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 24.—The secretary of war has decided not to abandon Fort Bidwell, California. This point was decided upon some time ago as one of no value and strategic importance, and its abandonment was ordered. Yesterday morning General Gibbon issued an order directing that, troop C, Fourth cavalry, be relieved from duty on the department of the Columbia at Walla Walla, Washington, and to take station at Fort Bidwell. The troops will march from Fort Walla Walla.

POOL SELLING PROHIBITED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 24.—The board of supervisors last night passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale of pools in the city and county of San Francisco, except on inclosed race courses. The ordinance was signed by the mayor in five minutes after its passage.

RECEPTION TO MCKINLEY.
WORCESTER, Mass., Mar. 24.—Ex-Congressman McKinley, of Ohio, was accorded an enthusiastic reception at a political meeting at the Mechanics hall last evening. Mr. McKinley spoke at length on the tariff, expounding his well known views. He spoke of the accomplishment of the 51st congress, saying that no democratic majority in congress that will be elected in the next ten years will be able to repeat its work. We can have free trade perhaps when other nations bring their labor up to our high standard, for we will never descend to theirs. We know what thirty years of protection has done, and if a change ever comes it will not come from school men or theorists.

ROMANCE OF LOVE.
HARTFORD, Conn., Mar. 24.—Rodney Strong Dennis, only son of Rodney Dennis, secretary of the Travelers' Insurance company, relinquished his position with the Connecticut Trust company two months ago and went to Memphis. At about the same time Miss Cecile Mielles left Hartford for New Hampshire. Miss Mielles is the adopted daughter of ex-Lieutenant Governor Chas. M. Pond, one of the richest men in Hartford. Miss Cecile was called one of the prettiest girls hereabouts, and when she left for the mountains of New Hampshire, and her family gave it out that she was suffering from poor health, there was considerable sympathy expressed for the young woman. An explanation came Saturday. It seems that over a year ago Miss Mielles became Mrs. Rodney S. Dennis. Dennis is 23 years old and Cecile is 22. The romance of a clandestine marriage appealed strongly to them, so one morning they took the train for New York, and were married in the city hall. They returned to Hartford but told no one of the union, and it was not made known to the parents of either until circumstances made it necessary. Young Dennis will now claim his bride publicly, and take her to Memphis with him. Their child is two weeks old.

LAWRENCE MILLS STRIPPED.
LAWRENCE, Mass., March 24.—The Lawrence river is rapidly rising and over a thousand men are idle on account of the depth of the water stopping the mills.

J. E. JOHNSTON'S FUNERAL SERVICES.
WASHINGTON, March 24.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, almost the last of the great commanders of the confederacy, took place in this city this morning. By request of deceased the ceremonies were devoid of ostentation or unnecessary formality and the simplicity of the services were in character with the man. There was no display of uniforms or battle flags or military trappings. There was a large attendance of distinguished persons. No services were held at the residence of the deceased, but before 11 o'clock the remains were taken to St. John's Episcopal church accompanied by the family and near friends. The party were met at the church by the honorary pall bearers, all men who fought under General Johnston during the war, drawn up in double line along the sidewalk about 100 men of Robert E. Lee camp confederate veterans without uniform, stood with gray heads bared as the body was borne between their ranks. The casket was a plain one covered with black cloth and without ornaments. The silver plate bore the inscription: "Joseph E. Johnston, born Feb. 8, 1837. Died March 21, 1891." St. John's church was crowded to its utmost capacity with delegations of ex-confederates and different sects and many prominent people of Washington. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Douglas, rector of the church, and were confined to the simple Episcopal burial services for the dead. At conclusion of services the remains were removed to the Baltimore & Potomac station and left here on the 12 m. train for Baltimore, where the body is now being interred in Greenmount cemetery.

CLEVELAND LETTER.
INDIANAPOLIS, March 24.—Ex-President Cleveland has written a letter to the Indian reform league, expressing regret at his inability to be present at their annual meeting, in which he says in part: "The theories and practices, which the tariff reform antagonizes, are responsible for many, if not all, the evils which afflict our people. I believe the principle of tariff reform promises the most important aid in their satisfaction, and that the continued and earnest advocacy of this principle is essential to the lightening of the burdens of our countrymen."
