HUMANE SOCIETY.—The committee on constitution met last night and formed a plan for perfecting its organization. They will be ready to report at the Friday 4 p. m. meeting at the parlor of the First National bank. A prominent society lady informed one of the committee yesterday that she would be at the next meeting and was anxious to work and contribute to this cause. The following program of a children's meeting from the St. Louis Republic reveals the scope of the work of this society: The Children's Humane society held a meeting yesterday morning at the Richelieu. Subject of the day: "Extinction of Birds;" readings, "Murderous Millinery," by Louise Douglass; "Robin Redbreast," by Bertha Wright; "Cruelty of Fox Hunting," by Sam Douglass; "Band of Mercy Boy," by Milton Wright; "If the Horse Could Speak English," by Arthur McKenna. Miss Nellie March invited the society to hold a meeting at her residence, near Frazier park. Charles D. Capen reported 45 Band of Mercy branches. A letter of acceptance of a vice-presidency was read from Rev. Dr. John Matthews. Messrs. Howe, Geo. F. Townby and the members of the Pandora club were made honorary members.

NEW FILINGS.—Not a day passes but that from one to a half a dozen articles of incorporation are filed with the secretary of state. Yesterday's filings were: The Columbia View Improvement company, of Portland, with M. C. George, Frank W. Warren and W. A. Banty, incorporators; capital stock $300,000.—The Idaho Lumbering Co., Portland, J. E. Segur, C. P. Davis and O. F. Paxton, incorporators; capita stock $10,000.—The Anderson Stock Co., of Portland. Geo. L. Bickel, Wm. Frazer and D. P. Thompson, are the promoters of this scheme and have issued a capital stock of $60,000. These numerous incorporations show a healthy condition of the state.

IN FULL FORCE AGAIN.—The Buena Vista pottery works which have been shut down for some time are now running in full force. While the Portland branch of the institution was being operated the company saw fit to discontinue the works in Buena Vista. Since the Portland plant has been destroyed by fire the one up the river has been rejuvenated and first class work is again being done. They have an abundance of fine clay for earthenware, tiles, etc. The company shipped the clay from Buena Vista to Portland by the boat load and found it about as cheap as to ship their ware, which were more bulky and required more care in handling.

AT THE SOCIABLE.—A large number of young people and many who are older were at the Christian church last night to enjoy the farewell reception tendered Rev. and Mrs. Johnson. All the young people including Squire Johnson and Judge T. C. Shaw entered heartily into the evening's exercise. After a social time was had in the auditorium the guests were invited into the lecture room where a supper was discussed. It is needless to say that the occasion was enjoyed in due style.

REMOVED.—The stove and tin store of Barr & Petzel has been removed from next door to Ladd & Bush's bank to 247 Commercial, two doors north of Red Corner drug store. 3-7-dtf

Trustees of Willamette Hold a Long Session.

THE NORTH PROPOSITION ACCEPTED.

The Various Locations Thoroughly Discussed--No Incumbrances on the School.

The trustees of Willamette university met in adjourned session in the president's office, with a full attendance of the local members of the board present, and also a number of citizens. After the meeting was called to order, Ed Giltner presented a proposition from Geo W. McBride, wherein he offered to give twenty acres of Thos. Davidson's donation land claim, and sell about 106 acres at $200 per acre, under condition that the trustees would erect a building on the same, to cost not less than $30,000, within two years from date. When this proposition was thoroughly discussed, the two which have been under consideration for some weeks, were again taken up. These were discussed in open session until 10:30, when the meeting adjourned and the trustees held another meeting with closed doors. This one lasted until 1 o'clock this morning, at which time a conclusion had been reached in accepting the North proposition. This, as submitted to the board, reads as follows:

"To the Board of Trustees of the Willamette University: We, the undersigned committtee, on behalf of the citizens of Salem, recognizing the importance of doing something for the better endowment of Willamette university, hereby submit the following plan and proposition, having the good of the university in view:

First—Options to purchase, on or before the first day of September, 1891, in the name of Willamette university, lands amounting in the aggregate to 732 acres, at a total cost of $140,000, situated in a compact form; also options on 140 acres more (if wanted) at $100 per acre, making a total of 872 acres.

Second—It is proposed to place certain portions of said tracts of land upon the market after the same have been divided into lots and acre tracts in such manner as may be hereafter determined and sell such portions as may be necessary for a sum sufficient to enable the committee hereafter to be appointed to be caused to be deeded in fee simple a tract containing not less than 250 acres, free from all incumbrances whatsoever, together with whatever additional lands then may remain unsold after providing for the payment in full of the purchase price of said tracts included in the options or so much thereof as may be mutually satisfactory to the board of trustees and parties at interest.

Third—The management and directions of all matters pertaining to the laying off and carrying out of the plans herein suggested to be placed in the hands and under the direction of a committee of five with power to act to be created or selected by the board of trustees. It being understood and agreed that no act of this committee will or shall in any sense either in law or equity involve Willamette university or create any liability against the said university or any property now owned by it.

In submitting this proposition the committee feels authorized in saying that if the trustees of Willamette university see proper to accept these options, the citizens of Salem will most heartily and earnestly give the undertaking their support morally and financially, as they severally may be able.

E. M. WAITE, Chairman Com.

Accompanying the proposition from the north were a series of resolutions detailing how the plans should be carried out. The appended is one of them:

"Resolved, That the said proposition is hereunto attached and made a part of this agreement, it being understood and affirmed that this board of trustees assumes no liabilities, neither shall Willamette university be held liable for any indebtedness now incurred or hereafter to be incurred by said proposed committee or anyone acting for it touching any of the matters set forth in the said proposition."

The proposition from South Salem was about the same as last week. It included a gift of 25 acres and an option to buy 200 more at from $200 to $300 an acre. In addition to this $10,000 in cash subscriptions were offered.

WHY NORTH WAS ACCEPTED.

The main reason why the proposition which may locate the school north of the fair ground was accepted was that it does not make the trustees nor the school liable, in any sense. There is a chance for a gain for the school with no possibility of any loss. The proposition from South Salem would have held the school liable and made the property now owned liable to meet the payments on the land purchased, all of which was to be paid for within eighteen months. The trustees did not feel that they have a right to thus encumber the property now owned by the institution. On the proposition accepted they have all the time they want to pay for the land by paying 8 per cent interest. A further inducement for the north is, the land is in a compact body, a sufficient amount to allow it to be handled advantageously to the school. The trains run by the very doors, and two street car lines run almost to the tract now (considering the electric completed).

The buildings will probably be put up about a half a mile beyond the fair ground, where a fine site can be had on land of even greater elevation than that on which the school now stands. On the tract purchased are 200 acres in orchards, capable of returning $20,000 in profits yearly. The committee of citizens assure the board of a realization of 250 acres as a net profit out of the venture. This, at a very reasonable figure, would be worth $100,000. Another inducement mentioned last night was that work would be afforded young men who are attending the school, in improving the land, and thus increase the attendance. This could be said of either place.

The school will not be in a condition to go to its new home for at least two years. In that time there is room for much to be done to give the Willamette a great lift and send her forward that the Portland school may never overtake her. The move last night is the hardest blow Salem could possibly have given Portland in the way of educational advantages. This action of the board of trustees, assisted by the delegates sent here by the conference, cannot be overlooked by the conference at its next session. The Portland school had hoped that nothing would be done in Salem, and that the conference would recognize their efforts and their school as the Methodist school of the Northwest, in place of the Willamette university. But alas! Portland's brightest hopes are blasted.

The JOURNAL was in error yesterday in its item connecting Rev. Bollinger's name officially with the Singer Mfg. Co. The facts are: He has accepted no such position and furthermore he tells us that he is subject to the itinerant system of his conference and will move to a new field of pastoral labor if ordered to do so. The item appeared upon hearsay.

The University will have an office in the form of a neat cottage erected on the corner of the campus, across Winter street from the home of Hon. E. M. Waite. This will be used as an office and headquarters for the handling of their property. When it has completed its mission in that line it will be converted into a cottage for residence. The plans are already drawn and work will be commenced at once on its construction.

Bone dust—Sroat & Gile.

A large number of business men are anxious to contribute to the Salem board of trade if new life can be given to it in any way. At present more and more are refusing to pay, tho' Mr. Mitchell is doing his level best to hold it up. There is no doubt by some arrangement it would be possible to increase the subscriptions, which have declined so enormously. This should be done as early as possible.

Three prisoners were brought down from Douglas county. Two of them were sentenced to one year each and one to two years. This one was D. A. Clark who enters upon his third term in the penitentiary.

The Salem mills are now paying seventy cents a bushel for wheat. This is the most that has been paid for wheat in Salem for some time. The market has been very deceiving to the farmers as well as the millers, this season. Last fall, wheat went up to 67½ cents, but soon dropped to 62½, and remained at that nearly all winter. Only recently it has taken a sudden rise. Farmers who have wheat will sell at the present figures as there is not much prospect of it going higher.

Wonderful Results often follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Severe cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itch and pain of salt rheum, disagreeable cases of catarrh, and aches and pains of rheumatism, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every function of the body. Give it a trial.

General Debility

"For four years my wife suffered with large tumor lumps on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to understand her case; at all events she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to use it, and this is the result. She has gained in weight [illegible] to 111 Pounds and is in better health than she has been for years. The ladies under [illegible] recommended, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be too much for them to-day." J. J. NOLEMOND, 226 Commercial Street, Boston, Mass.

Mortgagee's Sale of Chattels.

Notice is hereby duly given that under and by virtue of a certain chattel mortgage bearing date March 6th, 1891, executed and delivered on said day by McKinley Mitchell to Ivan R. Dawson, which mortgage was duly filed for record in the office of the recorder of conveyances of Marion county, Oregon, on March 7th, 1891, at one o'clock p. m., in which county the property hereinafter described then was and still is, and by reason of the default of said McKinley Mitchell in failing to pay on demand to said Ivan R. Dawson the sum of $576.58, with interest from March 6th, 1891, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, and the further sum of $24,908.85 with interest at said rate from said date secured by said mortgage and due and wholly unpaid and by reason that the conditions of said mortgage have become and are broken by said default and pursuant to the terms of said mortgage I will make foreclosure of said mortgage and will on Saturday, the 28th day of March, A. D. 1891, at half past ten in the forenoon at the store building formerly occupied by said McKinley Mitchell in the town of Gervais, in the county of Marion, state of Oregon, sell all the mortgaged chattels in said mortgage described as 'all the stock of general merchandise belonging to said McKinley Mitchell, consisting of hardware, nails and cans, dry and furnishing goods, boots and shoes, crockery, oils, clothing, groceries, willow ware, and goods of all kind, nature or description; also all the store furniture and fixtures in the two story building and warehouses adjacent thereto occupied at the date of said mortgage by the said McKinley Mitchell as a general store; also all the furniture and fixtures in building occupied by him as a furniture store on 1st and E streets, in said town, county and state; also one horse and buggy, to the highest bidder for cash in hand to satisfy the said mortgage, and will apply the proceeds as directed by the said mortgage to the payment of the sum of $576.58 and the further sum of $24,908.85, with interest on each of said sums at the rate of ten per cent per annum from March 6th, 1891, and to the payment of all charges touching said mortgaged chattels amounting to the sum of $——— and to the payment of counsel fees as provided for in said mortgage amounting to ten per cent. of the principals and interest above mentioned, and the surplus, if any there be, I will render and pay over to the said McKinley Mitchell or to his assigns.
