KINKAID TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27 .- A num ber of witnesses in the Kinkaid trial were examined yesterday morning. Wm. McCornick, one of the doorkeepers of the house, said he heard Taulbee call Kinkaid a liar before the shooting occurred. About an hour and a quarter afterwards Kinkaid returned and asked witness' advice as to what he should do in regard to the trouble. Witness said he had no advice to give. Said Kinkaid: "I am not able to cope with such a man as Taulbee; I have been sick and am weak; more than that I was not armed; I did not even have my cane with me." Then Kinkald left and walked rapidly to the head of the stairway. In a short time, about half a minute, witness heard the report of a pistol. On cross examination he denied having heard Taulbee call Kinkaid a "dirty llar," "monkey," or a "d--d little coward;" nor did he hear Taulbee tell Kinkaid to go and arm himself. Robert Woodbridge, another doorkeeper, substantially corroborated McCornick's testimony, except he said he saw Taulbee pull Kinkaid's

DOUBLE MURDER.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., Mar. 27. -A double murder and suicide occurred at Casino theatre at half past two this morning. Charles Elliott, side for about an hour, when he was seen to lean forward from the box De Babian, variety actress, another bullet entered the back of Carrie Smith just above the left hip, inflicting a dangerous wound which may prove fatal. Before the doctor arrived Mabel DeBabian died. Mabel DeBabian was about 23 or 24 years of age and quite pretty. She was a general favorite with her associates. In the pockets of the dead man was found a number of cartridges and the following note Lulu Durand-I have wanted to carry out my purposes but have not had a favorable chance yet. It was an old score but I had to fool with you. I trust to luck and a good shot to accomplish my purpose (Signed) Chas. Elliott." The fact that Lulu Durand was on the stage at the time of the shooting makes clear the fact that she was the one whom he was shooting at. Carrie Smith, who was shot in the back, was taken to Sacred Heart hospital, and at last accounts was somewhat improved. It advocated the law (that passed) giving the Oregon railroad commission power to fix just and reasonable rates of freigh's and power to enforce its accessons, it suc-cessfully advocated retention of the old railread commission as best qualified to reigned commission as best qualified to enforce the law. It labored for all meas-ures to open rivers and thus secure to the people the right to free and unrestricted use of he waterways.

ITS PLATFORM.

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL favors a reform in national finances, to the end that the present expensive monopoly system of supplying an inadequate currency may be supplanted by the government issuing direct to the people an adequate supply of legal tender money, with a coin basis sufficient to conform to sound banking principles. It favors election of an official who legislate for, or are directly responsible to the people, by direct vote of the people, it favors raising all state revenues by a tax on the gross carnings of corporations, both foreign and state. It favors opening all waterways to the sea and a control of all common carriers to the end that the producer shall scure for his labor the largest net returns.
