WESTACOTT & IRWIN.

MAKE CONTRACTS.—The managers of the Salem cannery are making extensive arrangements for their summer and fall run. What they did last year is only a small affair compared to what will be done the coming season.

VESTIBULE CARS.—The capital city electric rail road company have bought two of the celebrated Stockton Vestibule cars. One of the Sound cities had four of these cars made and found that the travel would only warrant the use of two of them.

RIVER NEWS.—Several changes will soon take place among the river boats on the Upper Willamette. The Manzanillo has been sold and will go off the route. She will go back to the Portland and Lewis river route.

BEGINNING TO ARRIVE.—A few horses have already been brought to the city to be ready for the big display which will take place tomorrow. The city will be fuller of people on this occasion than it has been since the state fair closed.

THE COMMITTEE.—The committee on management of the new University site, will be as follows: Geo. W. Odell, Prof. T. Van Sooy, Geo. P. Hughes, H. W. Cottle, and E. M. Wattle. Mr. Odell was, by vote of the board of trustees, made chairman and empowered to select his fellow members.

LOCAL BRIEFS. T. H. Alliston, of Portland, was appointed a notary public today.

The attendance at the Highland park quaker church meetings continues. Tillamook county today sends $775.10 of her state taxes to the treasurer.

Isaac Zumwalt, a pioneer of 1840, died at his home on the Luckiamute, Polk county, Saturday, March 21st, aged 78 years.

Cocoa shells make a delicious drink. For sale by the Great Eastern Tea Co., 317 Commercial street.

Glass tea sets—four pieces—only 50 cents. Glass tumblers, only 45 cents a dozen. Great Eastern Tea Company.

Two o'clock tomorrow afternoon, is the time set for the parade of horses. The streets are muddy, but that will not prevent the parade.

Immigrants are still coming to Salem. Strangers are seen on the streets every day, who bear the habits of an Easterner. Kansas and Nebraska are sending their people to this coast by the hundreds.

Call and get a one pound box of French mixed candy with one dollar's worth of tea besides your usual present. Great Eastern Tea Co., 317 Commercial street.

The Swanton entertainment last night was a decided success, and the increased number of seats taken for tonight shows that it was duly appreciated. New program tonight.

Miss Kate Ladue has a severe attack of cold and cannot play at the concert this evening. Her place will probably be well supplied.

The Willamette river registers ten feet above low water mark at this city and is slowly rising. Twelve feet is the highest it has registered during the past winter.

Messrs. Cathart and Spencer, of Clearfield county, Penn., are in Salem with a view to locating. The first named gentleman sold 600 acres of his land for $75 an acre and is turning his attention to fruit culture.

John McCarty, a pioneer of '47, who settled near Perryville, died on the Cowitz, Washington, on a recent date, and his remains were brought to and buried at Bethel the 24th. He was 93 years old.

Is it a fact the new ordinance forbids farmers peddling vegetables in this city without a license? Is it right? The consumer and producer should not be kept apart for the benefit of the middleman.

Mr. D. J. Cole, of Kansas, state organizer of the alliance, is in the city for a few days. He was the guest of Mr. Tom Davidson Thursday night, and will stay a few weeks yet. He has organized alliances at Marion, Whitaker and Howell.

On Tom Davidson's farm stands an apple tree with a full crop of several bushels of last fall's apples on it. They have wintered in perfect condition and are now very good eating. They still stick tight to the tree and our real estate men are taking Oregon tourists out to show them how we keep winter apples.

The "Night Off" of this city, are arranging to give an excursion to Albany in the near future. They will give their play and return to Salem by moonlight. The trip will be made on Saturday, the boat leaving here some time during the afternoon and return about midnight, thus giving clerks an opportunity to rest on Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Cottle has begun tearing down the barn on his lot, corner Commercial and Union streets. The house now on that lot is to be moved back. Mr. Cottle's present residence moved onto its place, and then rumpo hah it, the State Insurance company will put up four handsome stores adjoining their present block to the north.

W. T. Rineaman, the grocer, on State street was arrested for violating the ordinance against using more than the allotted space in sidewalk display. The new ordinance allows the merchants but one foot. Some of the merchants insist on having more room than that. The arrest was made for not complying with the law. He was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $12.45.

THE MARCH LILY.—Mr. Wallace brings the JOURNAL office a bouquet of the March lily. It is a handsome white flower that now thickly studs the forests and hillsides. The "Trillium Ovatum." This is the name given it by Prush. Wood calls it the "Trillium Grandiflorum," and Kellogg "Trillium Californicum."

Common name biethroot, is the nearest we can correctly designate this flower now. It grows in the Coast Range in rich soil, from Santa Cruz to British Columbia. After being in bloom a few days it turns a delicate pink, and later a purple or bright rose color. Mr. Wallace suggests that it be chosen as the floral emblem of Oregon, and it certainly deserves consideration among the other queens of the forest and field.

It comes now as the wild-flower emblem of Easter. It possesses a delicate cooling odor of myrrh and spices, but is not solely indigenous to Oregon. If we have not named it correctly, will some botanist correct us.

LAST NIGHT'S TREAT.—Those who attended the entertainment last night at the opera house had a real treat. Miss Swanton is a fine reader and is all that is claimed for her. She has an attractive appearance on the stage and this with her articulation, gesture and fine reading voice makes her reading complete. What has been said many times of the home talent could be repeated. They all acquitted themselves with credit and are an honor to the city. It is doubted if another city in Oregon can show as brilliant home talent as the capital city. Salem is proud of her artists. They appear at the Reed again tonight. No one can afford to miss this treat.

MILITARY CONTEST.—Next Monday evening the citizens of Portland will witness the most important event in the history of the O. N. G. Companies C and I, first regiment, will meet at the armory in battle array to settle the question of superiority as the most thoroughly drilled company in the Northwest. Company C is the youngest in the regiment, but the boys are ambitious, and are confident that Captain Butterfield is made of the right sort of metal to lead them to glory. Company I already has a reputation which it cannot afford to lose. Each company being confident of success, will tend to make the contest hard and determined one.

STRANGE CARS.—Two strange looking cars were seen at the Southern Pacific freight depot this morning. One bore the name of the Burlington & Missouri River railroad and the other the Kearney & Black Hills road. These cars are getting long ways from home. They are of a somewhat different style to any of the others seen here. They have six brakes, iron roof, side doors and also end doors. One of them was sealed and the other contained pine timber.

SHUT DOWN.—The Capital Lumbering mills have shut down for the past two weeks. The mills are receiving some good repairs in the mean time. If the river does not get any higher the mills will very likely be doing nothing for a large part of the summer. Last year the building interest of the city suffered for the want of lumber. This will be greatly remedied this year by the two yards which have been erected in the city this spring.

Wonderful Results. Results of ten years' use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Several cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itches and pains of salt rheum, disagreeable cases of catarrh, and aches and pains of rheumatism, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every faculty of the body. Give it a trial.

General Debility. "For four years my wife suffered with large tumor bunches on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair. Not soon to understand her case; at all events she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and in 3 months the result was gained in weight.

From $4 to $11 Pounds and is stronger and in better health than she has been for years. The bunches under her arms have disappeared, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be too much for them in time." J. J. NORCROSS, 236 Commercial Street, Boston, Mass.
