MURDEBED WOMAN.

CAMDEN, N. J., Mar. 28.-In clump of trees near Eighteenth and Federal streets, the dead body of Netty Ryan, a woman about 40 years of age, was discovered early yesterday morning by Peter Myer, who was on his way to work, and the appearance of the woman led to the belief that she had been knocked down, outraged, and lett dead. Coroner Jefferson drove immediately to the scene. The body of the dead woman could only be reached by the coroner forcing himself through a crowd of a hundred men and women gathered around the body. The woman lay on her back and her left cheek was bruised, evidently recently made, while her forehead sation was created here today by the was much discolored.
