

There is no proof whatever before the president or secretary of state that a single Italian subject was among the victims, and such proof is absolutely necessary preliminary to a fair demand for reparation. The officers of the department of justice are still inquiring into this and other branches of the case.

It is suspected in administration circles that the recent changes in the Italian cabinet may have much to do with the present state of affairs. Marquis Rudini is supposed to be open to the influence of popular clamor and desire to achieve a reputation with the masses by catering to the demand of the hot-headed element of Italy. At any rate, it is felt that the present state of affairs is temporary, and there is no disposition or intention to take any hasty action on the part of this government. Certainly Mr. Porter, United States minister to Italy, will not be recalled, and this government will maintain a pacific attitude and abide by the developments of the future.

THE LACK OF A NAVY.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Representative Payson, of Illinois, speaking about the matter, said there was no danger of war. There is too much good sense in this country, he said, and it was to be presumed there also was in Italy, to go to war about this difficulty.

Representative Cogswell, of Massachusetts, regarded the situation as one of gravity, and deplored the lack of a navy suitable for the defense of the country. Officers of the navy said, "I told you so," when asked how they viewed the matter. For years past, in the face of opposition and derision from members of congress representing constituencies located in the interior of the country, and in a position free from fear of outside attack, they had persistently pointed out the need for a navy that would be a defense for the country. Their colleagues in the navy had begged for coast defenses, and yet here we are with an international affair on our hands and but a mere skeleton of a navy and maps of projected coast defenses at our back. To would-be economists who have opposed their views these officers point to the French spoliation claims, aggregating millions of dollars, which we are beginning to settle, and which found their birth in an incident somewhat like this. In the case of the United States the government disregarded treaty stipulations, the French government recalled its minister and without declaration of war on either side, for two years French men-of-war preyed upon American commerce.

SEEMS TO BE NOTHING.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—In official circles it is stated that the Italian minister at Washington has not cabled anything decisive to the government regarding his recall. The American minister here, A. G. Porter, yesterday requested the Italian government to be patient for a few days, explaining in detail the obstacles existing in the United States to speedy settlement of the question involved by the New Orleans lynching. Rumors are circulated in the United States that a number of Americans are detained here as a hostage for future treatment. Italians in the United States say it should be classed as an April fool day joke of very bad taste. Public opinion here awaits the issue of negotiations in a most tranquil frame of mind.

DIDN'T LOSE ANY TIME.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Ex-Representative Carter, of Montana, yesterday morning took the prescribed oath, and entered on his duties as commissioner of the general land office.

STRIKE AT PHILADELPHIA.
PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—Because of a reduction of 10 per cent. in their wages, 700 brick makers struck today. The strike will involve 3000 men.

AUSTRALIAN BALLOT.
CONCORD, N. H., April 1.—The Australian ballot bill has passed the house.

THE MARTIN CASE.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—The case of Harry Martin, stepson of Senator Vance, who attempted to enter the White House on the night of March 21st by breaking a window, came up in the police court this morning and was not pressed.

THE COKE DISTRICT.
SCOTTSDALE, Pa., April 1.—The sheriff today arrested six of the prominent coke strike leaders on charge of conspiracy, riot, etc. They gave bail for a hearing on April 15. The arrests have excited miners very much.

THE MINISTER'S RECALL.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Secretary Blaine, it is stated, will make an official announcement of Baron Fava's recall, but, in the meantime, the baron's pleasant personal relations with the state department and this country will have been severed. It is doubtful whether, in view of the extraordinary circumstances of recall, there will be the formalities at the White House usual upon such an occasion as upon the recall of the department minister.

Indeed, when this affair is looked at from the distance of time, it will appear to have been much hurried. The letter from Governor Nichols to Secretary Blaine caused the trouble. It was received here several days ago, and a copy was sent at once to Baron Fava. This, of course, gave it the appearance of being the ultimatum of this government, and it appears that the baron accepted it as such and cabled it in that character to his government. Baron Fava has worked for his home interests to a degree of appearing over-zealous at this end of the line, but to-day developments would indicate there could not have been too much zeal on his part to suit his government, which appears to have made the matter the issue of the highest importance. Those commenting on the surprising events of the day agree that to break away from this government is not merely an act of discourtesy, but of open hostility. To have done it pending an investigation and the progress of the law in New Orleans is significant, it is said, of an utter disregard of conventionalities and of modern diplomacy. Indeed, in that light, this government now has a logical reason for feeling affronted at this lack of faith in its assistance on the part of its hot-headed neighbors.

THE POSITION AT PRESENT.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Associated Press correspondent here has perused the despatches exchanged between the government of Italy and the government of the United States regarding the New Orleans lynching. The substance of them is that Italy asked in main that fair and legal process should be instituted against culprits, regarding them as common assassins. Italy likewise asked for indemnity for families killed in New Orleans by the mob. To these requests the United States authorities at Washington answered: "The constitution of the United States gave but limited powers to the federal government in regard to interference with various states of the Union, but the United States government affirmed its good intentions in the matter." The answer from Washington being regarded as unsatisfactory, Italy instructed Baron Fava March 27th, to press the two original demands made upon the United States government, and in the event of his failing to obtain satisfaction, to leave Washington in-coog, after consigning the cares of the legation at Washington to the care of the first secretary.

ROME, Italy, April 1.—The news papers of this city pronounce themselves very strongly against the action of the United States government. Influential Italians advise the Italian government to send a circular note to the friendly powers denouncing the United States as being confessedly unable to insure justice. The cabinet will meet today and will resolve upon what further steps are to be taken in the New Orleans matter. In the course of an interview today with an Associated Press correspondent, Marquis Di Rudini said: "Personally I am most kindly disposed toward the United States government," and expressed the hope that the civil authorities of the United States would not fall in their duties toward society, justice, morality and law.

"Public opinion, however," he added, "demands a more energetic course of action. If the United States government does not perceive that it is in the wrong, diplomatic rupture is inevitable." Continuing, the premier said: "The report that Americans have been insulted and arrested in Italy as an outcome of the present negotiations is ridiculous and false. Americans always receive here the best and kindest hospitality, both upon the part of the Italian government and the Italian people, both knowing perfectly well the duties of a civilized country."

The pressure brought to bear upon Premier Marquis Di Rudini, and which compelled him to act vigorously, was fomented by friends of Signor Crispi, late premier of Italy. "If we believe in American contentment" said an Italian senator to a press correspondent, "which is, I personally believe, well founded, that evidence convicted the men who were acquitted, we are in this unpleasant position, Italy cannot condone lynching without assuming the guilt and venality of the New Orleans court, which international comity forbids us to assume."

NEW YORK, April 1.—Prominent Italians of this city seen last night do not consider the recall of Baron Fava as indicating war between this country and Italy, but all agreed it marked the displeasure of the Italian government. The editor of L'Echo d'Italia said last night he had expected this action of Italy. There was no danger of war, however, as all matters would be settled by arbitration.

Professor Oldrini said the present movement was merely one of the diplomatic steps common in European countries. The recall of Baron Fava was the only course left open to Italy under the circumstances. There was no possibility of more serious international complications. Italy was not taking that attitude, nor any other attitude than indicated by diplomatic usages. Those who indulge in sensational talk of heavy shot which Italy will pour into American ports do not realize the situation. Italy knows perfectly well if central power of union is powerless to guarantee continuous protection of Italian residents in the United States on account of holes in the constitution, the final issue in this country would be an international one rather than an Italian, subject to the interests of all nations of Europe, whether allied with Italy or not. It is a question far above money, and not one of revenge. The general opinion of all prominent Italians in this city seems to run on the same line as the above.

ENGLISH PRESS OPINION.

LONDON, April 1.—The St. James Gazette commenting on the recall of Baron Fava says: "If Italy is disposed to send her ironclads to the Mississippi, Americans have no ships to face the Lepanto and Dulio for forty minutes. The withdrawal of an Ambassador is the next thing to a declaration of war and evidently meant to convey to the United States the information that Italy is not to be trifled with. The Star says: The United States is in an extremely difficult position, through the lynching at New Orleans is justifiable. The withdrawal of Fava is the easiest solution of the problem. The Globe thinks the United States ought to be taught a vigorous lesson in diplomacy. They must learn they cannot ignore Old World ideas.

AMERICAN PRESS.

PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—The Enquirer says: We attach no serious importance to the recall of the minister. This is more a political move on the part of the government of Italy than a desire for a naval brush. There has been a change of ministry over there. The new government has learned a lesson from British Jingo's.

BOSTON, Mass., April 1.—The Post says: It now becomes Blaine's duty to combine business within the limits of diplomacy and prevent its expansion into real trouble. There is no doubt of his ability to do this if he is not misled by the attraction of an opportunity for some "brilliant" stroke.

PROCTOR TO WASHINGTON.
YUMA, Arizona, April 1.—Secretary of War Proctor arrived here this morning. The secretary said if Italian reports are confirmed he would start East immediately after reaching San Francisco.

BLAINE ARRANGING MATTERS.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Secretary Blaine arranged to have an interview with the president this afternoon. He has been engaged in the preparation of his reply to Fava's last note, and it is supposed that he will submit this paper to the president before any statement is made to the public respecting the correspondence between the governments of the United States and Italy.

The impression is deepening in diplomatic circles that there is decidedly a personal aspect to the withdrawal of Baron Fava. It was learned that last year Carrion,

United States consul at Palermo, made a report to the secretary of state upon the subject of brigandage in Italy. He described a number of cases of outrageous treatment of foreign citizens, Americans included, by Italian banditti, and proceeded to score the Italian government deeply for its failure to suppress these red-handed criminals and defend foreigners in Italy. This report was published in this country and so aroused the indignation of Baron Fava, the Italian minister, that he promptly notified his government of the nature of the report and announced his determination to secure the consul's recall. In Secretary Blaine's absence he was able to do this. Blaine was much displeased at the action taken, but it was too late to recall the department's decisions, consequently the relations between the secretary and the baron became somewhat less pleasant than they had been and according to gossip floating about the state department, by some means not exactly described, the Italian government came to understand that a representative upon more cordial terms with prominent United States officials might obtain more favors for his government.

NICHOLS NOT CONCERNING HIMSELF.
NEW ORLEANS, April 1.—There is the greatest interest manifested here in the news from Washington of the report of the recall of Fava. Governor Nichols is not concerning himself about the complications that have arisen and seems to think there is nothing further for him to say or to do at present.

SOFIA, March 31.—The Bulgarian government has offered a reward of $5000 for the apprehension of the murderer of the late minister of finance, M. Bettecheff, and has granted a pension for life to the murdered man's widow.

MORE FROM INDIA.

CALCUTTA, April 1.—The Bengalee infantry and eighty ghorkas, it appears, were set upon by the Assamese as the native troops referred to were passing through a difficult and dangerous pass, and, though they fought gallantly against heavy odds, the rebel tribesmen, from the advantageous position which they occupied on the sides of the pass and behind the British force, poured such a destructive fire into the ranks of the Bengalee and ghorkas that the latter are said to have been killed to a man. The viceroy is hurrying troops into the province of Assam in order to punish the hostiles. Troops are also being sent into states located in proximity to Assam in order to prevent possible disorder, or the war-like outbreak which it is thought might follow the spreading of the news of the massacre of the troops at Manipur.

SENSATIONAL SUIT.

CHICAGO, April 1.—Charges of a highly sensational character are made in a suit for $100,000 damages begun in the circuit court yesterday. The plaintiff, Eugene Dunnyant, formerly a news boy, claims that his life has been wrecked as the result of a conspiracy between Orin Potter, millionaire, and president of the Illinois Steel company, and Tom Fox, James Hutchins and Frank Allen, who are also made defendants. It is alleged that a deep plot was laid by Potter to break up the acquaintance between his daughter and Dunnyant, and, with this end in view, the plaintiff claims that he has been innocently made to serve four years in the penitentiary. The charge is also made that the then editor of a newspaper in Chicago suppressed the boy's story on receiving $15,000 from Potter. A New York paper procured and published the story, which created a sensation at the time.

THE JUMPER STABS A MAN.
ALBANY, N. Y., April 1.—Steve Brodie was arrested here, charged with stabbing Walter Wilson, yesterday morning. The wound is not serious. The affair occurred in Maloy's saloon on Stevens street.
