SAD DEATH IN CALIFORNIA.—The family of Mr. James Finney, residing some miles north of Salem, are plunged into deepest grief by the intelligence of the death of the eldest son, Francis J., at Oakland, Cal., last Saturday, at the age of 28 years and 4 months.

STILL DEBATING.—A number of members of the Alkas, Salem's grand old debating society, met in their hall Saturday night with D. C. Sherman in the chair.

WILL START AGAIN.—The Capital Lumbering Mills, which have been shut down for nearly a month will start up again about the middle of this week.

MORTUARY REPORT.—During the months of 1890 there were 91 interments in Salem's three burying grounds.

VIEWING THE CITY.—V. S. Pease, who is in Salem in the interest of the syndicates who have been negotiating for the purchase of the Salem Street Railway, equipments and other property of the Salem Land Company, is looking over the city with a view of closing the option on the purchase.

MOVING OUT.—The old residence which has stood on the lot of G. W. Gray on Liberty street and has been used as a boarding house for many years, is being moved out.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The parties who failed to get waited upon at Clark & Eppley's last Saturday should bear in mind that additional help has been secured for the future.

ENGINEERING COMPANY.—H. W. Shultz, A. W. Todd and Edward Cannon, of Portland, have filed articles incorporating the Northwest Electric Engineering company, with a capital stock of $40,000.

NEW LINE.—Rare and delicately tinted shells of the Pacific coast, souvenirs made from the big trees of California, view albums, etc., Geo. F. Smith's, 307 Commercial. Call and see them!

CIRCUIT COURT.

Marion County Circuit Court Called at One o'clock This Afternoon.

Judge Boise called the adjourned session of the circuit court at one o'clock this afternoon. The following cases were given a hearing:

State vs Tom Osborne indicted for larceny by bail. Pleads tomorrow morning.

Oregon Furniture Mfg. Co. vs Mc Kinley Mitchell, Default judgment and order of sale of attached property.

C. W. Shively vs Gov. Penoyer et al, writ of mandamus. This is a case wherein certain citizens of Astoria claim lands which the state board of land commissioners refused to give such a title until they were shown the lands in question were tide lands.

REMARKABLE AFFLICTION.—The family of Adam Sconce, whose home is seven miles south of Silverton has been the scene of untold grief.

UNIVERSITY MEETING.—The friends and patrons of the Willamette university are requested to meet in the lecture room of the M. E. church, this city, tomorrow evening, at 8 p. m., to hear the plans and purposes, looking to the better endowment of the University explained, as now formulated by the parties having that matter in hand.

When you make up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy some other preparation instead. Clerks may claim that "ours is as good as Hood's" and all that, but the peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equaled.

GRIFITH.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scriber in South Salem, April 11, 1891, C. Griffith, aged 84 years and 11 months. Chisholm Griffith was born in Virginia, 1806. In his boyhood he moved to Lexington, Kentucky, where he married Maria Clifton.

HERREN.—At the family home, No. 10 Division street, Salem, Oregon, Monday April 13, 1891, at 9 o'clock a. m., Wm. J. Herren, aged 87 years 3 months and 9 days. Today the JOURNAL chronicles the death and pays the last tribute to two more of the pioneers of Oregon.

LOCAL UNION.—Tonight at the Baptist church the executive committee of the local union of Christian Endeavor met for the transaction of business.

SURVEYORS DEPARTMENT.—County Surveyor W. J. Culver and three assistants started for Astoria today to begin on their summer's contract surveying the government land back of that city.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The parties who failed to get waited upon at Clark & Eppley's last Saturday should bear in mind that additional help has been secured for the future.

ENGINEERING COMPANY.—H. W. Shultz, A. W. Todd and Edward Cannon, of Portland, have filed articles incorporating the Northwest Electric Engineering company, with a capital stock of $40,000.

PRESIDENT AND FOURTH OF JULY.

Remember the mass meeting to be held in the city hall tonight to make arrangements to receive the president when he comes to this state. Heretofore when noted men come to Oregon, Portland made a great do and the people in the east imagine that she is the only city in Oregon. Salem should not take a back seat, because Portland talks loud. Committees will be appointed to look after that matter and also to take steps toward the celebration of the Fourth of July.

SHOOTING RANGE.—Company B, Second regiment O. N. G., have put up a neat shooting range just across the river in Polk county on the land of Thos. Holman. The range is made for a shooting distance of 300 yards or less. Bulkheads eight feet square are put up to receive the balls.

H. Co. MEETING TONIGHT.—As forty men have been enlisted for this company, a special meeting will be held this evening to perfect the organization.

FARM AND HOME NOTES.

Candor and truth are natural to the young. Dissimulation and deceit result from injudicious guidance and restraint.

Prepare to attend the State Horticultural meeting at Salem, Tuesday, April 14, at the senate chamber. County society, April 21.

The demand for Salem business property was never so great as at present. There is no better investment than ground or buildings on our business streets.

There is money to be made by any fruit grower who will attend the horticultural meetings at Salem, State, April 14; county, April 21.

The famous broodmare, Beautiful Belle, 2:29, dropped a bay colt by Electioneer recently at the farm of Senator Stanford, Palo Alto, Cal. This youngster is the last foal of that much prized combination, Electioneer-Beautiful Belle.

Farmers, do not fail to put in a piece of ground to roots—the yellow globe or carrot—for your stock. It is fed that is easily kept. It can be left in the field until late, requires no silo, keeps well and is most healthful feed.

As the Salem grange has voted in favor of encouraging the importation of a ship load of sugar, it is interesting to know how much sugar that would be. March 28th, the steamer Houslow (English of course) landed a cargo of Sandwich Island sugar at San Francisco, amounting to 9,480,000 pounds—enough to supply 7 lbs. 13 ozs., each to every man woman and child of 1,204,002 inhabitants of the Golden state.

Unless parents who are farmers desire to discourage their sons from following this business, they should be allowed to do something each year on their own account, and have the money they thus make. The little thus earned early by themselves will be worth a hundred times as much as if left to them after the death of their parents, who previously kept them ignorant of any practical knowledge of the value and uses of money.

North Pacific Rural Spirit: The trotting horse is now the mere toy of the sporting man or eye of the ambition of enterprising early manhood. Aged men, by the hundreds, indulge in his ownership and enjoyment. Thousands of men in mature manhood own trotting horses, as affording the most exhilarating of outdoor recreation, while young men without number long for the day of greater prosperity, when they can afford to own and drive a swift roaster.

Orange Judd Farmer: Let there be no "April 1st fooling" on the part of dealers. They have had six months notice that on April 1st 1891, the tariff of an average of 2 cents a pound would be off, and the cost of sugar be 2 cents a pound less. The act allowed sugar to be sent anywhere, in bond, long enough for all dealers to get the free-of-tax sugar the first of this month, so no dealer has right to keep up old prices until he sells "off old stocks." The 2 cts. a pound cheaper sugar is designed for the benefit of all the people, and all should have it at once.

The agricultural editor of the JOURNAL expects to be able to talk from experience soon. He has under cultivation 200 grape vines; ten acres of fruit trees; land cultivated to 6 acres potatoes; 4 acres of other crops; all of which relieves him from the suspicion of being altogether a side-walk agriculturist for political effect. He is also propagating 6000 grape cuttings suitable for Oregon farms and homes and ten of the newest and ten latest varieties of strawberries.

A New York horse life insurance company, insuring only sound and generally young animals, worth between $100 and $400 each, reports that of 704 horses dying within the past five years, 183 died of colic, 77 of inflammation of the bowels, 74 of kidney trouble, 51 of pneumonia, 52 of sunstroke, 30 of pinfever, 37 of lockjaw, 23 of broken legs, 12 of epizootic, 10 of heart disease, 4 of blind staggers, 9 killed by runaways, 5 were drowned, 2 were killed by lightning, 128 died of unknown diseases, and only 8 were burned.

The strawberries that seem to be safe to plant everywhere throughout this coast are: Langworth's Profife-odd, medium size, very good; Sharpless—very large, poor in quality, productive, but fairly good for home use if allowed to become fully ripe; Monarch of the West—fine south and in Arizona; Wilson's Albany is still prized by many, and is exceedingly rich and fine if allowed to ripen on the vine; Cinderella is fine near the coast on strong soils. Varieties seemingly worthy of further trial are: Downing, Haviland, Bubaeca No. 5, Wardfield's No. 2, Parker Earle, Eureka and Princess. These have all been found to withstand heat and drought well.—Portland Spirit.

Portland Rural Spirit: The more closely we study the foot of the horse, giving due consideration to its importance as a factor in the work the horse performs, and the exposure he undergoes, considering the leg at the same time, the more we will perceive that the heavy horse should be carefully bred with a view to securing a staunch foot and leg. The hoof proper should be dark in color and of firm texture, and in shape upright, deep from above downward, and concave beneath. A large horse requires a large foot, and no ignorant smith should be permitted to do otherwise than to maintain the foot at its full natural size, by fitting the shoe to the foot, rather than mutilate the foot to fit the shoe.
