supposition is that it was from the kitchen on the first floor in the rear. At 11 o'clock there was no way of telling if all the occupants escaped. Men who were on the fourth story and had to come down the fire escapes think all got out safely. In the previous fire four lives were lost, and last night, so far, another victim is added to the list. When the extension ladder was being raised, and before the electric lights were shut off, the ladder crossed a live wire. Two firemen were already ascending. Phil Brown got safely past the wire, which was emitting a flame where it touched the ladder. Charles Werner followed, but was shouted to by the crowd to desist. Turning to them he cried. "Shut your mouths; I know my business.' At that instant a bright light enveloped his body and he fell to the sidewalk, a distance of thirty feet. Doctors tried to resuscitate him, but he was dead. Other fatalities are feared. The loss on the building is $20,000, on furniture $5000. The insurance could not be ascertained.

DONE IT AT LAST,

CAMDEN, N. J., April 21.--While merry makers enjoyed themselves at the Pavonia park, East Camden, Christian Eckert, the proprietor of the park, drew a huge butcher knife across his throat and died. Eckert was one of the best known Germans in Camden, being a member of nearly a score of social and secret organizations. Twice before, within the past few years, he had attempted to take his life, once with the fragments of a lamp chimney he had broken, and once with a knife. He had been drinking heavily this time and early last Saturday morning he became violent, and he then declared he would end his life without fail. Dr. Vail was sent for and he administered opiates, which brought sleep to Eckert. At noon yesterday, however, he became wild again. He was missed about two o'clock, and it was at once considered that he had gone off somewhere to commit suicide. Later his dead body was found in a room on the third floor of the house.

FOUND DEAD.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, April 21.—The corpse of Charles French was discovered Saturday afternoon under circumstances showing a slow, lingering death. French was living alone upon his claim, about three miles east of Pozo, this county. He was missed from his cabin about eight days before the discovery of his body. A search was made without success until today, when neighbors found his body pinned to the earth by a tree which he had felled, and which had fallen across his thighs, preventing any movement. He had evidently worked and struggled desparately but vainly to release himself with his knife. He had dug away the hard earth, and his torn and bloody nails showed the terrible efforts he had made.

PETRIFIED.

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—When the body of William Jones, which was buried at Corunna two years ago, was disinterred for shipment, it was found that the body was petrified, with every feature preserved perfectly, even to the hair. At the time of burial Jones weighed 180 pounds, while his petrified body now weighs 495 pounds. The rock which has taken the place of the flesh seems to be similar to hard limestone.

SHE TOOK THE FUNDS.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 21.—The village of Elmwood, a few miles south, is all agog over the sudden disappearance of Mrs. Amelia Winston. She is one of the oldest members of the Methodist Episcopal church, and was noted for her Christain qualities. The church has outgrown its present quarters, and the congregation determined to build a new church. Mrs. Winston, because of her extensive acquaintance and high religious standing, was chosen to act as custodian of the funds. The first of a series of entertainments was given March 12 to raise the necessary funds. Others followed, and there were some private subscriptions. About $500 was thus secured, and with this amount Mrs. Winston is missing. It is believed she has gone to Chicago.

TRAIN WRECKED.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—Somebody removed the fish plates and caused the rails to spread, wrecking a passenger train on the Albama and Great Southern railroad, near Springfield, early thi morning. The engineer and fireman were scalded to death.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 21.—Four car loads of heavily armed Pinkerton guards arrived at the Coke region today. It is thought these men will take the place of militia, as the governor will not allow the National Guard to be used to evict strikers.

THE PRESIDENT'S JOURNEY.

EL PASO, Texas, April 21.—The presidential party arrived here this morning. The reception here was a perfect ovation. American and Mexican representatives of President Diaz vieing with others in their efforts to honor President Harrison. The city was elaborately decorated with American and Mexican colors and troops of both countries were drawn up at the station to receive the distinguished visitors.

When the party alighted from the train a salute of twenty-one guns was fired. Governor Curillo, of Chihuahua, and staff, and General Rangel with a battery of artillery and a military band, participated in the reception as representatives of President Diaz, of Mexico, who was unable to be present. The visitors were escorted to the court house where formal addresses were made. When the procession reached the nearest point to Mexico, the artillery of that country fired a salute in honor of President Harrison.

GETTING READY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The work of decorating Market street, from the ferries to Pavillion, was begun yesterday morning The work thus begun is only that of the electric lighting arrangement, however. The bunting feature and all the rest of it are yet to come. The electric lighting will give the president an idea of the illumination possibilities that he could get no where else, and the plan is almost as original as that by which St. Louis is illuminated with its miles of gas jets. From every pole on the south side of Market street will be hung two electric lights of the largest incandescent kind. Where an electric light pole already exists, this will be augmented by two more.

FAILURE OF CORN CROP.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 21.—A dispatch says: Continual wet weather in Eastern Kansas will probably be the cause of a failure of corn and potato crops. Wheat however is not affected only in low land.

BOY HANGS HIMSELF.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 21.—Willie Mendheim, aged 13, became angry with his mother and told her he was going to commit suicide. His mother merely laughed at the threat. The boy procured a rope and before his mother's eyes made his preparations for death. He fastened the rope to the ceiling and putting the end around his neck got up in a high chair and jumped. Just before the leap he said: "I have spited you, now, mamma." His neck was broken. His mother saw him as he made the fatal spring.

PROHIBITION.

WICHITA, Kas., April 21.—The people of Kiowa, one of the old cattle towns, are up in revolt against the lady who is mayoress of the city and now controls municipal affairs. Kiowa has always been a "wet" town, but last Tuesday the handful of prohibitionists and the women got together and elected, by a majority of two, Mrs. D. Paxton mayoress of the city. Directly after the installation the new executive dismissed the former city marshal, put in a new man and ordered every one of the eleven saloons in the city closed tight and all the billiard rooms shut up. These places have been the main attraction of the town, and because of its liberality in these matters, Kiowa has always been a favorite rendezvous for cattlemen whose money has contributed to the welfare of the merchants. Saturday a meeting of business men was called, and a committee dispatched to interview the mayoress, but she would not budge from her high moral pedestal. Her husband was seen, but he could do nothing. Yesterday morning another meeting was held, and it was determined to defy the orders of the mayoress and keep open the saloons despite the city marshal. Just what will be the outcome is hard to foretell, but the two factions in the town are hourly becoming more warlike.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 21.—Delegates to the republican league convention arrived in great numbers this morning. At headquarters everybody is busy with preliminary arrangements. Music Hall, where the convention will be held, is beautifully decorated with flags and bunting.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 21.—Address of welcome in behalf of the state was given by Ex-Gov. Foraker. President Thurston then delivered the address. Speaking of the farmers' alliance movement, he said: Its importance must not be underestimated by the republican party. The hope of the democratic party today, he declared, is based on its ability to combine with the alliance on the electoral ticket in the western states, and thereby throw the election of the president into the house of representatives. He said: If republicans expected to hold the allegiance of the western people, they must see to it that western interests are recognized and western demands given fair consideration in legislative and administrative affairs.

FOREIGN.

WAR TALK IN EUROPE.

LONDON, April 21.—A Vienna dispatch says that armed bands are appearing in the Dabrudscha. They appear to be Russians and refugee Bulgarians, and they hover between the Russian and Bulgarian frontier. The Roumanian government evidently friendly to Russia, is not interfering with them, and the Roumanian newspapers are publishing severe attacks upon Prince Ferdinand's government. The Roumanian army is being armed with the same weapons as the Russians, and the officers are permitted freely to inspect the troops and fortresses. The new ministry is strongly philo-Russian and has entirely overturned the policy of General Lano, the late premier. Russian influences prevail in every department, and it is reported that a treaty is in negotiation between Russia and Roumania similar to that with France. This would place at the disposal of the Russians nearly 300,000 Roumanian troops and a small but effective fleet, the Roumanian army being more than double that of Bulgaria. Berlin advices state that the position of England in the event of war is eagerly discussed. The opinion is freely expressed in well-formed circles that England would probably not interfere unless Egypt or some British possession would be threatened by Franco Russian allies. It is also stated that Russia's finances are in good condition, and better than at any time within ten years. The opponents of war, and of the Austrian alliance are auxious to see Bismarck in the reichstag, as they believe his influence might prevent Germany from taking any part in the struggle when it comes. The war question seems to be mixed up with the Austro-German commercial question, and Bismarck is understood to be opposed to both.

A startling state of affairs was revealed at a meeting of farmers living along Cherry creek, above Denver. It was developed that Denver and the residents of Cherry creek valley were threatened with a disaster similar to that which occured at Johnstown, Pa., two years ago. The object of the meeting was to bring it to the notice of the people of Denver. It seems that the Denver Water Storage Company has just finished a reservoir thirty-five miles above this city to supply water to an immense tract of arid land, which the company has secured control of. The dam is sixty-five feet high, and drains 300 square miles of country, while the capacity of the reservoir is many millions of gallons. The trend of the Cherry creek basin is such that if the dam gave way, the whole of this immense quantity of water would rush down upon the city of Denver, entailing a frightful loss of life and property. The homes of hundreds of ranchmen in the Cherry creek basin would also be swept away, and the latter, therefore, held an indignation meeting to see if anything can be done in the matter. It is stated at the meeting that the vast water pressure in the dam has already forced several streams through it. The farmers claim to have dug down and found the dam was built upon quicksand instead of upon bedrock. They also say that poor material was used in construction of the dam. The charges are denied by the company's officers, who say that $450,000 was expended upon the work, and that it was well done. It is believed the matter will be brought to the supreme court immediately.

TO STRAWBERRY GROWERS.

A Wonderful New Berry—Originated in Oregon—The Matteson.

There has been originated in the great strawberry region about Turner and Aumsville a new seedling variety, propagated by Matteson & Matteson, at their RedHill Berry Farm. The first berries sent to the CAPITAL JOURNAL office, Salem, last year were of this variety, and they were the most perfect fruit in every respect that was shown in this city. The berry is of a deep red clear through, high flavor, yet sweeter than most kinds. An experience in producing the finer sorts of strawberries, leads the editor of this paper to say that he does not know of A SUPERIOR BERRY IN FINENESS OF QUALITY in every respect to

THE MATTESON.

He has secured the sole agency from the originators and now for the first time places a limited supply on the market. Testing the fruit, and a description of its habits, leads the editor of the JOURNAL to conclude that it has exactly those qualities that must be sought after to produce fine berries in Oregon. It is of high color, great sweetness, rich flavor, meaty, firm, not watery, no hard center, and exceedingly palatable.

DESCRIPTION.

The originators have been strawberry growers for more than twenty years and call this their "Best," because they have tried many new and highly recommended varieties and found this to possess more desirable qualities than any other. The Matteson is an accidental seedling, originated from a single plant found on Red Hill Farm six years ago. It is coming four to six days before the Wilson. Ripens all its fruit quickly and is gone by the time the Wilson is in full blast. The berries are as large as the Wilson, but it does not "run to nubbins" so much. It is of a deep red color all over and all through. The berry stems are short, bearing close to the plant, thus often escaping early frosts which kill others (the Sharpless especially.) It is easy to pick and easily hulled. It is firm and the most meaty berry we have ever seen. It produces equal to the Wilson. It is a perfect flowering variety and does not need to be planted with another variety to get a full crop. The plant is healthy and stands drouth and freezing well. It is a sweet berry and retains its flavor well when canned. In concluding his description of this new berry, Dr. Matteson says: "Last season we had only two rows of these on our grounds. Old pickers said to new ones, when picking Wilsons, 'Don't eat these. Wait till you get on the other side; there are two rows of the best berries.' And we had to pick those two rows ourselves early in the morning to save any of them, and to keep pickers from gobbling them all up. They would not touch Wilsons if they could get these, and if pickers do not know what good berries are, no one does."

TERMS.

The originator has placed the sale of this new plant in our hands and orders will be booked at following prices:

1 Dozen plants postpaid by mail, $1.00.

100 plants by express, $5.00.

To save express charges plants will be delivered at the JOURNAL office to city purchasers, where orders can be left. Fifty plants will be furnished at hundred rates. Address, E. Hofer, CAPITAL JOURNAL, Salem, Oregon.
