IN JOINT SESSION.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon all the committees appointed for the occasion of the president coming to Salem met in the council chambers. The sub-committees, which were recently appointed by the acting committees were also present and reported the progress of their work. There is much work to be accomplished to make the occasion a glowing success and those who have the matter in hand have little time to lose. The committee on arrangements has issued a circular which is being sent to the neighboring towns asking them to take part in the exercises. The circular says: "An invitation is tendered your citizens to unite with the people of Salem, on Tuesday, May 5th, in honoring President Feunton and party, during their stay to the capital city. Please give public notice that your community is requested to join us en masse, on the above date and participate in the exercises, which are being arranged in a manner worthy of the chief executive of the United States. Bring music and flowers, and help us to make the event a pleasant success, that will long dwell in the memory of our distinguished guests." The secretary of state has freely granted the use of the state house for the occasion. That will be an opportune time for a great day in Salem, and every thing is now favorable for it being such.

MONDAY NIGHT IN SILVERTON.—The Odd Fellows of Silverton were loyal to their birthright and gave a celebration in their hall in that burg Monday night. They were also addressed by Judge Walton, of Eugene, in the afternoon, a good attendance was out to both exercises. In the evening Mrs. Feunton addressed the people of Silverton on the "Rebecca degree of Odd Fellowship." After the address an hour or more was devoted to administering the "Frazier" degree to a member. This part of the program was also public. Those who understand that part of the order of the fraternity are aware that it is a grand and laughable farce conducted at the expense of the member being initiated. Those who were present report a gay time. The latter part of the evening was devoted to dancing and discussing a fine supper.

DAY FOR SHERIFFS.—On Monday this city was almost taken by visiting sheriffs. Jas. G. Birdsey came in on the morning train from Jackson county. Wm. Mackay, of Benton, and O. P. Cresop, of Grant, came in during the afternoon. In the evening this number was increased by two, by the presence of W. L. Wells, of Polk, and J. G. Bowles, of Union. The four sheriffs had named brought patients to the asylum, while Mr. Birdsey brought two convicts to the pen. H. P. Ford of Washington county, brought a big crazy Indian to the asylum this afternoon. Six sheriffs from abroad to happen in Salem at once is not a common affair.

SIXTY DOLLARS IN FINES.—Five men were interviewed this morning in the recorder's court. One man was required to answer two charges and plead guilty to both, and paid into the city's coffers about $25. Three of the other men paid their fines, in all amounting to over $30. The receipts in fines in the county court this morning were nearly $60.

AT HOME AGAIN.—Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Albert and their daughter, Mrs. Singleton, and family, will be able in a day or two to move into their residence on Mill and Winter streets, recently damaged by fire. A new roof has been put on and a new coat of paint inside and out, while new papering and other attractive fixtures give it the pleasing air of a new home.

SUCCESS WAS THEIRS.
Odd Fellows Celebrate the Seventy-Second Anniversary of their Fraternity in Fitting Style.
Chemeteta lodge No. 1 and Olive lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., can congratulate themselves on the success attending their celebration in this city Monday. Owing to the rain the afternoon exercises were held in the opera house, but were well attended. The program while not lengthy was a very impressive one. The rain during the past few days lessened the number of visiting brethren, which left the celebration largely in the hands of the home lodges.

The opera house was filled to overflowing in the evening by those who had availed themselves of the opportunity to spend one evening with the well established fraternity, Odd Fellows. The exercises were opened with choice selections from the Second Regiment band. The Odd Fellows' ode was next sung by the choir which was followed by the trio, "Charity." Miss Scriber rendered one of her favorite selections in a pleasing manner. Prof. Parvin sang "The Good Samaritan." This was followed by the address of the evening by Hon. M. C. George, of Portland, on the subject "Odd Fellowship." Mr. George is a slow and earnest speaker and makes a deep impression on an audience. He received the close attention of the entire assembly, notwithstanding the opera house was packed to the very door and many were compelled to stand. The speaker had an easy delivery and his grace on the platform added power to his eloquence. His address was a compliment to the Odd Fellowship and a laurel to himself.

At the close of the address the band played a few selections while the floor was being cleared and made ready for a social dance. The orchestra took its place on the stage and those who did not care to dance had the opportunity to hear some good music. The seventy-second anniversary of the Odd Fellowship of America was celebrated to success in Salem.

GOING ON APACE.—The work of laying new plank sidewalk in the southeastern portion of the city—Albert's addition—is progressing finely and soon there will be a good walk to every man's door. This work will consume a large amount of lumber. It will take over twenty thousand feet to go around the property of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans on Mill, Capitol and Twelfth streets, and Mr. J. H. Albert will probably use up as much more.

LOCAL BRIEFS.
The president will draw a bigger crowd than the circus.
Strawberry growers claim the recent rains will insure a large crop of that variety of fruit.

Albany boasts of having a new band and baseball team, both having been organized during the past few weeks.
Four new patients added to the asylum population run the attendance up to 672, and Dr. Lane is making up beds on the floor.

A Klein, the shoe dealer, was in Albany Saturday evening and heard the Heywood concert. He says it is simply grand, and his name may be used to endorse it. It will be at the opera house tonight.
Some modest persons have asked what Salem will do with the president when he comes to the city, to prevent him seeing the street full of mud. A bolder class has suggested that something be done with the mud.

The Heywood Concert company gave an open air concert in front of Ladd & Bush's bank this afternoon. Three of the horn players were ladies. Judging from the afternoon sample the concert will be one of rare excellence.
I have a first-class horsehoer, just from Portland, formerly from Chicago, will take the place of J. J. Harkins. Give him a call.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Sheriff Croisan is in Portland today.
D. J. Fry and little daughter are slowly recovering.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy are both reported better to-day.
W. F. Boothby and Charley are convalescing.
T. McF. Patton, the State street book dealer, went down to Portland today on business.
Railroad Commissioner, Robert Clow, of Junction, came in on the afternoon train and is doing business at the state house.

Mr. C. Cheval, who left St. Hillarie, Canada, arrived in the city yesterday. He brought with him a fine lot of pure maple sugar for his friends. Of course the JOURNAL acknowledges the compliments of the season.
The World Enriched.
The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

ONE NIGHT IN SALEM.—Alba Heywood is coming and will be in Salem tonight. It is probably safe to say that this will be the best troupe that has been in Salem for some time. Salem has been deluded a few times by some company coming along and claiming to be first class and charging a high price for admission, and when they were gone the people were disgusted with them. The society editor of the JOURNAL has watched the press comments on this troupe closely, since it has been on this coast, and the remarks that have preceded the play, but those that had been given after it had played and gone. The press notices which are worth something and in general can be relied on are very favorable to this troupe. The concert embraces a very wide range of amusements. Miss Miller is at the head of her profession as a violinist and Alba Heywood is a clever impersonator. Many place him as a rival to Sol Smith Russell, who magnetized the world with his ability in the mimetic art. The troupe includes fourteen musicians and artists, embracing vocal and instrumental music on various instruments. The program has range enough to please the rude and the erudite, but the aim of the concert is to instruct as well as to amuse.

Grade Up Marion Square.
MR. EDITOR: Before the city council proceeds to put a fountain in Marion square I would respectfully suggest that they have it graded and filled up somewhat, so that it be not covered with mud holes, and that the old dead trees be taken out that the good ones may be preserved. It would be well also to do some trimming and thinning out, that sunshine and good air may be admitted for the promotion of grass growing and the evaporation of its now perpetual dampness. Until these things are done, the planting of a nice fountain in Marion square would be like putting gold rings in a hog's nose. ON THE SQUARE.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The Herald relates how C. N. Scott, late receiver of the old narrow gauge railroad, had a narrow escape from a fair prospect of drowning on the North Santiam a few days ago. He was out with others looking at land, and on returning had to cross the river in a skiff. In jumping from the skiff to the bank he lost his balance and would have fallen into the swift flowing stream if the quick hands of a fellow voyager had not intercepted his fall. Very few escape when once in the rapids of the swift current of the North Santiam.

A GOOD RECORD.—In the report of the quarterly examination at the Bishop Scott academy, Portland, published in the Churchman, it is noticeable that a Salem boy—Frank C. Sellwood—stands second of the eight given as ranking highest in the Commercial department. His record is 9.46 out of a possible 10. He is a son of Prof. Sellwood, principal of the North Santiam school.

To WED.—County Clerk F. J. Babcock today issued a marriage license to Miss Anella Claggett and Mr. Chas. A. Cook. Miss Claggett is one of Salem's fair and respected daughters, and is an estimable young lady. Mr. Cook is a Western Union telegraph operator, of Portland, and is well spoken of.

MOTHERS' KINDERGARTEN CLASS.—Mothers and all ladies interested in kindergarten and the new educational work are invited to meet at Miss O. Ballou's kindergarten, in the Christian church parlors, on Thursday afternoon this week, at 1:30 o'clock, for the organization of a "mothers' club." 28-2t.

COMING TO SEE THE PRESIDENT.—The Director of the Mt. Angel School has written the committee of arrangements that a delegation from Mt. Angel School, with the school band, will be present and assist in the ceremonies of receiving President Harrison. May 5th will be a gala day for Salem, and 10,000 visitors will assist in the joyful ceremonies.

DEAPPEARED.—Wm. M. Barber, a furniture dealer at Lebanon, went to Portland two weeks ago today, ostensibly to buy stock and pay his debts, but has not been heard from since. His business affairs are not in bad shape, and he leaves a young wife almost distracted.

VERY BUSY.—A JOURNAL reporter stepped into Patton's book store and found E. C. Patton very busy selling rubber stamps to his many customers. Every body should order from him. His prices are greatly reduced.

The Best Result.
Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. So that from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared everything is carefully watched with a view to attaining the best result. Why don't you try it?
THE BUILDING BOOM.—That is what Salem has just now, and contractors and others should be sure to order their lime, cement, etc., of Farrar & Co., at once.
PRENEX.—James Atken, a Salem grocer, Saturday shipped a big lot of prunes to Portland. The lot, of 9000 pounds, brought $800 cash. It was the remainder of the crop of Dr. Reynolds.

SCHOOL FOR DEAF MUTES.
The Closing Examination in the Oregon School—Reunion of Old Students.
The closing examinations in the Oregon school for deaf mutes were held at the school today. The number of those unfortunate ones who have attended the school this year is 33. The school is under the superintendency of P. S. Knight. The teachers are Prof. Rev. Irving G. A. Peterson and Miss Lizze Early, a daughter of David Early, of the Waldo Hills. The last two mentioned are deaf mutes and graduates of the school in which they are now assistant teachers. The closing exercises were only such as are had at the end of any term, which includes an examination of the branches studied during the term. There are six deaf mutes in the institution aside from the 33 pupils. These are in the industrial and domestic department.
In addition to their school work the children are taught industrial work. The girls are taught needle work, and the boys are given instruction in the art of printing and making brooms. The requisite machinery is in the institution to successfully carry on both branches of work. The "Sign" a monthly paper is the result of the printing department. A large number of brooms have been made during the year in the department set aside for that purpose. The school was unable to secure a good quality of broom corn last fall as they desired. Hence the quality of the product of broom was not as good as was hoped. An examination of the workmanship proved it to be good.
Tomorrow, the old-time students of the school will hold a reunion in the chapel. Some of those who were pupils in the school twenty years ago, are back to attend the reunion. The school closes tomorrow, until September.

School hats for 25 cts. at Calvert's.

MARRIED.
COOK—CLAGGETT.—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Claggett, on Commercial street, April 28, 1901, Mr. Chas. A. Cook, of Portland, and Miss Anella Claggett, of Salem, Rev. C. L. Corwin officiating.
The ceremony, which was an impressive one, was pronounced in the presence of the family circle at noon today. Miss Claggett is a young lady well known in Salem where most of her life has been spent. Her character is exemplary and her presence will be missed from the capitol city. Her visits to Salem from her future home in Portland will be hailed with pleasure by her friends here. The groom is a young man, of Portland, and those who have met him speak in praise of his character. The young couple left on the 10 o'clock train for the metropolis where they will make their future home.

DIED.
BROWN.—Annie Elizabeth Brown, wife of Geo. W. Brown, died Monday morning, April 27th, at 7 o'clock, at her home in Spokane Falls, Wash., of a grippe.
The remains will arrive here on tomorrow evening's Albany express and will be taken to the residence of Mr. Thos. King, from which place the funeral will take place Thursday at 10 a. m.
Mrs. Brown, nee Patterson, was born at New Concord, Ohio, March 10, 1857. She removed with her parents to Des Moines, Iowa, in 1865, thence to Salem, Oregon, in 1869, where she resided until April 20, 1880, when she was married to Geo. W. Brown, then of Salem. They removed to Portland where they resided for several years, and about a year ago on account of the health of their only child, a boy nine years of age, they removed to Spokane Falls, where they have resided until now. In December last Mrs. Brown visited Salem to attend the funeral of her only sister, Mrs. Thos. King. On returning home she took with her the infant child she bore by her sister. Mrs. J. M. Patterson, of The Dalles, was with Mrs. Brown at her death, and now has the care of the child left by Mrs. King.
Mrs. Brown leaves her husband and one son, Walter, aged ten years, an only brother, Mr. J. M. Patterson, of The Dalles, and many warm friends to mourn her departure.

LENON.—At his mother's residence in South Salem, John W. Lenon, April 28, 1891, of inflammation of the bowels. Aged 39 years. 2 months and 28 days.
The deceased was born in Deer Creek, Indiana, January 28, 1861, and is the eldest son of Mrs. A. A. Lenon. He leaves a young wife to mourn his loss. John crossed the plains with his father six years ago. The funeral will be held at the South Salem Church at 2 P. M., Wednesday, April 30, from thence to the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

EGGS.—For hatching from the finest breeding stock in the state, including first and second prize winners of Light Brahma, first and second in Black Game, first and second in White Leg, first and second in Plymouth Rock, and Brown Leghorn, at the Oregon State Fair, daily from 10 o'clock to 5 o'clock, at the Oregon State Fair, on exhibition of these prizes will be on exhibition and open for competition at the poultry exchange in Portland the 5th inst. and breeders bring out their birds, including first prize winners of Light Brahma and White Leghorn and Black Game, and also a pair of White Leghorns, which are the best of the kind. The eggs are sold at 10 cents per dozen, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as hereby required, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief
