WESTACOTT & IRWIN.

SURVEYING PARTY.—City Surveyor Alonzo Gesner and party left this afternoon for Alsea where they will begin surveying government lands. The party is composed of Captain A. Gesner, Fred Byars, W. N. Learned, Frank McGinty, C. S. Smith and Roy Gesner. One other man will be added to the party at Alsea. They go from here to the coast by team. The route selected has been from Salem to Independence by the Eola road and from there to Corvallis by the river road. From there they cross the mountains by the old Toledo road. They expect to be ready to begin work by Monday.

BROUGHT TO THE ASYLUM.—John Cyr was brought up to the asylum today. Cyr's demented condition is due to the excessive use of alcohol. He was landed in Astoria five years ago and in five years he had accumulated wealth to the amount of $20,000, principally in timberlands. During that time he was a constant user of strong drinks. For the past two years he has hardly seen a sober day and he has run through with considerable of his property and dethroned his reason by drink.

WHEELS DELAYED.—The wheels for the new vestibule cars are delayed on the road from Stockton, Cal., where the cars were manufactured. As soon as the equipments come the cars will be put on the road. A wheel on one of the cars now in use is in need of repairs and will be taken to the shop as soon as the new cars can be started. The hope for the fair ground extension is expected to arrive in a few days. The ties are in the road bed now and when the rails come they will be put in place at once.

FEW ACCIDENTS.—Notwithstanding the immense throng of people in the city yesterday few accidents occurred. Some of the streets were lined with vehicles of every description. The only accident reported took place on Chemeketa street about the middle of the afternoon. A farm carriage containing four or five persons was going up the street when the coupling gave way and the occupants were thrown into the mud. No one was hurt and with small laundry bill and a little blacksmith work all was right again.

MAKING FLOUR.—The Salem Flouring mills started up again Monday and the men who had been unemployed for a time are again busy. The run will be for a few weeks when it will again be necessary to shut down on account of the scarcity of wheat in this part of the valley. The mills have about enough wheat to keep the hands all busy half the time until the new crop is ready for the mill.

MEET THURSDAY NIGHT.—A few members of the city council were at the council chamber last night, but the mayor, recorder and a few members were in Portland, so an adjournment was had until Thursday night. The paving question will be brought up at that time and the result of the investigation committee, who went to Portland, will be made known.

A SOBER PEOPLE.—Few cities in Oregon could show such an example of sobriety as did Salem Tuesday. There were thousands of people in the city and many of them remained sober. The records of the police court shows that only one arrest was made for drunk or disorderly conduct during the day and following night.

ALL AROUND.—What you want in a place to trade is a store where you can get anything you want and can save some money on everything you buy. See Ben Forester's prices on clothing in this paper.

AT HARRISON INSTITUTE.
 President Harrison and Party Stop at the Great Indian Training School.

When the president was passing the University campus Tuesday morning his attention was called to the sacred historic spot where once stood the old institute in which the Indians of the northwest were first instructed in civilization and industry. An hour later he had an opportunity to see the outgrowth of the same work. This was at Chemawa, where he saw over two hundred Indians, not wild as the people in the east imagine them to be, but intelligent school children. When his train stopped at the Institute the Indian brass band was playing a national air with fine expression. The appearance of the children both surprised and delighted the distinguished party.

It was made one of the greatest events in the history of Chemawa. The party arrived at 10:20, and remained a few minutes during which time the president gave a short address replete with good counsel. The school girls and boys were delighted at seeing and hearing the "Great Father." A basket of exquisite pastries, beautifully and artistically arranged, was presented to the president by little four-year-old Ernest Brewer, son of the disciplinarian, D. C. Brewer, much to the delight of President and Mrs. Harrison. An arch of evergreens and wild flowers was erected over the entrance to the grounds with the name "Harrison Institute." The letters of native flowers were very attractive and were much admired by all.

PROF. ALEXANDER.—Tonight Prof. Alexander gives another free lecture, and on Thursday night "Love, Courtship, Marriage and Jealousy." This will no doubt draw the largest audience yet.

HORSE STRAYED.—A light bay horse, weight about 1050 pounds, 5 years old; branded "L. T." on left flank, strayed from Howell Prairie last of April. Information leading to his recovery will be rewarded. A. D. BAKER, Howell, Or. 5-5w23

SEVEN-MILE DITCH.—John Kirkpatrick, John Hanks, A. Kirkpatrick, and F. W. Foss, are the incorporators of the Seven-Mile Ditch Irrigation company, of Klamath county; capital stock, $2000.

THE PRESIDENT.—He has come and gone but you have got to wear shoes the year around. What you want is good service for your money and this is best obtainable in shoe leather at Klein's. See his prices. d&w

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Miss Lurena Ryland, of Woodburn, and O. L. Baltimore, of Albany, were granted a license to wed today by the county clerk.

Everybody is interested in love, marriage, courtship and jealousy, and we have no doubt the opera house will be filled Thursday night.

The commissioners court is in session this afternoon in regular session. There are numerous petitions and prayers before the court to be heard.

A majority of those who went down to Portland yesterday afternoon to attend the reception have returned and report a grand time in the big city on the lower Willamette.

C. E. Oliver, of Portland, Chas. E. Runyan, of Astoria, O. H. Byland, of Needy, Clackamas county, and E. C. Briggs, of Ashland, were appointed notaries public to-day.

Fresh cherries are seen in the Salem market. Strawberries have been on the market for a week. Tomatoes and peas even for a longer time. The first of the week green string beans and new potatoes were for sale.

The abundance of spring showers have kept the Willamette at a fine boating stage. A good boating stage on the river is promised until late in the summer.

Street Commissioner R. A. Crossan is putting a new cover over the cistern, at the intersection of State and Liberty streets. One wheel of a wagon, loaded with lumber, broke through this morning.

Hear Major Wallace sing "I'm a Little Shaking Quaker" next Friday night. There will also be a chorus by the following little girls: Lena Hutton, Carrie Willis, Winnie Cherrington, Gracie Babcock, Claudia Gilbert, Edna Hubbard, Alma Wagner, Margaret Randle, Maggie Hodgkin, Stella Hurst, Anna Golden. This number will be given in costume and will be well worth hearing. Seats at Patton's book store. Reserved seats 75 cents. Admission, 50 cents; children 25 cents.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effective to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

For Sale—A good business on Commercial street for sale at 20 per cent discount. Good reason for selling. Address K. K. this office. 5-14t.

Children's hats for 25 cts. at Calvert's.

LITERARY AT SUNNYSIDE.—On May 2 at Sunnyside schoolhouse there was a literary and musical entertainment, given by the children and others. There was speaking and dialogues and music. There was a debate on the question of a standing army vs. education, and it was decided in favor of the army. These gatherings are very interesting to the visitors and all who participate.

JAIL BREAKERS AT WORK.
 Prisoners in Marion County Jail Make an Unsuccessful Attempt for Liberty.

The two men who were confined in the county jail a few weeks ago to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of robbing two stores in Turner a short time before, made an attempt to gain their liberty early Tuesday morning. About two o'clock on that morning Allan Rhodes, night-watchman at the court house, heard a noise in the jail and immediately aroused the sheriff and his deputies. On entering the jail it was found that F. C. Clark and Frank Seiden were the men endeavoring to escape. During the day the prisoners had been allowed to run in the corridors of the jail, and at night they were locked up in a double cell. They had taken a few sticks of oak wood to the cell during the day and had also taken one of the legs from one of the folding canvas cots on which they slept. This was used as a lever and the short sticks of wood as fulcrums to break the door to their cell. The lever was wrapped with a piece of blanket to deaden the noise. These two men occupied the first cell on the north side. The doors are provided with double bolts and locks, one near the top and the other near the bottom of the doors which are made of iron rods and cross-bars. On this cell the top bolt has been out for some time and the door was fastened with the one at the bottom. The prisoners had pried the door out at the top with the hopes of crowding it into the corridor. What they intended to do when out of the cell no one knows. When in the corridor they were a long way from liberty. Probably they had some scheme planned to attack the sheriff when he came to give them their breakfast.

The sheriff has put them in the murderer's cell which has double doors for safe keeping. One of these men is the fellow who cut his way out of the Oregon City jail within an hour after being locked up. He is an ex-convict of California and is an evil looking man. Their stay in jail until the grand jury meets in June will be in close confinement.

MT. ANGEL DISAPPOINTED.
 Cannon Salute Heard Fifteen Miles Away—Rain Detained Them.

The following communication which is self explanatory was received by Mr. E. M. Waite from Father Dominic, director of the Mt. Angel college.

"I am indeed very sorry, that I disappointed you. Be sure, we would not have backed out if the weather had not done so. You should have seen how anxiously the students awaited the stopping of the rain. When we wanted to start for Salem, the rain was just pouring down. The college band (thirty members) prepared a nice selection of pieces, but all for nothing. Whilst I am writing this, I hear distinctly the salute of the cannons from Salem, in honor of the President. I hope you will kindly accept our excuse.

Very respectfully yours,
 F. DOMINIC, Director.

What it Costs.

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people, in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

DON'T Buy a lot in
YEW PARK
 Unless you want to build on it.
YEW PARK IS IN THE CITY.

The city water mains are laid through it. It is so near the Depot, University, Postoffice and business portion of the city that it is not necessary to ride, although the street cars run through it and leave every twenty minutes for Commercial street, North and East Salem. YOU CAN'T SPECULATE IN YEW PARK PROPERTY—the proprietors will attend to that; but you can buy a better home site there than in any other portion of the city for the same money. You will have no dust in Summer and no mud in winter. Its perfect drainage insures its healthfulness. The lots are large and many of them beautifully shaded with yew, fir, ash and oak. If you want to buy blocks of lots on speculation, and adjoining property make them valuable, don't patronize Yew Park.

It Is Not Built That Way
 If you want to speculate on options or blocks of eight or ten lots, go east in the country, NORTH, SOUTH, EAST or WEST, or to the suburbs of Portland, Astoria or to the Sound, and invest in a paper town, or what is better, buy a ticket in the Louisiana lottery, but keep away from Yew Park.
 Lots sold at low prices on long time and easy terms to home seekers. 4-14
