

RESOLVED TO DIE.
NEW YORK, May 21.—Ex-Sheriff O. D. Seymour, proprietor of the United States hotel, who attempted suicide Saturday, is still in a very critical condition. He refuses to eat or talk and has evidently determined to die. It has been discovered that in attempting to meet maturing obligations on account of his hotel business he has used the trust funds of Mrs. Kenney. Seymour has used over $1000 of these funds, and the fear of discovery is believed to have prompted his attempt on his life. Attachments were placed on the hotel property by many small creditors yesterday.

A GAY DEFAULTER.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—S. M. Hall, a well-known member of Boston's "400," was arrested last evening on three charges of felony and embezzlement. He came to San Francisco three years ago and secured a position with Greenberg & Blair, wholesale jewelers, as book-keeper and cashier. After thirteen months' employment he gave up his position and went to Japan, returning to Boston about a year ago. Since that time he has flitted between New York and Boston, and arrived in San Francisco about three weeks ago. He was then taken in charge by the Morse detective agency and was informed by his former employers that he was a defaulter in the sum of $7500, and they wanted him to have his family send them a check for $10,000, which would include the amount of the defalcation, $1300 interest and $1200 expenses. His relatives refused to put up on account of the items for expenses and interest. After three weeks imprisonment he was finally turned over to the local authorities. His lawyers say that Hall's former employers have been guilty of an attempt to compound a felony.

CASHIER ARRESTED.
PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—A statement of the condition of the Pennsylvania Safe Deposit and Trust Co., which recently assigned, shows an apparent difference of $97,000 between assets and liabilities. Francis M. Kennedy, president, and Henry H. Kennedy, cashier of the suspended Spring Garden National bank, has been arrested on a charge of receiving deposits when they knew the bank was insolvent.

CARPENTERS' STRIKE.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Several strikes have originated as a result of the determination of the carpenters not to use material manufactured by mill-men, who persist in maintaining nine hours a day. It is stated that 7000 carpenters of this city and vicinity will assist the mill-hands in their efforts to secure eight hours a day.

WATCH CLUB SWINDLE.
BUFFALO, May 21.—The Chicago Watch Lottery Company is no more and the investors in this city, numbering 200, are all losers. On Saturday morning, F. H. Strider, manager of the Buffalo branch, fled, taking everything valuable in the office. Many people here suspect collusion between the head office and the numerous agencies with a view to a sudden and profitable closing up of the business.

GAMEN SYLVA.
BUCHAREST, May 21.—Ex-Queen Natalie has arrived at Galatz, whence she goes by rail to Jassy. At Semlin the ex-queen's apartment was filled with floral tributes and silver wreaths, presented to her. Before boarding the steamer she kissed all the women who were near enough to her. The students kissed her hands and hair.

FRESHYTERIANS MEET.
DETROIT, May 21.—The Presby-terian general assembly met here today.

KRUPP'S GUNS.
BERLIN, May 21.—The story that Krupp is arming, or has agreed to arm the French navy, has excited much feeling in Berlin as in Paris. While Krupp's right to supply whom he pleases with the products of his establishment is recognized, it has been supposed in Germany that he would draw the line at France, in view of the antagonism between the two nations, and the certainty of war, sooner or later. Krupp also has enjoyed valuable privileges at the hands of the German authorities and is acquainted with the German artillery system to a degree that makes him almost a confidential agent of the government. Much surprise is expressed that the French should have anything to do with him, in view of the terrible effect of his siege guns on the City of Paris in the Franco-Prussian war.

PLATFORM THIRD PARTY.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—When the national conference assembled in the afternoon a lecture from L. L. Polk, president of the national farmers' alliance, was read, advising the conference to issue an address to defer action of the third party until 1892, caused a breeze, and when a motion to refer it to the committee on resolutions was declared carried, there was a loud demand that the negative be put more forcibly by the chair. The demand was renewed and continued from time to time. Ignatius Donnelly, chairman of the committee on resolutions, climbed upon the rostrum at this juncture and almost his first words caused a whirlwind of excitement. The declaration from Donnelly which set the convention wild was to the effect that he was there to report that the committee on platform was a unit for the organization of a third party. Two alternatives were presented, he said, either to ignore the third party or divide the friends of reform. He gave way to Robert Schilling, of Wisconsin, secretary of the committee, who read the platform. It is, in part, as follows:

That, in lieu of the great social, industrial and economical revolution now dawning upon the civilized world, and the new and living issues confronting the American people, we believe the time has arrived for the crystallization of the political reform forces of our country and the formation of what should be known as the people's party of the United States of America; that we most heartily endorse the demands of the platform as adopted at St. Louis in '89, Ocala, Fla., in '90, and Omaha in '91. We demand the abolition of national banks as banks of issue, and as a substitute for national bank notes we demand legal tender notes be issued in sufficient volume to transact the business of the country on a cash basis without damage or special advantage to any class or calling; such notes to be legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, and such notes, when demanded by the people shall be loaned to them at not more than two per cent. per annum upon non-perishable products as indicated in the sub-treasury plan, and also upon real estate with proper limitation on quantity of land and amount of money. We demand the passage of laws prohibiting alien ownership in land, and that congress take prompt action to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by alien and foreign syndicates, and that all lands held by railroads and other corporations in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them, be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only. We demand that all revenues shall be limited to the necessary expense of the government economically and honestly administered. We demand the most rigid, honest, and just national control and supervision of the means of public communication and transportation, and, if this control and supervision does not remove abuses now existing, we demand the government ownership of such means of communication and transportation. We demand the election of a president, vice president, and United States senators by direct vote of the people. We urge that a national committee be appointed by this conference, to be composed of three members from each state represented, at a national conference February 22, 1892, and if possible unite with that all other reform organizations there assembled. If no satisfactory arrangements can be effected this committee shall call a national convention not later than June 1, 1892, for the purpose of nominating candidates for president and vice president.

Amid a perfect cyclone of enthusiasm, a delegate moved the adoption of the platform as read. The convention went wild, and delegates mounted chairs and tables shouting and yelling like Comanches. The platform proper exclusive of resolutions was adopted by a rising vote. At this stage the convention was little better than a howling mob, and in the midst of the confusion G. M. Miller, of California, came to the front on the prohibition question, which had been ignored in the platform and resolutions. All efforts to choke him off with points of order were ineffectual. A resolution offered by him was brief but to the point. It said: "Resolved, that we favor the abolition of the liquor traffic." After another awful uproar the prohibition amendment was overwhelmingly defeated. The resolutions were then adopted with only three dissenting votes. The resolutions against trusts was choked off by a point of order raised by Schilling, of Wisconsin, that all resolutions should be referred to the committee on resolutions without being read.

After some other business the preparation for adjournment sine die ensued, then the chairman's gavel fell, and the first convention of the people's party of the United States came to an end.

TRIAL OF PNEUMATIC GUNS.

FORT MONROE, Va., May 21.—The Vesuvius has returned from the first day's trial of her pneumatic guns, everything having worked smoothly and without accident. Six shots were fired from the gun at a range of a mile and less, three of them while the vessel was stationary and three while at full speed. One struck the bull's eye and fell within the space occupied by an ordinary vessel. The center of the three guns was then tested for curve but the valves being of different construction the pressure could not be so accurately determined. The board is satisfied with the result thus far.

THE ETATA AFFAIR.

PARIS, May 21.—The Chilean agents in this city, who represent the congressional or insurgent party declare that arrangements have been made between the congressional party and the United States authorities by which the insurgent's steamer Etata is not to be seized by force. By the terms of this arrangement agents here state that the fugitive craft is to be handed over by the Chilean insurgents to the United States authorities, pending a settlement of the question in dispute as to whether or not the Etata violated the neutrality laws.

The Directory Fake.

EDITOR JOHNSON: I see the directory fake is being worked on this town again, and before it goes too far I wish you could give me a receipt for keeping my name out of this "list of names compiled for the benefit of Eastern advertisers." I have been bored by the receipt of circulars innumerable ever since my name appeared in the last directory, advertising in all manner of humbugs. A man who advertises in it is no doubt a much greater victim of these same schemers than tho' he turned his address over to the "green goods" men. Our citizens have asked in vain that the city council authorize a revision of its ordinances so that taxpayers might know what their city laws are. But it remains for a Portland printing office to get the job in place of giving Salem job offices a chance to earn a dollar. These takes always take $500 to $1000 out of our city and find plenty of aids to help them dupe the unsophisticated. How can we be saved from all these monsters when you newspaper men whoop up their enterprises?

ODDS AND ENDS.

Of the twelve largest cities in the world three are in Japan.
Twenty hundred commissions are vacant in the English volunteer army.
Cool the blood by drinking cold water in which a little pure cream of tartar has been dissolved.
How many, many thousands of people play daily with fire, and are surprised and reproachable when the flames turn and burn them.
Nothing, we think, is so bitter as an olive freshly plucked, yet after they turn purple and black hog-squon learn to devour them.
A tea made of ripe or dry whortleberries, and drunk in place of water, is reported to be a sure cure for many forms of scrofulous troubles.
Two forms of catarrh are due to pollen; one, in summer, known as "rose cold" or "hay fever," the other, in autumn, known as "autumnal catarrh."
A person making a call should not, while waiting for a hostess, touch an open piano, walk about the room, examine pictures, nor touch any ornament in the room.
The physicians of Berlin assert that their practice has fallen off 25 per cent, since Koel's operations began, and consequently they demand from the government free lymph.
The approved stationery for ladies is thick cream white paper of octo size and square envelopes. The address is marked plainly across the top of the page. Memoranda are less used than formerly.
Don't entertain on such a lavish scale that the guests watch the daily papers, fearing a report of financial failure that will prevent your giving another entertainment.
Ugahy is pronounced exactly as it is spelled, the accent being even. The word may be found in the Bible, and it means, "The Lord judge between you and me when we are absent the one from the other."
Salesgirls and Unions.
With the approach of warm weather the subject of the health of the girls employed in the country comes up afresh. There are many mercantile firms which are very considerate in the treatment of their girls. The atmosphere of the store itself is in no way unhealthy in any section. Attention has been given to the ventilation, and the circulation of fresh air. Seats are provided behind the counters for the girls' use when not employed in waiting on customers. They are treated kindly, and floor walkers understand quite well that no abuse on their part will be tolerated. Courtesy is shown everywhere and expected in return.
In fact, in Brooklyn there is one store where the head of the firm tries to know personally all the employees in his store and their homes, and their length of time that have been there, and something of their history and home life. They themselves feel that he is interested in their welfare and willing to add everything in his power for their comfort and health. New ones coming into the store are spoken to, and properly welcomed, and told that if they do well and deserve advancement or increase of pay, both will be granted.
Now and then there are stores whose impure air entering is very disagreeable, whose basements are low, dark, stuffy places, and where the men and shoppers, that are there are not the rule. Frequently too, complaints are made from girls in different quarters that they are not expected to sit down; that, while they know that a law has been passed that seats shall be provided for them, though one or two of these seats can be seen behind the counters, just enough to cover the law, they know all the same that the unwritten law of the store is that they shall not sit down, and they say they dare not complain for fear of losing their places.
This makes the question of seats or no seats one of the most common with which the Working Women's Protection union has to deal. Of course the enforcement of the law passed in 1881 lies with the factory inspectors, but if girls dare not complain to them they can do nothing. For this reason girls are urged to join some one of the working girls' clubs, where they can gain more accurate information of their rights and what means to use to gain them.—Brooklyn Eagle.
