JUNE 1, 1901
MEMORIAL DAY
Appropriately Celebrated by the People at Salem.
A MAGNIFICENT MILITARY PARADE
Veterans, Militia, and Regular Army Represented—Notes on the Day.
AT THE G. A. R. HALL.
All the French flowers and decorations were brought to the hall, until at noon it was a veritable bower.
The good matrons who helped the boys off in the early sixties and kept guard over all that was sacred to them, responded with their usual large-heartedness. Each veteran and son of a veteran was supplied with a boutonniere and handkerchief before forming into line, which decoration added not a little to the good looks of the fathers and sons.
Promptly at two o'clock the Grand Army formed in twos, while the Sons of Veterans opened ranks in the hall to allow the veterans to march through. After they passed through the sons fell in and all marched to the street, forming on Chemeketa, between Commercial and Front.
THE PROCESSION
started promptly at 2 p. m. Was headed by Chief Marshals Crossan and Stolz and Captain Condit aide, with A. J. Stanton color bearer.
The Turner Trombone band of 14 pieces.
Col. Ladue, of O. N. G., Lieut. Brown, Sergeants Stanley and Wahler of the 6th U. S. artillery.
Co. B, O. N. G., Lieut. Welch, 35 men.
Co. H, O. N. G., Capt. Fiske, 55 men.
Co. I, Macleay, Capt. Lambert, 30 men.
Co. E. Capt. Alderson, 46 men.
The G. A. R. drum corps, 10 pieces.
Capt. Sherman in charge of battalion.
Sedgwick post, G. A. R., 120 men, Capt. Ira Erb in command.
Sumpter camp, S. of V., about 40 men.
The Indian school cadets, 90 strong and band of 14 pieces, Capt. Brewer in command.
Woman's Relief Corps in carriages.
AT THE CEMETERY
guns were reversed, the drum corps played a funeral dirge, Color Bearer Bateholder lowered the standard of Sedgwick post, and all entered.
In the cemetery proper the Oregon National Guard drew up and presented arms, while the procession passed unobscured before them.
The roll of the drums, the measured beat of veterans and militia gave the scene a martial appearance as of home-returning armies. On either side were masses of men, women and children. This review by civilians extended from the place of forming to the new burial lot for veterans where the same earnest, interested faces formed a hollow square, which was lined with a double rank of veterans holding bouquets.
THE RITUAL
was read at the graves in I. O. O. F. cemetery after the ordained custom of the G. A. R. in an impressive manner, led by Commander South, wick. Chaplain Sanderson invoked the blessing in tones of reverence.
The graves were officially decorated by Comrade Folger, and Mrs. Babcock, of the Woman's Relief Corps, deposited a beautiful emblem in memory of the late General Sherman.
The Grand Army organizations now passed in review before the graves and each scattered the flower held upon the sacred earth, until it was literally covered with bouquets. Six young ladies deposited special emblems, accompanied by appropriate literary exercises. The ritual concluded, a squad of veterans fired a salute over their departed comrades' last resting place, the other graves were then visited and decorated and the procession reformed and marched to the city.
In the G. A. R. hall a banquet was spread for the "vets" and their brethren, which upon their return, after the weary, dusty march they heartily enjoyed.
IN THE EVENING.
A special service was held at the Congregational church and was well carried out. Rev. H. H. Northup delivered the address, and thus Memorial Day observed in a becoming manner at Salem. There was a great deal of work done for which some one deserves credit. This work is of the highest order of unrewarded public spirit.
THE OCCASION
is taken advantage of by nearly all who have loved ones buried in the cemetery to decorate their graves. This has a special custom come to be a general observance on the part of all the living in memory of their dead. The streets of Salem were alive with people, and the silent home of the departed on the hilltop received great honors.
NOTES.
A great many highly civilized parents would feel proud if their boys could enjoy the discipline and training of the Chemawa Indian school boys.
General regret was expressed that the Salem band could not have furnished music on this occasion.
"Don't they march pretty," said many a young lady admirer of the O. N. G.
A band boy went out and back on crutches, keeping right up all the way there and back; Master Edwin, a son of Comrade Horgan of the Post.

Patriotic farmers were in attendance who drove twenty miles.
The way Salem was crowded on Memorial Day indicates what a crowd would turn out if Salem should celebrate, Salem should celebrate. People like to come to Salem.
The Sons of Veterans did make a big display, as a majority of the order are in the militia companies and other organizations.
BOUND OVER.
A Shooting Affair in Which Weapons Were Drawn by Both Sides.
Before J. P. Applegate a case came on at 2 p. m. today, the accused giving bail. John Whiteman, of near Buena Vista, was arrested this morning for assault with a dangerous weapon, committed on a German farmer by name of Dickmann last Thursday. Deputy Sheriff Wrightman made the arrest. The trouble grew out of a dispute over land lines. Whiteman claims Dickmann cut trees on his land after being warned, and raised an ax at Whiteman, who then drew a club and threw it at him. He chased Dickmann 80 rods. Thursday he claims Dickmann and son stopped his wife, but let her go again. In the evening he took his gun and the German farmer was at the line with his gun, which, as Whiteman claims, he raised, when the latter fired to scare him. It is a farmers' quarrel which will have to go before the grand jury.
RESIGNED.
Thomas Van Scoy Retires from the Presidency of Willamette.
It is given out today, on reliable authority, that Rev. Doctor Van Scoy has tendered the trustees his resignation as president of Willamette university. The future engagements of the gentleman are supposed to embrace a year of travel and study and then the acceptance of the chancellorship of the new Portland university of the M. E. church.
PERSONAL MENTION.
State Printer Frank Baker is again in charge of his office.
Mr. Arthur Wyatt and wife are spending a few days in Salem.
Mr. Geo. A. Downing, the Silverton liveryman, is not expected to live through the day.
The Rocky Flat Irrigation company, for distributing the waters of the Walla Walla river, filed articles of incorporation today.
E. M. Vassilik, La Grande, was appointed notary; T. R. Crawford, of Emmetsburg, Ia., was appointed commissioner of deeds.
James A. Donahue, the gentlemanly and obliging bar tender at the Willamette, has decided to locate at Portland. He leaves tomorrow.
Hon. B. T. Williams, of Ventura, Cal., is visiting the Bouquet City, and is in love with its beauties at first sight. The judge is an old friend of Landford Wagner, of seventeen years standing.
THE OPERA.—Two-thirds of the entire house is reserved for the Carriage opera, and the capacity of the Reed will be taxed for standing room. At 9 a. m. 215 seats were taken.
BORN.
HENDRICKS.—To Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Sunday, May 31, 1891, a son. All well.
DIED.
GIESY.—Friday, May 30, 1891, of consumption, at Aurora, Or., August Giesy, aged 33 years.
Mr. Giesy makes his home in California and was paying a farewell visit to old home scenes when he was stricken down. Mrs. Giesy at once arrived and consoled her husband in his last hours. Deceased was born and raised in this county, and was a member of the Christian church. His funeral was conducted from the residence of Mr. Kraus, by Rev. Corwin of Salem. Two sisters, Mrs. Ernest Greenwood and Miss Augusta Giesy of Salt Lake attended. Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks (the latter another sister) could not be present. A number of old personal friends of deceased at Salem went to attend the large funeral by train. Mr. Giesy was a highly respected Oregonian, having held several honorable positions, being twice county treasurer.
RANDLE.—In Salem, May 30, 1891, at 4 o'clock a. m. Mrs. S. A. Randle, aged 33 years.
Deceased was the wife of Prof. S. A. Randle, of this city, and by her death a large circle of our community is thrown into gloom, while a husband and eight children mourn the death of a loving mother. Mrs. Randle was a devoted Methodist, and the funeral was conducted at 2 p. m., Sunday, by Rev. Cline, from the residence of the family.
COX.—At the family residence, in Capitol Park, Saturday morning, May 30, 1891, Mrs. E. Cox, after an illness of several months.
Mr. and Mrs. Cox came to Oregon during the '50s and resided at Independence for a number of years. Mr. Cox has been engaged with Mr. Schumaker and at present is running a street grader. The funeral took place Sunday at 4 p. m.
FITZGERALD.—At Silverton, Sunday, May 31, Mrs. Milita Fitz Gerald.
Mrs. FitzGerald is the wife of one Silverton's business men and has been ill for about two weeks.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The new driving boulevard on D street is about completed.
June and July will be great months for business in Salem.
An Early Crawford peach tree near Salem counts 315 peaches.
The Elwood departed for Portland, at 6 a. m. She returns tomorrow.
Frank A. Montee is better today after a severe struggle with typhoid fever.
The Chas. Gray and Frank Hodgkin cottages are waiting for brick work.
The Carrington opera troupe arrived on the 11 a. m. train from Portland.
T. McF. Patton and lady took in two "decorations" last Saturday—Salem and Portland.
Remember the Company drill this evening at the armory at 8 o'clock. Regular meeting after drill.
J. E. Adcox, the jeweler, has located at Lebanon, and expects soon to remove his family there.
J. H. Kotes, of Portland, is in the city to make arrangements for the funeral of Clarence F. Durbin.
Railway Agent Skinner was last heard from at Niagara Falls, bound for Elryia, Ohio, where he was born.
If you are a workman or a washerwoman you cannot afford to get along without a daily evening paper.
Secretary Gregg spent Decoration day and Sunday at Salem, incidentally looking after several state fair matters.
Robt. Whitaker, wife and daughter, of Waltham, Mass., are the guests of Rev. Whitaker. They are enroute for California.
The Presbyterians are the first to the front with a strawberry festival at their church, Friday eve, June 5th.
E. C. Snow, of Highland addition brings us a sample of the Wilson and Sharpless strawberries. He has been in Salem about a year.
Marriage licenses were issued May 30th to James Maphothorpe and Sadie Osborn; also to J. B. Leatherman and M. Edith Dunn.
Miss Vernona Jarbeau and her own company will appear at the opera house, Tuesday night in the musical comedy "Starlight," which was expressly written for her.
Called meeting of W. C. T. U. tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in reading room. You are especially requested to be present.
P. B. LEABO, Sec.
From Silver Creek falls to the bottoms of old Yamhill, and from Mehana to the borders of Polk, the game of those cheap suits at the Salem Woolen Mills store is spreading—made at home, and good as others that cost twice as much.
Ruggles' circus gives two performances near the passenger depot today at 2 and 7 p. m. There will be a free balloon ascension and parachute jump before the performance, by Prof. F. Carter, who will go up and cut loose, coming to earth by aid of a parachute.
H. H. Giffy, of Washington, D. C., G. H. Burnett, D. W. Yoder, Dr. Williamson, Wm. Westacott, John Knight and other Salemites were up to Albany Friday evening, assisting in the conferring of degrees on six candidates in the I. O. O. F.
There seems to be hardly a democratic daily in Oregon that dares discuss questions political in the people's interest, even tho' it would be good party policy to do so.
About one o'clock Sunday morning the burning of Indian Jim's shanty near the S. P. depot got out the entire fire department and disturbed ten thousand citizens. Salem needs a better fire alarm system.
The Congregational Sunday school will have a basket picnic at Yew park next Saturday. They will go and come by the street car line, at one fare for the round trip, leaving Marion square 9 a. m. Children under 4 free.
The most popular establishment in its line in the city is Klein's old reliable shoe store. He has all the desirable new things in stock and sells no shoddy goods. See his prices. d w It.

THE STRAWBERRY FAIR.
The Fruit Growers Association Forced to Hold their Show Earlier.
The Fruit Growers Association has been forced to set June 5th and 6th as the dates for the strawberry fair to reach the cream of the product. Examination of the rapidly ripening strawberry crop and consultation of the committee on the Salem strawberry fair with the leading growers reveals the fact that June 12th and 13th, (the dates originally set for the fair,) will be too late to catch the largest variety in perfect condition, as the largest berries ripen off first and as this is a remarkably prolific season for this fruit, the committee has decided to change the dates to FRIDAY and SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 6. This is a week earlier than was first intended, but is believed to be the best date for the event and the date that has been finally agreed upon, and the official premium list will be at once issued for those dates.
This part of Oregon is certainly a world-beater on strawberry production, both in quantity, quality and size and perfection of the fruit. It is a wonderful sight now to go into the strawberry fields. The foliage stands up a foot to 18 inches high, and 18 to 24 inches across the plant from one side to the other. Single plants have from 150 to 200 berries on, and single berries have been produced that measured 1 1/2 in. in circumference. Let everyone prepare for the fair, and let Oregon herald to the world her capacity in this line.
The Spring Medicine
The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has attained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health giving, blood purifying and appetite restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a debilitated, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

Rich Harvest of a Michigan Farmer.
I have suffered for years with rheumatism, loss of appetite and disorders of blood and after great expenditure of time and money had almost given up all hope of relief. Hearing of Hubbard's Rheumatic Symplics I purchased a few bottles and using six bottles found almost entire relief. I am now able to work on my farm, with ease, which I have not done in years. I advise all persons suffering with rheumatism and other blood troubles, to try this medicine. Harwick Ferry, Thurman, Mich.
