

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Single copy, 5 cents. For three months, $1.50. For six months, $3.00. For one year, $6.00. In advance.

GILBERT & PATTERSON, Grocers in Groceries, Crockery, Hardware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Baking Powder.

LOCAL MARKET. Wheat, net 90 cents per bu. Corn, active: 22 to 28 cents per lb.

Daily Bulletin. That New York ice cream at King's will take the lead. Strong's Sunday dinners are the best 25 cent meals served on this coast.

MINING MATTERS.—On May 19th, Richard and Geo. Harris located the Denver quartz claim, in the Santiam district. The claim is situated 1500 feet southeast of the White Bull mine, on the slope towards the Santiam river.

SOCIAL PETITE. The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Riley, 318 High street, was made very pleasant Friday afternoon by the appearance of a happy crowd of little folks, come to celebrate the birthday of their little daughter, Corinne, and the time was spent in the usual amusements in which children are interested.

RUNAWAY.—L. S. Winter's buggy horse ran away, on State street Saturday morning. Mr. A. Johnson with a child jumped out, narrowly escaping injury, the horse kicking the dashboard off at the first kick. Mr. Winter was thrown forward and the mystery is how he escaped death, receiving only injuries on the hand. Mr. Johnson felt right on his back and held the two-year-old child up in his arms in a very heroic manner. The buggy wheel passed over his shoulder. It was a narrow escape all around.

FELL FROM A STEP-LADDER.—This morning as Oscar Johnson, of the clothing firm of G. W. Johnson & Son, was up on a step-ladder measuring a tall man for one of these suits that their firm is having such a run on just now, he made a mistake. He told his customer the wonderfully low price of the suit, which fact startled him so that he almost upset the ladder, and Oscar only saved his neck by dextrously jumping into his customer's arms.

ABUSED A DOG.—The police were looking for a wretch this forenoon who, without fear of the God who notes the fall of even a sparrow, tormented a small dog, and set the little brute yelping piteously about the streets. It finally climbed into the owner's buggy and was driven off. There will probably be a prosecution for cruelty to animals.

FROM IOWA.—Messrs. G. H. Boule and Joseph Schinski, both of Sheldon, Iowa, are in the city visiting their former townspeople, the Gables and the Parkhursts. They are making a tour of the coast cities, and it is not at all improbable that they will settle at Salem.

LABOR DAY.—June 6th was kept all over the Union, including Oregon. The state offices were closed for this reason, and on some was a notice to that effect.

BRICK AND TILE.—For first class hand made brick and tile, go to Murphy & Desart. Large supply on hand. Near fair grounds, Salem. 6 5 1mo

MORE SHADE.—Wm. Sargent has just put in a fine new stock of window shades. 6 5 4t

THE ROSE AND BERRY SHOW.

The Premiums Awarded—Salem the Bonquet City.

THE HILLY EXHIBITORS. G. M. Griley, Michael Markle, J. Wilkins, H. W. Savage, Peter Fox, J. A. Potter, J. W. Lyons, H. H. Ragan, Henry Smith, Miss Minnie Lansing, H. B. Monson, Jacob Denny and E. Hofer, Salem; C. K. Reed & Son, Turner; Matteson & Matteson and W. P. Gilbert, Aumville.

The committee on awarding strawberry premiums was composed of Mr. A. Bird of the Salem canner, Mr. A. T. Yeaton and Landlord A. L. Wagner.

THE STRAWBERRY PREMIUMS. 1. Best display of standard varieties (including Sharpless, Wilson and Juenda). 2. Best display, new varieties, other than above. 3. Largest display, all varieties. (First and second premiums are offered in these three classes.) 4. Best sample canning berries, not less than one peck, (special premium offered by Salem Canning Co.) $5.00

In addition to this, Seth R. Hamer will give $2.50 to the winner of the Cannery prize.

5. Sweepstakes prize, best plate of any variety, (special premium offered by T. McF. Patton) Wixon's Work on Pacific Coast Fruit Growing, 575 pages, elegantly bound and illustrated in colors—a valuable work. 6. Special premium for best plate of any new variety (by Seth R. Hamer). 7. Business men's prize (special premium by R. J. Hendricks and others) for gallon biggest berries.

THE BERRY AWARDS. Class 1—Best display standard varieties, Sharpless and Wilson, J. A. Pooler 1st, $3; C. Baltimore, 2d, $2.

Class 2—Best display new varieties, H. H. Ragan 1st, $3; E. Hofer 2d, $2.

Class 3—Largest display all varieties, H. H. Ragan 1st, $3; Peter Fox 2d, $2.

Class 4—Best peck canning berry, C. K. Reed & Son, Turner, $7.50.

Class 5—Sweepstakes, W. H. Savage, best plate any variety, a Jessie, $5.

Class 6—Special premium best plate any new variety, Matteson & Matteson's "Matteson," $1.

Class 7—Gallon biggest berries, J. W. Lyons, Sharpless, $10.

ROSE COMPETITORS. The following ladies have entered exhibits and will compete: Mrs. Moody, Miss Waters, Mrs. Gillingham, Myra Albert, Mrs. J. N. Smith, Vera Good, Mrs. J. R. Moore, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. J. W. Cox, Mrs. W. W. Martin, Mrs. F. J. Babcock, Mrs. Haas, Mrs. I. N. Gilbert, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Waterous.

Mr. Chas. W. Cox is the only gentleman exhibiting.

THE ROSE PREMIUMS. 1. For the largest and finest display of roses, named varieties. 2. For the best and finest display, ten named varieties. 3. For best display any one variety.

THE ROSE AWARDS. The committee on rose premiums will not be made public. The following is the award made. Class 1—Mrs. John Hughes, $5. Class 2—Mrs. J. W. Cox, $3. Class 3—Mrs. J. N. Haas, for La Marque rose, $2.

VOLUNTEER ROSE EXHIBITS. Beautiful flower exhibits were made by the following ladies: Mrs. Claude Gatch, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. E. N. Cooke, Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mrs. E. M. Waite, Mrs. W. H. Dodge, Mrs. Gillingham, Mrs. Waterous, Miss Bush, Mrs. E. Hofer, Mrs. I. N. Gilbert.

LATER EXHIBITORS. C. Baltimore, of Salem, brought in on the last day, a gallon of Sharpless, including one eleven inches in circumference; a gallon of Wilson; a box of Monarch, and a box of Bidwell. Riches and Van Scoy brought a bushel of Wilson.

HONORABLE MENTION. The rose committee desire the following exhibitors noticed: Mr. E. M. Waite showed a fine collection which would have gone near the premium mark if entered. Mr. Chas. Cox made a magnificent display, mostly of dark roses, but had several beauties in the light shades.

Mrs. W. W. Marth had one of the very choicest collections of fine roses shown.

Mrs. Thos. Patton contributed a fine jar of peonies.

Mrs. I. N. Gilbert showed forty varieties.

Mrs. J. W. Cox had also a very large collection.

Mrs. J. V. Taylor made a large display of very fine roses.

FOR FAVORABLE MENTION. The committee on strawberry prizes desire that favorable mention be made of the following exhibitors: One hundred trays of Wilson, by Van Scoy and Riches, Turner. Sharpless and Wilson by Dr. Harry Lane, from Asylum farm—seven pyramids. Sharpless by Jacob Denny. Mike Markle, plate Monarch. Sharpless by Miss Minnie Lansing. Wilson Sharpless by G. M. Griley.

Prof. Coote's exhibit of thirteen varieties from the State Agricultural college. All the exhibits were worthy of mention and the committee regret that they could not give premiums on all the above.

NOTES. Mr. Savage's two plates of Jessie were the crack exhibit.

A gentleman showed a Wilson plant with 168 berries on.

The greenhouse exhibit by Mrs. J. V. Taylor was a splendid addition to the ornamentation of the fair.

The beauty of Oregon is that a great many wore wraps and light overcoats to the wonderful rose and berry fair.

One large tray contained over 300 La France roses set in moss, all cut from one tree. It was a rich altar of pale pink petals, exhaling volumes of perfume.

Mrs. F. B. Mize of South Salem contributed a rocker completely covered with roses. The seat was of dark red, the arms pink and the back white.

"The Matteson" was the favorite with strawberry growers, and with all people who examined closely. Several boxes were consumed by admiring visitors upon invitation of the originator.

Miss Orvilla Ballou of Chicago showed work in clay modeling, paper cutting, stitching and drawing of the strawberry, leaf and blossom, all done by children four to six years old.

The State Agricultural college sent thirteen plates to the strawberry fair. They were the Dutter, Bomba, Warfield No. 2, Pineapple, Mammoth, May King, Haverland, VanDeman, Cumberland, Henderson, Glendale, Pearl. Prof. Coote deserves credit. The Bomba is a rich variety for Oregon in every way.

Mr. H. H. Ragan showed plates of Pearl, Jessie, Haverland, Bubach and Warfield. The bright red of the Bubach and Haverland, and beautiful shape of the Pearl attracted unusual admiration.

C. M. Parmenter, Jas. Batchelor, Wm. H. Savage and Chas. E. Rablin generously assisted County Treasurer Condit as aides, wearing blue sashes. They kept the best of order and also did good work in keeping the building clean and the exhibits in good order.

The committee on awards of strawberries had a difficult task, there being as high as twenty competitors in a single class. They worked hard two hours Friday and most of the day Saturday and made their awards with great care and intelligence.

A bigger place is needed for the rose show and strawberry fair of the future. There were 300 exhibits of roses and 160 exhibits of strawberries.

The rose committee had a task that paralyzed their best intentions.

R. D. Allen, secretary of the county fruit grower's association, came in to arrange for paying the premiums and will have everything ready some day next week.

IT IS OVER. The fair closed at 4 p. m. The berries were auctioned off to pay expenses, some single plates bringing as high as 50 cts. and $1. The army is being cleared for Co. B. to drill tonight. The fair has been a great success, considering that the date was changed, that it was got up on a week's notice, and was entirely a volunteer affair.

The strawberry and rose show was backed by no large society, or strong organization. A few gentlemen and ladies who are enthusiasts for fruits and flowers, simply out of love for their pets and hobbies, advanced this first venture of this kind ever held in Salem.

The specialists in two classes united their energies and with the aid of public spirited citizens, the result was the fair that all have seen and enjoyed so much. The JOURNAL feels proud of the success and will labor for greater results in the future.

THEY SAY. That McMahon never ran so fast as he did last night after the "fray."

That a 4th of July picnic by states would prove a big advertisement for Salem.

That it is a dodge of McMahon's to advertise his alleged business.

That we could show our roses and strawberries to our eastern friends to advantage.

That no peaceful gentleman will carry shooting irons.

That when two men have a deadly combat with aim to injure, both should be arrested.

ROBBED NEAR WOODBURN.—Louis Miller, of Sacramento, Cal., is in this city—desperate. He states he was robbed, near Woodburn on Thursday, by two strangers, while in a barn of his purse, containing $25 and a gold watch and chain.

HE DROPPED.—The aeronaut last seen over the Salem Woolen Mills dropped quite a distance, but nothing to what the Salem Woolen Mills store has dropped on prices all around. Their made to order suits are unequal for prices and wear on this coast.

DONT FORGET.—McCrow & Willard are prepared to deliver promptly from their two Commercial street market the choicest meats in the market. They make a specialty of roasts and steaks, also cured meats.

Attention, B Co. 2nd Infy. The regular meeting of B company will be held Saturday evening at 8 o'clock (in place of Friday evening). By order of D. C. SHERMAN, Capt. B Co.

JUST IN.—A choice lot of new patterns in wall paper at Wm. Sargent's. 6 5 4t

McMAHON SHOOT.

Mr. Jap. Minto of Salem Victim of a Dangerous Attack by the Woodburn Editor.

Near 10 o'clock Friday night two Marion county public men met near the Salem Postoffice and a shooting affair was the result. For some time the manager of a Woodburn paper by name of Leonard McMahon has been attacking Mr. Jap. Minto, the Salem liveryman and prominent politician alleging that he was the head of a corrupt ring in county politics. No one had paid any attention to the matter, but Mr. Minto was considerably annoyed at the personal character of the attack and thought it was instigated by some of his political enemies.

HE MET McMAHON. And tried to ascertain from him who was proprietor of the paper. "Do you own the paper?" asked Minto.

"No but I am responsible for the articles," said McMahon whipping out a revolver. At this Minto who was unarmed sprang upon his assailant as his only safety, grasped his weapon by the muzzle, received a ball through the hand, and turned the weapon against his assailant, when the hammer came down upon his fore finger and did not go off.

If it had McMahon would have perished on the spot, as Minto who is the stronger man had forced the muzzle up against his antagonist's throat. McMahon escaped and ran for life, leaving his pistol in the hands of Minto. There was no witness but a boy, and McMahon was arrested. He was put in jail, and released to appear this morning for a hearing.

THE TRIAL. Editor McMahon is out on a $150 bail, and will have a hearing at 2 p. m. before Recorder Goodell.

THE ONLY WITNESS to the shooting was Albert Macey, a boy about seventeen years old. He was returning from the Presbyterian society, when the trouble occurred.

McMAHON'S DEFENSE. Minto followed him for the purpose of picking a quarrel, and that he drew his weapon and fired entirely in self-defense.

An immense crowd had gathered when

THE TRIAL was called at 2:30. Holmes, Kaiser and Cobb appeared for McMahon, Prosecuting Attorney Bingham for the state.

Mr. Minto testified briefly. An employe who works at Ellis & Whitley's livery stable then told of what he had seen.

Policeman Gibson then testified as to the arrest of McMahon, and his admission of having a revolver.

SELF DEFENCE. The plea then made by Atty. Kaiser, who moved to dismiss the case, arguing that do crime had been committed.

BOUND OVER. Mr. Holmes also spoke. The court then bound McMahon over to the grand jury, bail, $250.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS. Closing the Year's Work of the Salem Public Schools—The Program.

The term examinations were begun last Thursday, and will continue through another week. The twenty-six graduates have finished their examinations and most of the papers handed in are very creditable. They will receive their diplomas on the evening of June 12th, at which time they will give an entertainment at the opera house.

On the afternoon of June 12th, beginning at 2 o'clock, the Primary department will give an entertainment in which the pupils of twelve primary rooms will participate. Below are the programs:

Chorus, Festival March, Public Schools. Welcome, Carl Gies, North School. Exercise, 7 girls, Miss Melien's room.

Song, 40 pupils, Mrs. Rork's room. Class exercise, all the pupils, Miss Northrup's room.

Exercise, 20 girls, Miss Dearborn's room. "Our Officers," two rooms, East school.

Motion song, 30 pupils, Miss D'Arcy's room.

Recitation and chorus, National Holidays, North school.

Song, all pupils, Miss Cosper's room.

Recitation, My Baby Brother, Leona Briggs.

Fancy March, two rooms, Central school.

Solo (vocal), Maggie Alderson, East school.

Song, 20 girls and one boy, Miss McNary's room.

Song (with notes), Mrs. Rork's room. Chorus, 60 girls, East school.

GRADUATING EXERCISES. Piano solo, Leona Bier. Essay and salutatory, Claude Starr. Reading (with tableaux), Wm. Morris.

Pole exercise, 32 boys. Essay, Emile Henry. Recitation, Bert Savage. March and song, (in costume) 40 boys.

Recitation, Mary Vandarsal. Essay and valedictory, Balm Mann. Address, Mr. Napoleon Davis. Vocal solo, Lulu Sayre. Presentation of diplomas by Hon. Board of Directors. Parting song.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

In the evening Stanley O. Royal will deliver the University sermon.

The musical of Tuesday afternoon did credit to teachers and pupils. Twenty pupils performed.

Prof. and Mrs. VanScoy have just returned from attending the educational convention.

The marriage of Miss Leona Willis and Ted Piper is an open secret. Mr. Piper is from the Sound.

Sunday next Rev. Wilding will preach the baccalaureate sermon in the M. E. church.

The examination and regular work of the school closed yesterday, and next week will be taken up with the commencement exercises.

Quite a large number of alumni and friends of the University are in the city intending to witness commencement exercises.

A musical recital was held in the chapel Friday, that was well attended and nicely carried out in every part.

The students are busy today decorating the church and chapel room and will have them arranged in a pleasing appearance before they leave.

The reunion of the literary societies and the supper that followed was highly enjoyed by the members and a large number of invited guests that were present.

The graduating exercises of the academy class will be held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, and commencement day will be Thursday.

The music students graduate Wednesday at 10 a. m.

The Statesman of Wednesday announced that one J. F. Aylshire was examined before the supreme court and the JOURNAL of Thursday further announced that he was admitted to practice, while in fact it was one of our seniors in the person of J. F. Aylshire L. L. B., who also pursued his law course at Willamette.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CLASS.—A class for instruction in Christian Science commences in their hall in New Bank block, Monday evening, June 8, at 8 o'clock, by Rev. Geo. B. Day, of Chicago. Persons desiring to join this class will please take notice, and be present on Monday eve. 6 5 3t

ONLY.—Only the choicest fresh vegetables received daily at Farrar & Co.'s grocery store.

Quick time and through trains offered passengers and shippers by the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern Line, San Francisco and Portland to Chicago. 600—Aug

Rev. M. T. Colburn, pastor of the First Methodist church, San Diego, is now on a vacation trip to Yellowstone Park. Pastor Colburn has recently closed a series of revival meetings in his church which resulted in 150 conversions.

PERSONAL MENTION. W. S. Mason, the nominee for mayor on the consolidation citizens' ticket, is in Salem today. He is a wholesale grocer and well known in Salem.

Dr. Gwynne is to preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian college at Albany tomorrow morning and to address the students again in the evening.

E. B. Fletcher, who has been the University correspondent for the JOURNAL, has been quite sick and absent from school for some time, but has returned and will graduate in the academy class.

DIED. WASHINGTON.—Saturday, June 6, 1891, of old age, Mr. George Washington, (colored) aged 76. "Uncle George," as he is familiarly known, has lived in Salem about thirty years, and during that time has been the friend of everybody. He has been a good, peaceful citizen, trustworthy and obliging, and many old residents will drop a silent tear at his passing away.

Better to Have Left Unaid. A literal "thing one would rather not have said" was overheard in the Sixth avenue elevated train the other evening. A man and a woman were discussing Mr. Howell's works and their effect while reading them. The man asserted that he invariably found something responsive in any page of them he turned, whereas the woman innocently questioned, "Don't you think that is because he always writes of such commonplace, everyday people and happenings?" When you come to think of it that was rather severe.—New York Times.

Poor Shooting. No record of the work of the big guns on the big iron clads of Europe is allowed to be published, but the gunners admit that the big cannon are so unwieldy that an enemy a mile away might be fired at twenty times before being hit by accident. The best of the gunners further declare that the mania for big guns has been run to foolishness.—Detroit Free Press.

Shifter as She Is. Miss Plumleigh (of the suburbs)—Why can't you urge a reduction of fares on our road? The Editor (gallantly)—I can, but I know one fair thing I hope will never be reduced.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The New Discovery. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery never after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest troubles, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottle free at Fry's Drugstore.

Destroy the Pests. Now is the Time to SPRAY YOUR FRUIT TREES. BRIGGS & BROWN

Are prepared to give tree treatment for the season with a good spraying outfit. Satisfaction guaranteed, 6 5 4t

A REMINISCENCE OF MR. BARNUM.

How He Got Circus Posters Into Canada Without Paying the Duty.

"One of P. T. Barnum's most successful feats of bamboozlement," said a New Yorker the other day, "was played upon the Canadian customs authorities. The veteran showman's tons were always planned far in advance, and one winter he made up his mind to take his great circus and menagerie through Canada during the summer after the next. This gave him about two years in which to mature his plans.

"One important item of a showman's expenses consists of his advertising placards, and Mr. Barnum was always lavish with these gaudy prints. He was aware that the Canadian government imposed a high duty on this class of imports, and yet he wanted to paint Canada red, yellow, blue and green with a lavishness that no showman had ever displayed before.

"Now there was no printing house anywhere in Canada that could begin to turn out the kind of work that Mr. Barnum required, either in size, color or finish. Nevertheless, his immense posters came under the same classification as much smaller lithographs and printed colored matter did, and he knew that the Dominion custom authorities would not abate one jot of the full toll, but would rather rejoice at the opportunity to inlet the foreigner who would convey so much money out of a country.

"So Barnum studied the question a while, and finally set on at once a great lot of circus posters of the most gorgeous designs, wherein yellow lions fought with blue hippopotami till the gore flowed into beautiful crimson backgrounds. No agent appeared, when the posters were detained by the Canadian customs officers to pay the duty. They were accordingly held for twelve months, then duly advertised for sale for three months more, and finally put up at auction with a lot of other unclaimed parcels, and were designated in the catalogue merely as 'colored prints.'

"Nobody took any interest in them when the auctioneer called for a bid, and finally the whole batch was knocked down for a song to a secret agent of the circus, who had been sent up by Mr. Barnum for that express purpose."—New York Tribune.

Received as a Private Individual. One of the authors of "The Czar and His People" gives the following instance of Tolstoy's independence of thought and action:

General Loris Melnikoff had been given such unbounded power to act against the nihilists that, as he said, he was virtually created vice emperor. He discovered in the course of his official investigations that one of the leading nihilist chiefs was in the habit of visiting Tolstoy, and one day Melnikoff himself went out to the novelist's country house. Before the visitor had announced himself Tolstoy recognized him and said:

"You are Loris Melnikoff. Do you come to see me officially or as a private man? If you come officially here are my keys. Search, open everything. You are free to do so."

"I do not come officially," replied Melnikoff.

"Very good," answered Tolstoy, and calling two stalwart servants he said to them, "Throw this man out of the house!"

The order was obeyed to the letter, and Melnikoff dared not seek redress.

Wit of the Small People. I was descending on the angelic dispositions and ways of some dear little children in a fond mother's presence the other evening.

"They are very trying," she said, "but then they are funny. We had company the other afternoon and the children were brought in. I asked Ethel if she still remembered her text. 'Oh, yes, mamma, 'Is I my brother's saloon keeper?'"

"I was very angry with little Robbie the other evening, and had prepared to give him a good spanking. He looked up at me so funny, and says, 'Mamma, yous better not monkey wiv the band wagon.' Very angelic, but where do they learn such things?"—Chicago Times.

Better to Have Left Unaid. A literal "thing one would rather not have said" was overheard in the Sixth avenue elevated train the other evening. A man and a woman were discussing Mr. Howell's works and their effect while reading them. The man asserted that he invariably found something responsive in any page of them he turned, whereas the woman innocently questioned, "Don't you think that is because he always writes of such commonplace, everyday people and happenings?" When you come to think of it that was rather severe.—New York Times.

Poor Shooting. No record of the work of the big guns on the big iron clads of Europe is allowed to be published, but the gunners admit that the big cannon are so unwieldy that an enemy a mile away might be fired at twenty times before being hit by accident. The best of the gunners further declare that the mania for big guns has been run to foolishness.—Detroit Free Press.

Shifter as She Is. Miss Plumleigh (of the suburbs)—Why can't you urge a reduction of fares on our road? The Editor (gallantly)—I can, but I know one fair thing I hope will never be reduced.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The New Discovery. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery never after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest troubles, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottle free at Fry's Drugstore.

SPECIAL SALE! Friday and Saturday, June 5th and 6th. 560 Pcs. Ladies' and Misses' Silk Mitts. Black, Tan, and Brown—Warranted all pure silk and fast colors. 15c a Pair. 300 Black Silk Parasols. $1.25 Each. For two days only.

CAPITOL ADVENTURE CO., Opera House Block.

Out Side the Trust.

A. B. BUREN & SON,

Old Undertakers of 18 years experience have, through much difficulty, secured a stock of Undertaking supplies out side the Undertaking trust and are now prepared to furnish funeral outfits in a first-class manner and can make you prices independent of any trust. Special attention given to embalming.

Undertaker's rooms fitted up specially for the business

THE = CLUB

LIVERY, FEED AND SALE STABLES. W. H. GOULET, Propr. All stock left in my care shall receive the best of attention. Telephone No. 24. Cor. Liberty and Ferry streets, Salem, Oregon.

SNOW THE YEAR ROUND At 100 Chermeketa Street. HOUSE - and - SIGN - PAINTING. Paper Hanging, Kalsomining, Wall Tinting, etc. Varnishing and Natural Wood Finish. Only First-class Work. SNOW BROS.

CHURCHILL & BURROUGHS. Tanners, Plumbers, Gas and Steam Fitters, SHEET IRON WORKERS. Estimates on all work in our line. 100 Chermeketa Street.

Churchill Sash, Door & Manufacturing Co., Sash, Doors, Blinds & Mouldings, Turning & Scroll Sawing. House Finishing made to order.

New DRY KILN, by which we can always keep a full supply of seasoned stock of all kinds. Agricultural Works, Corner of Trade and High streets, Salem, Oregon.

SANTIAM LUMBERING COMPANY, OF MILL CITY. Lumber, Lath, Shingles and Building material. Yard east of Depot, Salem. We manufacture all our own stock, and are prepared to fill any order on the shortest notice. 4:17-1m-dw THOMAS SIMS, Superintendent.