SUGGESTED COMMENT.

The University is quiet and deserted as a bird's nest that has been abandoned.

It takes a game American girl to marry the average British baccarat-playing lord.

In spite of all drawbacks Willamette has more than held its own the past year. Salem is a good school town.

The alumni were unanimous that 1891-2 would witness a greater attendance at Willamette than it has ever had before.

The gentlemen who from time to time call each other pirates and other pet names will meet as journalists and good fellows at Astoria in August.

The man who tries to build up a new party with no other animus than a spirit of revenge or unsatisfied ambition towards an old party, will never succeed.

A number of Willamette students report that inducements have been offered by late members of the Willamette faculty to take instruction under them in the Portland university.

All the East Portland, Albina and Portland papers together that opposed the Oregonian in its consolidation amounted to about as much in offering resistance as would a peewee bird striking a locomotive.

Maintaining only good fair average men on its faculty and resorting to no sensational methods to draw students, Willamette had a bigger attendance than ever the past year. Salem is a good school town.

Judge Boise drove a big nail in his speech at Dixie, last Friday when he said that higher and more general education should be imparted among the agricultural as well as other classes.—Dallas Observer.

According to his picture in the National Economist S-cless Jery Simpson is a kind of college student looking chap, wears glasses and has a remarkable faculty of keeping himself before the people.

The JOURNAL recognizes no political defects. It only deplores defeat of people's measures and obstructions to the highest type of self-government by the people by making personal spoils of patronage.

Eugene Daily Guard: The board of railroad commissioners are making a move that may benefit their constituents. If they can force the Southern or Union Pacific railroad to give lower rates on freight, the creation of the commission will not have been in vain.

Talking of baccarat, a sporting exchange says "It requires no brains to play it." So it would appear, and yet one hand dealt at this brainless game has injured the cause of royalty in England more than all that has been said since Chartists of '41 down to Bradlaugh and Labouchere.—Ex.

It is to be hoped the new president of Willamette will be a man of broad culture and a University man in the true sense of the word. Under such a management, infusing new life into every department, there is a brilliant future for this school at Salem. This is said without disparaging the past.

An Astoria paper says: A prominent Union Pacific official, recently questioned regarding railroad intentions of his company as regards Astoria, said: "We have no present appropriation for that purpose; our present plans do not embrace building to Astoria, but, if any other road starts to build down to you, you may be sure that the U. P. will get there first." The time is ripening for the work, and the moment that one road here is assured, two more will assuredly follow.

Mining Review. It is said that Samuel Untermyer, who has just arrived at New York from London, brought with him over $2,000,000 of English capital, backed by $3,000,000 more in securities, for the Harney Peak tin mines. This sum only represents a minority interest, for the majority of the stock is still held in America, and the control of the property is left entirely to Americans. And yet some croakers declare there is no paying tin in the Harney district.

Quick time and through trains offered passengers and shippers by the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern Line, San Francisco and Portland to Chicago. cod—Aug

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PARTISAN AND PATRIOT.

The salvation of the country is not to be achieved by destructive processes, but by such as will tend to unite all men who are willing to be little enough partisans to favor people's measures in spite of party. Some men are so constituted as to be too much of partisans to favor people's measures independent of their origin, and refuse to uphold a good man in a good cause because he was not baptized in their political church. It was not by this process great reforms were won. By coalition of good men in the North, some voluntarily leaving their own parties, slavery was abolished and secession rebuked. By republicans and democrats going side by side into the ranks of the Union army the salvation of the republic was secured and the triumphant Union restored. It was not done by partisans, but by patriots.

FROM ROCK CREEK.

T. Hennessy, the saw mill man, has failed and made an assignment of his property.

Lon. Shepherd has sold his logging teams to Joshua Drury, and will take a rest.

Prof. J. R. Geddes has been hired as principal of the Seio school for the fourth time.

Jas. O. Turridge has taken a claim in the "Biluey Den," to which he will move with his family after hop picking.

Mrs. Lambson has been very sick for the past three weeks, but is now convalescent. She will not be able to finish her school.

Come one and all and see what a rousing time we greenhorns away up here in the mountains can get up on the glorious Fourth.

Con. (our Con.) Miller was married in Albany a few days ago to Miss Mary Simons, and they are now "at home" to their many friends.

Cox & Co., of Mehana, run a delivery wagon between Mehana and Gatesville, bringing all dry goods and groceries ordered, and Mr. Titus, of Lyons, furnishes us with fresh meat, so you see we are as well off as city folks.

We are gratified to learn that the Odd Fellows lodge to which Tom Tucker belonged, has sent two men here for the purpose of finding his remains. They, with some others, are now in the mountains. We hope they will be successful. Mr. Tucker belonged to a lodge somewhere in the East.

Are You Going East?

If so, be sure and see that your tickets read via the "North Western Line." The C. St. P. M. & O. Ry. is the great short line from St. Paul or Duluth to all points east and south. Their magnificent track, peerless vestibuled dining and sleeping car trains, and their motto, "Always on time," has given this road a national reputation. All classes of passengers are carried on the vestibuled trains without extra charge. All ticket agents sell tickets via this line. Ship your freight and travel over this famous road. W. H. MEAD, Gen. Agt., No. 4 Wash. St., Portland, Or. A. J. LELAND, Trav'g Agt.

A Safe Investment.

On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggist a bottle of Dr. Kings New Discovery for consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of the throat, lungs or chest, such as consumption, inflammation of the lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup, etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon. Trial bottle free at Fry's druggists.

Rev. Father J. J. Sullivan, the new rector of St. Mary's cathedral in San Francisco, was, previous to his recent departure from Sonoma, kindly remembered by his late parishioners there, who presented him with a well filled purse. The young ladies of the Children of St. Mary's sodality and Presentation convent also presented him with a costly set of vestments and beautiful lace alb, and the boys of the convent with set of breviaries.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure. If they would take it according to directions.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. John A. Emery has been elected rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church in San Francisco.

Rev. C. L. Miel has accepted the rectorship of Christ's Episcopal church, Sausalito, and will enter on his duties at once.

Rev. C. W. Hill has accepted an invitation to supply the pulpit of the Congregational church of Berkeley for a year.

Dr. Chapman, of Oakland, is supplying the First Presbyterian church of Portland, Or., during the pastor's absence.

Rev. H. H. Wikoff, pastor of the Green street Congregational church, San Francisco, is spending his vacation in Grass Valley, and supplying the Congregational church there.

The new St. John's Episcopal church, Stockton, is to be one of the most completely appointed in the diocese. "So minute has been the attention to detail," says the Pacific Churchman, "it is rumored that the sexton will wear a pair of memorial spectacles of stained glass."

Rev. Frank Dixon, pastor of the Tenth avenue Baptist church, Oakland, announces that he will not attend the ecclesiastical council called by the disaffected and excluded members to meet at the church, and advises his friends in the church not to attend it.

A Second Colored Baptist church was recognized by council in Oakland the third Sunday in May. The pastor of the First Colored Baptist church, called the Beth-Eden, has since entered, in the name of his society, a vigorous protest against the proceeding, claiming that there is room for only one church of that character in the city.

Rev. James H. Markham, of the Scotch Presbyterian church, Chicago, who is on a visit to this coast, has been engaged to supply the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, Oakland, during the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Coyle, on a six weeks' vacation.

Rev. Joseph Hamilton, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Vallejo, who has been suffering from an attack of the grippe, is recovering his health and strength at Saratoga springs, Lake county.

The Presbyterian church at Marysville has extended a call to Rev. Leonard Garver (Congregational) of Oroville to supply their pulpit for one year. He has accepted and the church has welcomed him with hearty enthusiasm.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Abel Stevens, of Boston, attended the service at the Japanese Mission house in San Francisco, last Sunday morning. Dr. Stevens took part in the service and Mrs. Stevens contributed $50 for the new Japanese church enterprise.

The Pacific Churchman, organ of the Protestant Episcopal church, is now incorporated and under the management of a board of directors, of which Bishop Nichols is president. Loyal and liberal laymen have given it what it never had before—a firm financial basis.

The Presbyterian church which was organized about three years ago at El Monte with twenty members has displayed a very commendable energy, having built a $4000 church and a manse, or parsonage, and furnished them complete, paying all their bills. The last mortgage of $600 has just been paid off and the property is clear.

The decision of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, which met recently in Detroit, to come to Portland instead of San Francisco next year, is much regretted by California Presbyterians. The Oregon Presbyterians were better organized and displayed more energy in the matter. They guaranteed $20,000 for expenses to California's $10,000.

The "Boys' Brigade" movement, started on this coast by Rev. J. Q. Adams, of the Westminster Presbyterian church, of San Francisco, is becoming popular in Southern California. Rev. Mr. Frwin, of the Second Presbyterian church, Los Angeles, is particularly interested in organizing them. He has one in his own church of sixty young "Soldiers of the Cross," and organized one at Santa Paula last week.

Rev. E. R. Brinard, late pastor of Park Congregational church, Los Angeles, and now pastor of Bethel church, San Bernardino, was treated to a surprise donation party by his San Bernardino parishioners recently, as a token of appreciation for his efforts in securing a new church building. In addition an elegant gold headed cane has been presented to him by one of the citizens.

MISCELLANY.

ATTACK ON WALES.

LONDON, June 13.—The Southern Baptist Association has passed a resolution condemning the Prince of Wales for the part he took in the baccarat scandal. It is understood the prince is keenly stung at the adverse press criticisms which have been showered upon him from all quarters. The war office authorities are holding frequent conferences, and discussing the action to take in consequence of the verdict given against Sir William Gordon Cumming.

The Duke of Cambridge, commander-in-chief, yesterday summoned General Williams and Colonel Stacey, commander of the fusilier guards and Cumming's regiments, to the "horse guards." These two officers had a long interview with the duke. Sir William Gordon Cumming announced he was willing to meet the charge of playing an illegal game.

In the commons Monday next, Stanhope, secretary of state for war, will be questioned as to what action he intends to take in regard to the three officers—Prince of Wales, General Williams and Lieutenant Berkeley Levett, of the Scottish fusilier guards, who signed the document which practically allowed Cumming to remain in office in the British army, although he was believed to have cheated at cards, and as to what action he intends to take in regard to the same officers for having broken the army regulations requiring such a case as that at Tranby Cross should be brought to the notice of the commanding officer.

HE WILL NOT GIVE UP.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 13.—The pastor of the East End Reformed Presbyterian church, the Rev. O. B. Milligan, one of the young ministers who was expelled from the church by the synod, has decided not to give up his pulpit. He has 150 followers, and next Sunday he proposes to conduct services as heretofore. The opposition to him is not very strong, and it is not expected there will be any more trouble.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

LONDON, June 13.—It was learned that a meeting of members of the cabinet has been called to consider the events following the baccarat trial, and especially the unprecedented criticisms upon royalty in the press and among the people. There is no thought of any legal action unless the Wilsons or others should conclude to prosecute for libel, but there is a feeling in the highest circles of the government that the monarchy is shaken by the harshness of discussion touching the heir to the throne. Assaults of this character have heretofore been confined to social clubs and disreputable newspapers; now they are heard every where. What the government most dreads is a proposed attack upon the prince by the radicals in parliament. Under the shield of discussing the army estimates it is intended to demand that the prince shall resign his office as a field marshal of the army. This the government will oppose.

It is stated that the Prince of Wales caused it to be communicated to Lord Salisbury that he (the prince) felt no displeasure on account of the manner in which Sir Edward Clarke had handled his client's case. Reports that Sir Edward had been informed by members of the ministry that they disapproved of his allusions to the prince are pronounced as untrue.

THE BACCARAT GAME.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Herald says: We have been requested by a member of the Garner family, whose action has the approval of the whole family, to print the following statement: "Several papers have, by mistake, stated that one of Miss Florence Garner's (now Lady Gordon Cumming's) sisters was present at her marriage. The eldest, La Marquise de Bretuil, is at present in New York with her husband. The youngest, one Miss Edith Garner, is in Vienna with her aunt, Mrs. Lawrence. The family wish to rectify this mistake and also to state no one of Miss Garner's relations were present at her marriage. It is needless to add that, being of age, she took this step against the
