tiring of the system of legal blackmail employed by the trust, and distilleries outside the trust are just now adding largely to their facilities of manufacturing. The trust owes its stockholders $45,000,000, while it has allowed scores of great distilleries and its visible assets to fall into decay. Of these, eight were once prosperous Milwaukee institutions, in this, the great whisky clearing-house of the northwest. These facts have just reached the surface through the announcement yesterday that six of the largest wholesale whisky houses of Milwaukee, Litherto dependent upon the trust, had broken away from the organization, and are to erect a huge distillery with a capacity of 50,000 gallons daily, the purpose being to buck the trust as Shufeldt did. In view of the practical certainty that the purchase of the Shufeldt and Calumet in Chicago will be followed by a general rise in prices, those who have pledged allegiance to the trust are apprehensive of the worst and would like to get out. On the other hand, those who are out are fearful that they may be forced in, and are consequently watching every move with anxiety.

A JAPANESE PRINCE COMING.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—Prince Kotohito, of Japan has arrived in New York from Europe and will reach San Francisco next Wednesday. He has been a student of the military service in France for three or four years, and is on his way home. He is travelling incognito with two attendants, Chamberlain Tanaka and a body servant. The prince will spend one day in this city as the guest of his relative, Suteme Chinda, the Japanese consul. He will go north then to Vancouver, whence he will sail for home on the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Japan.

EXPLOSION ON THE SOUND.

TACOMA, June 20.—An explosion on board the steamer North Pacific left that vessel half way between Seattle and Port Townsend at point "No Point," on Thursday in a disabled condition. When opposite the point, her cylinder head blew out and the piston broke. Soon the entire vessel was developed in steam, and there was almost a panic among the large number of passengers on board, but nobody was hurt. The passengers and baggage were trasferred to the steamer George E. Starr, which came to the point from Port Angeles. The North Pacific is to be taken in tow by the steamer Sehome, and will be laid up for repairs at Seattle.

At the expiration of the leave, the officer comes under the operation of said order, and, in obeying it, is entitled to full pay for the time necessary to perform the journey from his old station to the new one.

LOUIS, June 20.—A dispatch from the city of Guatemala says great sensation has been caused here by the discovery that $6,000,000, in bonds has been issued for the redemption of treasury notes instead of $3,000,000, as called for. It is further stated that Barrillas has sold $3,000,000 worth of these bonds at forty per cent. of their face value and pocketed the money and placed the remainder of the bonds in the treasury to redeem the notes.

THE HUNT LYNCHERS.

WALLA WALLA, June 20.—The trial of six soldiers for lynching A. J. Hunt, so far as the taking of testimony is concerned, was concluded yesterday. Arguments will be made by both sides today. The trial of Patrick McMenamon, the remaining prisoner who demanded a separate trial, will probably begin Monday. Only two defendants went on the stand. Charles E. Cutter, who was with Miller at the time he was shot by Hunt, testified that on the evening that Hunt was lynched, he came to town after retreat in company with other soldiers, and visited several saloons. He was in one known as Fritz saloon when the fire bell rung, announcing the lynching. B. Bernhard Muellar, another of the defendants, testified that he came up town about 7 o'clock in the evening that Hunt was lynched; played cards in Byrd's saloon till 8; returned to the garrison and went to bed. Did not know of the lynching till morning. The testimony of both defendants was corroborated by thirty-three witnesses, who either were with or saw them. The general belief is that the soldiers will be acquitted.

THE HUNT LYNCHERS.

WALLA WALLA, June 20.—The jury in the case of the six soldiers on trail for the lynching of A. J. Hunt, returned a verdict of not guilty this afternoon.

TERRIBLE RAIN STORM.

KANSAS CITY, June 20.—The specials report a terrible rain and wind storm in the vicinity of Osceola last night. Very great damage was done to crops all over the state by wind and rain. A passenger train on the Kansas City, Osceola & Southern road was ditched, killing Engineer Lightner. At Emporia nearly every cellar in town is flooded and the lower floors of many houses are covered with water. The cyclone which passed over Arkansas City last night did much damage. Fifteen miles southeast of there a number of dwellings were completely wrecked. Mrs. Bowman was fatally hurt. At Fort Scott a large dam broke and the bottom lands are completely flooded, houses were swept away and it is feared many lives are lost. A number of people can be see on roof tops and in trees in Buckrun bottoms but it is impossible to reach them.

A LAND CLAIM.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Casa Grande Improvement company of New York is soon to present its petition to the new land court to determine the title to 4,500,000 acres of land in Arizona. It is an old Spanish claim and the estimated value of the land involved, as it stands at present, is between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000. This petition probably will be the first business to come before the land court which will soon organize.

THE GREAT DERBY.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 20.—Twenty-five thousand people assembled at Washington Park this afternoon, to see the great Derby, the track was fetlock deep with mud, Strathmeath won. Poet Scout, second; Kingman, third; time 2.49½.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

NEW ORLEANS, June 20.—A collision on the Illinois Central road last night, near Sauve was caused by an open switch near where a freight train was sidetracked, and run into by the south bound fast express. Four men were killed and six severely injured. The killed are Engineer Mitchell, Fireman Lawson, Chas. Munn and Bill Williams, (colored.) The mail train was behind time and running very fast when the accident occurred.

KILLED BY A DOG.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind. June 20.—M. S. Seller, aged 70, and his son William, aged 40, residing about five miles northeast of this city, quarreled yesterday afternoon, during the absence of the other members of the family, and the son attacked the father. He struck the old man, and was about to floor him, when their dog rushed in and siezed William's arm, biting out large pieces of flesh. The son turned to drive off the dog, and his father went into the house and returned with a loaded revolver. He fired at his son, but missed him. Before a second shot could be fired the son had closed with him and wrested the weapon from his hand. Then the dog returned tothe attack, and bit the son's thigh through and through. Thereupon the son shot the dog, and this ended the fight. The son will probably die from his wounds. The father was arrested.

OUR MINISTER TO HAYTI.

NEW YORK, June 20.—According to a letter received from Port au-Prince yesterday, President Hippolyte attempted, on May 29, to take four political prisoners from the Mexican consulate in the Haytian capital, when the entire diplomatic corps called on the president on May 29 to protest against this violation of international law. Hippolyte tried to play a high-handed game of bluff, and he might have succeeded had not the German consul threatened to report the matter to his government. Minister Fred Douglass, it is said in the letter, stood trembling with fear, and heard the black ruler insult the flag of every civilized nation almost, including his own, without daring to offer a protest. Terror reigns supreme at Port au-Prince. The real instigators and leaders of the movement against him have escaped his vengance. Some of them are secretly at work in Port au Prince. Hippolyte the writer thinks, is undoubtedly crazy. Referring again to Minister Douglass, the writer says he evidently regards the Haytian government with much more veneration than his own. The writer vigorously adds that as the United States claims a moral jurisdiction over Hayti, it is about time a minister of some decision was sent there to replace Douglass. Members of the diplomatic corps have appealed to Douglass to sustain the moral position the Monroe doctrine calls for, but in vain.

HANFORD BURNS DOWN.

HANFORD, Cal., June 20.—A disasterous fire started about 3 yesterday afternoon in the gunsmith's shop of D. H. Hubbard. A considerable breeze was blowing, and the flames spread with wonderful rapidity to adjoining frame buildings. The total loss is about $125,000; insurance about $95,000. The principal losers are: Kutner Goldstein & Co., damaged $20,000 fully covered; Frank Sharpless, two story uncompleted buildings, $10,000, insured; J. Bruner, brick building, stock of harness, $10,000, insured for $7,500; C. M. Smith, brick building and frame and stock of furniture, $8000; insured, $5100; Weiner & Co., $6000, insured; B. J. Turner, Grand Central hotel, $10,000, insured, $8000; Hanford Development company, Hotel Artesa, $40,000, insured, $25-000; John R. Gardenier, furniture and saloon stock $300; insured $1000. These and other losses to buildings which will aggregate $15,000, fully covered by insurance.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ills., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as ever she was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Fry's Drug Store, large bottles 50 cts. and $100.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours truly,

Trouble in a Country House.

An uptown clubman, who is very much in trade and keeps an eye always on the main chance, came to grief the other day through inviting to his country house a visitor who was visiting the city to spend a lot of money in a business way. The clubman merchant wanted the visitor's custom and took this hospitable way to secure it. The visitor found at his host's a company who were laying plans for horseback rides and other bucolic sports. In order to make himself congenial to such a company he appeared at dinner wearing spurs. His host's friends were unable to repress their amusement. This proved so embarrassing to the visitor that when soup was passed to him he upset it, spilling the scalding liquid in his lap.

The mishap was too ludicrous to excite sympathy. Its reception in a spirit of levity decided him to leave the table. Doing so in some haste, one of his spurs caught in the tablecloth, and in less time than it takes to tell it he had hauled the cloth off, dragging with it to the floor the soup of the guests and a jumble of cut glass, silverware, cutlery and other table appointments. The visitor did not stop to apologize. His room was handy, and before the debris could be removed the host and his guests spied their friend, luggage in hand, hat set back on his ears and his spurs flashing, bound down the road toward the railway station. That was the last seen of him to date.—New York Times.

Indians of Terra del Fuego.

Rousson and Willems have explored the northern part of the island of Terra del Fuego between 52 deg. 30 min. and 53 deg. 30 min. south latitude, traveling all along the north coast and across the island, about sixty miles south of the Straits of Magellan. They mapped all the little rivers, and found that the Cullen river, which empties into the Atlantic ocean, is quite an important stream. The valley of this river is a fine country, and the rich herbage afforded abundant nourishment for the horses upon which the party rode. They met the Ona Indians all through their journey. Quite a number of them were 6 feet 6 inches high and very muscular.

They are nearly naked, wearing only over their shoulders ill made capes of guanaco skin. The only ornament which they possess consists of a bracelet or a collar of shells. These Indians inhabit about two-thirds of the island. The men occupy themselves wholly with procuring food. Their bows and arrows are always with them, and they use flint arrow heads. Much of their time is given to making weapons of the chase and war. They are continually in trouble with the Indians to the west and south of them, from whom they differ greatly.—Chicago Times.

Illuminating Walking Sticks.

A novel experiment of the chloride of silver battery has been made in the manufacture of the electric light cane. Four cells are placed end to end in a small tube of cardboard and inserted in a hollow cane. The silver wire at one end is connected to one end of the carbon filament of a small incandescent lamp, snugly placed at the head of the cane, and a small brass strip or spring is extended upward from the zinc bottom, so as to make contact possible with the other end of the carbon filament.

When a bright light is required, pressure on a small push button on the side of the cane closes the circuit and ignites the lamp. The head of the cane is solid silver, which makes a good reflector for the light, and a very thick lens is fitted into the top. These canes have been used with great success for theatrical purposes, and have a very pleasing effect.—New York Telegram.

A Wonderful Bronze Pagoda.

A missionary who has settled in the province of Sz-Chuan, central China, and who has visited the great Buddhist peak, Mount Omei, describes the temples around the base as still showing many wonderful works of art. Near the foot of the mountain there still stands a pagoda of bronze fifteen stories high, believed to be upward of a thousand years old. From the ground to the polished ivory tip this immense structure is literally covered with delicate figures of men, beasts, birds and reptiles. Of figures of Buddha there are no less than 4,700 within the province, most of them in the immediate vicinity of the sacred peak.—St. Louis Republic.

Rare Presence of Mind.

Just as a lover had dropped on his knees and begun popping the question a pet poodle, who thought the proceedings rather strange, made a dash for him. With remarkable nerve for a woman, the girl reached over, seized the dog by the throat, and at the same time calmly uttered:

"Go on, George, dear; I'm listening to what you are saying."—Exchange.

He Doesn't Call Any More.

He had never kissed her, and was somewhat anxious to make up for lost time, so he said:

"You might let me kiss you—just once."

"No," she said, playfully shaking her head; "I know what just once means; it means half a dozen of times. You are like all the rest."—New York Press.

"Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. The third annual session of the Marion county Normal Institute, will be held in the East Salem school house, commencing Monday, July 6, 1891, and will continue three weeks.

Regular class work will be done, under the management of able instructors, in the branches taught in our schools, and, if a sufficient number desire it, classes will be organized in Physical Geography, Composition, and Bookkeeping.

The objects of the Normal Institute are to review the subjects taught in the common schools, and to discuss the best methods of presenting them to pupils. The Institute is not held for teachers only, but also for those who intend to teach.

Bring text books on all branches. Try to be present at the beginning of the Institute.

A Fee of one dollar will be charged to help defray the expenses of the Institute.
