SULLIVAN VS. SLAVIN. KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 22.—The following dispatch has been received from Pittsburg, Kansas, signed by John P. Morris:

"The sporting editor of the Daily Star is authorized by the Commercial club to write John L. Sullivan offering a purse of $50,000 to secure the Sullivan-Slavin fight at Pittsburg, Kansas."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The forecast for Oregon and Washington is light rains.

AFRARIAN NIGHTS. LONDON, June 22.—In addition to the facts which have been already published about the burning of the manuscript of Sir Richard Burton's last work by his widow, although she was offered 6000 guineas for it, as told by Lady Burton herself, will be particularly interesting.

It must be borne in mind that at the time when Sir Richard produced his favorite translation of the "Arabian Nights" there was a great outcry on the subject, as it was alleged that, although in an expurgated form the book was in every library in the world, yet unbridged it was unfit for publication, and was only suitable to be in the hands of scholars, who are presumably beyond the consideration of ordinary morality.

This book, it may be added, fetches large sums whenever a copy is offered for sale. Lady Burton's present action condemns her to poverty. "My husband," she said, "has been collecting for fourteen years information and materials on certain subjects for his last volume of 'Supplemental Nights'. When it was finished he then gave himself up entirely to writing this book called 'The Scattered Garden, a translation from the Arabic.'"

"It treated of a certain passion, don't let any one suppose for a moment that Richard Burton ever wrote anything from an impure point of view. He dissected the passion from every point as critically as a doctor would dissect a human body, showing its source and origin, its evil and good, as well as its proper uses."

"The day before he died he called me into his room and showed me a page of the Arabic manuscript on which he was working, and said: 'To-morrow I shall finish this, and I promise you after this I will never write another book on this subject.' He added: 'I am afraid it will make a great row in England, because the 'Arabian Nights' was a baby tale in comparison to this.' Next day he died." After serious consideration his wife burned the manuscript page by page.

KANSAS EIGHT-HOUR LAW. TOPEKA, Kan., June 22.—The controversy over the eight-hour law has been brought to an issue. Attorney-General Ives received a letter Saturday from President Martindale, of the state penitentiary board of directors, refusing to comply with the law. The letter is in response to one written by the attorney general, at the request of the governor, demanding that the board of directors see that the law be rigidly enforced. President Martindale says he does not consider the law applies to the penitentiary. It is probable the governor will instruct the attorney-general to institute quo warranto proceedings against the board in the supreme court.

TRIED TO ESCAPE. COLE CITY, Ga., June 22.—The prisoners at a convict camp, twenty miles from Chattahoochee, Tenn., attempted to escape, and two guards and two convicts were killed.

Frank, of San Francisco, as marshal was announced by the court.

BRITISH GUIANA. LONDON, June 22.—It is stated that the colonial government of British Guiana has been directed to maintain, without compromise or concession, the frontier known as Schomburgk's line, against either passive or hostile claims on the part of Venezuela. To concede to the Venezuelan claim would be to surrender the richest mineral districts in the colony, as well as to abandon the posts commanding the entrance to the Orinoco river and the Barima and Amacura rivers. It is certain that under no circumstances will the Venezuelan claims be allowed, although the British government would make some important concessions in a definite settlement of the dispute. The mineral districts, which are the principal subject of contention, promise to be equal to any in Australia or California, and the operators of the mines are extremely anxious for a retention of English law.

CULLOM IN THE FIELD. CHICAGO, June 22.—Senator Cullom, of Illinois, is a candidate for the republican presidential nomination in 1892, and makes no secret of the fact. "If the nomination is tendered to me, you can bet I won't throw it over my shoulder," were words he used to a reporter this morning. "And if it's going to be a free-for-all fight," he continued, "and the Illinois delegation is for me, why then I'll be in the field. Blaine can have the nomination if he wants it, but I doubt if he will encourage any movement to put him in the field. Harrison stands the best chance, in my opinion, and will doubtless be named. Tariff will be the issue, and silver and other minor questions will be sort of tailed onto the tariff as side issues. McKinley will be elected Governor of Ohio for three reasons: First, he is personally a very popular man, having the magnetic attractiveness of Blaine. Second, Campbell, who doubtless will be his opponent, has succeeded in dividing his party; and third, the republican party in Ohio was never so strong as now."

WANTS HER MONEY. WASHINGTON, June 22.—Miss Phoebe Cousins has filed a verdict for salary for May as secretary of the board of lady manager's world's fair with assistant Secretary Nettie, at treasury department together with a brief in support of her claim.

ST. LOUIS, June 22.—The Rev. Dr. Corradine, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, preached a sermon several weeks ago against the wearing of jewelry, and called upon his flock to give up their costly trinkets. A large number of men and women deposited their jewels to the value of over $1000 in the box at the altar to be melted into gold. They will be melted, because to sell them in their present form would be to tempt others. Dr. Corradine says he is disappointed, as he expected more. He turned over to him received a Dr. Stephen to help him build a church in the southern part of the city. He said: "It is against the teachings of the Methodist church to wear gold ornaments, but these Methodists got rich and began wearing them, and when I began to preach about it, it was like a new doctrine. I have been called a fanatic, but I am only preaching the teachings of the church."

EX-SENATOR M'DONALD DEAD. INDIANAPOLIS, June 22.—Ex-Senator McDonald died at 11:35 last night. Yesterday morning unfavorable symptoms reappeared and during the day the patient's condition continued to grow worse. In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Millburn was sent for and administered the sacrament. Then Mr. McDonald called his family and intimate friends about him and calmly gave directions for his funeral and the disposition of his personal affairs. In the presence of all he said he wished to give testimony to his faith in God's saving grace. Then he grasped each by the hand and bade them good-bye, saying he could see no more callers.

BECAME CRAZY. DENVER, Colo., June 22.—George T. Haswell, a prominent resident of Colorado, has become a raving maniac because of a dispatch announcing that after many years of strange vicissitudes, a fortune was at last within his grasp. Mr. Haswell is past 50 years old. He visited Chicago in the hope of securing employment in connection with the great fair. He originated and proposed to a party of wealthy Texas friends an idea for the organization of a company to issue official souvenirs of the world's fair. The souvenir would be a medal which cost probably 10 cents and sell to the people at $1. A company was formed and incorporated for the purpose.

THE WORLD'S FAIR COMMISSIONERS announced yesterday that they accepted the proposition, and it was this that turned the brain of Haswell. George T. Haswell has had, in many respects, a remarkable career, having been a prominent figure in Texas politics, a lifelong republican and a staunch Union man in the war.

TREASURER'S STATEMENT. WASHINGTON, June 22.—A statement of the condition of the treasury made today shows a balance available of $4,554,879. CORNELL WINS. NEW LONDON, Conn., June 21.—The two mile race between the Cornell and Columbia freshmen college crews was rowed over the Thames river course from Wintthrop point to the naval station Saturday evening. Cornell was easily the victor, winning by three and one-half lengths, in 10 minutes and 30 seconds. The Columbia had a slight advantage at first, but Cornell, pulling a powerful forty stroke, soon crept up, and at the quarter was leading. They were never headed again. The Columbia crew showed signs of distress and No. 6 fell in his seat completely exhausted as the line was crossed.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE. PORTLAND, Or., June 22.—Gertie Monell, a young woman living on Fifth street, between Alder and Washington, committed suicide last night by taking carbolic acid. So far as could be learned, some love affair was the cause. The girl's parents are in the East.

ACCIDENTS. A HERO. WELLSVILLE, June 22.—When William Porter was going home from work Thursday evening, he noticed that the switch at the Chazy brick works, half a mile below this city, on the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad, had been left open. The evening express was in sight and rapidly drawing near. He ran to the switch and succeeded in turning it when the engine was not more than fifteen feet away. The train was full of passengers, many of whom were bound for Pittsburg, and it was running at a high rate of speed. The switch is on the edge of an embankment, with the river below.

A HERO'S DEATH. OMAHA, Neb., June 22.—A 12-year-old school boy named Miles died a hero's death during the recent storm near Norfolk. The school house is situated in a ravine. The water began pouring in through the windows before the teacher and pupils realized their danger. Young Miles conducted the teacher and seven pupils safely through the torrent, but severely drifted away, and in his effort to save these he was drowned.

RAN INTO A PUSH CAR. WILLOW SPRINGS, Mo., June 22.—An engine on the Nabbett narrow-gauge road ran into a push car containing eleven employes near here Saturday. James Kumpster and Fred Eberle were killed, and W. E. Tichman probably fatally injured. The others escaped by jumping.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT. CLEVELAND, O., June 22.—An excursion train of fifteen cars, which left this city Saturday afternoon on the Nickel Plate Railroad, jumped the track near Dover, O., and seven cars were wrecked. The train was loaded with street railway employees and their families, who were going to Oak Point, a pleasure resort on the lake shore. One man was killed and about thirty persons injured. When the accident occurred the train was going thirty miles an hour. The engine went down a bank on the side and seven cars were thrown across the rails. In both directions. One coach was split in two and the others were badly smashed. Rogers, the man who was killed, had to be chopped up. The engineer and fireman escaped by jumping. Farmers living near the scene of the accident came to the rescue, and the injured were taken care of until a corps of physicians from Cleveland arrived. The badly wounded were then brought to the city and taken to the hospitals. The engine was running backward at the time of the accident. It is said the accident was due to the spreading of the rails.

HE WANTED PAY. MONTEREY, June 22.—Charles Hawes, painter, shot Edward W. Wagner, a druggist, formerly of San Jose, Saturday night, the ball entering his abdomen and inflicting a dangerous wound. THE MANIPUR MASSACRE. CALCUTTA, June 22.—The court of inquiry which has been investigating the Manipur massacre found the regiment guilty of warring upon the forces of the Empress of India, but, on the other hand, the court finds the regiment not guilty of the murder of Chief Commissioner Quinton and the other British officials killed during the massacre. The regiment was sentenced to death.

Purgative on earth—no less. Altogether unnecessary. The only way to avoid this is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, very unfortunate with refractory stomachs. In saying this, we only echo the recorded experience of thousands who have used the great stomachic to their lasting benefit. Ben A. Funkham, Stovatt, Tenn. That new piano which Krause Bros. are going to give away has arrived. Call and see it at their store. "Dinner for Two, Appetite for One" says a dyspeptic to the waiter, ordering for himself and friend. And suppose he had had an appetite, would he have ordered this, consequently, to gratify it, the abundance of manna which he ate, causing the continued victim of indigestion. Purgative on earth—no less. Altogether unnecessary. The only way to avoid this is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, very unfortunate with refractory stomachs. In saying this, we only echo the recorded experience of thousands who have used the great stomachic to their lasting benefit. For the invasion of a sluggish liver, and for tardy or inaction of the bowels, both very apt to accompany dyspepsia, this fine regulator is equally efficient. Malarial complaints, kidney trouble, rheumatism and neuralgia depart, when a resort is had to the Bitters.
