THE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—At the First Baptist church in this city today the Willamette Baptist association convenes in annual session.
The meetings will continue—mornings, afternoons, and evenings—for four days, closing Friday night.
The program for today follows: 1.
p. m.—Organization; reading of letters; appointment committees. 3 p. m.—Education—Educational report, Rev. J. C. Reed; educational address, President Brownson; general discussion. 4:30 p. m.—Foreign missions—Report by Rev. John Gordon; short address by Rev. A. L. Davis.
7:30 p. m.—Annual association sermon—By Rev. John Gordon, of the First Baptist church, Portland; address of foreign missions, Rev. Gilman Parker; general discussion.

ACCIDENT.—Geo. W. Cavanaugh, a brother of Warden Cavanaugh at the prison, met with an accident today by a fall while riding. His face was bruised, a few teeth knocked out and his arm injured so that he had to carry it in a sling.
In all, he was badly shaken up and his brother had to take him out home in a hack. The horse was also severely injured. The animal stepped through a hole in the power house bridge.

FAIR OAKS.—T. B. Wait, the live real estate man, has just put on the market a very desirable acreage plat three-fourths of a mile west of the Salem bridge. There is fine garden, hop, fruit and meadow land with beautiful trees, evergreen and oak. Taxes are about one-third as high as in the city and men who do business in the city are going over there on elevated ground to reside.
It is high, dry, and healthy. See plat at 97 State street. dlt

G. A. R. COMMANDER.—Col. Summers, commander of the Grand Army, department of Oregon, was in the city last evening, visiting Sedgwick Post and Relief Corps.
He gave a good talk, and spoke very encouragingly of the future of the order. He says the number must be increased from 1800 to 3000 during the present year, and is bending all efforts to that end. The Salem fraternity were much pleased with his visit, and hope to see him again.

A LATE BERRY.—The Salem berry market is now supplied largely by the Triomphe de Gand strawberry. It is one of the earliest varieties and yet holds out to the last, keeping up a supply of good sized, bright red, palatable table berries.
It is larger than the Wilson and while the latter yields only small berries now, this variety holds out almost at full size. It is a valuable variety for the later market.

THE CAR LINE.—The city council referred the settlement of the street car controversy on State street to the committee on streets. If these gentlemen have not acted they should do so as soon as possible. It is a great inconvenience, the way the matter stands and also a pecuniary loss to at least one of the companies and should be adjusted at the earliest date, so that electric cars may again run to the foot of Commercial street.

DETAINED.—Tom Graham for purloining light literature, Guy De Costa for coveting a diamond pin, and Oscar White Austin for carrying concealed weapons are at present laughing in the county prison. Jo Freidel is able to walk and will be able to be out in a week.

RECEPTION.—A very pleasant reception was tendered last night to the new members received into the Presbyterian church last Sunday.
The church was well filled.

ets and save money, 204 Commer-

The Meeting of the States Picnic Committee Last Night—Do Good Work.

Last evening at the Hotel Willamette the chairman of the various state committees met with the general committee and much good work was done. The following committees were appointed:

On finances—H. A. Thomas, Geo.
Hoey, and Frank Wrightman.
On grounds—J. W. Wright, J. H.
Albert, and J. J. Roberts.

The finance committee was instructed to procure and distribute badges for the day. It was also advised that $200 would cover all expenses, and the committee was instructed to raise that amount.

The general committee will hold a meeting at the hotel Wednesday evening to prepare program and other work.

New features are constantly being developed to add to the success of event. There will be a match game of baseball between the Salem and the Portland nines—the two best in the state—at the picnic.

A steamboat excursion has been provided for from Independence and intervening points. Also railroad rates have been secured at half fare, which two facts alone will insure a large crowd. Many amusing and entertaining sports will be provided to make the event enjoyable for all.
Among them a baby show is talked of.

The general committee will be prepared soon to let stand privileges on the grounds.

THE BIG MILLS.—The new bolting cloths for the big Scotch mills have arrived at Portland. The new reels require 1200 yards of this silk and it costs from $3 to $4 a yard according to fineness. This silk was imported direct for this mill.
Other material is arriving and will appear in the near future. The mill pushed to get this great establishment in order.

President Bush of the Humane Society has had the badly lamed horse in South Salem taken up and properly cared for. It was the animal noticed in the JOURNAL of Monday.

Delegations to the Willamette Baptist association arrive on every train. The meetings are very interesting, and an unusually large enrollment was found at the opening session at 1 p. m.

Rev. Frank Sullivan of Seattle arrived with the first train of Battist delegates. He represents the Pacific Baptist of Portland, and is entertained at the home of E. Hofer, North Salem.

Mr. J. Macy, brought in a cluster containing thirty prunes of good size, which made a splendid showing for our fruit country. Mr. Macy also brought in a splendid bunch of red Marillo cherries.

By persons who travel over the Liberty street bridge near Wade's store, the JOURNAL is promised a good item some of these days in the shape of an awful accident, unless that structure is soon repaired.
Let it be looked after.

There arrived in New York the other day a German immigrant 103 years old. His fourth wife, aged forty, and his son, a youth of seventy, accompanied him. The old man is coming to Oregon to set out a prune orchard.

Astorian: So far this season, one man at The Dalles has shipped 1200 boxes of cherries, that have netted him $1 a box. Vancouver men show by unanswerable statistics that there is a profit of $400 an acre on prunes. This will be a great country for fruit fortunes.

This afternoon a deed was filed for record from Mrs. Louisa Hen-schell and Rebecca Vaughn to J. H.
Albert for the Staiger Bros' marble yards corner, north of Reed's opera house, two lots for $14,000. The property will be cut up into six business lots. This property is liable to be improved at once.

A. W. Scott, of the Churchill factory, has just sold a house in University addition, and is now offering another at the lowest price known in the Salem real estate market.
Mr. Scott has considerable property here and is prepared to make a sacrifice on it just now. See his list if you want a good thing.

The demo-republican Oregonian's republican-democratic Telegram's tariff controversy is resumed now that city politics is aside. They are perfectly willing to agitate the country over a revenue problem that is away off, so long as the corporations right at their doors are not interfered with.

George Fisher and John Stewart will ship 300 head of Lane county cattle from Millers Station, Lane county, to Splan Bros. in Yakima, Wash., the first of the coming week.
Cars from Eugene cost $72 each, while from Millers they can be had for $58; hence they can make money by driving them to that point for shipment.—Guard.
