the 16th of May, four days after the Wuhu riots, the natives of Hgauking made an attack on the Catholic mission there, a rumor having reached them that the taotai of Wuhu had forwarded a dispatch to the authorities, declaring the alleged deeds of the missionaries were true. The priests succeeded in keeping the mob off, and one of the assailants was arrested and punished. The Catholic mission was not the only one attacked, for a crowd equally as large made a descent on an inland mission near the north gate, but the Chinese authorities arrived in time to prevent any serious damage. The crowd lingered about the mission during the next two days, and native women came to the orphanage to reclaim their children who had been left there. The French man-of-war Inconstant, at Wuhu, was sent for and arrived on the 18th. Captain De Jonquieres informed the governor of Ukanking that if the rioters did not obey the mandates of the magistrate, he would not hesitate to take strong measures. The governor responded that order would be maintained. May 19 the German gunboat Iltis arrived, and Captain Ascher lent his influence to secure protection for the missionaries. Placards, however, had been posted by the rioters at last advices, announcing the mission building would be totally destroyed on Friday, May 22. Placards had also been posted in the French quarters of Shanghai threatening foreigners. It is reported H. M. S. Swift had arrived at Chianking.

WIDOW OF EDWIN FORREST.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Catherine Sinclair, widow of the tragedian Edwin Forrest, died last week at the age of 87. Though once well known as the wife of the famous star, and later on as an actress of no mean ability, her closing years passed in obscurity. Broken in health and fortune, she lived with friends in this city.

"PHAT BOY" BAGGAGE.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 24.—E. F. Baggage, of this city, known all over the country as "Phat Boy" Baggage, died suddenly last night at Alexander.

DOES NOT WANT IT.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Senator Squire, of Washington, has been summoned to the capitol, and it is stated that he has been tendered the position of minister to China. Senator Squire's friends say he will not give up his place in the senate for any foreign mission, but if the president wants him to recommend a good man he will do so.

MORMON POLITICS.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 24.—President Woodruff, of the Mormon church, and George Q. Cannon, another Mormon official, asserted in an interview yesterday that there is no truth in the report that the so-called people's party of Utah, the membership of which is wholly Mormon, was dissolved by direction of the church. President Woodruff said: "We disclaim the right to control the political action of members of our body." He declares that he favors the separation of church and state.

BOY KILLED.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, June 24.—Louis Otto, a boy aged 8 years, was shot in the abdomen here yesterday afternoon by a young Chinaman, while playing, and died two hours later. The Chinaman was arrested, but claims he and the boy were playing with a revolver, and that the killing was accidental. There were no eye witnesses to the tragedy, but it is thought the boy was teasing the Chinaman, and the latter killed him in a fit of anger.

SWINDLING SCHEME.

PITTSBURG, June 24.—Yesterday afternoon detectives arrested J. H. Hanson, H. Clark, and G. W. Watt, local agents for an alleged corporation known as the "Washington Colonization and Investment company." The plan of the company was to promise 160 acres of timber land in Washington for $29.50 and a clause to buy the timber back for $850. The chief of police says the scheme is as widespread as the notorious Granite State affair.

COL. WOOD MURDERED.

KANSAS CITY, June 24.—A dispatch from Hugotown states that Col. N. S. Wood, one of the most noted men in west Kansas, was brutally murdered Tuesday by James Brennan. This is another tragedy resulting from the notorious county-seat war between Hugotown and Woodsdale. Wood was one of the counsel for the defendants in the Sheriff Cross murder case, and severely handled Brennen, who was a witness for the state. Today Brennen met Wood on the street in Hugotown, and without warning shot him down. Wood was very popular in Woodsdale, and it is beleived his assassination will result in re opening hostilities.

DOES NOT AMOUNT TO MUCH.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The attention of the war department was called this morning to the report that an Indian outbreak in Arizona was feared. The department officials stated it was not thought the trouble would amount to anything.

TERRIBLE STORM IN IOWA.

WATERLOO, Ia., June 24.—Reports have been received here by the Illinois Central officials of a terrible wind and rain storm which prevailed last night along that company's lines from Storm Lake to Lemars, a distance of 56 miles. The towns are considerably damaged. Four persons were drowned at Cherokee and four at Correctionville. The railway depot at Calumet was blown down, and much damage to town property is reported. Sutherland, O'Brien county, a small station on the Northwestern road, five miles from Calumet, is reported wiped out. Over forty buildings were blown down. Wires are all down and it is impossible to obtain accurate information except through reports transmitted to railroad officials, and these are not always reliable.

CLAIMS BARRED OUT.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 24.—Attorney General Miller has given an opinion that all claims for horses and other property lost in suppressing Indian hostilities in Oregon and Washington in 1855 and 1856, filed since June 30th, 1874 are barred under the provisions of the act of March 3, 1873. $1,284,706,000 has paid to survivors of the war of 1812, Mexican war and war of the revolution.

GETTING READY.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, June 24.—The democratic state convention assembled here this morning at 10 o'clock. The coming campaign will be decisive because it is conceded by both political parties that as Iowa goes next election so it will probably go in the presidential election of 1892. Walter H. Butler, temporary chairman, made an eloquent address in which he eulogized Governor Boies. He said the work of the democratic party in Iowa will not be fully done until the prohibition farce will be swept from the code. The platform leads off by endorsing Governor Boies and his administration. The anti-prohibition plank of the platform of 1890 is re-affirmed and the party pledged to legislative enactment of the Australian ballot, or ballot reform system. The McKinley tariff law is denounced and the principle of tariff for revenue only, re-indorsed. Upon the silver question there was a long dispute, but the committee finally decided to recede from the platform of one year ago, and merely favor the free coinage of silver upon a just ratio, making it a full legal tender for all debts public and private. W. H. Puzy, of Council Bluffs, was selected as permanent chairman.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 24.—A slight shock of earthquake occurred here at 11:27 p. m. No damage was done and the quake was so slight that it escaped the notice of half the population.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 24.—Slight shocks of earthquake were felt between 9 and 10 o'clock last night at Pasadena and San Fernando, a few miles from here.

ACCIDENT AT ASTORIA.

ASTORIA, Or., June 24.—George P. Brower, a foreman in McGregor's mill, met with a terrible accident yesterday, which, by a seeming miracle, did not result fatally. A heavy line shaft runs under the floor the entire length of the mill. The boxes under the planer had been "running hot," so Mr. Brower went down under the mill to place some tallow in them. He had placed it in two of them, and that is all he remembered until he regained consciousness half an hour afterwards and found himself lying naked on the beach beneath. In stooping, an overshirt which he wore caught on a thumb coupling, and he was drawn over the shaft which was making about 750 revolutions a minute. A stanchion and a cross-beam are close to this coupling, and Mr. Brower was whirled up against them, but the space was too small to admit of his going through, and his clothing continued to wind upon the shaft, crushing him in a terrible manner and almost tearing his arm from its socket. As he gradually wedged tighter against the stanchion his head was drawn down against the hub coupling and a projecting set screw tore a fearful gash in his cheek, increasing the size of the wound with every revolution, until his clothing gave way and he dropped to the beach below. Mr. Brower was conveyed to his room and on being examined no bones were found to be broken, but he is very weak from the effects of the fearful shock he sustained.

HORRIBLE CRIME.

THE DALLES, Or., June 24.—Mrs. Poorman, an old lady, was outraged Monday night by a villian who broke a window and overpowered her. She lives alone at the south end of the city. She fired one shot at him, but missed. The marshal arrested a man today named Lawson, supposed to be guilty of the crime. Talk of lynching was heard this morning, but all is quiet. This is the second time in a year and a half that the old lady has been forcibly outraged, it is presumed by the same brute.

THEIVES SENTENCED.

LINKVILLE, Or., June 24.—D. P. Royce, Henry Goodlow, and Joshua Buckmaster were sentenced yesterday to the penitentiary for one year and a half, two years and a half, and five years respectively, for stealing horses and cattle. They were members of an organized band of thieves who have been operating extensively in Southern Oregon and Northern California for several years.

LONDON, June 24.—This afternoon's official London Gazette contains an order in council prohibiting the catching of seals by British subjects in Behring sea from today till May 1st, '92.

TURNED THEIR HEADS.

BERLIN, June 24.—Kate Santley's "Faust up to Date" company are turning the heads of the gilded youths of Berlin. Such symphonies in tights are a rarity in the German capital and will probably be still rarer in the future, as the emperor is understood to have imbibed some Puritanical views on the subject, based on second-hand information, as he has not honored the show with his presence. The gay young soubrettes are in great demand at wine suppers. The officers of the kaiser's army, especially of the red hussars, are making hay while the sun shines, and ere the imperial cloud has passed its shadow over the scene, gossip will have its swing. There is another version of the emperor's attitude toward the pretty visitors. There is a story that at a so-called quiet little supper at Baron Treivel's, which the kaiser attended in company with Prince Gunther, he was made acquainted with one of the shapeliest and most vivacious of the burlesquers and was much smitten. The story leaked out and came to the ears of the empress who was heart-broken until Wilhelm convinced her by his protestations that there had been nothing out of the way in the social event. It is said to have been as a consequence of this episode, and the need of redeeming himself in the eyes of his better half, that the young war lord expressed publicly his disapprobation of the fleshly in the art, a condemnation which aroused irreverent smiles in quarters where the aforementioned story had penetrated.

PARNELL AND MRS. O'SHEA.

LONDON June 24.—It is currently reported that a special license to marry Mrs. O'Shea has been obtained by Parnell. But it is said the Irish leader is experiencing difficulty in obtaining the services of a clergyman who will overlook the fact that Mrs. O'Shea is a divorced woman.

AMERICAN DEFEATED.

LONDON, June 24.—A swimming race between Dalton, an American and a man named Fisher took place today and resulted in the defeat of Dalton, the course being between Dover and Ramsgate.

M'CARTHY WILL RETIRE.

DUBLIN, June, 24.—The retirement of Justin McCarthy from the leadership of the Irish party is expected directly after John Dillon is released from jail.

TIN PLATE.

LONDON, June 24.—The Welsh tin-plate works will shut down about the end of the week. The efforts to induce the manufacturers to reconsider their determination of stoppage was a failure, and the programme as origanlly determined upon will be carried out. The employes are greatly excited over the movement, and many of the expert hands are preparing to emigrate to the United States, where they hope to obtain employment in the tin plate works to be started or now running. The St. James Gazette insists that England must do something to offset the new Continental Zollverein of the mother country and the colonies in accord with the principles and objects of the Imperial Federation League. This sentiment finds a strong echo in the tory ranks and workingmen's clubs; but nothing is heard in its favor among the liberals, with whom free trade with all the world is still a prominent principle.

MISCELLANY.

KILLED HIS FATHER.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 23.—Joseph Demeritt, a cigarmaker 19 years old, killed his father yesterday afternoon, and now lies in the city prison. Joseph's father, George A. Demeritt, was a fisherman who had plied his calling many years on the island. Yesterday afternoon he missed $10, which he had put away for safe keeping, and accused his son Joseph of stealing it. The lad denied all knowledge of the money, and was highly incensed at the accusation. The old man was certain that his son was the thief, and pouncing upon Joseph, gave him a terrible flogging. Joseph stood it for a minute or two, but, in an instant of frenzied rage, he whipped out his sharp cigar knife from his pocket, and, turning on his father, plunged it into his heart. The old man fell backward with the knife still sticking from his breast, and with blood gushing from the wound. In a moment he was dead. Joseph was at once arrested. The parricide is of morose disposition, and is a sufferer from consumption.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The secretary of the interior has rendered a decision in the case of the townsite by East Guthrie, North Guthrie, and Capital Hill, Oklahoma, against Veerder B. Payne and other agricultural claimants. The secretary affirms the decision of the commissioner in rejecting the claim of a townsite of North Guthrie, and a direct hearing will be had to determine the rights of the respective agricultural claimants. Entries by those who entered the territory prior to the hour fixed by the proclimation for opening the land to settlement are declared void. As to the claims of Veerder B. Payne and Zenophon Fitzgerald, the secretary finds their entries are not made in good faith, but, on the contrary, having knowledge a townsite would be located at a certain point, they had entered their tracts with a view of speculating in town lots. Although they went on the ground a few minutes prior to the arrival of the townsite claimants, their motives are taken into consideration, and the land is awarded to the townsite people, thus reversing the decision of the commissioner of the general land office. The application of the mayor and others to enter the west half of section 9 as the townsite of East Guthrie is rejected on the ground that the application was made in the interest of men who violated the law in entering the territory prior to the date fixed by the president in his proclamation.

Dyspepsia

makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and, by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

Distress After Eating

Sick Headache

Heartburn

Sour Stomach

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, painting, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla — took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.
