CHILDREN'S DAY .- The Evangel ical church was elegantly decorated with masses of flowers in bouquets, tastefully arranged. On either side were two beautiful pyramids that lent quite a charm to the decorations. The entire affair reflected much credit upon those who took such active part in making it a success. The program in the morning and the exercises in the evening consisted of music and recitations, Little Chester Smith made the opening address; Annie Pigler, a fouryear-old girl recited with marking effect "The Strayed Lamb." The classes with marked time went through evening, night and morning recitations, singing appropriate verses. The children performed their parts well.

> TO FARMERS AND ALL PERSONS WANTING FENCE: I should like to call the attention of all who wish a good, durable, substantial fence, and one that is neat and tidy, to the combination fence of E. H. Rice. This fence is one that will turn any and all kinds of stock without danger to the animals. No barbed wire to injure stock. Is made in the field on the posts. Mr. E. H. Rice came to my place yesterday and we got all the material ready for 62 rods of fence at 1:30 p. m. There were E. H. Rice, my hired man and myself to work at it. We used split pickets and wove 62 rods of good substantial fence by 6 p. m. We would have 200 made better time had myself and hand ever seen any such fence put up before. See this fence before putting in any other kind.

Yours Truly, F. G. McLench. LINCOLN, Or, June 9, 1891. Henry Schomaker, general agent, alem. 6-11 Im w

TO THE PUBLIC AND ESPECIALLY MY FRIENDS OF POLK COUNTY, OR: I will say I contracted with Mr. E. 350 H. Rice, proprietor of the Combina-tion Fence, for ninety-five rods, and he agreed with me to complete same in ten hours, and he, with the assistance of two other men, completed the ninety-five rods in eight hours time, and I must say the fence in my judgment is the best wire fonce I have ever seen, and shall use more of it as fast as my rail and other fences require replacing; and I am happy to recommend the fence and Mr. E. H. Rice to all my neighbors, as a man worthy of your patrouage, he is no humbug.
Yours Respectfully,
