OFF FOR SEA SHORE.

Hotel Gearhart, Clatsop Beach, Opens for Guests July 15th.

Mr. Amos Strong, of Salem, has leased the finest hotel on the famous Clatsop beach and announces that "Hotel Gearhart" will be thrown open to the public Tuesday, July 15th.

Clatsop beach seaside has for years been the most popular and fashionable resort for recreation, health and pleasure seekers on this coast, and under the management of Caterer Strong who is known on all this coast, the "Gearhart" will have a fine run of custom.

The beach is broad, level and fine, so flat that small children bathe safely, running from the hotel down to the water.

This resort is accessible by boat, drive or rail from Astoria, and all Portland boats connect with trains at Astoria.

Daily mail and papers are delivered at Seaside, which is the post-office. The scenery here is equal to any on the coast. There is every variety and the moss-covered monarchs of the forest tower hundreds of feet above one's head.

This is truly a paradise for the teacher, the student, the scholar, the scientist, the philosopher, the invalid and the pleasure seeker.

The new management of the "Gearhart" will be first class throughout, cuisine, service and all accommodations. Amos Strong, manager.

STATES PICNIC.—Everything for the 4th is in good shape. The celebrated "Home Guard" band will play for the occasion. A select choir is being drilled. Two "short but sweet" speakers are secured. Flowing banners for each state are ordered and badges, ditto. All the committees are requested to meet at the Willamette hotel Thursday evening for final arrangements.

John Wright says if the Oregon committee doesn't turn out in full they can't have any of his peanuts. All should turn out, as the time is growing short.

THE SEWERS.—Street Commissioner Crossan has had a force of men at work today cleaning and flushing the sewers. A large ball of wood is dropped in, attached to a cord. The sewer is then flushed from two hydrants. The ball is caught at the next manhole, and by means of the strong cord a cable is pulled thro' attached to which is a heavy coil of chain, which is then dragged back and forth, stirring up the sediment which the strong stream of water carries off.

THE BOYS ARE LIABLE.—Last Sunday evening while the family of Chas. Calvert were at church some boys entered the premises on Asylum avenue, and stripped their finest cherry tree not only of its fruit but tore off many of the best branches. This is a crime for which the boys are liable to punishment. Mr. Calvert knows who the boys are, and says if such a thing occurs again, they will be punished.

IN THE SHADE.—That is where you want to get for comfort. Farrar & Co.'s is where you want to go for the choicest groceries.

NOTICE.—Persons wishing to rent booths for refreshment stands, check stands, dancing floors, etc., at the fair grounds for July 4th should inquire at once of the committee on general arrangements. 6 24 if

THE STATES PICNIC.—Lunch delicacies for the occasion. See Street & Gile.

BRICK AND TILE.—For first class hard made brick and tile, go to Murphy & Deart. Large supply on hand. Near fair grounds, Salem. 6 6 1mo

HARRISON INSTITUTE.

Closing Exercises Successfully Concluded Tuesday Afternoon.

New Salem is located one of the four industrial Indian schools of America. The others are at Carlisle, Pa., Lawrence, Kas., and one in Nevada. The Salem school is said to rank second in efficiency as an educational institution for Indians.

THE OFFICERS AND TEACHERS of Harrison Institute, located at Clatsop, a few miles north of the capital city, on the S. P. road, are as follows:

G. M. Irwin, assisted in the conduct of the school by Prof. J. B. R. Robinson, principal; Miss Lizzie Cornelius, Mrs. H. Bristow and Miss Clara Gilman, teachers; David Brewer, disciplinarian; J. Stalger, shoemaker; J. H. Baughman, blacksmith and wagonmaker; G. C. Rogan, tailor; O. G. Savage, farmer; Chas. McDonald, engineer. There is a carpenter, and Mrs. Adair has charge of dressmaking; Miss Porter, of the laundry; Miss Miles, of the sewing. Mrs. G. M. Irwin is matron and Mrs. McMeekin is assistant matron.

The enrollment the past year is 230, of which some eighty were girls. Both boys and girls appear in uniform of tasteful regulation governmental pattern, all of which are made by the pupils at the school. Excellent discipline is maintained. Mr. Brewer training the boys in military tactics and conduct so that few schools for whites can produce the equals of the Indian boys as cadets. They march to and from meals and school in the most soldierly, clocklike manner.

A reporter of the JOURNAL took a cursory glance, over grounds, different industrial departments and buildings and found all in good order.

for the afternoon comprised 35 numbers and was of great interest and rendered with that earnestness and dignity that only Indians are capable of. There were so many good features of the program that we dare not particularize.

The exercises were all conducted from a platform under the oaks. There was a large attendance from Salem and other towns. The Chemawa band, composed entirely of Indian boys, which has played in this city on so many public occasions, gave good satisfaction as usual. The salutatory by Miss Jessie Taylor was well spoken. Noble features were the vocal music, the calisthenic exercises by a class of small boys; the declamation "Hobohindin" by Joseph Reed and Harry Miller; the orations by Paul Dix and Wm. Martin are also well spoken of. After remarks by Supt. Irwin on the year's work, a bromid by sixteen young ladies closed the program.

THE NEW COUNTY JUDGE.

The Governor Selects a Worthy Successor to Han. Wm. Waldo.

THOMAS L. DAVIDSON, of Salem, was this morning appointed county judge of Marion county. The appointee to fill the vacancy is an old resident of Marion county. He owns a farm adjoining the city, a part of which he has sold at big figures. He is a life long democrat and has run on the ticket of the forlorn hope in this county many times.

His petition was signed by the following democrats: John Gray, of State Central Con.; Martin Rowley, Chm. Co. Com.; T. L. Golden, Wm. F. Dugan, W. J. D'Arcy, Napoleon Davis, Wm. Miller, Eugene Willis, Percy Willis, Horace Willis, J. C. Griffith, Jos. Clark, A. D. Palmer, W. W. Johns, W. D. Mohney, I. L. Steiner, H. G. Sownmann, D. J. Steiner, A. Humphreys.

This appointment will probably prove acceptable to the city, democracy and farming elements.

TAKES THE OFFICE.

Mr. Davidson appeared at the office of the county clerk at 2 p. m. and was administered the oath of office, when Judge Waldo formally turned over to him the records and effects of the county court.

THE RETIRING JUDGE.

He goes out of office with good will and respect of the people generally. He found his physical strength would not be likely to hold out, and with his usual determination of character he did what was necessary and will seek restoration of health first.

A Free Reading Room.

ED. JOURNAL: I desire to call attention to the free reading room on Court street between High and Liberty, where everyone is made welcome by the matron.

The rooms are very pleasantly situated with a north front, making it a delightfully cool and pleasant place in summer for the tired and weary to rest awhile. The seats and tables are plenty and comfortable, and the room nicely decorated with pictures, mottoes, etc.

The library contains about four hundred volumes of choice books also a large list of papers, including the two Salem dailies and the Oregonian. The rooms are kept by Mr. and Mrs. Polhemus, recently of Kansas. They are very pleasant people.
