THE STATES PICNIC.

A Grand, Good Time Enjoyed at the State Fair Grounds.

10,000 PEOPLE PRESENT

And Establish a New Method of Celebrating our Country's Natal Day.

Salem did not "celebrate" the 4th of July this year, but she laid herself out to make the people of a large area happy, and this she did with that true generosity of which she is ever possessed. The day was beautiful for the occasion, except the morning shower which deterred a small number from enjoying our hospitality. The attraction was what has been termed a "states picnic," which was held in the refreshing groves of the State Fair grounds. About 10,000 people participated, and none expressed themselves dissatisfied with the day.

The prime object of this novel project was to extend a hearty welcome to the thousands of newcomers in our midst, and while the effort was a modest one and to some extent an experiment, it must be declared a success. All participants certainly enjoyed it much better than they usually do a hum-drum celebration. The social feature was predominant. People from every state in the union were provided with comfortable headquarters, bearing the name of their state on a large banner. Here they gathered for social intercourse. A book was provided for all to register, giving their former residence and date of leaving for Oregon. After registering they were supplied with neat silk badges to pin on their garments, bearing with the name of their state and the following words: "States Picnic, Salem, Or., July 4th 1891." This badge made it possible for the wearers to recognize others from their former homes, and many found opportunity to revive old recollections of a very pleasant character.

The STATES PICNIC were grouped in the following order, and represented by the list of committees given below.

1—Iowa.
 2—Illinois.

After enjoying their dinners as only honest plain folks can, Uncle John Minto again called the hosts to order and called upon Col. Miller to act as toast master. He in turn first called upon Mr. Minto for a toast and song for Oregon and the pioneers. The grand old man complied in his hearty way, and was cheered to the echo.

The list of states was then called, and the following responses were secured:

Kansas—Judge W H Pratt.
 Maine—Hon G P Sanderson.
 New York—Father J L Parrish.
 Illinois—John H Albert.
 Ohio—Dr W D Jeffries.
 Tennessee—J B Brown.
 Missouri—Hon John Minto (for his wife).
 Pennsylvania—Dr W S Mott and Rev F S Strayer.
 Nebraska—R R Ryan.
 Great Britain—Mr McClellan, of Prince Edward's Island.
 When no more responses could be procured, Col. Miller brought the day's entertainment to a happy close by a few well chosen words thanking the people for their attention and hoping that the "states picnic" might be perpetuated not only in Salem, but that it might in supercede the old style 4th of July celebration all over the land.

 Glee—"All Hail Happy Greeting," by select choruses.
 Invocation, Rev. Sebastian Adams.
 Solo and chorus—"Hail Our Country's Natal Morn," Miss Harris and Glee club.
 Address of welcome, Col. Robert A. Miller.
 Song—"Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. Gile, Miss Sargent and Glee club.

 Song—"America," by Glee club and audience.
 Music by band.
 Then followed the dinner by the people of the respective states. It was of the basket picnic order, and to say that it was heartily enjoyed by all is too mild a statement. The good mothers and daughters present had provided a bountiful spread, and in the language of the modern poet, it "got there."
