"August Flower"

Biliousness, Constipation, Stomach Pains.

"I have been afflicted with biliousness and constipation for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took it according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold your August Flower—it has given me a new lease of life, which before was a burden. Such a medicine is a benefaction to humanity, and its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made known to everyone suffering with dyspepsia or biliousness. Jesse Barker, Printer, Humboldt, Kansas."

TIRED.

What though we're tired, my heart and I?
It matters not—there's more to come;
We must live on, we cannot die,
Must rise and gird our armor on.

We must be strong, my heart and I,
For heavy burdens weigh us down,
They press so hard, yet they must try
To lift the cross who'd wear the crown.

We must be brave, my heart and I,
We have no time to give to tears
For broken hopes, that ruined lie
Along the pathway of the years.

We must look up, my heart and I,
Straight on, where Faith and Hope are seen,
With eager step and earnest eye,
With steady trust and steadfast mien.

Look up, not down; look on, not back,
And grasp the hand of Faith secure,
For "not a good thing shall he lack"
Who thus "through all things shall endure."

"Tired out," you say; nay, nay, not so!
For "as the day, thy strength shall be,"
And he who bids you "Rise and go,"
Has also said, "Come, follow me!"

He does not ask that we should tread
A path he has not gone before;
Then follow, without fear or dread,
For he will guide you, doubt no more.
—Lucy Leggett in Good Housekeeping.

The Duty of Not Getting Tired.

Are you one of the women who say, "I am perfectly well, only I get tired easily?" If you do you are one of thousands. And yet, little woman, don't you know that getting tired easily is just of itself a disease? It shows a letting down of the vital forces that requires attention and toning up. You need first of all more rest, not necessarily more hours of sleep at night, but little half hours of rest snatched here and there in your hours of work.

And by rest isn't meant simply the physical rest that comes from lying down. Don't lie down to think over your plans for economy, or for entertaining, or for anything else. When you lie down to rest shut your eyes and stop thinking. Ten minutes of this is better than an hour of the other.

Then you need more food probably. Not more food at meals necessarily, but food taken oftener. Instead of waiting until luncheon take a cup of beef tea during the forenoon. In the afternoon take a glass of milk and a biscuit if that agrees with you, or an egg lemonade if that suits you better.

And then get a little fresh air every day. Get it any way, if you have to cut short manicuring your nails or saying your prayers to do it. And get it in the exercise of walking if you can.—New York Evening Sun.

A Scared Hired Man.

A native of the verdant isle, who had newly arrived in America, was hired by a gentleman as a gardener. The country place on which he was to work was on the shore of Long Island sound, the waters coming to within a few rods of the house. Besides his care of the garden, Pat was supposed to be the custodian of an ancient donkey, who had many eccentricities, and who Pat declared to be the "cleverest baste that iver wore a tail." One evening, as the family were at dinner, the Irishman came tearing up the veranda and into the hall. "Come quick, sor!" he cried, through the open door. "Come quick. The ass is in the say, and a-lepping to get out." And hurrying his master to the shore he pointed wildly to the creek, where, in the placid summer waters, a school of porpoises were rolling in uncouth gambols, looking really not unlike an enormous beast struggling in the waves.—New York Tribune.

Shrewd Delivery Boys.

The boys who deliver packages for the dry goods stores have a shrewd trick by which they make a few extra pennies. As every one knows, dry goods are never sold for even money, but foot up bills that always end with either fifty-seven, forty-nine or twenty-seven cents. The boys are always given a generous supply of small coin to make change with when they deliver goods sent C. O. D. They pretend, however, never to have it, and, as there is seldom the right change in the house, they get the odd pennies.

And the little fellows deserve them. —New York Herald.

Done by a Mean Man.

The meanest man on record lives in Union county. He sold his son-in-law one-half of a cow, and then he refused to divide the milk, maintaining that he sold only the front half. The son-in-law was also required to provide the feed the cow consumed, and compelled to carry water to her three times a day. Recently the cow hooked the old man, and now he is suing his son-in-law for damages.—Vandalia Gazette.

In 1821 was taken the first complete record of the population of the United Kingdom. The population was then 21,272,187. In 1831 it was 24,392,485; in 1841, 27,057,923; 1851, 27,745,949; 1861, 29,321,288; 1871, 31,845,379; 1881, 35,246,562.

Experiment has proved that if a delicate piece of lace be placed between an iron plate and a disk of gunpowder and the latter be detonated, the lace will be annihilated, but its impression will be clearly stamped on the iron.

It is estimated that $50,000,000 of the government's paper money supposed to be in circulation has been lost or destroyed. By the sinking of one vessel off the Atlantic coast some years ago $1,000,000 in greenbacks was lost.

A sugar, fifteen times sweeter than cane sugar and twenty times sweeter than beet sugar, is reported by a German chemist to be made from cottonseed meal. It cannot be sold to compete with the ordinary article.

1,500 MILES.

But She Got It.—A Sample of Letters Daily Received.

Only those who have tried it can know what it is that prompts one to send 1,500 miles for it to get it again. Here is another of many such instances:—

DEAR SIRS: I send $5, for which please return a half dozen of your vegetable sarsaparilla. I have moved here from Sierra City, Cal. I took three bottles before leaving, hence I send all the way back to California for more. It was just before I left Sierra City, about a year ago, that I began to feel very miserable. My skin was very yellow, and I was all pains and aches, especially under my shoulders and in my head. The doctor said it was my liver, and gave me some medicine which relieved me somewhat. One of my neighbors happened in and told me she had started to take Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, and advised me to try it. I did, and with such good effect that I now feel like a new being. I have persuaded one of my neighbors here to take it, so part of this is for her and part for myself.

WHY DID HE GO?

A St. Louis Merchant's Trip to the Postoffice, and the Result.

California's last sensation is beginning to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, the commission merchant of 122 and 124 North Commercial Street, was one of the first to test Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla in sick headaches. Its effect was such a gratifying surprise that he went over to the postoffice and told his friend, Thos. P. Culkin, sup't of the registry division, who was also worried with headaches. The following letter details his friend's experience also:—

POSTOFFICE, St. Louis, Feb. 20, 1890.

J. V. S. BARRETT, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR: You ask me, Did I act on your advice? I did, and have to thank you. For years I have suffered from indigestion and headaches. Taking your advice, I purchased a bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Before I had finished it I could eat almost anything with impunity, and have been since rarely troubled with a headache of any kind, for which I give due credit to your advice and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Yours, etc.,

THOS. P. CULKIN, Sup't Registry Division, Postoffice.
