So he went, a foot or two at a time on each rope, until he neared the big gilt ball on the top of the pole. Then seizing the top of of the pole. Then seizing the top of DR. J. M. KEENE, Dentist, Office over the pole he climbed with his legs until high enough to stand on his seat, holding fast to the iron support of the ball with his hands. The crowds in the streets stood still to watch his every movement, and the teamsters over on Broadway almost caused a blockade by stopping to look.

Mr. Zimener, when he stood upon his seat at the top of the staff, was just 375 1-2 feet above the foundation of the Pulitzer building and 349 feet above Frankfort street. The roof of the building was 149 feet below him, and the gold and copper dome rose up toward him like the closing leaves of a great golden tulip. your advice and Joy's Venetable saranparille Yours etc. THOS. P. CULKIN. Sup't Registry Division, Postoffice.

California's last sensation is beginning to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, the commission merchant of 122 and 124 North Commercial Street, was one of the Bost that can be constructed and in white eccommodations are both free and in-nished for bolders of first and second-clastirst to test Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla in sick headaches. Its effect was such a gratifying surprise that he went over to the postoffice and told his friend, Thos. P. Culkin, sup't of the registry division, who was also worried with headaches The following letfor details his friend's experience also:

J. V. S. Harrery, Pag.:

Louis Stat. You saik me, Did I act on your advice? I tild, and have to thank you. For years I have stillered from indirection and header has. Yaking your advice. I journhased a bottle of loys Verenble Saraparilla, holine I than distinct I I could est almost anyther of the impanity, and have been
