RECRUITS FOR THE ARMY.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—For the past year the authorities have been attempting to improve the quality of recruits in the regular army, so as to lessen the percentage of desertion, which was growing alarmingly. Extra endeavors were made to secure young men who sought the army as a profession rather than a haven of refuge. To this end the efforts of officials have been systematically turned from cities to country. The effect of these efforts are beginning to show results, and they are more gratifying than was expected. Officers are well satisfied that the policy is a good one.

FAMILY POISONED.

LOUISVILLE, July 15.—Near Russelville yesterday the family of J. H Cornelius farmer, were poisoned at supper. Bernard Cornelius, nephew has died and five others are dangerously ill. Poison is supposed to have been in the milk.

INGERSOLL FAVORS M'KINLEY.

CHICAGO, July 15.—Robert C. Ingersoll in speaking of likely candidates for the president on the republican ticket said of M'Kinley: "He is the very man if he wins the coming election in Ohio. If he carries the Buckeye state with a good majority he will be nominated by acclamation. Nothing can stop McKinley from being the biggest man in the republican party if he is successful in the coming struggle."

"Could he be elected?"

"Easily. With McKinley as standard-bearer I am not afraid of any of the so called doubtful states. Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Indiana and others will give McKinley a large majority."

"If Secretary Blaine recovers his health, will it be possible to stop the Blaine wave now sweeping the country?"

"I dont think he is very sick, and I can't see the big wave. I have nothing against Mr. Blaine, nor do I pretend to know what will happen in politics a year or so hence, but I give you my honest convictions. Take them for what they are worth.

THE WAY TO FAIL.

PITTSBURG, July 15.—Nimick & Co., dealers in pig iron, have concluded to wind up business. They will require an extension on their obligation to prevent a sacrifice. Creditors will not lose a dollar. Assets are nearly $2 to $1 of liabilities.

BUFFALO, July 15.—William G. signed yesterday, with preferences of $50,000. The cause of the failure is attributed to hard times.

WAS CRAZY.

TACOMA, July 15—Yesterday afternoon George Martin, tax collector, went into the Fashion saloon to collect poll tax from William Bannon, the proprietor. While the two men were talking at the bar, a young man named Tom Hinchey, a stranger to both, entered and asked everybody to drink. He had no sooner done so than Hinchey drew a revolver and began firing at everybody in sight. One shot took effect in Bannon's wrist and another grazed his neck, while Martin received a bullet in his back, penetrating the lung. Martin has since died. Bannon is not badly hurt. Others escaped by falling down. After shooting, Hinchey attempted to reload his revolver, but was arrested.

ASSAULTED THE POLICEMAN.

JERSEY CITY, July 15.—William Brennan and his wife were shot at their home at Jersey City Heights, early yesterday morning, by Policeman Ryerson. Brennan was killed outright and his wife mortally wounded. Officer Ryerson claim, he had to use his pistol to save his own life. The tragedy was the outcome of a murderous assault by Brennan upon the policeman who killed him. Mrs. Brennan also took part in the assault upon Ryerson.

CARRYING SHINGLES.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Among the arrivals in port last night was the schooner Robert and Minnie. This is the vessel that left this port some time ago with arms and ammunition for the Chilian insurgents, and which she transferred to the steamer Itata off San Diego. This time her cargo consists of shingles which she brought down from Eureka.

OHIO DEMOCRATS.

GOV. CAMPBELL RENOMINATED.

Work of a Fiend, The Colorado, Canadian Crops, Spurgeon Very Ill, State and Foreign News, Etc.

THE OHIO DEMOCRATS.

CLEVELAND, July 15.—Governor Campbell will be the nominee of the democratic convention today for governor of Ohio. Contest will be short and decisive, and be concluded with the first ballot.

Governor Campbell will receive far more than enough votes to nominate, but the anti-Campbell delegates insist they will go on record in opposition, in order to prevent a unanimous nomination. There have been many wordy warfares in hotel lobbies between the Campbell delegates and their demonstrative opponents. All these disputes are deprecated by both Campbell and Neal, but their ill effect is none the less felt in the party ranks. While an angry wrangle was in progress this evening in front of the Plaindealer office, between Peter Nolan, a Campbell man and an amateur prize fighter, and Wm. and James Patterson, delegates, all understood to be from Cincinnati, the "ile" was passed, and in an instant revolvers were drawn, a fusillade followed, in which four or five shots were fired with mild results. An innocent bystander received one bullet, after which the weapons were used as clubs with more appreciable effect on the contestants. They all received numerous gashes over the head, and were bleeding profusely when arrested.

The governor reached the city this afternoon.

"There is no doubt of my nomination on the first ballot," said he, last evening. "It is a simple question of addition, as I already have assurances from far more than enough delegates to insure my nomination. I think the result, whatever it may be, will be accepted philosophically by all my worthy competitors, and that the democracy of the state will present an unbroken front to the enemy this fall."

CLEVELAND, July 15.—A mass meeting of anti-Campbell delegates was held yesterday afternoon at which was discussed the question whether, in the event of Campbell's nomination, the opposition should permit him to be declared unanimously nominated, or insist on a canvass roll call, and make the record show opposing votes. The committee reported this evening in favor of opposing Campbell to the bitter end.

The committee has been in session all the evening, and the platform practically completed except on the silver question. The tariff plank is founded on that of last year, demands a reduction of tariff taxes, and denounces the "so-called protective tariff."

OHIO DEMOCRATS.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 15.- One of the largest and at the same time most inharmonious conventions ever assembled in the history of Ohio Democracy met this morning in this city. The vast music hall in which the convention was had was packed to its utmost capacity long before the hour of meeting arrived. Chairman Norton formally opened the convention in a brief but stirring address, at its conclusion Allen W. Thurman, the temporary chairman, stepped forward and addressed the convention. Thurman, after a few preliminary remarks launched forth with denunciation of the republican party and its methods.

Ex-Congressman Leblond was selected as permanent chairman. On motion the picture of a victorious rooster was adopted as the device to designate the democratic ticket in accordance with the ballot reform law.

The first contest in the convention arose over the report of the committee on credentials, a dispute in the 25th ward of Cincinnati and the Hamilton county delegation was subject to a wrangle. The minority report was overwhelmingly defeated and the majority report of credentials committee was then adopted.

OHIO DEMOCRATS' PLATFORM.

CLEVELAND, July 15.—The administraton of Gov. Campbell is endorsed for its honesty and economy, and the last session of the general assembly commended especially for having provided for a secret ballot, continuing, the report of the majority read, "We are opposed to all class legislation and believe in a tariff levied for the sole purpose of producing a revenue sufficient to defray the legitimate expenses of the government, economically administered. We accept the issue tendered to us by the republican party on the subject of tariff. We favor a graded income tax; we denounce the demonetization of silver in 1873 by the party then in power as iniquitous alteration of the money standard in favor of creditors and against debtors, tax payers and producers and which by shutting off one source of supply of primary money has continually increased the value of gold, depressed prices, hampered industry and disparages enterprise, and we demand the reinstatement of the constitutional standard of both gold and silver with equal right of each to free and unlimited coinage. We denounce the republican billion dollar congress which by extravagant expenditure has exausted the surplus in the national treasury, left there by democratic administation, and created a deficit. We favor closer commercial relations with our Canadian neighbor; we favor liberal and just pensions to deserving and disabled soldiers and sailors and their widows and orphans."

The minority report give the following as a substitute on the silver plank in platform: "We believe in the honest money coinage of gold and silver and circulating medium convertable into such money without loss and we oppose all legislation which tends to drive either gold or silver out of circulation and we believe in maintaining the coinage of both metals on parity." We also recommend that the resolution declaring for graded income tax be stricken out of the platform.

Minority report was rejected by 399 nays to 300½ yeas and platform as reported by majority of committee was adopted. Nominating speeches for governor commenced at 10 o'clock Follett of Cincinnati, placed Neal, at the conclusion of which the convention went wild as Michael Ryan of Cincinnati, nominated Governor Campbell.

Gov. Campbell was re-nominated on the first ballot. "On behalf of Cayuhoga county," said Dodge, leader of the Kline men, "I move we make the nomination of Campbell unanimous." The motion was quickly put and declared carried on viva voce vote, the Neal men failing to demand yeas and nays, Hamilton county men voted "no" in chorus, however, and as if to emphasise their opposition repeated "no, no, no, no," for half a minute following the announcement. The motion prevailed and they hissed loudly and repeatedly notwithstanding cries of "shame, shame, shame," from the Cayuhoga delegation.

THE COLORADO.

LOS ANGELES, July 15.—Resident Engineer Hawgood, who has just returned, says most of the water in the vicinity of Salton is now south of the Mexican line and south of the Big Holes country. The flood, at a rough estimate, in its greatest length measured ninety-five miles and its greatest width is about fifty miles, being of irregular shape. This immense body of water is held back from Salton basin by sand ridges, through which, however, it has been making its way and is now gradually covering that basin. The water seems, Hawgood says, to come from the Colorado, which he thinks is possibly forming a new delta. This river carries a great amount of salt, and has been raising its bed for probably hundreds of years. It is possible the breaks in its west bank [illegible] river and Hardy's Colorado will henceforth form its delta, and that it will cover the country south of Big Holes and possibly include Salton basin. There is, he states, absolutely no danger to the Southern Pacific road for months to come, if at all.

STATE.

WORK OF A FIEND.

OREGON CITY, July 15.—William Henderson, who was formerly employed in a local livery stable, was thrown in jail Monday, under $300 bonds, for mayhem upon the person of A. W. Purdom, of Molalla corners. The fracas occured at the farm of Joseph Purdom, which was in charge of the injured man. Henderson tripped Purdom up, then grabbed a bottle lying near by and struck him over the head, breaking the bottom of the bottle off and cutting a severe gash on Purdom's head. He then jabbed Purdom several times in the face, cutting him so severely that the right eye had to be removed,

BAD ACCIDENT.

MCMINNVILLE, July 15.—George Ingles, a plasterer, fell twenty feet from a staging while cementing in front of Adams' block yesterday, striking on his head and shoulders. He received injuries that will probably prove fatal. He is an esteemed citizen of this county, and lived near Newberg.

Imposing, Not Jolly.

After the marriage of Napoleon and Maria Louisa the city of Paris gave them a splendid banquet, which Captain Coignet describes in his "Narrative." He was on duty at the Hotel de Ville, where the banquet was served, with a squad of twenty grenadiers.

The table was horseshoe shaped, and around it were placed armchairs. The dishes were of solid gold. When the master of ceremonies announced "The Emperor," Bonaparte entered, followed by his wife and five kings. Having seated himself at the table, the Emperor made a sign to the guests to take their places.

As soon as all were seated the table was cleared, as is usual at great dinners, and every dish was carried into an adjoining room where the carvers did their work. Behind each king there were three footmen about a step from one another. Other footmen communicated with carvers, and passed the plates without turning more than half way round to get them.

When a plate came within reach of a king the head footman presented it to him, and if he shook his head the plate was withdrawn and another brought immediately. If the head did not move the footman placed the plate in front of his master. Not a word was spoken.

Each napkin, as soon as once used, disappeared, the footman slipping in another. When the banquet was over a pile of napkins lay behind each chair.

No one was permitted to speak except when the emperor addressed him.

"That may be imposing, but it is not at all jolly," is the captain's comment.

Fame and a Syllable.

A gentleman in Washington who devotes his time to hunting up all sorts of information, says he can prove that the greatest men and women in the world's history had names that ended in "on." He gives the following list of famous men, to which the reader can add at his leisure:

Samson, Solomon, Napoleon, Washington, Wellington, Newton, Bacon-Johnson, Nelson, Hamilton, Milton, Byron, Jefferson, Jackson, Emerson, Edison, Harrison, Clinton, Madison, Hudson, Gibbon, Addison, Walton, Whittington, Wilson, Farjeon, Morton, Audubon, Chatterton, Tennyson and Lytton.

That is all very well if the greatest men of the world have been Englishmen and Americans of English descent, whose names so frequently end in ton or son; but to say nothing of the fact that some at least of the names given are not those of the greatest men who have ever lived what a mistake it was that Abraham, Moses, David, Xerxes, Demosthenes, Cicero, Cæsar, Pompey, Charlemagne, Shakespeare, Dante, Gladstone, Bismarck, Lincoln and some thousands of others who might be mentioned had names that did not end with "on."

Moreover, a pretty good case can be made out for "er" as a rival termination. Here are a few names that suggest themselves at once: Alexander, Peter, Luther, Spenser, Hunter, Webster, Turner, Bulwer, Wagner. It would be a pretty good mental exercise to extend [illegible] and see which will come out ahead.—Youth's Companion.

Three Important Numbers.

The whole world is looking out for No. 1. It is a very important number and is employed oftener than any other. It is a component part of every odd or even number, and is the root and foundation of all numbers. There is one God and one heaven. We have one heart and one soul, one life and one death.

Two is a number of great utility and pre-eminence. The Creator kept it in mind in many of his works. He created man and all the beasts in two sexes, and gave the humans two eyes, two ears, two nostrils, two arms, two hands, two legs, two feet and many other double members of utility to the body. All the passions are in pairs, such as joy and sadness, hope and fear, love and hate. Health and sickness, living and dying, heat and cold, vice and virtue, knowledge and ignorance, truth and falsehood and the like are represented in duplicity.

The number three is one of great prominence and significance. Shakespeare says:

"They say there is divinity in odd numbers, either in nativity, chance or death."—Chicago Herald.

Hindoo Women.

Hindoo women wear very beautiful, and when wealthy very costly jewelry. They wear a large ring in the nose, quite a number on each ear, and ever so many bangles on the arms and wrists, also massive gold and silver anklets and rings on each toe. These rich ornaments are very becoming, and the women naturally think a great deal of them. But widows are not allowed any ornaments at all, nor must they wear colors.

The condition of women with living husbands is not much better. They must never look upon the face of any other man, so that they are not allowed to leave their homes, and these homes, even among the rich, are not pretty in the least. The small dingy rooms have bare walls and hardly any furniture, and look upon dreary interior yards without a vestige of tree or flower.—Mrs. David Ker in Jennens-Miller Magazine.

Promptly Answered.

"What did they do with Joseph's coat of many colors?" asked the Sunday school teacher.

"Cut it down and made it over for Benjamin," hazarded a pensive little boy at the end of the seat.—Exchange.

DO YOU FAVOR
Building up a Strong, Independent Paper for the People in Oregon?
A PAPER THAT WILL NOT SELL OUT—
Printed at the Seat of Government
LOOK AT THE RECORD OF THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

During the recent session of the legislature it was the only paper in the state that attacked successfully the Portland dictatorship in Oregon politics. It successfully opposed all doctoring the Australian ballot law in the interests of political bosses. It advocated the law (that passed) giving the Oregon railroad commission power to fix just and reasonable rates of freights and power to enforce its decisions. It successfully advocated retention of the old railroad commission as best qualified to enforce the law. It labored for all measures to open rivers and thus secure to the people the right to free and unrestricted use of the waterways.

ITS PLATFORM,

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL favors a reform in national finances, to the end that the present expensive monopoly system of supplying all paper currency may be supplanted by the government issuing direct to the people an adequate supply of legal tender money, with a coin basis sufficient to conform to sound banking principles. It favors election of all officials who legislate for, or are directly responsible to the people, by direct vote of the people. It favors raising all state revenues by a tax on the gross earnings of corporations, both foreign and state. It favors opening all waterways to the sea and a control of all common carriers to the end that the producer shall secure for his labor the largest net returns.

If you favor retaining all powers possible in the hands of the people and government in the interests of the people, circulate this paper. For terms, see elsewhere.
