

whose connection with the tragedy was shown by the evidence, have warrants out against them, but they were not found. District Attorney Jones stated that he would request Governor Markham to offer a reward for Webb.

FROM COAL CREEK.

Matters are Assuming a Serious Aspect.

GRAND RAPIDS AND HALL-FITZSIMMONS

Royal Arch Masons, Bad School Directors, The Alliance Move, The Races at Saratoga, Hop Crop, Race War, State and Foreign News, Etc.

FROM TENNESSEE.

KNOXVILLE, July 24.—There is no change in the situation this afternoon. The troops still remain in Knoxville and all is quiet at Coal Creek and Priceville. Another and final conference between the governor and representatives of the miners will probably be held this afternoon. The opinion of Attorney General Pickle was rendered this morning with regard to the right of the governor under the law to call out the state militia, and is to the effect that the governor cannot call out the militia, but they may be used as a posse. This complicates the situation, as the militia feel that they are under no more obligation to serve as a posse than other citizens of the state, and that it is lowering the dignity of the military branch of the state service. So far as can be seen, there is no danger of any serious trouble anywhere today.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24.—There is scarcely any doubt but that troops will move to Coal Creek before noon today. Two gatling guns will be mounted on flat cars and thus they will enter Coal Creek, but there is not much danger of bloodshed as the miners say not a gun will be fired.

FROM COAL CREEK.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24.—An investigation shows that in the past 24 hours there has been an unusually large number of calls at Knoxville hardware stores for Winchester rifles. It is said that 600 men in the vicinity of Williamsburg, Ky., are ready to come to the aid of the Coal Creek. It is known that a telegram has been received from a Pennsylvania mining town proposing contributions of money and also men if necessary. At no time has the situation appeared more serious though there will be no conflict until the governor moves.

THE ALLIANCE MOVE.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—H. W. Ayer, secretary to President Polk, of the former's alliance, and manager of the "Reform Press Bureau," says the work of sending out circulars designed to show the farmers of the country that it is to their advantage to hold back the wheat crop, was actually proceeding in this city as well as in St. Paul. Mr. Ayer says that already 400,000 of these circulars were sent out from Washington, and during the next few days an average of 100,000 a day will be mailed until more than a million circulars altogether are issued. The circular will also be published in about two thousand weekly papers with which the bureau is connected. Information that the issue of such circulars by alliance men was in contemplation became public prematurely about two weeks ago, when the circular in course of preparation was published in a newspaper. The final decision to issue the circular had not at that time been reached, but it has since been determined upon.

DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Action has been completed under the new incorporation of the national society of the Daughters of the Revolution. Mrs. Benjamin Harrison is president general and Mrs. W. D. Cabell, of Virginia, first vice-president. The constitution and bylaws, under the charter, are now in effect. All the work of the society, including the organization of its state chapters, has been withdrawn from New York and other points to Washington. Applications are now being received from every state and territory. The organization is already reported to be the most patriotic society in the country which is made up of ladies. The registrar general is Mrs. Eugenia Westington and Mrs. Howard A. Clark. Mrs. General George H. Shields is recording secretary general; Mrs. E. H. Walworth, corresponding secretary, and the committee in charge of the national organization is Mrs. H. M. Boynton, Mrs. A. Leo Knott and Mrs. John W. Foster.

IMPORTING SKILLED LABOR.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The Dept. of Immigration has rendered a decision on the application that stamping company of St. Louis is permitted to import skilled labor for their tin plate mills, to the effect that the immigration law plainly intends skilled labor may be imported into the United States to do work in an industry not yet established provided the skilled workmen in that industry cannot be found among our own people therefore the importation will be permitted as such cannot be found in the United States. There is nothing like getting into the swim when you buy real estate. Get where the tide of the city's growth will have to pass right over you. The trend of the city is unmistakably to the east and the richest real estate section are undoubtedly located in Englewood. The Salem Land Co. will take pleasure in showing you this property. Office Postoffice block.

AN EXAGGERATION.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., July 24.—The Italian consul here says the story of a threatened race war at Glen Hazel is exaggerated but admits correspondence about the matter has passed between him and the district attorney.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 24.—Six school directors in East Norwegian township have been arrested on the charge of issuing fraudulent orders and appropriating to their own use the money received therefor. It is also claimed that the directors layed on teachers, making them pay from $5 to $15 for their appointments and a portion each month of their salaries.

HOP CROP.

WHEATLAND, Cal., July 24.—The first bale of new hops was shipped from Roddan Bros' ranch yesterday. General picking will commence August 10. The crop is fine.

FIRE AT CLEVELAND.

CLEVELAND, Wash., July 24.—Fire last evening destroyed an entire block of business buildings. The loss will exceed $50,000. The insurance is small. The fire originated in Theron & Stafford's general merchandise store, and spread with great rapidity.

DISORDERLY SCENES.

PARIS, July 24.—Horrible scenes have been witnessed during the past week on and about the Place de la Bquette, where the criminals are executed by the guillotine. Crowds of the lowest of the low have gathered there every evening and passed the night in the vicinity eagerly waiting to witness the execution of murderer Bertrand and her accomplice Dore. Saturday morning a large crowd gathered about the place in expectation of seeing the execution, which was postponed on account of the marriage of Executioner Diebler's son. Since that time, Sunday morning excepted, women and their consorts, as well as a certain number of people of the better class, have gathered each morning about the prison and execution place, singing, shouting, fighting and using profane language. Yesterday morning the crowd was more riotous and offensive than usual. Consequently the police were compelled to charge the grounds, making many arrests and somewhat clearing the air of the neighborhood. The gargottes, cages and other public resorts in the neighborhood have throughout the week been doing a booming business, as a result of this bloodthirsty expectancy, and when the police had cleared the streets the officers had another quite as lively time clearing out the most disorderly of these drinking places. There, again, many arrests were made, and indecent drunken men and women, yelling and fighting were escorted to the police station, soiling the very air through which they passed by the horrible language with which they profaned it.

MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 24.—Wheat: buyer 1891 after August first $1.58; Season 4193.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 24.—At close wheat was steady, cash 88; Sept. 86; Dec. 88 1/2.

WEATHER REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Forecast for Oregon and Washington: Light rains in northeastern Oregon and southeastern Washington.

INSTITUTE NOTES.

The Marion Co. Teachers Inst. closed this morning and the short literary program which was conducted made a very happy close to one of the most successful Institutes ever conducted in Oregon. The first exercise was a song by all the teachers—My Country 'Tis of Thee.

STATE.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

ALBANY, Ore., July 24.—News reached this city this evening that a bloodless shooting affray occurred at Mill City yesterday. S. G. Durris, editor of the Mill City Gazette, recently published an article concerning the quarrel of the little son of a man named Ray, living near there. Yesterday May met Durris; Durris firing one shot and Ray two. Both were poor marksmen, and did not inflict any wound. No arrests.

WEATHER IN PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, July 24.—The weather bureau report says:—The temperature yesterday has been higher than ever known in this city, thermometer registering 102 degrees. From 2 p. m. till 5 p. m. the mercury stood from 100 to 102 degrees. On June 17, 1876, July 6, 1885, and May 29, 1887, the temperature reached 99 degrees. No prostrations are reported.

FOREIGN.

LOCKOUT OF TAILORS.

LONDON, July 24.—The Master Tailors' Association has decided to resort to a general lockout in Great Britain unless the strike in Liverpool is ceased within a week.

GOLD FROM PORTUGAL.

VIGO, July 24.—Over £1,000,000 in gold from Portugal has been shipped to England within a week.

A RELIGIOUS SACRIFICE.

ADRIANOPLE, July 24.—Great excitement prevails in this vicinity over the tragic events growing out of an accusation, that Jewish butchers had killed a Greek child as a religious sacrifice. The governor of Roumelia has proclaimed the district under military law, fearing otherwise the inhabitants would rise against the Jews. The alleged murder occurred at the village of Mestapha Pasha, about twenty miles from the city. The corpse of a Greek girl of 8 years of age was found in the river, and the doctors declared that she had not been drowned, but had been strangled and thrown into the water. All the butchers in the place were Spanish Jews, except one Greek, named Stefano, who swore the girl had been strangled in the manner of a Jewish blood offering. Stefano suddenly disappeared, and later his corpse was found in a sack on the

EXTRAORDINARILY GRATEFUL.

A Dude Offers a Brave Rescuer a Cigarette for Saving His Life.

Slam! Bang!
Those were the noises I heard the other day as I stood alone on the platform of the Union depot, watching one of the Central Hudson flyers come in. The sounds attracted my attention the more because a dude with his collar half torn off and a big grip in his hand landed almost beside me, and then went whirling along the platform, while his cane went rolling in the opposite direction.

At first I thought the poor chap had been struck by the train, but the attitude of a stalwart yardmaster just this side of the thundering locomotive explained the situation. The dude had been thrown bodily off the track.

For a moment the human missile seemed bewildered. Then he merely exclaimed "Aw!" and gathered himself up and sought his grip and stick.

He approached the railroad employe with a countenance filled with mingled wonder and gratitude.

"Aw, railroad man," he drawled, "you ah a wondah."

"Yep," replied his rescuer.

"Aw, if it hadn't been for yow I'd been a mangled corpse."

"Yep."

"Yaw, aw, pweelicitated me from the pawth of a washin' locomotive, and I'm, aw, gweatly obliged to yow."

"Yep."

"Have a cigawette?"

"Nope."

The dude rearranged his apparel and disappeared in the parlor car.

Had it not been for the courage and coolness of the yardmaster the dude would have been a subject for a coroner's inquest.

He was standing directly between the rails looking at the locomotive, as if he were trying to make out what it really was.

The yardmaster had thrown him completely from the track just in time, for the locomotive almost grazed them both as it whizzed by.

Such an occurrence happens every day in the week. People will persist in staying about the yard and getting mixed up just at the wrong time.

Sometimes it is an innocent looking countryman, sometimes a woman who is bound to do just as she wishes in spite of all the railroads on earth, and sometimes it is the very clever man who thinks he knows it all.—Albany Argus.

A Boy Almost Swallowed by a Python.

At Judan, a village six miles from Mukka, a man and his son, aged from ten to twelve years, were sleeping in their house inside a mosquito curtain. They were on the floor near the father. In the middle of the night the father was awakened by his son calling out. The lamp was out, and the father passed his hand over his son, but found nothing amiss, so he turned over and went to sleep again, thinking the boy was dreaming.

Shortly afterward the boy again called out, saying that a crocodile was taking him. This time the father, thoroughly aroused, felt again, and found that a snake had closed his jaws on the boy's head. He then pried open the reptile's mouth and released the head of his son, but the beast drew the whole of his body into the house and encircled the body of the father.

He was rescued by the neighbors, who were attracted by the cries for help of the terrified couple. The snake, when killed, was found to be about fifteen feet long. The head and forehead of the boy are encircled with punctured wounds produced by the python's teeth.—Sarawak (Borneo) News.

After Hundreds of Years.

In the year 1400, or thereabouts, workmen were employed to put choir stalls in Lincoln cathedral, and were told in the early English vernacular of the day to hurry the job up, as several big functions were soon to come off. But lots of things happened; money got to be exceedingly scarce, and the men weren't paid very promptly. Although there were no Knights of Labor then, human nature was pretty much the same as it is now, and the men knocked off, remarking, "No pay, no work."

The clergy were so busy running the county political machine that they didn't have time to arrange the matter, and the finishing of the stalls was postponed from time to time until the present day. At last, however, dean and chapter think they see their way to complete this fifteenth century job, and are calling for estimates from wood carvers. England is a little slow, but she does get there after a few centuries.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Wicked Boomer Pin.

As every one knows, in the early days of Methodism a considerable degree of strictness was maintained in regard to the wearing of jewelry or costly attire. An eminent divine of that church gives an amusing incident. A preacher had just gone to his new charge and was in the midst of his sermon when a woman rose and went out, slamming the door with unnecessary violence. Of course he supposed he had said something which gave offense, but on making inquiries he learned that the woman left because "the minister wore a boomer pin." The fun of it was that he had driven to the service over bad roads and one drop of mud had settled on his immaculate shirt bosom, deceiving the tender conscience of the good sister.—Wide Awake.

Why It is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

Hollenbrand manufactures the finest candies and sells at wholesale at prices better than Portland dealers.

EXTRAORDINARILY GRATEFUL.

A Dude Offers a Brave Rescuer a Cigarette for Saving His Life.

Slam! Bang!
Those were the noises I heard the other day as I stood alone on the platform of the Union depot, watching one of the Central Hudson flyers come in. The sounds attracted my attention the more because a dude with his collar half torn off and a big grip in his hand landed almost beside me, and then went whirling along the platform, while his cane went rolling in the opposite direction.

At first I thought the poor chap had been struck by the train, but the attitude of a stalwart yardmaster just this side of the thundering locomotive explained the situation. The dude had been thrown bodily off the track.

For a moment the human missile seemed bewildered. Then he merely exclaimed "Aw!" and gathered himself up and sought his grip and stick.

He approached the railroad employe with a countenance filled with mingled wonder and gratitude.

"Aw, railroad man," he drawled, "you ah a wondah."

"Yep," replied his rescuer.

"Aw, if it hadn't been for yow I'd been a mangled corpse."

"Yep."

"Yaw, aw, pweelicitated me from the pawth of a washin' locomotive, and I'm, aw, gweatly obliged to yow."

"Yep."

"Have a cigawette?"

"Nope."

The dude rearranged his apparel and disappeared in the parlor car.

Had it not been for the courage and coolness of the yardmaster the dude would have been a subject for a coroner's inquest.

He was standing directly between the rails looking at the locomotive, as if he were trying to make out what it really was.

The yardmaster had thrown him completely from the track just in time, for the locomotive almost grazed them both as it whizzed by.

Such an occurrence happens every day in the week. People will persist in staying about the yard and getting mixed up just at the wrong time.

Sometimes it is an innocent looking countryman, sometimes a woman who is bound to do just as she wishes in spite of all the railroads on earth, and sometimes it is the very clever man who thinks he knows it all.—Albany Argus.

A Boy Almost Swallowed by a Python.

At Judan, a village six miles from Mukka, a man and his son, aged from ten to twelve years, were sleeping in their house inside a mosquito curtain. They were on the floor near the father. In the middle of the night the father was awakened by his son calling out. The lamp was out, and the father passed his hand over his son, but found nothing amiss, so he turned over and went to sleep again, thinking the boy was dreaming.

Shortly afterward the boy again called out, saying that a crocodile was taking him. This time the father, thoroughly aroused, felt again, and found that a snake had closed his jaws on the boy's head. He then pried open the reptile's mouth and released the head of his son, but the beast drew the whole of his body into the house and encircled the body of the father.

He was rescued by the neighbors, who were attracted by the cries for help of the terrified couple. The snake, when killed, was found to be about fifteen feet long. The head and forehead of the boy are encircled with punctured wounds produced by the python's teeth.—Sarawak (Borneo) News.

After Hundreds of Years.

In the year 1400, or thereabouts, workmen were employed to put choir stalls in Lincoln cathedral, and were told in the early English vernacular of the day to hurry the job up, as several big functions were soon to come off. But lots of things happened; money got to be exceedingly scarce, and the men weren't paid very promptly. Although there were no Knights of Labor then, human nature was pretty much the same as it is now, and the men knocked off, remarking, "No pay, no work."

The clergy were so busy running the county political machine that they didn't have time to arrange the matter, and the finishing of the stalls was postponed from time to time until the present day. At last, however, dean and chapter think they see their way to complete this fifteenth century job, and are calling for estimates from wood carvers. England is a little slow, but she does get there after a few centuries.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Wicked Boomer Pin.

As every one knows, in the early days of Methodism a considerable degree of strictness was maintained in regard to the wearing of jewelry or costly attire. An eminent divine of that church gives an amusing incident. A preacher had just gone to his new charge and was in the midst of his sermon when a woman rose and went out, slamming the door with unnecessary violence. Of course he supposed he had said something which gave offense, but on making inquiries he learned that the woman left because "the minister wore a boomer pin." The fun of it was that he had driven to the service over bad roads and one drop of mud had settled on his immaculate shirt bosom, deceiving the tender conscience of the good sister.—Wide Awake.

Why It is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

Hollenbrand manufactures the finest candies and sells at wholesale at prices better than Portland dealers.

ROSEDALE

Parties wishing to build nice residences and in search of a beautiful location with pleasant surroundings should visit

ROSEDALE.

It is located direct on the Electric line to the Fair Ground, overlooking the entire city the snow capped mountains, Mt. Hood and Mt. Jefferson, as well as the ever-green hills of Polk county are in plain view. The site is unsurpassed and the whole tract is a beautiful green plateau. The High school as well as the North Salem new building are within a short distance of this tract.

STREETS.

Are now ordered graded at the expense of the owners. This property is now for sale by

All Real Estate Men

In this City, who will be ready at any time to show this tract to purchasers.

BRICK A LARGE SUPPLY OF THE best quality of brick at the yards near Penitentiary. BURTON BROS., Salem, Oregon.

BAKER & STRANG. 302 Commercial Street. Stoves, Ranges, Furnaces, Washers, and all House Furnishing Goods, Chimney and Sewer Pipes, Plumbing, Pumps, Wood, Iron and Backeye Force Pumps, For Orchard Spraying, New Era Hydraulic Clothes Washer!

Greatest labor saving invention in the household line. Washes all varieties of goods from the finest linen to the coarsest carpets, perfectly clean, without rubbing or boiling, without the use of chemicals or any destructive process—only soap and water. The company owning it offers $1000 to any person who will produce a family washer equal to the NEW ERA in the following points: Price, labor saving, rapidity of washing, variety of fabric washed, cleaning perfectly without damage to clothing, simplicity and perfect construction, size, weight and durability. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Sole Agents for Marion county.

PIANOS AND ORGANS AND MUSICAL MERCHANDISE. FINEST LINE. LOWEST PRICES. Installments from $5 per month up. Wholesale and Retail. P. H. EASTON & CO., 310 Commercial St., Salem. Head Quarters for the Salem Orchestra, dw

Destroy the Pests. Now is the Time to SPRAY YOUR FRUIT TREES. BRIGGS & BROWN Are prepared to give tree treatment for the season with a good spraying outfit. Satisfaction guaranteed. Leave orders at 3, B. Caterlin & Co.'s office, 136 State street. 65dw

FARM FOR SALE. 23 acres of best stock and fruit land in Oregon for sale as a bargain. Will sell for the lowest price. Address of call on J. H. HUBB, Kalgite, Ore. Near Silver Creek Falls. 783m

MONEY! To Loan on Real Estate Security. AGENCY PACIFIC STATES SAVING, Loan & Building Co. FEAR & HAMILTON, SALEM. 612dw - Oregon.

Notice to Contractors. Sealed bids will be received by the board of directors of school district No. 24, Marion county, Oregon, at 11 o'clock of the date of a bid district. Postoffice building, Salem, on Saturday, July 25, 1891, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the erection of two school buildings as follows: 1. The South Salem building in accordance with the plans and specifications attached to the call for bids. 2. The Park school building in accordance with the plans and specifications attached to the call for bids. The buildings to be completed, except in the case of school No. 24, on or before January 1, 1892. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. A certified check in the amount of the bid, or a cash deposit of the amount of the bid, must accompany each bid. Satisfactory bonds will be required for the faithful performance of the work. By order of the board. W. B. HILKINSON, Secy. Salem, July 18, 1891. 714d

A. J. SHIMP, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. (late of Philadelphia.) ELECTRICITY IS THE TRUE REMEDY for all Chronic, Rheumatic, Blood, Brain and nervous diseases. Every variety of female diseases yield to electricity after all other modes of treatment have failed. Thirteen years clinical experience. Office 23 Commercial street. 533m

ASHBY'S MEAT MARKETS, 132 State street. 23 Liberty street, North Salem. We are ready to fill all orders for all kinds of fresh and salt meats. We ship to keep the best country produce. Free delivery. We desire to thank all our old patrons for their liberal patronage, since they will still continue with us.

For Sale Cheap. 120 ACRES OF LAND 5 miles from Salem at $25 per acre. About 30 acres open, balance timber. Good spring water. "Terms Easy." J. E. WELLS, 1075 House, Court street.

A. W. BLACKFORD, House painting and paper hanging. Good material and first-class work is my object. Leave orders on state, at Farrar's store.

SUCCESSFUL WAR! The only successful fight ever carried on against the ravages made in the human system by WHISKEY, OPIUM AND TOBACCO is that made with the Double Chloride of Gold remedial at the KEELEY INSTITUTE. Keeley Institute, 225 First St., Pure and Wholesome for full particulars. Strictly confidential. F. L. TAYLOR, M. D., Physician in charge. FRANK DAVEY, Correspondent, etc. 64-17

25c Want Column. Notices wanted for ONE CENT PER WORD EACH INSERTION. No advertisement inserted in this column for less than twenty-five cents.

WANTED—Call on the general house work in family of five. Apply at 21st street, corner Union street. 7211a

WANTED—Our agents make $100 to $200 a month selling our goods on their terms. We want country and general agents, and will take back all goods not sold if a county agent fails to clear $100 and expenses after 10 days' trial, or a general agent less than $200. We will send large illustrated circulars or letters with special offer to any territory. Apply at once and get in on the ground. Address: Remond Manufacturing Co., Portland, Pa. 174aw

WANTED—Persons to rent with board, in pleasant part of city, near street car line. 491 Commercial. 626-17

Capital City Restaurant Jas. Batchelor, Prop'r. Warm Meals at All Hours of the Day. None but white labor employed in this establishment. A good substantial meal served in first-class style. Twenty-five cents per meal. 18 1/2 E. CO. T. Court street, between Junction Office and Mint's Livery.

M. T. RINEMAN, DEALER IN Staple and Family Groceries. Crockery, Glassware, Lamps, Waxed and Willow ware. All kinds of mill feed. Also vegetable and fruit in their season. Highest Price paid for country produce. We solicit a share of your patronage. 102 State street

E. C. CROSS, Butcher and Packer. State St. and Court St.—The best meats delivered to all parts of the city.

THE WILLAMETTE, SALEM, OREGON. Rates, $2.50 to $5.00 per Day. The best hotel between Portland and San Francisco. First-class in all its appointments. Its tables are served with the Choicest Fruits grown in the Willamette Valley.

A. I. WAGNER, Prop. ELLIS & WHITLEY, LIVERYMEN, South of Willamette Hotel, SALEM - - - OREGON

Oregon State Fair, '91. The fifty-first annual exhibition under the management of the Oregon State Board of Agriculture, will be held at the State Fair grounds near Salem, commencing on Monday, September 14, 1891—and lasting one week—

OVER $15,000 IN CASH PREMIUMS Offered for agricultural, stock and mechanical exhibits for works of art and fancy work and trials of speed. Reduced rates for fare and freight on all transportation lines to and from the fair grounds. In government have been made upon the grounds and increased facilities for exhibitors.

Patrons will be Open 4 Nights in the Week. A splendid field of horse entered in the speed department, and fine exhibits of breeding will be given each day. Exhibitors for premiums close Monday at 12 o'clock. Exhibitors are urged to make all entries of merchandise on Saturday before 10 o'clock. Live stock, animals and articles for exhibition must be in their place by 10 o'clock Sunday.

PRICES OF ADMISSION. Man's day ticket $1.00 Woman's day ticket 75c Child's day ticket 50c Man's season ticket 7.00 Woman's season ticket 5.00 Child's season ticket 3.00