

Death. The wedding is notable from the fact that it is the first time the marriage knot has been tied by a woman.

THE HARVEST FAILURE.
St. Petersburg, July 31.—The greatest misery exists in Bessarabia, owing to the failure of the harvest and the scarcity of food.

In the village of Koushany the people broke out in riot and plundered shops of provisions. The local police tried to restrain them, and were badly beaten, and one of their number killed. Reinforcement arriving from Bender, the rioters were at length dispersed, and a large number were made prisoners. Two of the prisoners were knotted to death in the public streets, as a warning to their companions, and six were selected for immediate deportation to Siberia. The wives and children of the exiles were not permitted to speak to them before departing, and nothing was spared that would strike terror in the unhappy peasantry. At Kishinev, the chief place of the province, it is said that less than twelve persons have died of starvation this month. Not less than 200,000 Russians have been hurried across the frontier into Roumania, in order to escape the severe measures instituted since the outbreak.

BLAIR TRYING TO HEDGE.
Washington, July 31.—Ex-Senator Blair, of New Hampshire, was interviewed in regard to the possibility of his finally going to China as United States minister, and in reply to a direct question he replied: "There is a tradition that people in the diplomatic service should not talk. I do not want to violate that tradition. Really, I cannot tell what I am to do. The hardest sort of labor, however, would be preferable to this certainty. I do not say I will not go. Maybe (with a smile) they might find out over there it would be hard to do without me. It is true that I made speeches in the Senate against Chinese immigration, and alluded to the bad results of having in our midst such quarters as Chinatown, in San Francisco, but I did not denounce the Chinese as a race."

YELLOW ENVELOPE DAY.
Washington, July 31.—Today will be known as the "yellow envelope" day in the census office. No less than 600 of these envelopes will be distributed, each one containing a brief announcement that the services of the person named are no longer required. It is not often that such a large discharge takes place at one time, in fact not often than once in ten years, when the census office, beginning with a force of 100 or 200, rapidly swells and expands till, within the space of a year, the clerical force numbers over 8000. As the business of the office is gradually disposed of the contraction of the force begins, there being no necessity for such a large number of clerks. On August 15th 400 more clerks will be discharged.

DIED UNDER SENTENCE.
Fort Worth, Tex., July 31.—William Davis, slayer of B. C. Evans, the millionaire merchant, at Fort Worth, who was sentenced to be hanged August 10, died last night at 7:55 o'clock. The immediate cause of his death was concussion of the brain, occasioned by an epileptic fit, which he had a few days ago. Ten days ago he was taken from his cell on the corridor to an isolated cell, and the death watch was placed over him. Since then he has not eaten solid food, and gradually gave way physically. Evans was shot July 6, 1889. Davis was in his employ and had been notified that his services were no longer needed on account of drunkenness. Davis went out, purchased a revolver, walked up to Mr. Evans who was reading a newspaper, and shot him twice without warning, and while Evans was begging for his life, Davis leaves an aged mother, who was at his side when he died.

BIG SWINDLE.
Chicago, July 31.—J. Bush came here about two months ago and opened an office as the accredited agent of the Co-operative Building Bank of New York. James W. Hyatt, ex-secretary of the United States Insurance Co., is president of the concern, which boasts of having a capital of $100,000,000. Bush doctored the foreign quarter of the city with alluring literature, promising homes to every seeker, without a cent of capital; all business being done strictly on the installment plan. His victims came by the score and parted with all their savings in exchange for a worthless certificate of stock in the bank. The swindle recently became known. Not a single loan was made to the depositors. It is estimated that Bush took nearly $5000 with him when he left Chicago eight days ago, saying to get the loans. Although Henry Carey, secretary of the bank, telegraphed from the New York office saying that Bush was not authorized to act as agent, a letter from that official which was found in the swindler's desk contradicts that denial. Moffatt & Langlois, who are the general agents of the bank here, admitted that Bush had been authorized to act as agent, beginning July 1, and has turned over $75 to them. Their explanation as to why he had been operating in May and June was that he had obtained a supply of stock in some way. The accounts of the bank in this city have been carried and the victims intend to prosecute the officers.

FIRE IN SEATTLE.

HANGED AT LAST.

Life Insurance Company Bursted Secretary Noble, Senator Quay's Reasons, From Toledo to Liverpool, Foreign and State News, Etc.

FIRE AT SEATTLE.
SEATTLE, July 31.—At 11:15 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the Montana livery stables on Washington street, near South Fifth. The flames rapidly spread, and although four streams were turned on the fire could not be checked. The Montana livery stable, the First Chance saloon and lodging house above, the Brevort house and a number of Chinese stores were entirely consumed. About twenty occupants of the lodging house were asleep at the time, and some were got out with great difficulty. The fireman gave up hopes of saving any building on that side of the block, and turned their attention toward saving the balance of the block and the house opposite, which were smoking from the heat. It was rumored that a sleeper had been burned to death, but this cannot be verified, owing to the intense heat in the vicinity of the fire. Truster & Co. owned the Montana.

The fire was confined to six buildings and was out by 2:30. The loss was variously estimated at between $30,000 and $40,000 with no insurance. Two persons injured in the fire.

MORE DETAILS.
SEATTLE, July 31.—The charred remains of George Williams a meat merchant, was found in the ruins of the lodging house burned this morning. He lay with his face down. A negro cook and his wife are at Providence hospital probably fatally burned. Early during the progress of the fire a negro jumped head first from the building. His form was covered with flames and as he fell his bones were heard to crack; burned flesh hung in threads from his quivering form. The woman also jumped and when she fell blood streamed from her mouth, nose and ears. They were moved to the hospital and are suffering the most intense agony. During burning of one of the Chinese stores the explosion of freecrackers sounded like a roar of artillery. A fireman came near losing his life. Horses that were turned loose from the Montana stable rushed madly through the streets, causing the crowd to stampede frightfully. It required tremendous work to save the surrounding buildings. There were six buildings burned. Loss, $50,000, with insurance less than $10,000.

MANAGED AT LAST.
HOUSTON, Tex., July 31.—Williams, colored, was hanged today in the county jail. The crime for which he was executed was the killing of Dr. S. A. Shanblen, on the night of July 31st, 1888. This was the first murder that became notable of the vendetta between what was here known as the "Jaybird" and "Woodpecker" factions in Fort Bend county. The warfare existed two years between these factions, exterminating whole families, and scores of men were murdered during its reign. Williams is the only person who met a judicial death on account of it. Dr. Shanblen was a prominent "Jaybird" or democrat leader of the opposition to those who were controlling the political destiny of Fort Bend county at that time; Williams was a "Woodpecker" or republican. On the night of the assassination Dr. Shanblen was holding family prayer near Richmond, Fort Bend county.

INSURANCE COMPANY DISSOLVED.
ALBANY, N. Y., July 31.—The Superintendent of Insurance Pierce, upon receiving report of the examination made by his deputies in the affairs of the Flour City life insurance association of Rochester, has requested the attorney general to take steps to dissolve the corporation on the grounds of fraud. Several officers of the Flour City life are already under arrest and indictment for forgery and fraud.

NOBLE HAS RESIGNED.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—The next important retirement from President Harrison's political family will be Secretary Noble. Four months ago Mr. Noble placed his resignation as secretary of the interior in the president's hands. The reason assigned for his withdrawal from public life was the condition of his health. Mr. Noble is troubled with an affection of the heart, not unlike that from which the late Secretary Windom died. It was the death of that gentleman which emphasized to Mr. Noble's mind the necessity of a more quiet life, and his resignation was not long in following. President Harrison, however, was not alarmed by his secretary's physical condition and he pocketed the resignation without acting on it. Secretary Noble has been absent from Washington for the past few months, and it is not improbable that the rest may prove beneficial. In that case he will remain in the cabinet, when it is believed he will be appointed by President Harrison to one of the new United States circuit judgeships created by the last congress. In view of the fact that Mr. Noble resigned the portfolio four months ago, it is not a little singular that he should have repeatedly denied the intention of leaving the cabinet. Not only has he denied it, but he has been reported on several occasions to have grown weary when questioned about it.

NOBLE NOT RESIGNED.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—Acting Secretary Chandler of the interior department stated very positively today that the report which has again been circulated that Secretary Noble had tendered his resignation was untrue.

SENATOR QUAY'S REASONS.
PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—Senator Quay arrived here last evening. In an interview he spoke freely of his resignation from the republican national committee. He said: "I was merely desirous of relinquishing the chairmanship, and in order to do that it was necessary that I should withdraw entirely from the committee. I had previously made several attempts to resign. I first made up my mind to withdraw on Saturday night following the presidential election in 1888, but was persuaded not to carry out my purpose then. In March, 1890, while in Florida, I wrote Mr. Clarkson asking him to call the committee together to consider my resignation. Shortly after this the attack began on me, and of course I could not resign under fire. Recently I concluded that that time had arrived when I could properly sever my connection with the committee, and did so."

TOLEDO TO LIVERPOOL.
CLEVELAND, July 31.—Col. S. C. Reynolds, the millionaire grain merchant of Toledo has just returned from England where he succeeded in organizing a company with a capital of $2,500,000 to operate a line of steamers direct from Toledo and other Lake Erie ports to Liverpool. An arrangement.

WORCESTER, N. Y., July 31.
E. Holland and Co., heavy manufacturers of ladies' shoes has assigned. Assets and liabilities are not stated.

THE RUSSIAN JEWS.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—Acting Secretary Wharton asserts positively that the department of state is without any information respecting the alleged suspension of the Russian edict against the Jews. Private advices say things are worse than ever.

"PERPENDICULARS."
A Cambridge student once told me that the parties which the dons gave the undergraduates were called "Perpendiculars" by the latter, because the young men never dared to sit down for fear of offending their high mightinesses the dons, nor did they venture to speak unless spoken to. I have never visited Cambridge, but not long ago I was at a perpendicular in New York and felt with terror that this was the coming vogue.

If all we go to another's house for is to eat and drink, might not the world be best sent his would be guests orders on Delmonico, and save himself the trouble of turning his home into a restaurant? If the desire to see finery is what influences us, had we not better go to the opening of one of the court dressmakers and milliners who are crowding to our shores? But if the object is an hour's pleasant intercourse with other human beings, then, in the name of common sense, let us talk to one another.

The conversation at teas and parties has never been noted for brilliancy, but anything is better than suspicious or supercilious silence. By it we reflect on the entertainer's judgment in the choice of friends, and never should we cast such a doubt on his selection of ourselves.—Harper's Bazar.

Prices of Paper in Boston and New York.
The proper way to buy writing paper is by the pound. It is always sold in that way in the east, and the result is a saving of something over 50 per cent to the purchaser, while the dealer makes still a profit large enough for him to live and conduct his business in the most substantial manner. "Bond" papers and "overland" mail papers are cheaper purchased by the pound than in any other way. The best quality of bond paper sold in Boston is only ninety cents a pound, and a pound contains 146 sheets, or over six quires of paper. The same paper is sold at fifty cents and more a quire in New York city. It seems impossible that this difference should exist, but it does, and it pays to send to Boston for letter paper and pay the expressage here, in spite of the increase in the rates of express. If people are not in a hurry it is well to send by freight.—New York Tribune.

Don't Care to Eat.
It is with the greatest confidence that Hood's Sarsaparilla is recommended for loss of appetite, indigestion, sick headache, and similar troubles. This medicine gently tones the stomach, assists the digestion, and makes one "real hungry." Persons in delicate health, after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a few days, find themselves longing for and eating the plainest food with unexpected relish.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.
The Best Tonic in the World for Catarrhs, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever, Swellings, Itchy and Pruritic Eruptions, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It guarantees to give relief, or money refunded. Price, 50 cents per bottle.

AN ANIMAL WITH A BIG NAME.
The Heloderma horridum which is held captive by a Chicago Man.

"Let me introduce you to the Heloderma horridum," said C. K. Giles, the State street jeweler, pointing to a glass case which stands in a conspicuous position in his wholesale department. The object referred to by such a resonant title was a little mass of black and gold beads stretched on one corner of the case on a heap of sawdust. Presently the mass became movable, a leg stretched itself out at one end, and the helio, etc., stood revealed as one of the largest lizards ever hatched.

The animal is about sixteen inches in length and of genuine Falstaffian girth. The skin is covered with beautifully spotted scales, and like Jacob's sheep, spotted and ring streaked. The shape of the spots is wonderfully regular, bearing a strong resemblance to the black and gold wall paper of a dado. The tail is long and thicker than that of most lizards. Round it run three or four rings of gold. The head is broad and flat, with protuberances which conceal the tiny eyes when viewed from above.

"You are not obliged to call him Heloderma horridum all the time," said Mr. Giles. "Some people call him Heloderma suspectum and other the Gila monster. I call him Tommy. Here, Tommy."

Mr. Giles clutched the reptile affectionately between his finger and thumb and sat him on the floor. He moved as leisurely and dignifiedly as if he were at home on the sands of Arizona. His forked tongue flashed incessantly in and out, his eyes rolled and he looked altogether as if he might be an uncomfortable customer to deal with were he to take a notion in that direction. For three years he has lived in Chicago, and has succeeded in growing fat on two eggs per week for nine months out of the year, and a Lenten fast the remaining three. The eight hour day has no charm for Tommy.

He only asks for three months' sleep, and then he is ready to enjoy himself for the rest of the year. When he is at home he is the subject of more hair raising tales than any beast of his dimensions, but Mr. Giles will not even concede the fact that he possesses a drop of poison in his whole anatomy. "He is especially interesting," said his owner, "for he forms the link between the lizards and the crocodile genus. He is probably the only specimen in captivity besides a brother in the Smithsonian Institute, and his race is almost extinct."—Chicago Globe.

THE ONLY AND GREATEST SHOW.
A Notable 20th Year in Sells Brothers' Management.

Sells Brothers are always doubly welcome to Salem and their forthcoming visit on Thursday Aug. 29 will emphasize that fact. Since their last visit, they have signalled the 20th year of their continuous management by greatly enlarging their enormous united shows, and widely increasing the scope of their novelty and attractions. In special features, they notably lead. Their pair of monster hippopotami are unquestionably the rarest and most valuable wild beasts on exhibition; their flock of ostriches unrivaled; their pair of Lilliputian cattle the most curious dwarfs from the flock of Fairyland, and their hairless horse a genuine wonder. With them, also, in airy flights and bewitching poses, comes Cyrene, the most noted and emotional of all Spanish dancers, whose presence is a most fascinating innovation. The general attractions are combined in a wild Moorish caravan and romantic pilgrimage to Mecca; magnificent menagerie, triple circuses, regal Roman hippodrome, performing arenas, mid-air carnivals, tropical aquarium, aviary, royal Japanese troupe, bedouin and Berber athletes, and Arabian nights entertainments. The names of really great performers are legion, and the races given are of the most varied and spirited character. Everybody will want to see the glorious, free, morning street parade, and for that matter the whole world of fun and wonders Sells Brothers everywhere present.

Dyspepsia
takes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress arising from stomach, sick headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, a "flat" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the symptoms of dyspepsia. It is a disease which, if not cured, will eventually lead to the most serious and fatal results. It is a disease which, if not cured, will eventually lead to the most serious and fatal results.

Distress After Eating
gives careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local dyspepsia symptoms, cures the headache, headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

Heart-burn
I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, and I was a little hoarse. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, I would experience a calmness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My appetite, my sleep, and my food returned, and I was satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. GEORGE A. PAGE, Waterbury, Mass.
