"August Flower"

Biliousness, Constipation, Stomach Pains.

"I have been afflicted with biliousness and constipation for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took it according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold your August Flower—it has given me a new lease of life, which before was a burden. Such a medicine is a benefaction to humanity, and its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made known to everyone suffering with dyspepsia or biliousness.

MAKING BEEF EXTRACT.

After the Steaks Have Been Pressed They Are as Dry as Sticks.

We may, for convenience, divide the factory into three departments. First, pressing; second, bottling, and third, finishing. To the first of these supplies of the choicest parts of the ox are brought in the morning of every working day straight from the shambles. It is at once cut up into succulent steaks, each of which get a slight sprinkling of table salt, is then inclosed in a new muslin bag and an outer canvas bag, and with dozens more is placed between the perforated metallic plates of an hydraulic press.

When the company commenced work they were content with a press which took a charge of about 100 steaks at a time, but they have had to meet a greater consumption than was anticipated, so that lately they have installed an exceedingly powerful press, which would do perfectly for making bales of cotton, and this is tested to give a pressure of 400 tons.

When the pile of steaks is put on the receiver the whole is surrounded with a jacket (iced in the summer) and the pressure applied.

We need not follow the process too minutely; it is so simple. The juice as it is collected is mixed with an innocuous preservative, set aside for a month to clear and then transferred to the bottling department. Here the liquor is filled into bottles by a siphon arrangement, so that the liquid comes into contact with as little air as possible; and the bottles when filled are transferred to a separate building, where they are corked, capsuled, labeled and boxed.

Our traveler observed that a girl examined each bottle before it was passed on to the capsuler, and any one which showed a speck of suspended matter or was in the least cloudy was set aside.

It was explained that this is part of the principle of the manufacture. The liquor is the pure juice of beef, and in order that it may keep, the most rigid attention must be given to exclude foreign matter from it, and, as far as our representative could judge, the principle was adhered to throughout. And what becomes of the pressed steaks? Well, they are like cardboard when they come out of the press and as dry as a stick.—Chemist and Druggist.

A Graceful Carriage.

"A girl who sits ungracefully is a rarity," said an artist. "The sex's poses in a chair are instinctively and unconsciously sightly. Then why will not girls practice a good carriage. They spend hours of prayer and effort over their bands and their makeup, yet everybody knows a fine figure is the most important requisite of all. Any face can be rendered attractive by expression. Any face for which we care becomes beautiful to us. But even love can only soften dislike to regret over a round shouldered, hollow chested form. Good carriage induces a good figure. It at least throws such lines as you have into an ajustment of harmony. It will make your dresses fit better, last longer and look finer while they last.

"A head well carried comes soon to be 'well poised.' Shoulders well squared back fill up your bodice and improve your silhouette as well as your profile. Hips well balanced make your gowns drape gracefully in spite of your dressmaker. Feet that come down to the ground prettily come near to being pretty feet. Even an ugly hand escapes criticism if well used. A short neck is forgotten if one's head moves well. If women would spend their time bathing, rubbing and exercising they would have something to show for it. Instead, they sit around in 'masks,' or make themselves hideous over night. They use washes, prescriptions and oils, and they don't half wash. Oh, yes, that is true. Many women, especially those addicted to greases, do not half wash. Absolute cleanliness—sweet, wholesome, dainty cleanliness—is the best and only safe cosmetic in the world."—New York Sun.

A New Name for the Country.

The United States is a lumbering and discordant name adventitiously acquired and unwisely perpetuated. Before the republic as such was formulated there was tolerable unanimity on on the part of the several states in resenting the aggressions of Great Britain, and they acted in unison in support of their rights. These different states, when acting together, were spoken of as the United States, and the name survived national organization.

It is an infelicitous, misleading and unsuitable name for a great power—perhaps the greatest on the planet. Therefore we suggest that the name of the republic be changed to Pennland, a name that pleasantly unites euphony and appropriateness. William Penn was the one conspicuous figure in our history who always dealt fairly and amicably with the native Americans, or redskins.—Troy Press.

Too Much Train.

Miss de Belle (entering parlor with long satin train)—How do you like me now, Gus?

Gus de Smith—Well, to tell you the truth, I could not like you any longer.—Texas Siftings.

Indisputable Proof.

"What makes you think Miss Downes really loves you?"

"Because she has repeatedly advised me not to lend any money to her brother."—Exchange.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

William Dunn was burned to death in a fire in a livery stable at Kansas City Wednesday afternoon.

Henry Jahke, a Philadelphia butcher, Wednesday killed his son by striking him over the head with a piece of gaspipe during a quarrel.

William Wiley, a farmer, living near Hender's ferry, Or., was drowned in the Umpqua river Monday afternoon while attempting to swim across the stream.

E. H. Schwabe, a wealthy iron founder of Manchester, shot and killed himself at Montreal Wednesday. He was despondent, caused by the death of his wife about a year ago.

A dastardly plot to wreck a passenger train on the Grand Rapids & Indiana road, near Kalamazoo, Mich., was successful. The train was ditched and twenty people injured.

Nearly 100 of the striking miners at Franklin and Newcastle, whose places were filled by negroes, are leaving Wilkeson with their families, being unable to get work in the mines.

It is now stated that Senator Quay will be made chairman of the Pennsylvania republican central committee, and will lead the fight for Blaine as against Harrison for the presidential nomination.

The amount taken by Sylvester Young, defaulting cashier of Newport News & Mississippi Valley railroad is estimated by his bondsmen to be $125,000. A reward of $1000 is offered for his arrest.

The city council of Concord, N. H., has offered a reward of $3500 for two murderers.

The collector for the Prussian state military in the government of Marienwerder, has absconded with several hundred thousand marks belonging to the lottery funds.

Deputy Marshal Jim Yates, a notorious character, was killed in a gambling den at McAllister, I. T., by Bob Marshall at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. A general row occurred, in which over forty shots were fired. Marshall escaped.

Perrie Maxwell, who was with R. S. Colvin in Oakland at the time the latter was shot by John G. Howell, was arrested in San Francisco Wednesday on a warrant from the district attorney of Alameda county. He will be detained as a witness.

Hattie and Lily Dumar, aged 12 and 2 years respectively, were drowned by being tipped into the water from a buggy at Leamington, Ont.

Alexander McKariane and his son were drowned by the capsizing of a boat while trying to cross in front of a steamer, near Chatham, Ont.

Wednesday two heavy freight trains on the Baltimore & Ohio collided three and a half miles east of Fair Mount, Va. One man, name unknown, was killed. James Crogan, the engineer; William Lyons, brakeman; and Brakeman Postlewaite, were seriously injured. The cause was a disregard of signals.

A train conveying a Sunday-school excursion from Ellenburg, Rouse's point and intervening stations on the Central Vermont road, ran into a small train just east of Champlain. William Angell, aged 17, and Sam Venett, were killed outright, and some twenty people more or less injured. One or two of these may die. A disregard of orders by the excursion train hands caused the accident.

At Squaw valley, Cal., Wednesday afternoon, while Miss Annie Keene, 14 years old, was riding to the postoffice, her horse was frightened by a blast fired by the side of the road, and shied, throwing her. Her foot caught in the stirrup and held her fast, while the terrified horse began to kick furiously. Before any help could be had, the girl was dead and fearfully maugled.

Clarkson For Chairman.

The retirement of Senator Quay from the chairmanship of the National committee deprives that body of the services of an able political manager. The loss is made up however, by the promotion of Gen. Clarkson. With him in command no mistakes will be made, and the coming campaign will be conducted with wisdom and with a tireless energy that meets obstructions only to overcome them, and encounters difficulties only to surmount them victoriously.

Gen. Clarkson's selection will insure absolute harmony in operation between the Republican League volunteers, whose president he is, and the regular organization—a matter of very great importance. It will insure, too, if we mistake not, an early convention and a long campaign of free, fair and thorough discussion of principles and policies—such a campaign as the Mail and Express has always insisted was the most favorable to republican success in state and nation.

We congratulate Gen. Clarkson, but much more do we congratulate the republican party at large on his promotion to be general of the republican army.—New York Mail and Express.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, stomach disorder, liver affected, appetite fell away, and he was reduced in strength. Three bottles Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and Bucklin's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had fever sores on his leg doctors said incurable Electric Bitters and Arnica salve cured him. Sold by Fry, druggist.
