His father was killed years ago by R. H. Rhett in a famous political quarrel, Rhett being then editor of the New Orleans Picayune. Cooley was married last November, He came to Chicago a few months ago, armed with recommendations from prominent Southern politicians, and petitioned for a place with the world's fair directory. The couple rented handsome apartments, which were sumptuously furnished. Failing to secure the desired appointment, and funds running low, he began to pawn his wife's jewelery. His expensive establishment was given up, and the family took rooms at the Palmer House. His motherin-law and wife assert that the band.
