well to his work, but it is safe to say that his stable companion, Reckon, at 117 pounds, holds him safe. She has received her preparation in races and what could be better work than her mile and a half Saturday, when she won the West End Hotel stakes, running the distance in 2:10, wonderful time for the weights carried and the kind of track the race was run over.

SINGULAR TRANCE.

SEATTLE, Aug. 19.—Professor J. Melva Tyndall, the mind reader, who arrived from England a few months ago, and who has performed some wonderful feats, fell into a trance at the Peoples' theatre during a performance at 2 o'clock Monday morning, and he did not regain consciousness for thirty hours. He was removed to the European lodging house on Washington street, and the physicians who were called could do nothing for him. His respiration was regular, his pulse normal, the trance not taking the cataleptic form generally peculiar to mind readers. However he had no control of himself. His joints worked like an automaton. His arms if raised upright from the bed would remain in that position until pressed down. The fingers if doubled up or pressed out would not change their place. Frequently the sleeper's form would convulse with shaking, and again he would lie apparently resting as easy as a sleeping child. On his person was found a letter addressed to "attending physician," stating that he was subject to trances, and that he had at one time been unconscious for thirty hours. He asked that he be not buried until it is known for a certainty that he is dead, and if it is proven that there is no life in his body, he gives the physicans permission to examine his brain. When Tyndall regained consciousness the first thing he wanted was something to eat.

ANOTHER VENDETTA.

PURVIS, Miss,,Aug. 19.—A family feud which is likely to prove a bloody one opened here yesterday. Jesse Lee and William Boon, well known citizens of Purvis, met at a neighbor's house and without wasting any time in words, began firing at each other. Boon was shot twice through the heart, but before he died, and while lying on the ground, he succeeded in wounding Lee, who escaped, but is thought to be fatally shot. Family troubles caused the duel, and, as each man has many connections with fighting blood in their veins, it is not thought that the trouble will end here.

LATEST FROM PERU.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The steamer Geo. W. Elder, which left here last month with a cargo of 1400 tons of wheat for Peru arrived this morning fifteen days from Callao. Captain Lewis stated that everything was quiet at the latter port but there was a great demand for wheat and produce, their Chilian supply being cut off. America flour was selling at the rate of $18 a sack and potatoes brought a high figure.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—December wheat opened one cent higher at $1.03½, advanced to $1.04 and broke to $1.02¾. Then a rally to $1.03½ was made for December but a break was made soon after 11 o'clock to $1.01½ on the news from Paris that higher prices could not be expected. About noon wheat took another up turn December advancing to $1.04¼ and closing strong. News from Paris that Russia intended to put export duty on wheat caused this. At close wheat was firm cash $1.02½@$1.03¼. Dec. $1.04@¼.

A Wonder Worker.

Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. Kings New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is today enjoying good health. If you have any throat, lung or chest trouble try it. PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICANS.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 19.—The Republican state convention was called to order at 10:40 this morning. That portion of the speech of temporary Chairman Hall referring to James G. Blaine as that "Republican of Republicans, that leader of leaders," was vociferously cheered. After selecting committees the convention at 12 o'clock took a recess until 2 o'clock. The platform adopted by the Republican state convention heartily endorses the administration of President Harrison and Post Master General Wanamaker, and approves the course of the Republicans in the last congress especially in passing the McKinley bill. In regard to Blaine, the resolutions declare: "In view of his magnificent achievements in diplomacy and state craft, we earnestly hope the Republican national convention in 1892 may place him in unanimous nomination for president, which nomination we feel assured will be followed by the triumphant election of James G. Blaine, of Pennsylvania and Maine. Bimetalism is so regulated as to allow free coinage of all gold and silver produced from American mines and so guarded by tariff duties as to protect the country and United States currency from debasement. The platform denounces the unscrupulous partisanship of Governor Pattison in vetoing the cumpulsory education bill.

THE HEBREWS IN BRAZIL.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Hebrews on the east side have been somewhat excited during the last week by a letter from Brazil, containing an account of the ill-treatment of Hebrew immigrants from this country to the province Maranabano. The letter was written by Charles Stein, formerly a peddler living at 184 Division street. He left for Brazil on April 22d. The letter to Stein's wife is dated July 9: "I am at Maranabano, Brazil," wrote Stein, "and you do not know what a horrible and unhealthy place it is here. The climate is terrible and there is almost nothing to eat. Bread is very dear, $18 being the price of a barrel of flour the size of a keg of herring. I cannot write you all we suffer here. It would take too long, but I ask of you, my dear wife, the favor that you can and must do me, that is to go to the Brazilian consul and tell him that he forced me to come here and fooled me. He promised me seven acres of land, a house, horse, three oxen, tools, etc. It is all false. They make us slaves here. The governor of the town puts us to building railroads. They promised us in New York to give a married man $27 a month and a single man $15, but they only promised in order to get us here. We came, and instead of the promised wages we got only $12 a month, and on that we cannot live. We are dying and starving. Every day there is some victim of the yellow fever. We cannot get enough boxes to bury poor people dying every day. We will fight against them. Another order came from the government on July 8th, but we received no money, only this terrible food. There is nothing left for us to do but to die or fight." Stein is a naturalized American citizen. A cablegram was received at the Brazilian consulate from the government, with orders to allow no more emigrants to sail for Brazil. No reason for such an order was given.

THE BENNINGTON CENTENNIAL.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 19.—Immense crowds are here to witness the dedication of the Bennington monument. President Harrison reviewed the procession, General Veasy, president of the day made the introduction address. After prayer Governor Page made the address of welcome in eloquent terms. Governor Prescott of New Hampshire the president of the monument association presented the monument to the governor of Vermont. Governor Page accepted in a brief address. Music followed and then Hon, Edward J. Phelps, the orator of the day was introduced. His eloquent and somewhat lengthy oration was received with great applause. Following him President Harrison's appearance was the sign for great applause, he expressed his pleasure and gratification at being present. It was late in the afternoon when he finished and the exercises brought to a close. A banquet was then partaken of by 3000 people.

FIRE AT DAYTON.

DAYTON, Wash., Aug. 19.—Monday at 11 o'clock p. m. fire broke out in the rear of the farmers' alliance agricultural implement store. A heavy wind was blowing and the flames spread rapidly. Four wooden building and one brick building were destroyed; three bricks were gutted. Total loss, $25,000. The following are losses and insurance: Alliance Implement company, building, loss 110,000, insurance $7000; Adolph Mellina, tailoring, loss $100, no insurance; W. H. Kuhn, two wooden buildings, groceries, loss $4000, insurance $2200; Kuhn & Raymond, stock, loss $500, no insurance; H. L. Young, butcher, loss $200, no insurance; H. Hananas, three brick buildings, loss $3500, no insurance; E. B. Hawley, of Portland, brick building, loss $2500, no insurance; D. B. Kimball, furniture, loss $2000, insurance $3000, and one $6000 stock; Gormely & Co., groceries, loss $800, fully insurance; R. A. Stanford, grocery, loss $800, no insurance; Rev. W. T. Ford, household goods, loss $500, no insurance. The water supply was inadequate, and it was only by the greatest exertions that the fire was stopped when it was. By 1 o'clock this morning the fire was all out. While the blaze was at its height, an attempt was made to fire Dr. Van Patten's barn, but the blaze was discovered before any damage was done.

THE PRESIDENT.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 19.—The president arrived at North Bennington at 8:15 p. m. last evening, Secretary Proctor, General Carr and Postmaster Warner accompanying him. The party was met by G. J. G. McCullough and driven to his residence, where they dined, Among those at dinner were Governor Page, John King, of New York, and ex-Minister Phelps.

NOT A FISHERMAN.

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—A gentleman who was at the beach states that there was an error made in the account of the finding of the body of Miss Boise, which does an injustice to one of Portland's citizens. It was stated that the body was found by a fisherman named Brady. The person who found the body, was Matthew Brady, one of Portland's solid citizens who declined to receive any reward. He was going to fish on the rocks at the time, which is all the claim he has to the title of fisherman.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 19.—This city is flooded with counterfeit dollars. They are of a perfect mold. Every bank in the city has had them offered with other money on deposit. Some tellers of long experience have allowed them to pass unnoticed. They bear the date of 1889. The coins have a sticky feeling, like soapstone, different from silver. Many people have been deceived by them. The perpetrators are supposed to be two women, modestly attired, who have made trifling purchases at several places and, after paying for them in silver, have asked that the dealer give them bills for $10 or $15 in silver to relieve the weight in their pockets. The United States authorities are making a thorough search for the offenders.

FIRE AT EUREKA.

EUREKA, Cal., Aug. 19.—A fire at Benlixsen's ship yard early this morning destroyed the mill used for sawing ship timbers, the only mill of the kind on Humbolt bay. The loss will reach twenty five or forty thousand dollars and ship building both at Benlixsen's and Matthew's yards will be seriously delayed.

What Does it Mean?

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. SALEM WHEAT PRICES.

Explanation of Differences in Prices Here and at Other Places.

THE JOURNAL facts about the Salem wheat market attracted a good deal of attention among the business men. Manager Holland, of the Salem Flouring Mills, was seen and offered the following:

"Wheat you say was quoted $1.55 per cental at Portland Tuesday. If that is a correct quotation, it would make prices delivered there in sacks 93 cents per bushel. We pay on a 12-cent margin for sacking, storage, freight and commission. That would make the price 81 cents. We will pay 83½ to 84 if farmers will furnish sacks. Sacks cost 8 to 9 cents apiece and we furnish them and pay 80 cents, now.

The above are the facts offered in explanation, and they speak for themselves.

NOW FOR A GLORIOUS HOLIDAY.

Sells Brothers Millionaire Amusement Alliance Coming.

Our old amusement friends, the popular Sells Brothers, are again to visit Salem August 20th, making their twentieth consecutive annual tour. The death of Adam Forepaugh leaves them with but one rival in the field which they have now occupied longer than any other, and public opinion will heartily indorse the assertion that in many respects their merit is surpassing. To their credit be it recorded that, rich and enterprising as they are, they have sturdily refused to "revolutionize the show business" by the introduction of licentious and indecent spectacles, but keep within the legitimate scope of zoological and arenic displays, and do not sacrifice the most popular elements of tent exhibition to "innovations," which have usurped the legitimate and belong properly to Black Crook brass and nudity. This makes their present enormous unity of hippodrome, menagerie, circus, wild Moorish caravan and spectacular pilgrimage to Mecca, tropical aquarium, aviary, royal Japanese troupe, Arabian Nights entertainment and free street parade altogether the best and most satisfactory of its kind. It includes, moreover, many exceedingly rare and interesting sights nowhere else exhibited; such as the pair of huge living hippopotami, a whole flock of ostriches, the hairless horse, and the pair of liliputian cattle. Among scores of the greatest performers also appears Cyrene, the extraordinary Spanish dancer in long skirts, whose picturespue and emotional presentations have made her the public craze wherever she has appeared. There are also lots of funny performances for the special benefit of the little folks.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public. Merit Wins Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

Chloroform and Ether.

We believe that St. Bartholemew's hospital is the only one in the metropolis in which a record is kept and statistics published of the number of times anæsthetics are administered during the year. These statistics are both interesting and instructive, and become valuable as showing the current in favor of or against a particular anæsthetic agent.

Turning, for example, to the records of 1879, we find that out of 2,094 anæsthetizations chloroform was given 975 times, nitrous oxide gas alone 112 times, ether alone 23 times and ether preceded by nitrous oxide 983 times. In 1889, however, the records are as follows: In 3,606 administrations—chloroform 1,601 times, gas 686, ether 810, gas and ether 509 times. Thus on comparing these figures the remarkable fact becomes apparent that chloroform has again come to the front as the most popular anæsthetic at St. Bartholomew's hospital.

Not only does the mixture of ether and gas not maintain its position of superiority, as was the case in the year 1879, but in 1889 not even the total administrations of ether alone, and gas and ether combined, reached by a long way the number of administrations of chloroform. It is just possible that in part this change of opinion may be due to the results published by the Hyderabad commission, of which a member of the staff of the hospital was the shining light.

But investigations show that ether has been declining in favor for some years at St. Bartholomew's. In 1888 it was administered 1,003 times out of 3,788, while, during the same year, gas and ether combined was only given 349 times. What a contrast with this eleven years ago, as the records above quoted demonstrate! As we see now, chloroform takes the lead, then a long way behind comes ether alone, while gas and ether combined makes a shockingly bad third.—Medical Press.

Horses Instead of Beeves.

That Paris accepts the horse as a partial substitute for the beeve every one ought to know by this time. Perhaps a page from my own experience may assist in justifying France in what is but one of the gastronomic eccentricities by which she has won international renown.

I speak of France because I believe that it was in Paris, which we have her own authority for regarding as France, that hippophagy found its first artistic introduction into modern civilization. That horses have been eaten ever since there were human beings to eat them is as certain as that there are human beings and horses.

The Frenchman, no matter what his other weaknesses may be, is a true philosopher when it comes to his own nourishment. No weed is too humble for a salad, if it be but savory. No experiment is too daring which holds the possibility of a new sensation to the palate. I have always believed that the man who ate the first oyster was at least protoplasmically a Frenchman.

The Roman chronicler tells us, with a shudder of his stylus, how he discovered the natives of Gaul eating snails! Who that has tasted of the snail soup of Provence, or picked the delicate shell a la Bordelaise, will not rate these rude barbarians above the poor professional panegyrist of the Cæsars?—Alfred Trumble in New York Epoch.

Shrewd Prisoners Get Away.

There is a good story of an escape from prison that was effected by two prisoners of war. Getting control of a pair of cutlasses, they beguiled a sentinel at guard relieving and presently jumped from the wall. One dislocated his ankle, and begged his companion to dispatch him and make his own escape. The companion, however, hoisted him on his back, and before the alarm was sounded reached a neighboring river running full of ice. This he had to swim with his disabled friend. Reaching the other side, they fashioned a rude crutch.

They now heard the alarm sounding, on which the well escape cuts his finger, smears his face with blood, binds up his head, has his hands tied by the lame one, and in this plight they approach a farmhouse. Here the lame one explains that he has taken the escape, but is himself lame and requires horses. These are cheerfully furnished by the loyal husbandman, and the pair ride gayly beyond the enemy's lines.—New York Evening Sun.

The Dog's Name.

"What is your dog's name?" asked a man who was waiting at the postoffice, of a young fellow with a particularly bright dog.

"Ask him," answered the young fellow coolly.

"You don't seem to understand, sir. I asked you what was your dog's name?"

And I answered "Ask him."

"You are an impertinent snob," said the older man, brandishing his umbrella.

"My dear sir, the dog's name is 'Ask him,'" explained the youth as he retreated to a safe distance.—Detroit Free Press.

He Thought It Was Free.

A reporter of tender age found the doors of a banquet hall locked against him the other night and knocked for admittance. Somebody let him in, not knowing who he was, and he took the first empty seat he could find and got a square meal, besides witnessing all the proceedings, which were supposed to be secret. Supper over, his identity was found out, and he did not get away until he had paid his $1.25 for the "feed."—Springfield Homestead.
