

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily by mail per year, $2.00; Weekly by mail per year, $1.00; Single copies, 5 cents.

GILBERT & PATTERSON, Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc.

IN POLICE COURT: No robberies on Circus Day but a Grist of Petty Crimes.

THE RECORDER'S DOCKET: This morning contained a number of cases. One Peter Miles was arrested Thursday for selling candy and soap packages.

THE P. D.'S: Harry Atkins and Mike Yanner were so unfortunate as to incur the charge of drunken conduct and received the usual sentence, etc.

STREET ROAMING: Jas. McClellan is under arrest on second trial on the innocent and romantic charge of street roaming.

THE YEATON ACCIDENT: A. F. Yeaton met with a severe accident Thursday afternoon, at five. The pretty little team ran quite rapidly up Trade street and as they turned the corner of Church street the buggy upset, throwing the occupant out and dragging him between the wheels a half block, when the buggy righted and he let go, the hind wheels going over him. His forehead was quite severely cut and bled profusely.

RACE AND SMASHUP: Two delivery horses with dog carts run away at 9 a. m. and raced madly up Commercial street. A street car separated them and the bay animal run up State street dashing into ex-Governor Moody's buggy in front of Cross's market and dashing it high in the air. Fortunately the governor was "not in it." The wheels of his vehicle were badly shattered. The escapade drove several horses tied on State street up onto the sidewalk creating great excitement for a few minutes. These runaways are altogether too numerous and the city should require horses standing to be weighted down.

JEFFERSON: The program of the entertainment at the opera house in Jefferson was received too late for insertion in THE JOURNAL, as it comes off at 8 p. m. this evening. A number of Salem people take part.

JUST RECEIVED: Shipment of the Puget sound smelt, plenty of salmon trout, chinook salmon, sea bass, halibut and other fish, also choice fat poultry. Leave your orders early. Prompt delivery. Davison & White.

STATE HOUSE NOTES: The printing of the 20th Oregon report is completed and will be ready for the profession in about ten days. Mr. Burnett read the proof and feels proud of his first volume.

THE CONFERENCE: The work of the Oregon conference is well along and all matters are working smoothly. Dr. Peck held an immense house against the circus and showed himself a powerful attraction.

THURSDAY NIGHT: Dr. J. O. Peck, of New York, spoke on missions and the work of the church. His subject was "The Conversion of the World to Christ an Assured Certainty."

FRIDAY SESSION: After prayers, Saturday at 11 a. m. was fixed for selecting place of next meeting of conference.

Transfers ordered: Martin Hanson from Norway, D. S., Wickstedt, from Minnesota, Elmer E. Thompson from Columbia River, and Geo. Whitaker, from New England conference were transferred to Oregon conference.

Continued on trial: Lewis Wally, Geo. W. Quimby, Christian L. Westberg, F. H. Lucke, John W. Berkley, Manfred O. Bruler, Gabriel Sykes, Chas. E. Crandall.

Rev. J. O. Peck again addressed the conference on practical work for missions, in a highly entertaining manner. He made a strong appeal for advance in the work.

Lay delegates to the general conference were introduced: G. W. Staver and J. O. Booth, who both spoke briefly.

The familiar face of Rev. Ross C. Houghton is missed at this conference. He is at the seaside sick. James Abraham and A. F. Miller were elected by alternates to general conference.

Revs. Skipworth and Landon spoke at 3 p. m. on "Sunday School and Tract work."

The Freedmen's Aid cause will take up the time this evening at the church. Drs. Whitaker and Stratton will speak.

Miss Hansee, dean of the Woman's college, has returned from the Sound, and was an interested listener at the conference sessions.

Photographer Catterlin was in attendance at the close of the session, and caught the whole conference in a body.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Woman's Home Missionary Society met at 4 p. m. The conference adjourned, to meet Saturday morning.

NOT A SELL: The Sells Circus Not Composed of Sells but of Realities.

As the children say "it was all just as it was on the pictures." No circus ever touched here that so completely satisfied the people as the Sells Bros. show.

The twenty-three ring performances were all carried out while the stage was well filled, there appearing literally sixty-nine features before the eyes of the people and all sensations to the common mind.

The dancing of Cyrene was devoid of offense to the chaste eye and revealed the wonderful poetry of motion that terpsichorean art is capable of in the human form.

The trapeze work, contortionists, lightning work of the troupe of Arabs, the 18 figure hippodrome program under Colonel Seelye's direction, are unsurpassed in circus annals.

The manager is very large and shows as special attractions a pair of hippopotami, a lioness and three cuts half grown.

OPEN AIR CONCERT: The famous Second Regiment band will render the following program tonight at Willson avenue:

March—"The Thunderer"—Herbert Medley—"A Day in Boston"—Clara Schottische—"Church Full of Glory"

Overture—"Murmuring of the Forest"—Boillillon Waltz—"Estudiantina"—Waldteufel Corset Solo—"In Old Madrid"

Beehive baking powder is the best. Look at the gifts with each can. Sroat & Gile.

Fresh fruit and vegetables from the island. Sroat & Gile.

Hellenbrand's coffee made in his celebrated patent coffee pot takes the cake.

H. Poble is still at the foot of State, on Front, opposite the foundry.

Fresh and best goods all the time at fair prices, Sroat & Gile.

Branson, the cash grocer who saves money for his patrons, has a good stock of Siberian crabs, for preserving.

Local and Personal: Mrs. Ed. Eyles is at Newport. Mrs. P. D'Arcy and daughter Maria are at Newport.

Chas. Weller and Mart Chamberlain are off to Puget Sound.

THE JOURNAL prints all the local news and has the most reliable telegraphic service ever given the public in Salem.

The two houses moved back to make room for the Hughes block, are placed to front on High street. They will be occupied by Hong Sing and Long Kee.

Rev. Robt. Whitaker and wife are back from their California trip, looking very much improved and refreshed by their vacation.

Pitcher Jo Leveque of the Salems, is down with an attack of fever, and all his friends hope he will not be laid up long.

Manager Minto of the Salem ball club has recovered entirely from his sprained ankle.

Mrs. John Minto, Miss Thornton, Miss Hawley, Jap and Douglas Minto are back from Newcastle.

Salmon, halibut, trout and cod fish fresh on ice at Steiner's market.

While the old Steiner market on State street is being moved out of the way and the new one prepared for business, that firm will serve their patrons with fish and poultry from the Ashby meat market, next door.

THE JOURNAL is the only Salem paper that gives you all the news and that is not filled with guff for favorites.

Thos. A. Sutherland, editor of the Portland Sunday Welcome, who drowned Thursday, was a half brother of A. Noltnor, and the first white child born in the state of California, May 1, 1850.

A man-and-horse race took place on Ferry St. this morning. A butcher cart animal started to run and Jack Whittley, in true circus ring style overtook the galloping steed.

Mrs. Dr. Bradshaw is reported ill, but hopes are entertained of her recovery.

A person who has type, paper and press has no rights over a person who has not. It is very wrong for such a person to strike down an individual who owns no press or public newspaper to reply.

There are no charges against Chancellor Stratton before this conference. To attack him is to close his friends solidly about him, and his friends are the Methodist church in Oregon, outnumbering all other Protestant sects. It is his gain and secures sympathy and help for his Portland enterprise.

Mr. Terrell, of Minnesota, arrived in the city yesterday, via California, taking in the Pacific coast sights. He is the guest of B. S. Cook in Highland, and is very much pleased with Oregon's capital city.

The many Salem friends of Miss Cira Carey of Jefferson, will be pleased to learn of her complete recovery from typhoid fever.

A. Bush does not care so much whether you patronize his bank, but he would like to have you let your dog or horse take a refreshing drink of water at his free fountain when you come to town.

Remember the special meeting of the Fruit Growers' association at the Court house at 2 p. m. Saturday. If you are not already a member do not fail to attend and become one, and thus help the fruit palace project.

In passing J. G. Wright's store window, ladies and all should stop to see the beautiful display of "Red Seal" pickled goods, including Uncle Tom's table sauce, red and green peppers, capers, pickled onions, stuffed olives, mock vinegar, lemon and raspberry syrup, and all that is rare and racy for the palate. Wright keeps the best.

Rineman's State street store has the finest and largest assortment of fruits and vegetables brought into Salem this year.

Sardines, chipped beef, and cheese, that never were equalled, at Clark & Eppley's, 100 Court street.

The show a sell? You'll never be sold if you deal with Sroat & Gile.

The choicest bread ever in Salem now at Strong's restaurant.

Since the reduction in baby carriages those little beauties at Geo. F. Smith's are moving off right lively.

Royal Dutch cocoa, Sroat & Gile.

A good house and lot in South Salem for $700. Inquire at the Globe, 259 Commercial street, up stairs.

Summer goods still go at popular prices at T. Holverson's.

House and four lots in East Salem $550 on the installment plan. Apply at Globe office at once.

Beehive baking powder is the best. Look at the gifts with each can. Sroat & Gile.

Fresh fruit and vegetables from the island. Sroat & Gile.

Hellenbrand's coffee made in his celebrated patent coffee pot takes the cake.

H. Poble is still at the foot of State, on Front, opposite the foundry.

Fresh and best goods all the time at fair prices, Sroat & Gile.

Branson, the cash grocer who saves money for his patrons, has a good stock of Siberian crabs, for preserving.

Local and Personal: Mrs. Ed. Eyles is at Newport. Mrs. P. D'Arcy and daughter Maria are at Newport.

Chas. Weller and Mart Chamberlain are off to Puget Sound.

THE JOURNAL prints all the local news and has the most reliable telegraphic service ever given the public in Salem.

The two houses moved back to make room for the Hughes block, are placed to front on High street. They will be occupied by Hong Sing and Long Kee.

Rev. Robt. Whitaker and wife are back from their California trip, looking very much improved and refreshed by their vacation.

Pitcher Jo Leveque of the Salems, is down with an attack of fever, and all his friends hope he will not be laid up long.

Manager Minto of the Salem ball club has recovered entirely from his sprained ankle.

Mrs. John Minto, Miss Thornton, Miss Hawley, Jap and Douglas Minto are back from Newcastle.

Salmon, halibut, trout and cod fish fresh on ice at Steiner's market.

While the old Steiner market on State street is being moved out of the way and the new one prepared for business, that firm will serve their patrons with fish and poultry from the Ashby meat market, next door.

THE JOURNAL is the only Salem paper that gives you all the news and that is not filled with guff for favorites.

Thos. A. Sutherland, editor of the Portland Sunday Welcome, who drowned Thursday, was a half brother of A. Noltnor, and the first white child born in the state of California, May 1, 1850.

A man-and-horse race took place on Ferry St. this morning. A butcher cart animal started to run and Jack Whittley, in true circus ring style overtook the galloping steed.

Mrs. Dr. Bradshaw is reported ill, but hopes are entertained of her recovery.

A person who has type, paper and press has no rights over a person who has not. It is very wrong for such a person to strike down an individual who owns no press or public newspaper to reply.

There are no charges against Chancellor Stratton before this conference. To attack him is to close his friends solidly about him, and his friends are the Methodist church in Oregon, outnumbering all other Protestant sects. It is his gain and secures sympathy and help for his Portland enterprise.

Mr. Terrell, of Minnesota, arrived in the city yesterday, via California, taking in the Pacific coast sights. He is the guest of B. S. Cook in Highland, and is very much pleased with Oregon's capital city.

The many Salem friends of Miss Cira Carey of Jefferson, will be pleased to learn of her complete recovery from typhoid fever.

A. Bush does not care so much whether you patronize his bank, but he would like to have you let your dog or horse take a refreshing drink of water at his free fountain when you come to town.

Remember the special meeting of the Fruit Growers' association at the Court house at 2 p. m. Saturday. If you are not already a member do not fail to attend and become one, and thus help the fruit palace project.

In passing J. G. Wright's store window, ladies and all should stop to see the beautiful display of "Red Seal" pickled goods, including Uncle Tom's table sauce, red and green peppers, capers, pickled onions, stuffed olives, mock vinegar, lemon and raspberry syrup, and all that is rare and racy for the palate. Wright keeps the best.

Rineman's State street store has the finest and largest assortment of fruits and vegetables brought into Salem this year.

Sardines, chipped beef, and cheese, that never were equalled, at Clark & Eppley's, 100 Court street.

The show a sell? You'll never be sold if you deal with Sroat & Gile.

The choicest bread ever in Salem now at Strong's restaurant.

Since the reduction in baby carriages those little beauties at Geo. F. Smith's are moving off right lively.

Royal Dutch cocoa, Sroat & Gile.

A good house and lot in South Salem for $700. Inquire at the Globe, 259 Commercial street, up stairs.

Summer goods still go at popular prices at T. Holverson's.

House and four lots in East Salem $550 on the installment plan. Apply at Globe office at once.

Beehive baking powder is the best. Look at the gifts with each can. Sroat & Gile.

Fresh fruit and vegetables from the island. Sroat & Gile.

Hellenbrand's coffee made in his celebrated patent coffee pot takes the cake.

H. Poble is still at the foot of State, on Front, opposite the foundry.

Fresh and best goods all the time at fair prices, Sroat & Gile.

Branson, the cash grocer who saves money for his patrons, has a good stock of Siberian crabs, for preserving.

Local and Personal: Mrs. Ed. Eyles is at Newport. Mrs. P. D'Arcy and daughter Maria are at Newport.

Chas. Weller and Mart Chamberlain are off to Puget Sound.

THE JOURNAL prints all the local news and has the most reliable telegraphic service ever given the public in Salem.

The two houses moved back to make room for the Hughes block, are placed to front on High street. They will be occupied by Hong Sing and Long Kee.

Rev. Robt. Whitaker and wife are back from their California trip, looking very much improved and refreshed by their vacation.

Pitcher Jo Leveque of the Salems, is down with an attack of fever, and all his friends hope he will not be laid up long.

Manager Minto of the Salem ball club has recovered entirely from his sprained ankle.

Mrs. John Minto, Miss Thornton, Miss Hawley, Jap and Douglas Minto are back from Newcastle.

Salmon, halibut, trout and cod fish fresh on ice at Steiner's market.

While the old Steiner market on State street is being moved out of the way and the new one prepared for business, that firm will serve their patrons with fish and poultry from the Ashby meat market, next door.

THE JOURNAL is the only Salem paper that gives you all the news and that is not filled with guff for favorites.

Thos. A. Sutherland, editor of the Portland Sunday Welcome, who drowned Thursday, was a half brother of A. Noltnor, and the first white child born in the state of California, May 1, 1850.

A man-and-horse race took place on Ferry St. this morning. A butcher cart animal started to run and Jack Whittley, in true circus ring style overtook the galloping steed.

Mrs. Dr. Bradshaw is reported ill, but hopes are entertained of her recovery.

A person who has type, paper and press has no rights over a person who has not. It is very wrong for such a person to strike down an individual who owns no press or public newspaper to reply.

There are no charges against Chancellor Stratton before this conference. To attack him is to close his friends solidly about him, and his friends are the Methodist church in Oregon, outnumbering all other Protestant sects. It is his gain and secures sympathy and help for his Portland enterprise.

Mr. Terrell, of Minnesota, arrived in the city yesterday, via California, taking in the Pacific coast sights. He is the guest of B. S. Cook in Highland, and is very much pleased with Oregon's capital city.

The many Salem friends of Miss Cira Carey of Jefferson, will be pleased to learn of her complete recovery from typhoid fever.

A. Bush does not care so much whether you patronize his bank, but he would like to have you let your dog or horse take a refreshing drink of water at his free fountain when you come to town.

Remember the special meeting of the Fruit Growers' association at the Court house at 2 p. m. Saturday. If you are not already a member do not fail to attend and become one, and thus help the fruit palace project.

In passing J. G. Wright's store window, ladies and all should stop to see the beautiful display of "Red Seal" pickled goods, including Uncle Tom's table sauce, red and green peppers, capers, pickled onions, stuffed olives, mock vinegar, lemon and raspberry syrup, and all that is rare and racy for the palate. Wright keeps the best.

Rineman's State street store has the finest and largest assortment of fruits and vegetables brought into Salem this year.

Sardines, chipped beef, and cheese, that never were equalled, at Clark & Eppley's, 100 Court street.

The show a sell? You'll never be sold if you deal with Sroat & Gile.

The choicest bread ever in Salem now at Strong's restaurant.

Since the reduction in baby carriages those little beauties at Geo. F. Smith's are moving off right lively.

Royal Dutch cocoa, Sroat & Gile.

A good house and lot in South Salem for $700. Inquire at the Globe, 259 Commercial street, up stairs.

Summer goods still go at popular prices at T. Holverson's.

House and four lots in East Salem $550 on the installment plan. Apply at Globe office at once.

Beehive baking powder is the best. Look at the gifts with each can. Sroat & Gile.

Fresh fruit and vegetables from the island. Sroat & Gile.

Hellenbrand's coffee made in his celebrated patent coffee pot takes the cake.

H. Poble is still at the foot of State, on Front, opposite the foundry.

Fresh and best goods all the time at fair prices, Sroat & Gile.

Branson, the cash grocer who saves money for his patrons, has a good stock of Siberian crabs, for preserving.

Local and Personal: Mrs. Ed. Eyles is at Newport. Mrs. P. D'Arcy and daughter Maria are at Newport.

Chas. Weller and Mart Chamberlain are off to Puget Sound.

THE JOURNAL prints all the local news and has the most reliable telegraphic service ever given the public in Salem.

The two houses moved back to make room for the Hughes block, are placed to front on High street. They will be occupied by Hong Sing and Long Kee.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Ed. Eyles is at Newport. Mrs. P. D'Arcy and daughter Maria are at Newport.

Chas. Weller and Mart Chamberlain are off to Puget Sound.

THE JOURNAL prints all the local news and has the most reliable telegraphic service ever given the public in Salem.

The two houses moved back to make room for the Hughes block, are placed to front on High street. They will be occupied by Hong Sing and Long Kee.

Rev. Robt. Whitaker and wife are back from their California trip, looking very much improved and refreshed by their vacation.

Pitcher Jo Leveque of the Salems, is down with an attack of fever, and all his friends hope he will not be laid up long.

Manager Minto of the Salem ball club has recovered entirely from his sprained ankle.

Mrs. John Minto, Miss Thornton, Miss Hawley, Jap and Douglas Minto are back from Newcastle.

Salmon, halibut, trout and cod fish fresh on ice at Steiner's market.

While the old Steiner market on State street is being moved out of the way and the new one prepared for business, that firm will serve their patrons with fish and poultry from the Ashby meat market, next door.

THE JOURNAL is the only Salem paper that gives you all the news and that is not filled with guff for favorites.

Thos. A. Sutherland, editor of the Portland Sunday Welcome, who drowned Thursday, was a half brother of A. Noltnor, and the first white child born in the state of California, May 1, 1850.

A man-and-horse race took place on Ferry St. this morning. A butcher cart animal started to run and Jack Whittley, in true circus ring style overtook the galloping steed.

Mrs. Dr. Bradshaw is reported ill, but hopes are entertained of her recovery.

A person who has type, paper and press has no rights over a person who has not. It is very wrong for such a person to strike down an individual who owns no press or public newspaper to reply.

There are no charges against Chancellor Stratton before this conference. To attack him is to close his friends solidly about him, and his friends are the Methodist church in Oregon, outnumbering all other Protestant sects. It is his gain and secures sympathy and help for his Portland enterprise.

Mr. Terrell, of Minnesota, arrived in the city yesterday, via California, taking in the Pacific coast sights. He is the guest of B. S. Cook in Highland, and is very much pleased with Oregon's capital city.

The many Salem friends of Miss Cira Carey of Jefferson, will be pleased to learn of her complete recovery from typhoid fever.

A. Bush does not care so much whether you patronize his bank, but he would like to have you let your dog or horse take a refreshing drink of water at his free fountain when you come to town.

Remember the special meeting of the Fruit Growers' association at the Court house at 2 p. m. Saturday. If you are not already a member do not fail to attend and become one, and thus help the fruit palace project.

In passing J. G. Wright's store window, ladies and all should stop to see the beautiful display of "Red Seal" pickled goods, including Uncle Tom's table sauce, red and green peppers, capers, pickled onions, stuffed olives, mock vinegar, lemon and raspberry syrup, and all that is rare and racy for the palate. Wright keeps the best.

Rineman's State street store has the finest and largest assortment of fruits and vegetables brought into Salem this year.

Sardines, chipped beef, and cheese, that never were equalled, at Clark & Eppley's, 100 Court street.

The show a sell? You'll never be sold if you deal with Sroat & Gile.

The choicest bread ever in Salem now at Strong's restaurant.

Since the reduction in baby carriages those little beauties at Geo. F. Smith's are moving off right lively.

Royal Dutch cocoa, Sroat & Gile.

A good house and lot in South Salem for $700. Inquire at the Globe, 259 Commercial street, up stairs.

Summer goods still go at popular prices at T. Holverson's.

House and four lots in East Salem $550 on the installment plan. Apply at Globe office at once.

Beehive baking powder is the best. Look at the gifts with each can. Sroat & Gile.

Fresh fruit and vegetables from the island. Sroat & Gile.

Hellenbrand's coffee made in his celebrated patent coffee pot takes the cake.

H. Poble is still at the foot of State, on Front, opposite the foundry.

Fresh and best goods all the time at fair prices, Sroat & Gile.

Branson, the cash grocer who saves money for his patrons, has a good stock of Siberian crabs, for preserving.

Local and Personal: Mrs. Ed. Eyles is at Newport. Mrs. P. D'Arcy and daughter Maria are at Newport.

Chas. Weller and Mart Chamberlain are off to Puget Sound.

THE JOURNAL prints all the local news and has the most reliable telegraphic service ever given the public in Salem.

The two houses moved back to make room for the Hughes block, are placed to front on High street. They will be occupied by Hong Sing and Long Kee.

Rev. Robt. Whitaker and wife are back from their California trip, looking very much improved and refreshed by their vacation.

Pitcher Jo Leveque of the Salems, is down with an attack of fever, and all his friends hope he will not be laid up long.

Manager Minto