

FAST TIME MADE.
 A Southern Pacific Special Runs 300 Miles in Less Than Ten Hours.
 Saturday night at 8 o'clock the special fast train containing Mr. Spyer, the German capitalist, accompanied by Manager Koebler, Superintendent Fields and W. G. Curtis, assistant to General Manager Towne, returned through Salem. It left Portland going south at 8:40 a. m. and arrived at Grant's Pass at 8:29 p. m., making the run of 300 miles in nine hours and forty minutes, which is pretty good time when it is considered that six trains were passed between there and Albany. Part of the trip was made at the rate of sixty miles per hour, as shown by the register in the car. The Oregonian says the company is having all the ties between Ashland and Grant's Pass filled by contract. Erikson & Co. are doing the work with scrapers, taking earth from alongside the line. They are pushing the work energetically, and will have their contract completed within a month. The ties from Grant's Pass to Lone creek summit are being filled by the company. The earth is hauled from Bloody run, where a steam shovel is at work making an excavation which will reduce the curve there, thus killing two birds with one stone, as it were. At Lake Labish 1250 feet of trestle is being filled with scrapers, and the remainder will be newly piled. The company is also making improvements on its west side line. Five carloads of timber have arrived from Moorcroft, and will be loaded at once and sent out to McMinnville, to be used in bridges in that vicinity.

GILBERT & PATTERSON,
 Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.
 MOVING ALONG.—One of the new enterprises in Salem that is now moving along nicely and doing a good business is the new dress making parlors of R. H. Matthews, in the new Cottle block. A professional ladies' tailor is employed, and the latest fashions furnished.
 SHIRTS—Made to order. Ladies' shirts a specialty.—R. H. Matthews, Cottle block.

NEW OFFICERS.—The Alka-Hesperian literary and debating society met at their hall Saturday evening and elected officers as follows: Robt. Whitaker, president; W. A. Cusick, vice president; M. C. Starr, secretary; J. H. McNary, assistant secretary; C. B. Brown, treasurer; C. E. Robin, librarian; G. Stoltz, sergeant-at-arms. A letter was read from Frank Davey, of Portland, that gave great pleasure. The question of the change of program and establishment of a free public library was discussed. The subject for debate for next Saturday evening is: "Resolved that the welfare of this nation demands the organization and maintenance of a third party." A subject was also selected for two weeks hence.

PAVING.—The council meets in regular session Tuesday evening and the paving question will receive attention again. The gravel ordinance will come up for passage, and provides for a street improvement as follows: On Commercial from north side of Court to north side of Marion, and on Court and State from west side of Commercial to west side of Church. No bitumen ordinance has been prepared. Several sidewalk and crosswalk ordinances have been pushed to readiness for final passage.

JOSEPH GRISMER AND PHOEBE DAVIES.—At Reed's opera house on Saturday evening next, Oct. 10th, the wellknown favorites Joseph Grismer and Phoebe Davies, supported by their own company, will appear and present for the first time in Salem, De Witt Young's romantic drama "Bacon Lights." The Grismer, no doubt, will be welcome with a crowded house, as they are known to all theatre goers. The sale of reserved seats are now open at Patton's bookstore. Prices $1.00.

HUMANITY SOCIETY.—There were only a few in attendance Saturday afternoon at the meeting of the humanity society. Secretary Miss R. F. Hall came in fifty miles from her timber claim in the mountains of the Santiam to attend the meeting. She will remain until Wednesday morning. Another meeting is called Tuesday at 3 p. m., and the friends of this cause should make an effort to attend and sustain the organization, at the Willamette reading room.

PROBATE.—In estate of J. S. Sullivan, M. W. Hunt, administrator, heard on final account; approved and closed. In the matter of petition for appointment of guardian for Lucinda Stevens, parties by consent had case dismissed at cost of petitioners.

AUTUMN CATTLE.—Just now after the rich harvests of plenty, and in the most delightful season of the year, Ed Cross is busy gathering in his choicest cattle in the land for his popular Salem markets. He is bound to have the best.

LECTURE.—Dr. John Gordon, pastor of the First Baptist church of Portland, will deliver his celebrated lecture, "Signs and Symbols," in the Baptist church of this city Friday evening, Oct. 9th. Admission 25c. Tickets on sale at Sroat & Gile's and at Brooks & Harris's.

RAILROAD COMMISSION.—In Judge Boise's absence the removal case could not be argued as arranged but will now be heard at the regular term beginning next Monday, Oct. 12. The suit of Biggs vs. the members of the old commission will be tried over at present term of supreme court.

PACKING UP.—Much fruit is being packed up by Farrar & Co. for the Eastern markets, but the best can still be had at their store.
 A DELICATE SUBJECT.—Whether in robust or delicate health, the meals at Hellenbrand's take the cake.
 Westcott & Irwin are still making that superior New York ice cream.
 Our set of lamps and dish ware is the best in Salem. Sroat & Gile.
 Lots of peaches, prunes and pears, at H. M. Branson's, cash grocery, 313 Commercial street.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.
 Dr. E. L. Irvine, former assistant physician at the asylum, is ill at Albany.
 Rev. R. M. Whitaker preached at the asylum Sunday, supplying the service of Rev. Gwynne, whose daughter Alberta was still very ill. In the case of Meredith vs. Walker for claim of $87 alleged to be due on land rent, the jury brought in a verdict of $19.50 for plaintiff, who had offered $75 in compromise.
 The appraisers of the M. L. Savage estate, Thos. Hubbard, Jacob Ogle and David Simpson, have completed their work of dividing the 300 acres of valuable land lying just east of the asylum.
 The stray greyhound that for some months has been home on Liberty street has found a new mistress in Miss R. F. Hall, secretary of the humane society of Salem. It has a good home, an aristocratic name and spent the summer in the mountains.
 Lieut. Tripp, First Infantry, leaves today for Albany where he expects to remain till early in November, when he will go to the Engineer's School of Application at Willet's Point, New York Harbor, for torpedo instruction.
 Salem is actually becoming metropolitan, and now boasts of a street car strike.—Albany Herald.
 The brewery, including ground and plant, owned by Plau & Ehret, was sold Saturday at auction by the receiver, George Humphrey. The property was bid in by E. W. Langdon for Wm. Faber, of this city.—Albany Herald.
 Capt. J. W. Crawford, agent at the Umattila reservation, is in the city visiting his numerous old time friends. He will remain about a week.
 Prof. Yoder says the Portland Exposition is about the same as last year.
 Mrs. D. C. Sherman and children are home from Portland, where they and turning sharply dashed down Commercial street.
 A gentleman in the saloon next to the new Bush bank block went to the bay window in front, parted the ivy vines and put his head in to look out and see what was going on. Just then the whole bay window was torn away with a crash, as slick as though cut off by a skillful carpenter. The sidewalk was strewn with broken bottles, window glass and fancy articles. The mare had "hubbed" it and tore the whole thing to pieces, turned the buggy over and was lying on her back badly out in the knee of her fore leg. It will be several weeks before she will be fit to drive. Fortunately no one was in the buggy, which was not hurt much. The man in the saloon was badly scared but not injured. Damage about $40.

SUNDAY'S RUNAWAY.
 A High-strung Mare Carries Off the Bay Window of a Saloon.
 Sunday at 3 p. m. the high-spirited mare of Dr. Geo. S. Wright, of Dallas, tore loose from her fastenings in front of John G. Wright's store, and turning sharply dashed down Commercial street.
 A gentleman in the saloon next to the new Bush bank block went to the bay window in front, parted the ivy vines and put his head in to look out and see what was going on. ASYLUM CHANGES.
 Steward Irwin Will Probably be Succeeded by Bookkeeper Cenner.
 It is reported that Steward Irwin at the asylum has tendered his resignation and it has been accepted by Supt. Rowland. Bookkeeper M. J. Conner is reported to be in line for promotion to succeed Irwin's place. This action is only natural, as Steward Irwin was the trusted lieutenant of Supt. Lane and hence could not very well retain long a confidential relation toward a different administration. A friend of Mr. Irwin says that his resignation was tendered to the asylum authorities October 1, to take effect November 1.
RECORDER'S COURT.
 One Drunk and an Arrest for Carrying Concealed Weapons.
 A young man of twenty-one (he probably less than that) was arraigned, plead guilty to drunkenness and was fined $10 and costs this morning. If the court can ascertain that the boy is a minor there is liable to be a prosecution of a saloon keeper for sale to a minor.
 H. Walker was fined $10, and costs for being found with concealed weapons on his person. He paid.
 These arrests were made on Sunday by Salem's ever-vigilant police.

A NICE PLAN.—Architect Burggraf has submitted a plan in the renaissance style for reconstruction of the burnt Willamette building. It presents a nice appearance and has a scholastic ornamental tower on the northwest corner. The committee are considering the propriety of putting on a Mansard roof.
CORRECTION.—An error of the compositor made the price of Chas. Gray's seaside cottage appear in THE JOURNAL as thirty thousand dollars in place of three thousand, as it should have been.
 Those flower pots sold by Sroat & Gile are fine, see them.
 Next as a pin is the condition in which everybody likes to find the place where he buys provisions, especially meats. This is the rule at McCrow & Willard's two markets. They keep choice stock and serve it in the best style.
 A Klein, the shoe man, is now paying considerable attention to his new residence now building, and although it is to be handsome and substantial, he says it will not excel his stock of goods in that respect.
 The live grocery firm of Clark & Eppley, at 100 Court street, have decided to give away Arbuckle's coffee with Golden Rule baking powder. Try it.

THE WORLD ENRICHED.
 The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasant and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

SUDDEN DEATH.
 The Wife of City Engineer McCausland Suddenly Passes Away.
 Monday morning, Oct. 5, 1891, at three o'clock Mrs. McCausland, the young wife of E. J. McCausland, city engineer of Salem, died very suddenly and unexpectedly. She had been ill only two weeks of malarial fever and she had not been thought to be in danger.
 Mr. and Mrs. McCausland have for some time made their home at the residence of M. V. Berk, Chems-keta street, where the death occurred.
 Deceased was 23 years old, and her home when married Oct. 22, 1890, was at Halsey, Linn county, where her parents now reside. She removed to Salem in January with her husband, where they have since resided.
 The parents of the deceased lady are expected down from Halsey at 1 p. m. When arrangements will be made for the funeral services.

 The New Discovery.
 You have heard your friends and neighbors talk about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a fair trial, it is guaranteed every time, ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottle free at Fry's drugstore, 225 Com'l St.
