

protecting foreigners. It is con- sidered that Sir John Walsham put some very searching and vital questions. He wanted to know why a stronger edict of the emperor against attacks on foreigners had not been promulgated through- out the empire by telegraph in place of being entrusted to ordinary courses. The answer to this was that there is not a precedent for dispatching an imperial edict by telegraph, and with this the British minister is naturally unsatisfied.

MORE EARTHQUAKES.

Napa and Petaluma Again Shaken up.

THE EASTERN STORM.

MORE EARTHQUAKE.
NAPA, Cal., Oct. 14.—Four shocks of earthquake was felt here this morning at 4:30 a. m. People were startled with quite a heavy shock and several lighter ones have followed. Damage done by Sunday night's shock is much more than as a first supposed and will amount to several thousand dollars.

STEAMER ASHORE.
PETALUMA, Cal., Oct. 14.—Another lively earthquake shock was felt here this morning about 4:30 o'clock, and a much lighter one about 7. The vibrations were from north to south.

THE EASTERN STORM.
NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Waves nearly thirty feet at Rockaway Beach are washing dwellings and boats to sea. Many pleasure crafts are missing since Sunday, and it is feared they have been lost with all on board. Sunday afternoon George W. White, Alfred Kane, Mark Thurny, and Aiden, Little, of New York, hired two boats equipped for shark fishing. One boat was found washed upon the beach without occupants, but nothing has been seen of the other. Captain Veseloh saved a large boat. Six small boats, holding in all sixteen men, let out on Sunday afternoon to a fishing party, have not been seen since, and it is thought they have been carried out to sea.

IS BALMACEIDA DEAD?
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The State and Navy departments have received nothing in their official dispatches from Chili to indicate any pronounced change in the situation there so far as Minister Egan and the Junta are concerned. A dispatch cabled from Paris that Balmaceda is in hiding in the United States Legation at Santiago is laughed at by the State Department officers. Minister Egan sent two telegrams to the department announcing the suicide of Balmaceda, and in addition the Ministers from Europe and other countries sent this information in the most direct possible form to their Governments, and it is not likely that the reports of Powers in Santiago would unite in a false official statement. In regard to the treatment of refugees said to be under the protection of the American Legation, it is believed at the department that no great opposition will be made by the Junta to their safe conveyance out of Chili.

WEALTH WORKED NO CHANGE.
NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A romantic story is told of Richard Haring and his bride, who sailed for Hamburg from Hoboken last Monday. Five months ago Haring worked as a farm hand for Thomas Burlin at some place in Georgia. Miss Ann O'Shell, the adopted daughter of the postmaster, nursed him through an illness, and but for his humble position he would have offered himself in marriage to her. When he recovered he received a letter announcing the sudden death of his father in Germany. He crossed the ocean and learned that he was the only heir to an estate valued at nearly $500,000. He felt free now to propose to Miss O'Shell, and when they left Hoboken Monday they were on a wedding trip.

SHOT HIMSELF IN COURT.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 14.—Hardly had the foreman of the jury in the criminal court here pronounced the words, "Ten years in the penitentiary," as a punishment for Frank Rowland, a wayward young man of good parentage, convicted of forgery, when the defendant sprang to his feet in front of the judge, drew a pistol, put it to his left side and fired. A scene of wild confusion followed, during which Judge White fainted. The bullet did not strike the heart, but passed through the body just above it. There is a slight chance, however, for his recovery.

THE METHODIST COUNCIL.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—In the ecumenical conference yesterday, Bishop Ninde, of Kansas, spoke on the subject, "The Deacon Movement." He said there is much talk of a woman unsexing herself and putting society into convulsions. There were silly women and silly men. Representative women could be trusted. If we could not trust our mothers and sisters, in God's name who could we trust? He believed they could be trusted, and God's work could never be consummated without their aid.

REV. DR. LEWIS, OF THE M. E. church, South, said it was a fallacy to believe that because a large majority of people were hammering after a thing it was a manifestation of the divine will. "God created them male and female," said he, "not female and male!" Woman was expected, under divine providence, to sustain the same relation to the masculine church that she did to the family—not one of subordination, but of "equality in certain lines."

REV. DR. BUCKLEY, of New York, said women could not do the work of preachers without collision with the laws of nature. They must be mothers, or they must be preachers, not both. St. Paul said they should not take the place of men. Rev. Dr. Hoss, of Tennessee, also called attention to St. Paul's words, and asserted that if God intended man to do the same work he would make them alike.

At this juncture, Mr. Atkinson, of England, proceeded to characterize Dr. Hoss's argument as logical jugglery, saying that if man and woman had been created alike there would be no men or women. He also remarked that Dr. Buckley had gotten an awful twist on this question.

Resolutions were adopted approving the project to erect a memorial to this council on a suitable site in Washington, in the shape of a bronze statue of John Wesley, and a committee, headed by Bishop Fowler, of San Francisco, was appointed to raise funds.

TOO MUCH SON-IN-LAW.
CARTIAGE, Mo., Oct. 14.—Some months ago an old man named David Moss married a girl 14 years old, having the consent of her mother, on payment of $500. The youthful bride has since proved to be very fickle-minded, and has shown preference for the old man's son. Bud Moss, the young bride's son-in-law, undertook to lay out the old man, but was not allowed to complete the job. He was arrested after strong resistance, and was sentenced to thirty days in jail. When the sentence is out he is to be arrested on a charge of forging a check for $400 on the old man. The young bride was heart broken to see her son-in-law taken in by the officers. Moss is a wealthy man.

THE SEARLES WILL CASE.
BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The Record this afternoon says that it is understood the Searles will contest is at an end, and that Timothy Hopkins will get between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 of the late Mrs. Searles' property.

SWINDLED.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 14.—S. W. Chipman, a young merchant of American Fork, Utah, was swindled out of $4000 in cold cash by a smooth and wily Mr. Smith—C. A. Smith, he said his name was—in a cattle deal in the stock yards, Chipman met Smith some time ago at his Utah home. The meeting Chipman thought opportune. Smith wanted to buy 200 cattle. Chipman had just that number to sell. Chipman was administrator for a certain Mormon estate, which included 205 head of cattle. Smith offered a good price. He did not have the money with him he said, and offered to pay Chipman's expenses to Kansas City if he would come here with him to sell the cattle. Chipman jumped at the offer. They arrived here Friday and the cattle were disposed of to Keys & Co., commission merchants at the Kansas City Stock Yards. The cattle were shipped in Smith's name. Chipman was with Smith when the sale was made, but being of a backward nature he had nothing to say. Keys & Co. did not know he had any interest in the deal. They offered Smith $4000 for the cattle, and he accepted that, saying he wanted cash. Keys refused this, as he did not know Smith to be the shipper. He therefore gave him $50 in cash and a New York draft for the remainder. The two men walked away. Chipman says Smith gave him $50, saying: "I have told Keys & Co. to place the remainder to your account. It is not safe to carry so much money around with you." Chipman and Smith then went to the Interstate fair and attended the races. When the horses for the 2300 trot came Smith was anxious to bet on Dick C., and asked Chipman to wait in the grandstand while he bought a ticket on the horse. Chipman waited, but Smith never came back. After the races Chipman went to Keys & Co. and said he wanted his money. He explained the circumstances and said the cattle were his. This was the first Keys & Co. knew of his interest in the matter. They told Chipman the facts of the case and at once telegraphed to New York to prevent payment of the draft. In this way hope to recover the money for Chipman. Chipman is about 25 years old and is a Mormon. His father is one of the wealthiest and most influential men in that section of the country. Smith is described as a typical Westerner, bluff and hearty in manner and of a gentlemanly appearance. He is a good talker and somewhat older than Chipman.

TWO YOUNG LOVERS RUN AWAY.

WOODBURN, Or., Oct. 14.—Yesterday when the Southern Pacific California express train stopped here, a young lady alighted and looked around as if looking for someone. After the train had pulled out she asked a bystander if this was Portland. Being told she was thirty-five miles from Portland she was in a quandary what to do, as she had not a cent of money. She said that a man had bought her a ticket for Portland and was in the freight car and did not see her get off. On his arrival at Portland he telephoned that he would return on the evening train. Inquiry developed the fact that she was but sixteen years old, that her name was Edna Smith, that her parents lived near Junction City, that her parents objected to her keeping company with this man, who proved to be Ted Thompson, son of a merchant at Monroe, Oregon. In the meantime the city marshal had communicated with Junction City, and received a telegram from the deputy sheriff to arrest and hold both. The young lady was not arrested until last evening. When Thompson stepped off the train he was arrested and placed in jail. Thompson denies that he intended running away with the girl.

BROUGHT SUIT.
PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 14.—Suits have been brought in the United States circuit court by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York, against the Oregon and Washington Railroad company, to foreclose the consolidated mortgage, held by the Trust Co., to secure the bonds of road to the amount of about $4,000,000.

WEDNESDAY.
55—Ann Carpenter vs. Thos. E. Brown et al.; foreclosure. Judgment by default.

56—Phillip Metcalf vs. J. W. Beaty et al.; foreclosure. Judgment by default.

57—Lucinda Swegle et al. vs. Geo. Swegle et al.; partition. Default entered as to Geo. Swegle, M. W. Swegle and Emma Bender. L. C. Griffith, F. R. Smith and David Simpson appointed referees.

JURY TRIAL.
State vs. Dr. Hensell, for selling liquor to a minor. G. G. Bingham for state and Tilmon Ford for defendant. Following jury was drawn: L. Cavanaugh, J. B. Dimnick, Jos. Lemery, Wm. Hilleary, N. J. White, L. C. Griffith, A. W. Drager, Dexter Robbins, Wm. Woodworth, A. Beach, Joseph Chalmers, W. E. Young.

The jury were out but a few minutes when they returned a verdict of not guilty. Dr. Hensell was unanimously acquitted.

CORRECTION.
In the report of the court docket a fine of $200 for illegal sale of liquor was printed as imposed on Dr. Hensell. This was an error as the fine was imposed on Robt. Thompson.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS.
In the case of Holman vs. Clark, action for damages for obstructing one of the streets in East Salem, the demurrer to complaint was sustained, on the ground that a private individual cannot maintain action for obstruction of public street or road by putting a fence across the same. That such a prosecution belongs to the state. P. H. D'Arcy appeared for plaintiff, and W. W. Kaiser for the defendant, Mrs. Clark.

In the case of the state of Oregon vs. Lee Brown, manager of the Stayton Saw Mills, for allowing some dust to escape into the Santiam river, the court sustained the demurrer to the indictment, for the reason that section eighth, commonly known as the "saw dust" section of the fish law, was not mentioned in the enacting clause of the bill, as required by section 29 of the state constitution. For this reason section 8 is received, and an indictment under it cannot be maintained.

Geo. G. Bingham, district attorney appeared for the state, and W. M. Kaiser and Tilmon Ford for the defendant.

In the case of the state of Oregon vs. L. M. Hensell, charged with selling liquor to a minor on June 6th, at Brooks. A jury trial was had today, resulting in the acquittal of the defendant, and Dr. Hensell was discharged. District Attorney Bingham appeared for the state, and Tilmon Ford for the defendant.

WOODBURN, Or., Oct. 14.—Yesterday when the Southern Pacific California express train stopped here, a young lady alighted and looked around as if looking for someone. After the train had pulled out she asked a bystander if this was Portland. Being told she was thirty-five miles from Portland she was in a quandary what to do, as she had not a cent of money. She said that a man had bought her a ticket for Portland and was in the freight car and did not see her get off. On his arrival at Portland he telephoned that he would return on the evening train. Inquiry developed the fact that she was but sixteen years old, that her name was Edna Smith, that her parents lived near Junction City, that her parents objected to her keeping company with this man, who proved to be Ted Thompson, son of a merchant at Monroe, Oregon. In the meantime the city marshal had communicated with Junction City, and received a telegram from the deputy sheriff to arrest and hold both. The young lady was not arrested until last evening. When Thompson stepped off the train he was arrested and placed in jail. Thompson denies that he intended running away with the girl.
