TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES.

Associated Press Report and Digests of all Important News of To-Day. MISCELLANY. A JEFFERSON RELIC. GAINESVILLE, Tex., Oct. 21.—Major Walker of this city is in possession of a relic which, doubtless, is of great historical value. It is a piece of silver, circular in shape, attached to a small ring. It is about two and one-half inches in diameter and twice the thickness of a silver dollar. On one side is a likeness of Thomas Jefferson encircled with the words, "Thomas Jefferson, President U. S. A. D. 1801." On the opposite side is a pipe and battle-axe crossed, and underneath the word "Peace."

Under this are two clasped hands, with cuffs encircling the wrists. One cuff has two bars running across, and on the other cuff is the word "Friendship." The whole work is artistically done, and every line, even the muscles of the hands, is visible and perfectly distinct. The curiosity was found on the prairie west of this city by a young lady a few days ago. It is supposed to have been a present to some Indian chief, and it was probably lost by the Indians during one of their raids through here several years ago.

A PET TURTLE. BANGOR, Me., Oct. 21.—In the town of Patton, a place distant from the water over ninety miles, their is a great curiosity, known as the "turtle's nest." For fifty-two years a turtle has come annually to the nest to deposit her eggs. Over half a century ago she selected her nest, then in an open field, but now in a yard in front of a residence. A relative of the owner of the house branded the date, 1841, upon the turtle's back and it can be plainly traced now. She comes about the same date each year, and her first few days are passed inspecting the ancient nest, the yard and the surroundings. Later she digs a hole in the ground and there deposits her eggs. This year she left forty-two eggs, but as many were carried away and the others often disturbed, only about a dozen of the eggs hatched out. The owner of the house has ten of the little turtles, none more than twice the size of a postage stamp. The old turtle always departs after laying the eggs, the warm sand and sun serving as an incubator.

This turtle has been seen at the Drew Deadwater, on the Mattawankeag River, fully fifty miles away from the nest. Her weight varies from thirty to thirty-five pounds, and it is said she was as large when branded as she is now. Each June she comes to Patton and is always welcomed by old and young.

THROWN FROM A WINDOW. DENVER, Colo., Oct. 21.—A serious affair occurred in a rooming house at the corner of Fifteenth and Curtis streets early yesterday morning which has resulted in a tragedy and may not end until two men pay the penalty on the gallows. More than one man prominent in political circles and notorious in crime is mixed up in the affair. The first signal of trouble was received at police headquarters a few minutes after 1 o'clock, when an arbitrary call for the ambulance was rung in from Fifteenth and Curtis streets. On arriving at that point the police surgeon had entrusted to his care the unconscious form of a middle-aged man, whose face and entire head were in a terrible state. He was removed to the police station and immediately transferred to the County Hospital. His nose was broken, one eye was out and the entire scalp on one side of the head could be lifted up. His head was also badly crushed and cut. He died this afternoon in the greatest agony.

The police were immediately upon the scene and arrested the notorious Jim Connors and Mike Ryan, Mrs. Doloff, held as a witness, and the intimate friend of Connors, Walter J. Conway. Until recently Mrs. Doloff, who is a handsome widow of 30 with three children, has been known as the mistress of Connors. About six months ago Connors' wife created a sensation by attempting to kill Mrs. Doloff, when the latter deserted Connors and took up with J. C. Pinnacott, to whom she now claims she was engaged to be married.
