PRISON WORK.—As the state prison contractors work all their men at Salem, this from the Baker City Democrat is of interest: "The Oregon prison contractors must have a good thing. The last quarterly report says that 222 convicts are employed, and their earnings for the quarter netted the state $5,138.77. Two hundred and twenty-two men at the low salary of $15 per week in thirteen weeks would earn $43,290. Worked as the convicts are the men must certainly earn $20 per week. Thirteen weeks of labor of 222 men at this figure amounts to $57,720. This would leave a net profit to the contractors of $52,582.03 per quarter, or $210,328.12 per year. There is big money in employing convicts."

MISS AMES' RECITAL.—The entertainment to be given by Miss Ames next Wednesday evening at the University chapel, will be for the benefit of the students' library. The Pacific Christian Advocate says of her: "The entertainment given by Miss Stella Ames, the newly-elected teacher of elocution, last week, was successful in every particular. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the evening the spacious chapel was full of students, representative citizens, and the entertainment was worthy of the audience. Miss Ames had already won the hearts of her classes, and it was apparent at the close of the evening that she might depend on the verdict of the public."

IT GREW REDDIER.—The public debate at the State Insurance hall was exciting Saturday night. The attendance of young men and visitors was larger than ever and interest continues to grow. "Resolved, That the United States should protest against Russian persecution of the Jews," was decided in the negative. The proposed amendment to admit ladies as members was unanimously rejected. The question for next Saturday night is, "Resolved, That the United States should set apart the territory of Oklahoma for exclusive occupation by the African race."

VALUATION.—The state board of equalization may be interested to know that the Washington state board of equalization has just ended its session at Olympia, levying a three-mill tax for the state. The total reduction on all property was $22,772,288, leaving the actual equalized value of the state, including real, personal and railroad property, at $229,000,000. Of the reduction, $23,283,313 was on real property, $24,901 on personal and $414,074 on railroads.

THE LEPPER'S LANDS.—Dr. Payne of Eugene, was in Salem Sunday. He is the physician who has charge of J. H. Babcock, the leper, who has been segregated about a half mile out in the woods in a cabin. Dr. Payne has a power of attorney to dispose of young Babcock's property. The young man is well connected and his parents reside at Honolulu. He came to Salem a few years ago and bought five acres of fruit land of the Highland Land Co., and two lots at Riverside. J. C. Booth has sale of the leper's lands here.

AT THE CANNERY.—The season is nearly closed. Tomatoes will be received this week yet at 50 cts per hundred pounds. But the crop is nearly exhausted and as this is the last article in season for canning when work on tomatoes ceases the cannery will be practically shut down. Fifty hands are still employed.

WHISKY AND A SQUAW.

Form a Combination Destructive to the Peace of a Household and its Furniture.

Louis Gentile is a very good Indian half-breed and one of the best firemen in the Salem fire department. But like white men he has his domestic troubles. Of late some unprincipled female has been supplying his squaw with whisky. Mrs. Gentile is a hard working Indian woman, and a good wife and mother when not under the influence of liquor.

A ROW.—Sunday evening there was a terrible row in Louis' quarters. Mrs. Gentile armed with an ax, and partly intoxicated was driving all before her. She smashed the family dining table to pieces, cut the little boy on the wrist and threatened to chop all their heads off. The police took her to the city jail on complaint of her husband, and she will have a hearing this afternoon.

HAZLEWOOD'S CASE.—The colored man arrested at Ashland by Chief of Police Minto, (and not by a Jackson county deputy as THE JOURNAL gleaned from an Ashland paper) was to have a hearing at 10 a. m. today, but his case was continued to enable his friends to get bail for him.

SHERIFF'S REPORT.

Semi-Annual Statement Filed With the County Court.
Sheriff Croisan has today filed with the county court a statement of taxes received in coin and currency. No warrants were received, because they are at par, which is not the case in some counties.

LITERARY.—The Alka Hesperian Literary society last Saturday night decided to give a public entertainment to help the society defray its expenses during the winter. An address, music, recitations, and a public debate will constitute the program. It is to come off in about two weeks and will be a great success. Admission 25c. The committee are Robert Whitaker, J. H. McNary and C. B. Brown, and they propose to prepare the best program for the money that has ever been given in Salem.

FOR ST. MADELEN'S HOME.—Two sisters of the above named institution, which is located in East Portland for unfortunate women and ward girls, are in the city looking up aid for their charitable work. Let the good people of the capital city be liberal towards this most commendable work, as this is no local enterprise, but covers the entire state.

INSPECTOR.—Prof. Leek, of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived at Chemawa last week and has been making a careful inspection of Harrison institute. He will spend the balance of the week there. He seems to be well pleased with the development of the school and has confidence that it will be a great institution. There are 240 Indian children there now.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.—The contracts for paving twelve blocks have been scrutinized by the mayor and city officials and are to be ready to be signed up today when the dirt will begin to fly. Continuous rains have improved the streets by making the mud fluid so that it is easier hauling and where there is any grade it runs off.

A RARE TRACT.—The Evangelical church has contracted with Donald Downie for a series of his celebrated lectures for the benefit of the church. Napoleon and Japan will be presented by the best illustrations ever shown in Oregon. Remember the dates, November 9 and 10.

PROBATE.—The will of Elizabeth N. Hunt, wife of Geo. W. Hunt and mother of Captain M. W. Hunt, was admitted to probate Saturday. Mrs. Hunt leaves over $6000 in property, and appoints J. T. Hunt and F. M. Smith executors.

COURT IN LINE.—Judge Bole and Prosecutor Bigham took the morning local for Albany, where court will be opened today. A set docket of 124 cases awaits them, which means a great deal of solid work.

OH, SUGAR.—Of course, Farrar & Co. are the leaders on low prices, and are never undercut on anything.

Rescued from the Depths of Misery.
The misery induced by untimeliness, whose lives are forfeited in duty is un-speakable. Vertigo, headache, nausea, constipation, disorder of the digestive apparatus, heartburn, vertigo, neuralgia, scurvy of the throat, uneasiness beneath the short ribs and right shoulder blade, fickle appetite, are among the hateful indices of biliousness, which speedily vanish when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is employed as a regulator. Most effectually its work is done in an obdurate case. As a liver-bitter, it is unrivaled, and it is an admirable purgative of chronic constipation, rheumatism, and a superb general tonic and corrector.

Should be Punished.
Mr. L. H. Montayne, attorney of this city, has received the following letter from Rock Creek:

ROCK CREEK, Or., Oct. 21st.
I ask your advice concerning a bad boy, who lives in this vicinity. I cannot send my little girls to school or anywhere else alone on his account. They were coming home the other evening and met him, and he got down off his mule, and, making an indecent exposure, ran the girls as far as he dare, on account of being so close to the house. He gave them the second scare before I told him the father told me he had to leave his father home. He has insulted two other grown girls and two or three married ladies—one an old lady, who is a cripple. Now, if there can be anything done with him, the sooner the better.

MRS. JALEY W. FLOOK.
The case will be investigated by the authorities, and if the accusations prove true, vigorous punishment will, no doubt, follow.—Albany Herald.
