OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

Thanksgiving day is at hand. The holidays are not far off. Our minds easily dispose to gracious deeds of charity and kindness, if we only know what is wanted of us, or how or where our good will may show itself and incur no risk of rebuff, but be appreciated. In few ways can we show the gentler elements of our nature as in befriending some really friendless person, or some person to whom our friendship will prove helpful. We need not confine our efforts to invalids. There are the sick at heart and weary of soul who are possessed of no physical ailment. To comfort some old person merely with kindly inquiry and a simple interest in their welfare, if no more than to pay them a visit now and then, will repay us the compound interest of human love and a feeling of fellowship akin to the divine.

How difficult to picture one's self as friendless! How impossible to convey that feeling of blank despair that must attend existence in this world without a friend? No wonder so many commit suicide and write as the epitaph of their misery and loneliness—"I had not a friend in the world!" Yet there are many in the world who are destitute of friends and live. There are friendless men and women; friendless old people who know no home for the friendless on earth. The most pitiful of all fates on earth it is to be a friendless child. Children so much require tenderness and affection that to be friendless is to be a thousandfold orphaned. Kindness and love are more than air, food, life and light to a child. To be friendless is to be lost, in the very midst of a great, hard, unfeeling world. There is no sadder fate to contemplate than that of a friendless child. But because it is pitiful it enlists our sympathy. We are drawn toward it by the magnetism of innocence and the potent influence of youth in its own behalf. We do not feel the aversion that friendless old seldom fails to awaken in all but the kindest natures. The friendless child awakens responsive pity. Friendless old is by its nature repulsive and arouses prejudices.

Shakespeare pictures pity in the image of the new-born babe exposed to the blast of the hurricane. But he could find no image powerful enough to portray the misery of helpless, friendless old age. The most homelike home of the friendless is at best a mockery. To be homeless is to lose hope of happiness. To be friendless is to lose all real desire to live. So utterly incapable are we to imagine the mental view of a being that knows itself to be without a friend, there be few who know the pleasures of an ideal friendship. What constitutes the perfection of friendship? In this, as in everything else, it depends upon our own ideals as to what friendship is. While few are friendless, still fewer possess one true friend. By true we mean a perfect friend. Few are capable of perfect friendship. There are higher relations, purer devotions, but none of a sentiment more sublime than unadulterated friendship. Think of some one you thought your friend. The feelings in your breast had been the slow growth of years. Confidence united with respect to cement your mutual good will. You grew to regard each other in the light of perfect points of contact, some slight occurrence changes all. Your friend appears to you in a new light. He admires some one you despise. He takes sides on subjects where he has done something out of selfish motives—where you think he has acted, or spoken, not from the standpoint of platonic feeling, but from business interest. Your idol is shattered. Your soul draws within itself, disqualified to make another excursion into the realm of pure friendship.

A perfect friendship is seldom possible between relatives or persons connected by business interests. You cannot receive benefits nor make profit off your friend. You can do him a favor, but you cannot ask one. The laws of friendship are as imperious as those of the Medes and Persians. Damon and Pythias are hard parts to play. They cannot be played. They must be real or they do not exist.

HEDGING ON SILVER.

The Portland Telegram, and other Democratic Cleveland papers are hedging very nicely on the silver question. They figure out if their party could carry all the states that have declared for free silver, they would still not elect a Democratic president. So they say let us go in heavy on the tariff and let the silver question alone. The wise men of the Democratic press may be able to convince themselves by this sophistry that they are pursuing the right course. By the same process of reasoning they could relegate every important issue and say, let that alone for expediency's sake. It is not expedient that we serve you now, dear people, therefore wait a little longer, until it suits his excellency our candidate to change his views! The people may not wait. Sophistry for expediency will not always go down with the masses. They want more of the plain truth; and less of charlatany in dealing with their interests.

Rev. Louis Albert Banks, a native son of Oregon, now pastor of St. John's M. E. church, South Boston, has published another volume entitled: "White Slaves or Oppression of the Worthy Poor." His first, "The People's Christ," met with a fine reception.

A Republican defeat in Oregon next June would be a setback to the party all over the nation. It would inspire the Democracy and reanimate the third party with unusual hopes of success. There are but six months before that contest.

Governor Boies of Iowa, was elected by the aid of Republicans on state issues, upon which he could hardly rely in 1892, when the battle will be fought on national issues.

The Governor will not appoint successors to Messrs. De Lashmutt and Richardson until Dec. 1st.

THE NEW DISCOVERY.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever afterwards holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold, or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at Fry's drugstore, 225 Commercial street.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Dr. Whitaker goes to Medford to preach Sunday.
How do you like chapel education? It is very good and quite funny.
Superintendent Miles of the reform school was an accepted visitor on Tuesday.
School will be dismissed only one day for Thanksgiving, next week, Thursday.
The school will close on Wednesday at 3 p. m. Dec. 23 for Christmas, and will begin Monday, Jan. 4, 1892.
Rev. C. R. Kellerman and J. H. Rook attended chapel during the week. All the ministers of the city are very welcome.
The new term opened well. There is an enrollment of more than 222 new pupils, and a total enrollment of between 325 and 350.
Prof. Thornton, new teacher of German and French, has very enthusiastic classes. She was educated in Europe, and is most competent.
The new stairway is progressing well in the first story. New stairways will be put in on both sides east and west. There will be three flights in the first story, and two in the others, this will leave large halls on either side.

We had good rhetorical this week. An excellent recitation on "Thanksgiving," by Miss Myrtle Marsh, also by Miss Cook Martzell on "This Age." Frank Matthews on Catiline's Defiance." Miss Billa McCulloch read an essay on "Little Things."
This school will have a good normal class to graduate under the new law next June. Students completing the course will be given a B. S. D. degree and will be given the regular questions for normal schools and will get, if successful, a diploma from the state, permitting them to teach in schools in this state for six years. This combined with the great facilities of this school is attracting the attention of future teachers.

At the Harvest of Death
Much grain is prematurely reaped by the scythe of disease that might have ripened to a golden harvest. If "minor" bodily troubles had been attended to in time. Suffering is true death. This body, which is not only good as a vessel, but one of the noblest pieces of mechanism ever put together, is being prematurely reaped, and the harvest is being taken in a season of mourning. It is a tragedy that is being played out every day. It is a tragedy that is being played out every day. It is a tragedy that is being played out every day.

Have as equal as a prompt and positive cure for such troubles, biliousness, constipation, pain in the side, and all liver troubles. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Try them.
Must not be confounded with common cathartic or purgative pills. Carter's Little Liver Pills are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

CHURCH NOTES.

The last week was recommended by the Methodist ecumenical conference to be observed by all the churches of that denomination throughout the country as a week of special prayer for the divine blessing.

Rev. Father de Carolis of the Italian Catholic church of San Francisco has greatly improved the exterior appearance of the edifice by having it painted a delicate cream color.

Rev. A. P. Morrison, late of the Southern California Methodist conference, has been transferred to the Holston conference and stationed at Harrison, Tenn.

Rev. G. D. Pinneo, of the Methodist church, who has been laid aside from active duty by protracted and severe illness, is rapidly recovering.

The sudden death at San Jose a few days ago of Presiding Elder C. Y. Rankin of the San Francisco District Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is looked upon as a severe bereavement and irreparable loss to the Methodist church.

Rev. J. C. Willert has been formally installed by the presbytery pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, Tacoma, Wash.

Rev. N. H. G. Fife, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Pasadena, has had the pleasure this month of receiving twenty-three new members, making forty-seven in all received since his advent, a few weeks ago. He has announced a series of Sunday evening lectures on "The Life of Joseph."

The brick foundation of the Spanish Presbyterian Church to be erected at San Gabriel is being laid and the building material is on the lot. The latter consists of the Los Nietos church in pieces. The reconstruction in the new location will be pushed forward rapidly.

The fine parochial school building of St. Bridget's parish, San Francisco, built by the late lamented pastor, Rev. Father Birmingham, but now under charge of his successor, Rev. Father Cottle, is being repainted and improved. The church and the parochial residence will also be improved without delay.

The juvenile contingent of the "Army of the Lord," now gathering in "the Valley of Decision," under the name and title of "Boys' Brigade," are massing themselves. At a meeting of the various companies comprising the Boys' Brigade of the Congregational churches of San Francisco they formed themselves into the "Pilgrim Battalion," Rev. W. N. Meserve, commander. Headquarters, 122 McAllister street.

It is stated that Rev. A. J. Wells and Rev. R. M. Webster, two Congregational ministers of Southern California, made addresses before the Unitarian conference recently held at Los Angeles, indicating a decided leaning to the "liberal" faith. Their Congregational brethren are said to be in deep mourning over their defection.

The Fred Finch Orphanage in Fruitvale, Alameda county, to which Captain and Mrs. D. B. Finch some time since donated a house and about six acres of choice land as a site, will be opened on New Year's. Miss Urmy, Clay and Fourteenth streets, Oakland, will give information and receive donations. Mrs. Strenzler of Martinez sends $50.

At the recent dedication of a new and beautiful Congregational church in Pasadena two of the three original hymns sung were written by the venerable Rev. Dr. Benton, senior professor in the Pacific Theological Seminary, Oakland. In the handsome grounds surrounding the church Dr. Hill, the pastor, has planted "cedars of Lebanon" and other trees and shrubs from Palestine mentioned in the Bible.

MISCELLANY.

FOR FINE COINAGE.
DENVER, Nov. 21.—The committee on resolutions appointed by the mining congress have agreed upon their report declaring that the certificates of the government, backed dollar for dollar by gold or silver coin on deposit in the treasury of the United States, is a safe and sound currency and has been approved by the people; that the first national mining congress is unalterably in favor of the principle of bi-metallicism; that gold and silver (not one to the exclusion of the other) are the money metals of the constitution; that gold and silver should have by law equal rights, uses and monetary purposes, and to that end demand of the congress of the United States the enactment of laws by which silver shall be coined free in all mints equally with gold, and to have with it a full and unrestricted monetary power, and that they be in the ratio of sixteen to one; and when coined is represented by treasury notes each dollar shall represent 412½ grains of standard silver, or 25.8 grains of gold.

Whereas, The supreme court of the United States has decided "that the exemption of mineral lands from grants in the acts of congress should be considered to apply only to such lands as were at the time of the grant known to be so valuable for their minerals as to justify expenditure for their extraction," and Whereas, This decision of the supreme court, if it should become a law, would invest the Pacific railway companies holding grants of land from the government with a vast number of the best mines discovered within the limits of said grants by prospectors and miners who have located thereon in good faith, and developed and sold therein in the honest belief that the said grants were limited to agricultural lands only, as declared in the acts of congress making them.

Resolved, That this congress protest against any construction of the statutes of the United States which will result in such a system of wholesale confiscation and the consequent enrichment of the great combination already enjoying the bounty of government, and calls upon the representatives of the people in congress assembled to take such prompt and immediate action as may be within the constitutional prerogative to destroy the threatened danger.

Resolved, That the alien act, so far as it operates to exclude foreign capital from investment in mining lands in the territories, is false in principle and pernicious in effect, and demands immediate repeal.

TREATED AS SLAVES.
PITTSBURG, Nov. 21.—Complaint was made to the Humane Society at Washington, Pa., several days ago that eleven negroes recently brought to the Snowden mines of the Pittsburgh and Chicago Gas Coal Company were being ill-treated. An investigation disclosed a condition of affairs bordering on slavery. The men were brought from Roanoke, Va., by a Pittsburg employment agency, who represented good situations as coachmen and waiters. Only three of the lot were miners. The real purpose was to put them to work in place of the white miners who had been for some weeks on a strike. They rebelled at the idea of going into the mines, but as the company had been to an expense of $5000 for transportation, supplies tools, and shanties for the new men, and there was a charge against each man for carfare and supplies and utensils, they were told they would have to work this out. Meanwhile, ten men from a Pittsburgh detective agency had been hired by the company ostensibly to guard the black men from assault at the hands of the striking whites. The real purpose seems to have been that the detectives should see that no black man escaped. The second day the men were at work one of them was killed by an explosion. The others stampeded, but were ordered back as soon as the body had been removed. Eight of them have since escaped. The testimony of whites and blacks is that the others are kept on the ground by fear. The detectives hand-cuffed the refractory ones, discharged their revolvers over their heads and threatened them with a workhouse sentence until they consented to enter the mines. They are fed on Bologna sausage, cheese and bread.

SUIT FOR A REWARD.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Russell J. Wilson, chairman of the Democratic state central committee,
