"SLUICING IT OUT."

That is What a Councilman Says the Present City Administration Does With the Money.

A reporter asked an experienced city official in what way the present city council could be improved.

"By throwing them all off the big bridge."

"What is the matter with them?"

"They do nothing but just sluice out the money. There is not a man of them has the courage to interpose an objection to a single bill. They are all popularity seekers. I am disgusted with them."

He was evidently feeling deeply all he said.

"Don't they transact a good deal of legislation and transact considerable business?"

"Yes—the city attorney does. Everything is referred to him. He does all the legislating. He foots up the report and approves them. They are never looked into by the council."

"Well, you can't blame the city attorney for acting upon what is referred to him and furnishing brains when he is called upon to."

"But look at his bills for it. The councilmen shirk all the work and pay the city attorney, street commissioner and engineer for doing it at their own terms. The bills allowed for these officials average from one hundred to three hundred dollars a month."

"What are you going to do about it?"

"I believe I shall not meet with the boys any more. I do not like the loose way things are run."

ACCIDENT.—M. D. Gilley, father of Mrs. E. M. Law of the Kansas house stepped off the back porch of that hotel Thursday night at 9 o'clock. It was only about two feet down, but he received a severe fall, breaking his leg at the knee and fracturing a rib. It is quite a serious injury as he is an old gentleman.

PROHIBITION.—At a meeting held this morning, the opera house was engaged for next Friday evening when there will be an address by John Lloyd Thomas, secretary of the national organization.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—Union services will be held at the Episcopal church, with a sermon by Rev. Gwynne. Also preaching at the North Salem Friends church, and at the South Salem M. E. church.

SOCIAL EVENT.—Company B's second ball of the season will be given at the armory on the evening of Nov. 25, Wednesday. The grand march takes place promptly at 9 o'clock. Tickets $1.00.

BIG BRIDGE BOSH.

The Viewers Report No Bolts Loose—Two Snags Deposited—Needs Painting.

"We the Commissioners," the viewers appointed by the county court to examine the big free bridge at Salem, have reported. They recommend further employment of "persons to find out," etc., whether anything is the matter with the bridge or not. Here is

THE REPORT.

"We first examined the substructure as well as we could with the means at our command, and would most respectfully recommend that the court employ some person or persons, properly prepared to do such work, to ascertain whether the high waters of 1890-91 have done any damage in the shape of washing out around the piers or foundation of said structure, as we deem this the most important feature of the whole structure.

"We also discovered that there are now two snags deposited around the larger or east pile, that might cause a washout if not removed, and would have a tendency to entangle more drift-wood. We would therefore recommend that said snags be removed.

"Second — We have given the superstructure a pretty thorough examination and find it in good repair, except the tension of some of the rods and lateral braces. They need to be tightened so as to make the strain more even, as we discovered that some of the braces are doing far more work than others, which causes a heavy vibration when loads are passing over the bridge. We find this equally necessary to be done to both the steel spans at each end of said bridge.

"And further, we beg leave to report that we failed to find any nuts and bolts missing in the whole of said bridge. Those are all the repairs that we deem necessary to be made at present, except we would recommend that next season the said bridge be well painted with one coat of some good mineral paint and linseed oil well put on, and not to be whitewashed again with iron rust and water as before.

"And we would further recommend that the court, in place of contracting, would employ some good responsible man or men to do said work."

HORSE CAR LITIGATION.

What the Injunction People Have to say—Delay of Proceeding's.

A reporter tackled one of the attorney's for the parties who have the injunction suit in court to restrain sale of the Salem Street railway. He said:

"We do not object to the delay."

"What are you seeking to accomplish?"

"We don't want the chattel mortgagee to gobble it all up at his own price. A little time may find a purchaser at much more favorable terms to protect the interests of all the owners."

"How long will it take?"

"Oh, we do not know that. It can be disposed of by next of court."

"Suppose you can't find anyone to give a better price?"

"We shall make on effort to have the proprety disposed of on more favorable terms, as I said before."

"Will you not delay the reorganization of the property and its improvement?"

"Well, it may some, but that is not our fault."

KANSAS HOUSE.

Improvements at the Leading Salem Dollar Hotel.

"We have been here three years and have never had a guest dissatisfied. A good share of the time we are running chuck up full. We aim to give the public their money's worth and our success shows that they think so. Yes, I will show you through with pleasure," said Mr. E. M. Law, the proprietor.

Off the bright and cosy dining room is a ladies sitting room that looks out on the streets; also a gent's smoking and reading room. There are twenty-four sleeping rooms besides the family's private apartments. All the conveniences of hotel life are at hand. No Chinese cookery—Mrs. Law sees to it all with competent help. Miss Law, a daughter of 18, is waiter. The hotel is located opposite Minto & Low's livery stable, and has been improved throughout and enlarged more than one-half.

DR. RICHARDSON OBJECTS.

Is Not This Dictation in City Politics by the State House Land Ring?

A Republican city committeeman says Dr. Richardson, chairman of the Republican city committee, opposed placing the call for the Republican primaries in the columns of THE JOURNAL. The chairman would not give his reasons, except that he did not wish to recognize this paper in the placing of the notice, and used all the influence of his position against it.

As THE JOURNAL never knowingly reflected upon, or did Dr. Richardson any injury, personal, political or otherwise, a reporter was sent to ascertain the reasons for his hostility, and why he should seek to use his position to attack THE JOURNAL and its friends. No reason could be learned. From a more than close friend it is ascertained that the doctor's objections arose from certain criticisms in these columns on the state house land ring in 1890. Does the Republican city chairman wish to take up the fight of the state house land ring? If he has any other good reasons why he should object to the Republican readers of this paper having the call of their primaries printed in its columns, these columns are open for him to state them.

A GRAND TURKEY SHOOT.

Have a Good old Fashioned Time and get a Thanksgiving Turkey.

On Wednesday, Nov., 24th beginning at 1 o'clock p. m. there will be a grand turkey shoot near Simpson's addition on the electric line. About one hundred choice turkey's have been secured by Simpson & Rogers of the "Electric" grocery store, and will be shot off by the marksmen of Salem and vicinity. All are invited to participate. Bring your shotguns and rifles. A competent committe will be in charge and present the rule of shooting on the grounds. Take the electric car, have a good shoot and walk off with a turkey. SIMPSON & ROGERS.

CERES FESTIVAL.

Everyone is going to the Thanksgiving entertainment for the benefit of the Unitarian church. It is to be the finest home talent entertainment ever given in Salem. The lines are full of beauty, the tabelaux will be the finest ever seen here, and the costuming both accurate and artistic. No one ought to miss the posing, now being prepared under the direction of Mrs. Ross of Portland.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

CERES.—Goddess of the Harvest, Mrs. Olive S. England.

Spring, Mrs. Jay Smith; March, Jas. Ross; April, Mrs. Riley; May, Miss Stump.

THE FRIENDS.

A Successful Initiation of Salem Quarterly Meeting.

The first Salem quarterly meeting will have an attendance of two hundred. They are here from Marion, Newberg, Dundee and other places, and tax the full capacity of the Highland Park church. Oregon is rapidly settling up with the Friends.

There is a large attendance from Newberg. Already there are six societies and quarterly meetings has heretofore been held at Newberg This is the first in Salem. The Newberg meeting has 750 members.

REV. T. C. BROWN,

pastor at Kokomo, Ind., is in charge of the quarterly meeting, and is a very able preacher. He gives the hearer something to think about. His words are fraught with great refreshment to the faithful of this denomination. A steady stream of the Friends are coming to the coast, and Oregon seems to just suit their habits of peaceful industry and non-resistance except to the allurements of the world.

Salem welcomes the assemby of Friends. It is the city of peace and prosperity. They are welcome to all Oregon, a state favorable to moisture, sure crops and heavenly contemplation.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The river is steadily coming up.

Wheat is 90 cts. all through the county.

A. Savage went to Portland for a short trip.

Supt. McElroy came down from Albany today.

Geo. Collins and wife left on the afternoon train for Portland to be absent over Sunday.

Dr. Keene made a flying trip to Portland, and will return this evening.

Sheriff Croisan is in Woodburn this afternoon.

Richard Holman left on the afternoon train for Gervais.

Another Oregon pioneer of 1866 died at Stayton—Joel Sanford, aged 78 years.

The desks for the two new school houses have arrived—336 in all. They cost $1236.

THE JOURNAL is not edited by outside interested parties. Its errors are its own and cannot be shoved off on some one else.

Anton Olinger is confined to bed from a fall from a scaffold of the Christian tabernacle at Turner.

The bears at Portland and their organs through the state are fighting hard to get wheat down.

"The Merry Gypsies," introduced in the farcical comedy, "A Quick Match," by the Misses May and Bertha Noss has made a decided hit.

"If you want to hear music made from old junk bottles and broken china, do not fail to see this specialty in The Noss Jollities' 'Quick Match.'"

J. B. Ely of Morrow county, accompanied by his wife are visiting in Salem and Marion county. They came out overland from Iowa in 1852 with Mrs. Fisher on Front street and Lewis Stout of Mehama. They go to Independence and McMinnville before returning.

THE JOURNAL has always been an advocate of building up home interests and letting the newspapers of other towns look after their own interests. It is no new discovery in the management of this paper.

Model servants and mischievous children can be found only in the Noss Jollities' comedy, "A Quick Match."

James K. Polk Calbot, who, recently had an operation performed for fistula, is doing well at the Kansas house.

Turkey talk is not so cheap as it might be just now, but if you want a first-class Thanksgiving dinner that will set well and not break you all up, step around to Ed. C. Cross's markets and order a rare racy roast.

Pimples.

The old idea was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion. I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."
