FROM BLOOD POISONING.

Death of the Turner Man Who Had His Hand Cut Off.

Andrew Stanton, the young man who shot himself through the hand while hunting near Shedd's, Linn county, died at Turner, Nov. 24, from blood poisoning.

Salem physicians amputated his hand at the wrist, but the operation was performed too late. "Py-emia" had set in and could not be overcome. Had he received proper attention immediately his wound need not have proved fatal.

THE PRIMARIES.—Republicans read the primaries' law in this issue and get out to the primaries Saturday according to notice in these columns. Now is the time to do your duty by the party and see that good strong, clean, able men are put in for aldermen. The judges and clerks selected and named in the call should not fail to attend. They are well known persons, and if they are not present at the appointed time bystanders will be appointed and in this there is great danger of dissatisfaction to the party. Let the Republicans turn out to these primaries and do their duty well, and the foundation for good political work by the party is laid.

CLEVELAND'S MINSTRELS.—On Monday the 30th, W. S. Cleveland will bring his new organization of black-faced talent to this city, what he calls "The Eiffel tower of minstrelsy." The company has been well received throughout the east during the present season. The Louisville Courier-Journal says of the show: "The Temple theatre was packed to its utmost capacity last night and the standing room only sign was hung out long before the curtain went up. It was a fashionable audience, too, which is a proof that refined minstrelsy still retains its hold on the better class of theatre goers as well as upon the gallery gods. Seats on sale at Patton's."

O. O. F.—A party of Salem Odd Fellows were out to Silverton the evening of to join in fraternal work with the live order at that place. There were: John Knight, Orin Barker, G. O. Burnett, Wm.
Westcott, J. G. Remsen and Prof.
Yoder. A number of Woodburn gentlemen were up and took the necessary degree to enable them to start a camp at Woodburn where the order flourishes.

THE COURT OF CERES.

Reed's Opera House Packed to Overflowing.

A THANKSGIVING FESTIVAL.

Ceres and her Realm Entertain Salem's Best People.

At the opera house last evening the Festival of Ceres, given by the Unitarian society, was greeted by a throng of houseful of Salem's fashionable, cultured and wealthy denizens. The auditorium was densely packed, and the gallery well filled. Indeed, this much talked of entertainment was a grand success.
The stage was neatly decorated with grains and other articles appropriate to the harvest theme. Part one opened with the chorus of vestal virgins, composed of Misses Hughes, Johnson, Hutton, Stapleton, Steiner, Golden, Beemer and Gunnison, led by the high priestess, Miss Anna Metschan, who received the great Ceres, Greek goddess of the harvest, sister of Zeus, representative of the gods on earth. This part was grandly taken by Mrs. Wm. England, who presided throughout with a grace and dignity worthy the high station.

Mrs. Jay C. Smith well represented Orestes, the angel of spring, ably assisted by Jas. Ross as Mars, Mrs.
Chas. Riley as Venus and Miss Jessie Stump as May. This part was happily closed with a May-Pole dance rendered by a dozen bright young people.

Part second was opened by the beautiful Ceres summoning the spirit of summer. Miss Golden with her petite attendants in chorus, also Miss Griffith as Juno, and her fairies in the moonlight quadrille were unique features, greatly appreciated by the enthusiastic audience. Miss Steiner's Goddess of liberty was a good representation of that only American goddess. Del Dinsmore as Brother Jonathan was simply immense, even if he did have some trouble in keeping his chin whiskers in place. Harvey Jordan took the part of Helios owing to the sickness of Hugh Thompson, and considering his limited experience at the business, made a very good sun god. The haymakers' chorus by the quartet club was a happy close.

The next part was that of autumn and her months, September and October, being well represented by Misses Scriber and Dinsmore. This was followed by a series of plastic groupings, the posing having been arranged and carried out by Mrs.
Ross of Portland, assisted by a bevy of Salem's "fair women," the effects of which were truly artistic, and the work reflects great credit on the lady in charge. Next followed November, the last of autumn's train, neatly presented by Miss Stapleton, closing with a beautiful Thanksgiving tableau.

Miss Arbogast, as the snow queen made the most attractive figure, while Horace Willis sustained his part of Jack Frost (December) with becoming frigidity. A Christmas tableau, with Col. Holland as Santa Claus, was well received, Will Plasterer as the old year, Walter Denton as Juno, and little Anna Strong as the infant new year made a striking group, and the parts were appropriately taken in all giving an excellent idea of continued winter.
Geo. Morris as St. Valentine (February) was in his element. He made the large audience truly glad by presenting Love with her cupids. The solo from Gounod, "Sing, Smile, Slumber," by Mrs. Thomas, was so thoroughly and justly enjoyed that a reappearance was necessary. The entertainment closed with a grand national chorus from all the performers, which was a fitting end for so pleasant an evening's program.

As the curtain dropped Eugene Willis stepped out and read a request signed by many in the audience to have the great entertainment repeated at an early day, and stated if the society decided to comply the fact would be announced in the daily papers. May it be repeated is the wish of all.

MRS. ROSS,
It will be remembered, is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Bryman. She is a graduate of the Boston conservatory and resides at Portland.
This cultured lady contributed her time and talents for the success of this entertainment, and places the people of Salem under great obligations for her artistic treat. It is to be hoped she may appear before the people of our city again.

THE RESULT.
As nearly as can be learned the net proceeds of the enterprise were about $250, which will be devoted to the furnishing of the society's new church. The festival will not be repeated, as the Methodist people and several others have entertainments coming on.

THIRD PARTY MEN.—Those who believe in a third party prohibition movement will be given an opportunity at Reed's opera house this evening. The Hon. John L.
Thomas, national secretary and organizer will deliver an address and then a club will be organized on the campaign work. The temperance people of the city and all who are opposed to the liquor traffic are invited to be present.

Women's Work at the World's Fair.
On Monday Mrs. Allen of Portland, one of the members of the National Board of World's Fair commissioners, will be in Salem to talk up world's fair matters with the ladies of the capital city. Mrs. Allen has been elected corresponding secretary of the National Board.
She will speak on the duty of Oregon women, at the M. E. church at 2 p. m. Monday, and all ladies interested are invited to be present.

A WALDO HILLS WEDDING.

The Happy Event Quietly Celebrated at the Home of Thos. T. Geer near Nasleay.

MARRIED.

GEER-DOWNING.—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
T. T. Geer, on the evening of Wednesday, Nov. 25, 1891, Theodosia Geer and Harry C. Downing.
At 8 o'clock Rev. H. L. Barclay, a presiding elder of the United Brethren church performed the ceremony in the nicely decorated parlors of Hon. T. T. Geer's new residence on his Waldo Hills farm.

A company of guests from the neighborhood, composed mostly of relatives of the contracting parties, were present, as follows:
THE GUESTS.

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Barclay, of Woodburn; L. J. Eoff, Mrs. Mary Eoff; Mr. and Mrs. Benton Patton, Mr. and Mrs. John Patton; Mr. and Mrs. Cass. Albright; Mr. and Mrs.
Jo. Jones, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs.
Marion Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Downing; Mrs. Clymer, Mrs.
Hamilton, Mrs. Ed. Downing; John and Robt. Patton, Frank Briggs, Nick Eoff, Julian C. Clymer; Misses Allice Eoff, Matilda Hunt, Eva and Zelma Patton, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, Salem.

A fine supper was served to the company, and the evening spent in that happiness of wedding festivities, that is always manifested when a well-matched pair begins life under the most favorable auspices. There was music, song, good stories and mirth, besides general felicitation.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. Geer, who was speaker in the last legislation. The groom is a son of Hon. John Downing, well known in Marion county. He lately returned from Chicago, where he spent several years mastering his trade, and now has a position as jeweler at W. W. Martin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Downing were entertained on Thanksgiving day at Benton Patton's and in the evening drove in to Salem, to take up their residence at Salem, in a new home on 14th street, where they will be happy to see their friends.

WITH THANKFUL HEARTS.

The Day of National Thanksgiving Was Kept in Public and Private.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICES were held at the Episcopal church.
The house was very crowded. After the usual service of the church, Rev.
Lund was assisted by Revs. Whitaker, and Kellerman in the reading of scripture. The sermon was in Dr. Gwynne's best style, and Dr.
Corwin gave the benediction. The church was richly decorated.

THE M. E. LADIES scored a success in their church dinner, and netted a good sum for their church work. The dinner is well spoken of and kept them busy from noon until 4 o'clock serving meals.

AT CHIMAWA.
A Thanksgiving dinner was served to all the pupils and employees. In the evening a concert was given in honor of the day, consisting of music, recitations and addresses. The Indian boys and girls will always remember their Thanksgiving day of 1891. Three hundred pounds of turkey, a barrel of cranberries and other eatables in abundance were consumed, thanks to Supt. Irwin's thoughtfulness.

THE W. C. T. U. gave a grand dinner for 25 cents, netting some $40. In the evening a 10 cent lunch was served to a good many. To judge from the attendance at the restaurants Salem has a population of fifteen to twenty thousand.

AT THE POOR FARM
there was a joyful Thanksgiving.
If Supt. McCormick had not been done up with rheumatism there is no telling what he might have done, but as it was the following bill of fare was served at 2:30 p. m.: Roast turkey, chicken, pig stuffed with oysters, ham, tongue, mashed potatoes, celery, cranberry sauce, jelly, cheese, tarts, bread, pumpkin and blackberry pies, jelly-cake, fruit, candy, walnuts, almonds, coffee, tea, milk.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Ida Dinsmore returned to Stanton today.

A Thanksgiving ball was given at Aurora.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs.
Maiden, a son, Nov. 22, 1891.

The home of Rudolph Effer on Kaiser Batoon is happy over a Thanksgiving present in shape of a fine boy.

Thos. Ryan, of The Dalles, has been committed to the penitentiary for three years.

THE JOURNAL is not doing much blowing but its NEW YEAR'S edition will be a world-buster, just as it was last year.

At its meeting Saturday night Cheamoketa lodge, No. 1, O. O. F., elected officers as follows: H. A.
Thomas, N. G.; W. J. Moore, V. G.; Wm. Frost, Rec. Sec.; Isaac Conklin, Per. Sec.; J. G. Wright, treasurer.

Joel Hewitt says his brother-in-law E. T. Melvin, of South Dakota is en route for Salem.

Mary E. Layman, of Jackson county has been brought to the asylum. She is the wife of James H.
Layman of Brownborough, Or.
This is her third attack.

Prof. J. B. Horner, recently elected a professor at the State Agricultural college at Corvallis, was in the city today.

For eastern circulation, or anywhere else,—that is what we are getting out a New Year's edition for.

Thos. McVane will serve a six months term for counterfeiting. He was brought up from Portland Saturday night by Dep. U. S. Marshal Miller.

A tramp tried unsuccessfully to break into Robt. Whitaker's house while the family were eating a Thanksgiving dinner at John P.
Robertson's.

Rev. Dr. Hartwell of San Francisco, Supt. of Chinese Mission work on the Pacific coast, is in the city.
He is the guest of Rev. Robt.
Whitaker.

Francis Murphy, the world famous temperance orator will commence a series of gospel temperance meetings Sunday next, in the tabernacle, which will probably last two weeks. Mr. Murphy has been invited by the ministers of Portland, who, it is expected, will take right hold of the movement, and push it to a successful conclusion.

R. E. Woods, of Great Falls, Mont., has been in the city the past week and returned home yesterday after having purchased a fruit tract in Hampden Park. He will settle here with his family in January.

J. T. Bowles and two guards brought three convicts to the pen-today; Edward Seegmond for larceny, two years; John Lindsay, assault, six months; John Holt, ditto.

The military ball at the Armory Thanksgiving eve, was attended by about one hundred happy people, and the boys in blue scored another success.

Thirty-five turkeys were shot off at the big match in Simpson's addition Wednesday afternoon. At least 300 people participated, and the sports had a grand target practice.
Henry Meyers is reported to have made the best shot, driving the tack in the center of the target. Al Herren walked off with the most turkeys.

From the number of people who took dinner at Strong's yesterday, one would judge Salem had grown to be a city of 20,000 people.

MARRIED.
COLEMAN-CASEY.—In St. Paul, Nov. 23, 1891, Helen L. Coleman, of St. Paul and J. J. Casey, of East Portland.

S. V. A. GLEASON.—At St. Joseph's church, Salem, Nov. 25, 1891, Ettie Savage, daughter of John Savage of this city and Louis B. Gleason, of St. Louis. Father White officiating.

GRIFFITH-McMAHON.—At M. E. parsonage, Salem, Friday Nov.
27, 1891, at 10 a. m., Miss Marguerite L. Griffith of Salem to L. H. McMahon of Woodburn. Rev.
C. R. Kellerman officiating.

The bride is the sister of Mrs.
S. G. Grubbe and of Dr. Griffith, asylum physician. The groom is well known in this county as editor of the Woodburn Independent.
The wedding was a very quiet affair, Mr. and Mrs. McMahon taking the 11 o'clock train for Newport, where they will spend a month.

DIED.
FARRENS.—At her home near Eight Mile, Nov. 10, 1891, at 3 p. m., Mrs. Eliza Farrens, wife of J.
P. M. Farrens, and mother of Mrs.
Annie Gilliam, of Heppner.

We take the above from a Heppner paper. The remains were buried near Hardman by the Odd Fellows.

ACCIDENT.—On

Thanksgiving day afternoon Philip Metschan, Jr., the 15-year-old son of State Treasurer Metschan, broke his right arm between the elbow and wrist. He was playing in the yard, and while running fell, and his arm was fractured. A physician set the arm, and the boy was soon resting well.
Fortunately Mrs. Metschan has returned from California, and he will have the best of care.

At the Harvest of Death Much grain is prematurely reaped by the scythe of disease that lights have ripened to a golden maturity. If "minor" body troubles had been attended to in time, Nothing is truer than this—bodily ailments not only grow apace, but beget one another. Thus biliousness, constipation, dyspepsia follow close on the heels of one another, forcing together, the one perperating the other, and begetting a numberous progeny of later ailments more or less severe as their cause is more or less diseased and neglected. Incipient rheumatism, sciatica and "saint" insanity of the kidneys, of what dire disaster they are the cause when no or but slight attention is paid to their early warnings. Check these "minor" ailments with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and forestall the inexorable reaper, who exacts the forfeiture of life as the penalty for disregarding the means of preserving it.

Magie Pyramid and Fairies Floral Festival is the next on the program at Reed's opera house, Dec. 4th.
The latest production. This entertainment is the leading attraction in the larger cities of the east. The Methodist young people are making a noble effort to get a good library, and offer this magnificent entertainment to the Salem people for that purpose. Reserved seats at Dear-born's.

The World Enriched.
The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

WANTED.—Hides, pelts and furs, and all the fat Thanksgiving turkeys and other poultry in Polk and Marion counties. Highest cash price paid at Davidson & White's wholesale and retail fish, game and poultry depot, 94 Court street, Salem, Oregon. 11-11-4w

Bad Blood.
Impure or vitiated blood is sometimes out of ten caused by some form of constipation or indigestion that clogs up the system, when the blood naturally becomes impregnated with the effete matter.
The old Sarsaparilla attempt to reach this condition by attacking the blood with the drastic mineral "poison." Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is modern. It goes to the seat of the trouble.
It cures the liver, kidneys and bowels and invigorates the circulation, and the impurities are quickly carried off through the natural channels.

Charles Lee, at Beulah's Third and Market Sts., S. E., writes: "It took me four bottles of blood and while on the first bottle I became convinced of its merits, for I could feel it was working a change. It cleansed, purified and braced me up generally, and everything is now working full and regular."
