SALEM GRANGE—Officers were elected Saturday for the ensuing year: Master, J. B. Stump; overseer, F. R. Smith; lecturer, John P. Robertson; steward, O. J. O'Jory; assistant steward, M. A. Minto; chaplain, May Jory; secretary, L. B. Leabo; treasurer, Geo. H. Croisan; gate keeper, J. Miller; Ceres, Z. H. Fletcher; Flora, Clara E. Smith; lady assistant steward, Kate Watt. Resolutions were adopted in favor of the United States government becoming a principal owner or controller of the proposed Nicaragua canal, and that it advance money or bonds in sufficient sum, and in such manner as to finish that important work for use in the least possible time consistent with true economy. Also a preamble and resolutions in regard to demanding the mountains to the effect that all public lands of the United States over 4000 feet above the sea level ought to be withdrawn from sale or settlement, and that as a measure of safety to the forest growth on such mountain lands and in the interest of our animal industries these mountains should be let to stock men for grazing purposes under the supervision of the forestry bureau of the department of agriculture.

"CALAMITY"—Supt. Downing has returned the much-abused mare "Calamity," and is now in good order, and if at all well cared for is good for many years' work. Horses are so cheap that the old mare will probably not sell for much and may have to be killed to get rid of her. Some kind person should take this old animal and not allow it again to be turned out to die. There is no politics in this and THE JOURNAL believes in sticking by its friends even if they are old and poor.

We mean what we say, when albums are 20 per cent. lower at Dearborn's book store, than any place in the city.

THE FAIR CLOSURE.

Bean Cassers, Pumpkin Gambling and Popular Ladies' Votes.

It was a success. The entertainments were all good—above the average. A score of the evenings' amusements was carefully kept and the contest for the $25 prize, that was to be awarded for best evening, was decided upon points as follows: Monday—W. F. Dugan, 132; Tuesday—Mrs. Chas. R. Ryley, 147; Wednesday—R. H. Ryley, 170; Thursday, Mrs. Wm. England, 143; Friday, Miss Stella Ames, 141; Saturday—Miss Pearl Scott, 170. This score shows a tie between Miss Scott and Mr. Ryley, and they divide the honors and the award.

The committee experienced great difficulty in deciding the matter.

THE OTHER PRIZES.

Report on the voting and guessing at the G. A. R. Fair.

Votes on gold watch to most popular lady: Mary Sayre 129; Bessie Sherman 235; Annie Briggs 342.

Votes on writing desk to most popular teacher: Mattie McNary 96; Jessie Northup 139; scattering 6.

There were 311 seeds in the pumpkin. Geo. Aitken guessed 305, and took the rocker.

There were 792 beans in the bottle. W. A. H. Folger guessed 784 and takes the bolt of muslin.

MONDAY NIGHT.

It has been decided to hold the fair one more evening and R. H. Ryley has consented to occupy the boards with his company of asylum attendants.

A MUSIC PROGRAM by the Second Regiment band has been arranged as follows: March—Second Regiment by J. M. Coomer.

Overture—Night in New York Waltz—Over the Waves

Elegie Corset solo—Russian Fantasia Overture—Jolly Minstrel

Baritone solo—R. H. Ryley Giddiater—By Request

THE BAND BENEFIT. By Request of the G. A. R. and other citizens, the Asylum Dramatic Company will repeat the comedy in one act, entitled:

THE CROWDED HOTEL.

WHO FOR CONGRESS?

Interview as to the outlook on the Democratic Side—Colonel Miller's Opinion.

There is a good deal of quiet drifting being done in the Democratic mining regions of this district at present to discover an available candidate for congress.

A JOURNAL reporter ran against Colonel Bob Miller of Jacksonville, who made the run on the Democratic ticket against H-rmann in 1890, and whose friends are again hoping he may be permitted to lead the hosts in this district. He was asked as to the situation and this is WHAT COLONEL MILLER SAID.

"Among candidates mentioned in our party are Weatherford, Myers, D'Arcy and Veatch. They are the most prominent. There are other men talked of but no one seems to lead at present.

"If the Farmers' Alliance keep up an aggressive organization and will endorse Veatch, he will doubtless be the nominee. If the Republicans would nominate a man who could divide the Farmers' Alliance vote, that would minimize Veatch's chances."

THE TICKET AND PLATFORM.

Governor Penney's idea of a Strong Combination to Enter the Field with in 1892.

A JOURNAL reporter asked Governor Penney questions upon the two topics of vital interest in the coming presidential election. His reply was:

TICKET AND PLATFORM.

"I would make the ticket Flower and Bland. That would make the strongest combination we could put in the field."

"How would you write the platform?"

"Opposition to favoritism in financial and tariff legislation I would make the vital issues of our platform, together with the passage of an income tax law compelling the wealth of the country to help bear its burdens."

DEMOCRATIC PAPER.—It is again rumored that a Democratic paper is to be started at Salem, with Governor Penney as a large stockholder. The governor was seen but declines all knowledge of it. He says the last thing he can afford to have would be an organ, as he prefers to be his own mouth piece, and organs he does not believe in. There would seem to be room in the state for an organ to oppose the Simon Democracy.

INCORPORATED.—The Baker City Gold and Silver Mining Co., by Isidor Fuchs and others, stock $200,000; Corvallis Cannery & Ice Co., increases capital stock to $30,000; Washington Gulch Mining Co., by S. M. Keeman and others of Baker county, stock $125,000; Masonic Temple association of Portland, $40,000.

HAS IRWIN RESIGNED?—The only confirmation of the rumor that Supt. Irwin of Harrison Institute, the Indian training school at Chemawawa, had resigned to re-enter the ministry, lies in the fact that a number of gentlemen are in the field to secure the position that would be made vacant.

SIGHT SEEING.—Capt. E. S. Edwards, U. S. Inspector steam vessels, and Capt. Helm, U. S. steamer Gedney, Jas. A. Stephens, Mrs. Edwards, and two Misses Collins, all of Portland, came up in a party on the Bentley. They are visiting the state institutions and inspecting the capital city.

THE NEWEST.—Geo. F. Smith has added a series of 5, 10, 15, 20, 25 and 50 cent counters, on which buyers will find the rarest bargains ever in the city.

CITY RECORDER'S COURT.—Considerable business was done this morning. One vagrant was given five days; one city drunk paid cash; two county drunks also paid $10.40 each. H. Dutton was arrested Saturday for indecent conduct and had his hearing. He was bound over to the grand jury and sent to the county jail.

WASHOUT.—High waters carried out a bridge a short distance this side of Albany Sunday forenoon. The overflow came through all right, but the Roseberg local was detained six hours. Today trains are all on time.

GOOD MEETING.—The Alliance meeting Sunday afternoon at Re. d's opera house was attended by nearly a hundred people who listened to an able talk by M. V. Rork, state organizer.
