NUMBER ONE.—Senator Mitchell has taken step number one toward opening the Willamette river, by introducing a bill Dec. 14th for the establishment and maintenance of range lights and buoys at thirty-five different points on the Willamette river, between the cities of Salem and Portland. The bill states in preamble that the interests of commerce and navigation require these lights, and the bill that there be appropriated for the purpose of establishing and maintaining these range lights and buoys the same to be expended under the direction of the secretary of the treasury. This would be a grand help to navigation, and the bill should pass.

GOOD THINGS.—The number of good things in sight for Salem for 1892 is growing every day. New manufacturing plants are shaping up every day. This city cannot afford to oppress her manufacturing interests in their infancy, and will not do it. Salem should follow a broad policy of encouragement to all enterprises that will employ labor. Our leading citizens and board of trade should unite to grasp every good thing in sight and lend a helping hand to make it as easy as possible for large investments of capital to get a foothold.

HERE'S LUCK.—THE JOURNAL wishes all its readers a merry Christmas and the rest of the public the same. No paper will be issued on Christmas day, as the score of people working at this office are always entitled to enjoy their holidays.

COMPLETE!

Our Stock of goods for the Holiday trade is now complete in every department. We have just opened the largest line of fancy Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs ever shown in Salem. No matter what you want in the Dry Goods line see us before purchasing. We are the sole agents for the W. C. C. Corsets and the Gerster and Napoleon Kid Gloves.

T. HOLVERSON.

The Journal's Christmas Greeting.

Here's a merry Christmas to you all, rich and poor, great and small! To the Croesus in his mansion rich and rare, To the worker in his cottage with no room to spare; To the freeman in his castle, master of his home, To the prisoner at the pen with no liberty to roam;

To the magnate with his millions and silken couch for bed, To the tramp without his dinner and nowhere to lay his head. THE JOURNAL sends a "God bless you" and give you what you need, And may each man be a better man for each word that here you read. Let us make the day a merry one, That it comes but once a year And may its influence bring us To all human kind more near. If we cannot do good to each other on earth, That day was a vain one that brought us our birth.

FUN ALIVE.—All the old sports, the young sports, and everybody who enjoys good fun will attend the grand turkey shoot at the East State street brick yard tomorrow. All kinds of good poultry and an excellent beef will be shot off. There are some big prizes in store for the good shooters.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

ILLUMINATION.—According to his time-honored custom, Master Butcher E. C. Cross will burn a box of candles this Christmas eve, illuminating his grand holiday display of meats. The spread and decorations are equal to anything shown in metropolitan markets. It will be one of the Christmas sights, and will be free to all.

MORGELLAN ARRIVAL.—Joy came to the home of Lee H., Wednesday night, Mrs. Ho giving birth to a son, the first that has ever come to Lee. There is quite a juvenile population to the Chinese houses of this block, and the latest arrival is adding not a little to the music they make.

The World Enriched.
The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Serrap of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

A PRACTICAL GIFT.—Mothers make your daughters independent by giving them as a Christmas present the price of the course of instruction in the Kellogg Tailor System of cutting, draping and cutting. School opens Dec. 24th. B. E. Hyde, 147 Morrison street, Portland, general agent. 12-24-1m False in One, False in All.

THE ENGLISH OF A LATIN PROVERB APPLIED TO A CONCERN WHICH IS NOW IN BUSINESS.

A Business started upon shams, must resort to shams, or retire.

The Royal Baking Powder Company garbled official documents to give it standing.

For this it was publicly branded.

The Food and Dairy Commissioner of Ohio caught the Royal Baking Powder Company in the act of misquoting his report, to make its goods appear unadulterated.

The same Company stole the livery of the Board of Health of the State of New York and went on dress parade in the garment.

The Board exposed this. When the apparel was removed of course the deformity was left alone.

Then the Royal Baking Powder Company resorted to constructing a speaking machine.

It called this machine "A Government Chemist." When it mouthed its words to order, the Royal Company quoted the same and passed them around. These words represented the Royal Baking Powder as pure, etc.

"Government" is a stately word. Like everything good, it is abused by unscrupulous tricksters.

MAKE A NOTE.

There is no such office as that of Government Chemist.

A THOUGHT.

If a concern garbles official state papers, misquotes Boards of Health and Creates Official Mouth-pieces, for its own purposes, what will it do in adulterating its goods?

Dr. Price stands a foe to impure goods and tricky methods of advertising.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only Pure Cream Taster Baking Powder now to be obtained, and the thinking public are finding it out.

Old People.

J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that old or feeble people should take, as the mineral poach which is in every other Sarsaparilla that we know of, is under certain conditions known to be emulating. J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that is truly refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Mrs. Belden an estimable and elderly lady of 80 Mason St., S. E. was for months declining so rapidly as to seriously alarm her family. It got so bad that she was finally afflicted with fainting spells. She writes: "While in that dangerous condition I saw some of the testimonials concerning J. V. S. and sent for a bottle. That marked the turning point. I regained my lost flesh and strength and have not felt so well in years." That was two years ago and Mrs. Belden is well and hearty to-day, and still taking J. V. S.

If you are old or feeble and want to be built up. Ask for
