PHARMACEUTISTS.—Messrs. Louis G. Clarke, W. B. Welch and D. J. Fry who compose the Oregon state board of pharmacy, have just announced the results of their last biennial examination, which was held at Salem Dec. 7th. Eight applicants took the examination, and four were successful. Of these four gentlemen two or more had failed on a previous occasion, but not discouraged, they went home and buckled down to hard study. Thus it can be seen that the work of answering the many intricate questions is not mere play, as many people imagine.

ALL THE MOODY'S.—At the Christmas family reunion at the residence of Hon. Z. F. Moody in Salem there were present the entire family. Seated about the dinner table Mr. and Mrs. Z. F. Moody and Miss Edna Moody, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Moody, of Portland; Will Moody and family, of The Dalles; M. A. and Z. A. Moody, of The Dalles. The entire family had not been together here for a long time and they will all treasure the occasion in memory.

W. R. C. QUILT.—The gentleman guessing the nearest to the number of shot contained in the bottle canvassed for by the ladies of the W. R. C., was Thomas Holman, his guess being 1200, the bottle contained 1209. The ladies return their thanks to the citizens, who helped them by this means to the amount of $31.00, which will forward to the national W. R. C. home for army nurses.

MASONIC NOTICE.—Tomorrow being St. John's day the Masons as a body will go to the St. Paul's Episcopal church at 10:30 a. m. All Masons are invited. The offering will go to a fund already started towards endowing a Masonic bed in the Good Samaritan hospital. The Masons will meet in the lodge room at 10 a. m. and then march to the church. J. H. Ross, W. M.

A NEW FIRM.—F. T. Allen, a long experienced horse shoer has just arrived from the east, and has gone into partnership with Geo. Sprague in the shop opposite State Insurance building. The new firm are prepared to do all kinds of iron and wood work. Satisfaction guaranteed. 12-26-01

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Prof. McElroy left today for Clackamas and Multnomah counties.

A. W. Scott, manager of the Churchhill factory, is reported quite ill today.

C. S. McNally is in Portland on business.

Attorney Kalser is attending a lawsuit at Gervais this afternoon.

Hon. John W. Minto, of Portland, is in the city.

Supt. Kohn of the Northwest stove company, is in Portland.

H. R. Moore, who has been in California of late is in the city, and will go on to Portland.

There is still time to get into the New Year's edition or order papers.

Salem never did have brighter prospects and it should be distinctly the Salem way to encourage this order of things.

Did you make some family or friendly one happy Christmas? There is still time to do so before New Year.

Christmas eve was celebrated in South Salem at the M. E. church in a very happy manner. All report a good time, thanks to the managers.

Sherman Thompson, the jeweler, presented the little folks some beautiful puzzle Christmas cards.

F. N. Gilbert and lady spent Christmas in the northern part of the county, returning today.

There was a large attendance of visitors at the pen Christmas day and a rehearsal for the entertainment.

Fred Dietz of Abbeville, Kas., a JOURNAL reader, has been visiting his relatives near Salem, Joseph Zimmerman and his father, Charles Dietz.

Mrs. W. S. Mott and three little sons left for Portland this afternoon for a few days' visit with the family of A. R. Reed.

There will be no preaching at the Evangelical church tomorrow, owing to the illness of Rev. Bolinger. Sunday school as usual.

Mrs. W. H. Byars and son Rex came up from Portland this morning, and will visit a few days with old-time friends.

Peter McIntyre, a subject of Her Majesty from Scotland, has taken out his citizen papers.

Louis Barze and wife, of Soda-ville, are guests over the holidays at the home of Jas. Aitken. Mr. Barze is one of the leading educators in this part of Oregon.

Grey Hirsch came up from Portland to spend Christmas under the paternal roof.

Private Secretary Ed. Giltner spends the holiday week at St. Helens doing a little duck shooting. But what kind of ducks.

Grandmaster Hayes, of the state grange, is spending the state board of equalization holiday at his farm in Clackamas county.

Geo. C. Will and family are spending a few days at the old home in Corvallis.

Al Herren took the morning train for Solo and other Linn county points.

The Salem yard engine was fixed up Christmas day with evergreens, tinsel and flowers in an enterprising manner, and attracted a great deal of attention.

A good way to begin the New Year in Oregon is to begin with a determined fight for Oregon interests.

Papers have been filed in the Circuit Court at Eugene, whereby Martin J. Thornton sues the city of Cottage Grove for the sum of $7,100, for injuries received etc., on the 18th day of last June from a defective sidewalk.

The first $100 in the hands of the Salem Board of Trade should be promptly invested in Eastern advertising of our city. It would be a good way to begin the New Year.

Salem's Christmas stocking was more nearly crammed full of prosperity and new enterprises in sight for the coming year than ever before in her history.

W. Q. Adams, a former resident of Salem, age 60, is reported to have been badly injured by an emery wheel striking him in the chest, while working in the East Portland chilled plow works.

The O. P. Co. have completed a good drive way from their wharf up to the street, a fact appreciated by drivers and horses.

Dallas Observer: The Democracy of Salem and Marion county are talking of putting in a Democratic paper at Salem. A paper of that persuasion ought certainly to be maintained.

The West Side says: Ed Hutchins, of Salem, finished Ira Smith's residence in Monmouth last week, and it is a beauty. Mr. Hutchins is a first-class workman in every respect, as this and other buildings he has erected in Independence, will show.

Chas. Hellenbrand held No. 3418 for the place that was given away by Krause Bros., the Salem shoe dealers.

THE NEW MARKET OPENED. T. H. Blundell has his fish market and poultry market nicely stocked up, next door to State Insurance Co. office on Chemeketa street. He has a choice lot of turkeys and other poultry which he will deliver to any part of the city. Give him a call.

Newport Times: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bradford and son departed for Corvallis Monday. After a few days in that place they will visit their son who is one of the leading busnessmen of Salem and go from that point to Portland, where they have a daughter, and make her a holiday visit.

In a good old fashioned way did the citizens keep Christmas on Kaiser prairie Thursday evening. The McGinnis Bros., of Salem, played music and Santa Claus was present and made the hearts of the little ones happy with candy and presents.

Christmas eve Judge Strickler, on behalf of the employees, presented E. C. Cross a beautiful silver tea-pot. Marketmaster Cross feels proud of his gift.

Miss Julia Chamberlain, teacher of music in the state university of Washington at Seattle is the guest of her brother, Hon. Martin Chamberlain.

THE GERVAIS SPORTS.—Christmas did not pass off at Gervais without a little festivity in which City Marshal Robt. Johnson and Policeman White were parties of the first part, and Wm. Holzelaw and Joe Dickerson played snipe. While trying to arrest the latter, his p. l., whose translated name means wooden-paw, put in his oar and both declared they could not and would not be taken alive. Weapons were flourished and as a result one sport languished in the Gervais cooler, and Holzelaw was brought up to Salem by Marshal Johnson this morning for safe keeping in the county jail. He will be taken back to be tried Monday and may serve a term in the pen.

THE FOUR HUNDRED.—The party given by the Salem Social Club on Christmas eve, was the society event of the season. Nearly fifty couples were present. Most of the ladies appearing in delicate evening costumes, and making a charming appearance, while the gentlemen wore full dress suits. The music was first class, and on the whole the management earned a huge success. Colored attendants were on hand to assist the ladies and gentlemen in the dressing rooms, and every detail was looked after in the minutest degree. All enjoyed an evening such as is a rare occurrence in Salem social circles. Special credit is due the committee in charge.

GRAND MUSICAL.—Next Wednesday evening will witness in Salem a rich musical treat, the Willamette University Alumni concert under direction of Prof. Parvins, manager of the conservatory of music in this city. The program will contain many rich numbers. Miss Hallie Parrish, of Portland, will sing some songs she has never rendered here before. Miss Stratton, of Albany, Miss Stafer of Turner, and Salem singers and players who have been abroad for years and who have not been much heard here will appear. The management have several celebrities in sight who will be on the program if it is possible to get them.

BANGED TOGETHER.—Christmas day about noon an electric and a horse car collided at the crossing on State street with sufficient force to knock the step off the former and the lamps out of the latter. It seems to have been an unavoidable accident, and no blame attaches to the driver or motor man.

STATE HOUSE NOTES.

Alva Udell of Washington, D. C., was a caller. He is connected with the government land department.

Clerk Geo. W. Davis of the land office went to Shedd's to spend Sunday.

Deputy F. W. Dillard and assistant from Douglas declared Bertha Barney, a woman declared insane at Roseburg, for detention at the asylum. Elizabeth Reiben of Hillsboro, was brought late Christmas eve to remain at the same institution.

John H. Johnson, the Astoria man who was sentenced three years for stealing a few salmon was pardoned on Christmas eve. "He has suffered sufficient punishment for the crime proved," says the communication signed by the governor.

The World Enriched. The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-tide or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Old People.

J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that old or feeble people should take, as the mineral potash which is in every other Sarsaparilla that we know of, is under certain conditions known to be enervating. J. V. S. on the contrary is purely vegetable and stimulates digestion and creates new blood, the very thing for old delicate or broken down people. It builds them up and prolongs their lives. A case in point:

Mrs. Belden an estimable and elderly lady of 500 Mason St., S. F. was for months declining so rapidly as to seriously alarm her family. It got so bad that she was finally afflicted with fainting spells. She writes: "While in that dangerous condition I saw some of the testimonials concerning J. V. S. and sent for a bottle. That marked the turning point. I regained my lost flesh and strength and have not felt so well in years." That was two years ago and Mrs. Belden is well and hearty to-day, and still taking J. V. S.

Geo. E. Good, the druggist, takes especial pleasure in supplying his customers with the best medicines obtainable. Among the many excellent preparations on his shelves may be mentioned Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a favorite during the winter months on account of the great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or so promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency towards pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity.
